This report lists 5527 descendants of a Senoke who probably lived in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England during the early to mid 1500's. Individuals from the first four generations of his family are variously named Senocke (8 instances), Sennocke (1), Sevenocke (7), Senoke (10), Zenoke (6), Senock (1), Sevenock (1), Synnocke (1), Sinnock (8), Sinnocke (1), Senock (1), Sennock (2), and Sennocke (2). "Senoke" the most abundant surname of his likely descendants is used in the document title. This report was generated by the Sinnocks and Kin database developed using commercially available Family Tree Maker genealogical software. At present this software program is maintained by Ancestry.com. For details about the database see the companion document, Sinnocks and Kin Database Description. For all 5527 descendants and their spouses, at least their names and birth dates are given below. Other facts are described as available. For some individuals, conjectures were made in assigning individuals to parents, children, or spouses. For most of these cases the reasons are described in the "Notes" sections. For better understanding of relationships I refer the reader to the database itself and to an extraction in a companion document, Sinnock Family History. Both are available either (1) as a CD from the Quincy library or (2) as a downloadable file from www.sinnock.org on the internet. This document is primarily for archival purposes.

Generation 1

1. ?¹ SENOKE¹⁻³ was born or baptized about 1505 in England¹.

Notes for ? Senoke:

This individual, or perhaps individuals, is the likely progenitor of thousands of Sinnocks and related persons. He does not appear in any record I am aware of, except perhaps as death entries for Christofer Senoke, 24 Nov 1559 and Robert Senocke, 20 Apr 1569 in the Eastbourne, St. Mary's Parish Register. However, his presence is inferred from the fact that several families of Senocke's were having children in Eastbourne at the time the parish registers started recording baptisms and burials in about 1540. I assume the heads of these individual Senocke families (Mathew, John, and William, not the Gospels, but close) were siblings, which may not be true; this individual is the assumed father of these family heads who appear as the first family entries in the Eastbourne Parish Register as parents of children baptized in the 1560's - 1560's. I also assume this person is the parent of Senocke participants in marriages in Eastbourne at about the time, 1570 (Thomas and Jane) or persons who died at about the same time (Christofer and Robert), though as mentioned above, Christofer or Robert may be this individual rather than sons. Through 11 generations, this person's or persons' descendants lead to me and at least 6300 other descendants. But with this person the ancestry trail grows cold, and enters the period before parish registers when only money matters were recorded, and those usually for only the upper classes. So our search for direct lineage ends here in the Weald of the southern English coast in the early 1500's. Sinnocks and their ancestors are indeed an ancient family, tracing to the very origins of commoner's genealogical records. The trail back to this person is relatively clear except for a few bumps along the way. Some of the branches of his descendants are a little more speculative than others and based on many inputs from official records to personal knowledge. I am sure other interpretations of the Sinnock ancestry in Sussex, England, are possible, but based on careful examination of the record I propose this individual or several with the same or similar names from the Eastbourne area of southern England are the ancestors of many Sinnock in England as well as the United States, and a few in Canada, New Zealand, and one, it seems, in Australia. Perhaps, as indicated in this database, this person is the same as John Senocke who married Margaret Meriall in Goudhurst, Kent, near a likely family of Senocke's in neaby Lamberhurst, Kent and Ticehurst, East Sussex, all about twenty miles inland from Eastbourne. These two families may be related. Several family databases on Ancestry.com list the wife John Senoke who died in Eastbourne as Margerett Meriall, by evidence of Tyler's Index listing of her marriage in Goudhurst, Kent. So much conjecture from so little fact.

Name Notes:

Names associated with the first four generations of this assumed family from the Eastbourne Parish Register from 1570 to 1690 are: Senocke (8 instances), Sennocke (1), Sevenocke (7), Senoke (10), Zenoke (6), Senock (1), Sevenock (1), Synnocke (1), Sinnock (8), Sinnocke (1), Senock (1), Sennock (2), and Sennocke (2). For the family name used to help decide among alternative spellings in the register to enter here, I use "Senoke" as the most abundantly used name in the first 4 generations.

 - i. MATHEW² SENOCKE³⁻⁵ was born or baptized about 1535 in England¹. He died on 29 Mar 1574 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴). He married GRACE (SENOCKE) ?. She was born or baptized about 1540¹. She died on 18 Mar 1574 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).
 - ii. CHRISTOFER SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized before 1540 in England⁶. He died on 24 Nov 1559 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).

Christofer Senoke⁴⁻⁵ died on 24 Nov 1560 in Bodiam, East Sussex, England⁵. He was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴).

Notes for Christofer Senoke:

Though his parentage is unknown, I assume Christofer, who, according to the first entry in the Eastbourne Parish Register for a Sinnock ancestor, died on 24 Nov 1559 (or in Bodiam on the same date in 1560 according to the IGI) is a son of ? Senoke; an assumed father of 7 assumed siblings, including Christofer, who were either married, had children, or died, as Christofer, in Eastbourne in the mid to late 1500's. Christofer may be ? Senoke, the assumed father rather than the son, or he may even be a child of Mathew, Thomas, or John Senocke whose baptism was not recorded, unlikely that. Thus, I assume Robert and Christofer are brothers among the other children of ? Senoke, but with only death information for both these people it is impossible to tell how or if they were related. The same burials and deaths were recorded in the Eastbourne St. Mary's Register, indicating the "brothers" lived in Eastbourne, not Bodiam, some 25 or thirty miles northeast of Eastbourne where the IGI records their death (Christofer) or burial (Robert). I record here both death pairs for each brother, though I tend to place more credence in the parish register than the IGI which, in this case, is probably derived from the parish register.

Birth Notes:

Christofer death is reported in the parish register without mention of his parents, so I assume he was an adult when he died in 1559 of at least 14 years old 3.

 - iii. JOHN SENOCKE^{2, 4-5, 7-8} was born or baptized about 1540 in England⁹⁻¹⁰. He died on 27 Aug 1604 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴). He married Margaret Meriall on 25 Jul 1564 in Goudhurst, Kent, England⁶. She was born or baptized about 1545¹⁰.
4.
 - iv. WYLLAYM SENOCKE^{5, 11} was born or baptized about 1540 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England¹¹.
5.
 - v. THOMAS SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized about 1545 in England¹. He married (1) MARGRETT GREEN on 31 Jan 1570 in

Generation 1 (con't)

Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She was born or baptized about 1545¹. He married (2) JOANE LEWES on 08 Oct 1565 in Worth, West Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1550¹².

- vi. JANE SENOCKE⁴ was born or baptized about 1545 in England¹. She married Edward Ingram on 21 Jul 1570 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴). He was born or baptized about 1545¹.

Notes for Jane Senocke:

I assume Jane is a daughter of ? Senoke; an assumed father of 7 assumed siblings who were either married, as Jane, had children, or died in the Eastbourne area in the mid to late 1500's.

- vii. ROBERT SENOCKE⁵ was born or baptized before 1550 in England⁶. He died on 18 Apr 1569 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴⁻⁵).

Robert Senocke⁵ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's^{4-5, 7}).

Notes for Robert Senocke:

I assume Robert, who, according to the Eastbourne Parish Register, died on 18 Apr 1559 (or in Bodiam two days later according to the IGI) is a son of ? Senoke; an assumed father of 7 assumed siblings who were either married, had children, or died, as Robert, in Eastbourne in the mid to late 1500's. Robert may be ? Senoke, the assumed father rather than the son, or he may even be a child of Mathew Senocke, Thomas, or John Senoke, whose baptism was not recorded, unlikely that. Thus, I assume Robert and Christofer are brothers among the other children of ? Senoke, but with only death information for both these people it is impossible to tell how or if they were related. The same burials and deaths were recorded in the Eastbourne St. Mary's Register, indicating the "brothers" lived in Eastbourne, not Bodiam, some 25 or thirty miles northeast of Eastbourne where the IGI records their death (Christofer) or burial (Robert). I record here both death pairs for each brother, though I tend to place more credence in the parish register than the IGI which, in this case, is probably derived from the parish register.

Birth Notes:

The parish register lists Robert death in 1569 without mention of his parents, so I assume he was an adult of at least 19 at the time of his death

Death Notes:

The IGI indicates Robert's death on April 20, 1569

6. viii. WILLIAM SYNNOCKE^{4-5, 13} was born or baptized about 1550 in England⁹. He married FLORENCE (SYNNOCKE) ?. She was born or baptized about 1550¹⁴. She died on 20 Nov 1591 in Alfriston, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁵).

Generation 2

2. MATHEW² SENOCKE (?¹ Senoke)³⁻⁵ was born or baptized about 1535 in England¹. He died on 29 Mar 1574 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴). He married GRACE (SENOCKE) ?. She was born or baptized about 1540¹. She died on 18 Mar 1574 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).

Mathew Senocke³⁻⁵ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.

Notes for Mathew Senocke:

Mathew Senocke had six children in Eastbourne from 1560 to 1573. The baptismal entries for these children are among the first of any Sinnock ancestors in the parish records. Mathew's parentage is unknown, but I assume he is a son of ? Senoke; an assumed father of 7 assumed siblings, including Mathew, who were married, had children, as Mathew, or died in the Eastbourne area in the mid to late 1500's. Thus, I assume Mathew, John, and William are brothers who had families in Eastbourne in the mid to late 1500's, but with only burial dates and dates of their children's baptisms available, it is impossible to tell how or if any of these supposed siblings were related. Similarity and rarity of last names, though varied, used in the parish register for baptism and death entries of these families, common location in Eastbourne (Bishopstone for William), and similar dates of the childrens' baptisms and deaths suggest to me that it is likely that at least two or perhaps several of the children listed here of ? Senoke were indeed siblings.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled variously in the Eastbourne parish register as "Senocke" (4), "Senoke" (1), "Sevenocke" (1), and "Sennocke" (1)

Death Notes:

Mathew died just 11 days after his wife, Grace, perhaps from a plague, because they were both young, about 39 for him and about 34 for her and their children ranged in age from 3 to 10 when their parents died.

Grace (Senocke) ?⁴ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.

Mathew Senocke and Grace (Senocke) ? had the following children:

- i. DORITY³ SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 21 Jul 1560 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵).
7. ii. AGNES SEVENOCKE⁴ was born or baptized on 09 May 1564 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). She died on 11 Sep 1602 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's⁴). She married (1) JOHN LEVER on 09 Oct 1581 in Eastbourne, East Sussex,

Generation 2 (con't)

England⁴. He was born or baptized about 1560¹. He died on 28 Apr 1589 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She married (2) RICHARD PAYNE on 29 Jan 1592 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. He was born or baptized about 1560¹.

- iii. THOMAS SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 03 Feb 1566 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He died on 04 Mar 1571 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).

Thomas Senocke⁴⁻⁵ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴).

Notes for Thomas Senocke:

Birth Notes:

IGI gives birth date as 3 Feb 1566 and the parish register as 3 Feb 1567

- 8. iv. EMANUELL SENNOCK^{4-5, 16-17} was born or baptized on 19 Jun 1569 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He died on 22 Nov 1619 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁷). He married Agnes White on 30 Jun 1598 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 17}). She was born or baptized about 1575¹. She died on 06 Jul 1607 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Clement's¹⁷).
 - v. MARY SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 24 Feb 1570 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵).
- Notes for Mary Senocke:
- I assume Mary is a daughter of Mathew and Grace, but she may have been a daughter of Thomas and Margaret Green. The entry for her christening in the parish register does not identify her parents. Mathew and Grace had other children at this time in Eastborne, and Thomas and Margaret were married in Eastbourne about one year before Mary's Christening. I chose Mathew and Grace because she nicely fits into a sequence of their children every two or so years.
- 9. vi. JOHN SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 30 Aug 1573 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He married Johane Augur on 26 Oct 1603 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She was born or baptized about 1575¹.
 - 10. vii. HENRY SENNOCK^{5, 17} was born or baptized in 1576 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's⁵). He died on 28 Apr 1608 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Clement's¹⁷). He married Parnell Vennell on 20 Apr 1601 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷). She was born or baptized about 1580¹⁴.
3. JOHN² SENOKE (?¹2, 4-5, 7-8) was born or baptized about 1540 in England⁹⁻¹⁰. He died on 27 Aug 1604 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴). He married Margaret Meriall on 25 Jul 1564 in Goudhurst, Kent, England⁸. She was born or baptized about 1545¹⁰.

Image: (descendant tree) He was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Notes for John Senoke:

John Senoke had seven children in Eastbourne from 1569 to 1588. The baptismal entries for these children are among the first of any Sinnock ancestors in the parish records. John's parentage is unknown, but I assume he is a son of ? Senoke; an assumed father of 7 assumed siblings, including John, who were married, had children, as John, or died in the Eastbourne area in the mid to late 1500's. Thus, I assume Mathew, John, and William are brothers who had families in Eastbourne in the mid to late 1500's, but with only burial dates and dates of their children's baptisms available, it is impossible to tell how or if any of these supposed siblings were related. Similarity and rarity of last names, though varied, used in the parish register for baptism and death entries of these families, common location in Eastbourne (Bishopstone for William), and similar dates of the childrens' baptisms and deaths suggest to me that it is likely that at least two or perhaps several of the children listed here of ? Senoke were indeed siblings.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Senocke" in the IGI; and "Senocke" (1), "Senoke" (3), "Sevenocke" (2), "Zenoke (1)" in the parish register; and "Senocke" in the Tyler's Kent Marriage Index. I use "Senoke" as the most abundantly used and as the standardized family name.

Marriage Notes: (Margarett)

I assume John Senoke, buried in Eastbourne according to the parish register is the same as John Senocke who married Margaret Meriall in Goudhurst, Kent according to Tyler's Index.

John Senoke and Margaret Meriall had the following children:

- i. JULYAN³ SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 10 Oct 1569 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He died on 11 Feb 1611 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).

Julyan Senocke⁴⁻⁵ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴).

Notes for Julyan Senocke:

Birth entry in the parish register reads "Julyan the supposed bastard of John Senocke christened" and the death entry reads "Julian the bastard of John Senock buried". It must have been quite a scandal if they were still calling Julian (Julyan) a bastard at his burial even after 41 years.

Generation 2 (con't)

- ii. WILLIAM SEVENOCKE⁴ was born or baptized on 01 Jan 1576 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴).

Notes for William Sevenocke:
A possible cousin, William Synnocke, was born about the same time in nearby Bishopstone, to, I assume here, John's assumed brother, William.
 - iii. JOHN SEVENOCKE⁴ was born or baptized on 22 Feb 1579 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He died on 18 Jun 1579 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).

John Sevenocke⁴ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.
 - 11. iv. CHRISTOFER SINNOCK⁴ was born or baptized on 17 Apr 1580 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He died on 01 Aug 1651 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴). He married Mary Wrenn on 21 Jan 1611 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She was born or baptized about 1585¹. She died on 02 Jul 1633 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).
 - 12. v. JOHN SEVENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 01 Jan 1583 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He died on 01 Jul 1675 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴). He married Mary Godfrey on 06 Jan 1611 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴⁻⁵. She was born or baptized about 1585¹. She died on 13 Jun 1632 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England¹⁸.
 - vi. THOMAS SEVENOCKE⁴ was born or baptized on 21 Nov 1585 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴).
 - vii. JONE SENOKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 15 Sep 1588 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). She married John Roper on 29 Oct 1620 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He was born or baptized about 1585¹.
4. WYLLAYM² SENOKE (?¹)^{5, 11} was born or baptized about 1540 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England¹¹.

Notes for Wyllaym Senoke:

Wyllaym appears as the father of several children in the the area just south of Tunbridge Wellst, Kent. He is the apparent progenitor of a separate family of Sennocks, the most common spelling, though many name variants appear among his descendants. Several generations of his 858 known descendants stayed in this general area, including clusters in Ticehurst, Groombridge, and Withyam, East Sussex as well as Lamberhurst, Tonbridge, and Brenchley, Kent. Descendants with other family names also populated this general area, including Manktelows, Featherstones, Styles and others. Perhaps he is related to the Eastbourne Sinnocks as a sibling, having about the same estimated birth dates, however, I don't think this likely. Ticehurst, where he had children, was far from Eastbourne in 1550, nearly 20 miles. One son, Wyllaym migrated to the East Grinstead area just north of Brighton, also 20 or so miles, and there raised a family with descendants.

Wyllaym Senoke had the following children:

- i. STEVEN³ SENOKE^{5, 11} was born or baptized on 12 Jul 1571 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). He died on 22 Jul 1571 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England⁵.
- ii. MARGERY SENNOCK⁵ was born or baptized about 1575 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England¹. She married John Gutsall on 17 May 1602 in Lamberhurst, Kent, England⁵. He was born or baptized about 1570¹.

Notes for Margery Sennock:

I assume "Mgy Sennock" who married John Gutsall in Lamberhurst, Kent according to the now defunct International Genealogical Index is the daughter of Wyllaym Senoke who had other children in nearby Ticehurst, East Sussex at the same time "Margery" would have been born if she were 20 to 25 years old or so at the time of her marriage (I assumed 27 years old here to yield a rounded birth year), because of the rarity of the similar names, geographic proximity, and potentially compatible ages.

Notes for John Gutsall:

last name also spelled "Gutsell"

- 13. iii. JON SENOKE^{5, 19} was born or baptized on 15 Oct 1576 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). He married Mariam Fishenden on 13 Aug 1600 in Lamberhurst, Kent, England^{5, 19}. She was born or baptized about 1575¹⁴.
- 14. iv. WYLLAYM SENOKE^{5, 11} was born or baptized on 30 Aug 1579 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵).
- v. MARY SENNOCKE^{5, 19} was born or baptized about 1585 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England¹. She married Richard Brooker in 1608 in Lamberhurst, Kent, England¹⁹. He was born or baptized about 1580¹⁴.

Notes for Mary Sennocke:

I assume Mary Sennocke, who married Richard Brooker in Lamberhurst is the sister of Jon, Margery, Wyllaym and other children of Wyllaym Senoke, because of rarity of the last name (variants notwithstanding), geographic proximity of Ticehurst where Wyllaym's other children were born and Lamberhurst only 4 miles away, just across the current Sussex-Kent border now occupied by a reservoir, compatible ages, and no other similar name variants anywhere near.

- 5. THOMAS² SENOCKE (?¹ Senoke)⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized about 1545 in England¹. He married (1) MARGRETT GREEN on 31 Jan 1570 in

Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She was born or baptized about 1545¹. He married (2) JOANE LEWES on 08 Oct 1565 in Worth, West Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1550¹².

Notes for Thomas Senocke:

I assume Thomas is the son of ? Senoke; an assumed father of 7 assumed siblings who were either married, as Thomas, had children, or died in the Eastbourne area in the mid to late 1500's. I also assume Thomas married all three: Marye Bigges, Margaret Green, and Joane Lewes. If so, Thomas may have moved around a bit, first to Worth about 15 miles northwest of Eastbourne, back to Eastbourne, then to Hastings, about 12 miles east late in life with his brother Emmanuel, and perhaps brother, Henry.

Thomas Senocke and Margrett Green had the following child:

15. i. THOMAS³ SENNOCK^{5, 17, 20-21} was born or baptized about 1580 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints⁵). He died on 17 May 1615 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁷). He married (1) JANE MAYLBORNE on 08 May 1605 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 17}). She was born or baptized about 1575¹. She died on 07 Aug 1607 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁷). He married (2) MARYE BIGGES on 02 Jun 1601 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints^{5, 21-22}). She was born or baptized about 1575¹⁴. She died on 26 Apr 1602 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁷). He married (3) AGNES REEVE on 16 Aug 1602 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 17}). She was born or baptized about 1575¹. She died on 16 Jan 1605 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁷). He married (4) ELIZABETH DIVALL on 21 Aug 1608 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 17}). She was born or baptized about 1575¹.
6. WILLIAM² SYNNOCKE (?¹ Senoke)^{4-5, 13} was born or baptized about 1550 in England⁹. He married FLORENCE (SYNNOCKE) ?. She was born or baptized about 1550¹⁴. She died on 20 Nov 1591 in Alfriston, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁵).

Notes for William Synnocke:

William Synnocke, who, according to the Bishopstone Parish register, raised a family with wife, Florence, there in the late 1500's, is, I assume, William Senocke, father of Elizabeth in nearby Eastbourne (about 8 miles up the coast) because of the name similarity and rarity, proximity, and compatible ages of the children. I also assume this William, whose children were born in Bishopstone, is the son of ? Senoke, whose other assumed children were married, had their own children, or died in Eastbourne, in compatible years. Thus, I assume Mathew, John, and William are brothers who had families in Eastbourne (Bishopstone for William) in the mid to late 1500's, but with only burial dates and dates of their children's baptisms available, it is impossible to tell how or if any of these supposed siblings were related. Similarity and rarity of last names, though varied, used in the parish register for baptism and death entries of these families, common location in Eastbourne (Bishopstone for William), and similar dates of the childrens' baptisms and deaths suggest to me that it is likely that at least two or perhaps several of the people listed here as children of ? Senoke were indeed siblings. However, this William could also be the same as Wyllaym Senoke raising a family in somewhat further away in Ticehurst (20 miles). He may be neither; he may be an independent Bishopstone representative of perhaps a more distant common ancestor, perhaps not. In any event, William is one of the first Sinnock name variants to appear in the parish registers I have inspected, and is surprisingly close to Eastbourne, an apparent hub of early Sinnock ancestors.

Florence (Synnocke) ?¹⁵ was buried in Alfriston, East Sussex, England¹⁵.

Notes for Florence (Synnocke) ?:

I assume Florence is the wife of William because of the same spelling of her name in the Alfriston Parish Register, the proximity of Alfriston to Bishopstone where William had children, and the date of her death in 1591 after William's last child, John, was born in 1589

William Synnocke and Florence (Synnocke) ? had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH³ SENOCKE⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 09 May 1574 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptised at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). She died on 26 Feb 1636 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She married John Lukman on 28 Nov 1611 in Lewes, East Sussex, England (All Saints⁵). He was born or baptized about 1570²³.

Notes for Elizabeth Senocke:

I assume Elizabeth Sinnock who married John Lukeman in Lewes in 1611 is the same person as Elizabeth Senocke, born to William and Florence Synnocke in nearby Eastbourne in 1574, indicating a marriage age of about 37.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Senocke" in the Eastbourne Parish Register and Sinnock in the now defunct IGI

16. ii. WILLIAM SYNNOCKE¹³ was born or baptized on 10 Jun 1577 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹³).
- iii. MARY SYNNOCKE¹³ was born or baptized on 23 Aug 1579 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹³).
- iv. FLORENCE SYNNOCKE¹⁵ was born or baptized about 1580 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England¹.

Notes for Florence Synnocke:

Joan Synnocke^{7, 13} was buried in High Ham, Somerset, England (St. Andrew's⁷).

Generation 2 (con't)

Notes for Joan Synnocke:

I assume Joan Synnocke, born in 1581, is the same person as Joan Synnocke, buried in 1635 because of rarity of the first and last names together and compatible dates.

- vi. ALES SYNNOCKE¹³ was born or baptized on 09 May 1585 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹³).
- vii. JOHN SYNNOCKE¹³ was born or baptized on 24 Mar 1587 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England¹³. He died before 1589 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England²³.

John Synnocke¹³ was baptized on 20 Jun 1589 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England¹³.

Notes for John Synnocke:

Death Notes:

Two John's were born to William and Florence, this and one born June 20, 1589, so I conclude the first John, this one, died before the second was born.

Generation 3

- 7. AGNES³ SEVENOCKE (Mathew² Senocke, ?¹ Senocke)⁴ was born or baptized on 09 May 1564 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴).  - ii. ELIZABETH LEVER⁴ was born or baptized on 21 Mar 1585 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She died on 31 Mar 1585 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.
 - iii. MARGARETT LEVER⁴ was born or baptized on 25 Aug 1588 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.
- 8. EMANUELL³ SENNOCK (Mathew² Senocke, ?¹ Senocke)^{4-5, 16-17} was born or baptized on 19 Jun 1569 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He died on 22 Nov 1619 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁷). He married Agnes White on 30 Jun 1598 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 17}). She was born or baptized about 1575¹. She died on 06 Jul 1607 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Clement's¹⁷).

Migration: 1598 (Intra County, East Sussex (Eastbourne to Hastings)²³) He was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷).

Notes for Emanuell Sennock:

From 1603 to 1608, Emanuel and Agnes had five children die, aged 1 month to 5 years, two as infants less than a month old.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Sennock" in the IGI, "Senocke" in the Eastbourne parish register and "Sennock", "Senocke" "Sennocke" and "Senock" in the Hastings parish register

Birth Notes:

Emanuel's birth year is given as 1573 in the IGI.

Migration Notes:

I assume Emanuell, born in Eastbourne, lived there with his family until 1598 when he moved to Hastings to marry Agnes White

Marriage Notes: (Agnes)

IGI gives marriage date as 30 Jun 1598

Emanuell Sennock and Agnes White had the following children:

She married (2) GEORGE ROBERTS on 05 Sep 1636 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints^{5, 19, 21}). He was born or baptized about 1595¹⁴.

Alice Sennock¹⁷ was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷).

Notes for Alice Sennock:

The IGI gives Alice's birth and death year as 1602, same dates. Since the IGI is derived in part from the parish registers, I place more credence in the parish register data, although I could have introduced transcription errors when I transferred the original parish registers or their transcript, first to a handwritten list copied from microfilms of the parish register transcripts, themselves often in error as transcriptions from the original registers or from other transcriptions, then finally keyboard entry from that list to a Microsoft Word document which I now consult for parish register records. However many sources, including the IGI, have gone through the same process of handwritten list to computer table, so errors introduced by me to different information sources cancel each other out, and we're left with the relative reliability of the original sources, where, as a general rule, the more original source is to be preferred.

- iv. JAMES SENNOCK^{5, 17} was born or baptized on 20 May 1604 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Clement's^{5, 17}). He died on 08 Jun 1604 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁷).

This John Sennock maybe the John Sennocke who married Doritie Neave

- vi. JOAN SENNOCK^{5, 17} was born or baptized on 07 Jan 1607 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Clement's^{5, 17}). She died on 14 Feb 1607 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{5, 17}).

Joan Sennock^{5, 17} was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷).

9. JOHN³ SENOCKE (Mathew², ?¹ Senoke)⁴⁻⁵ was born or baptized on 30 Aug 1573 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He married Johane Augur on 26 Oct 1603 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She was born or baptized about 1575¹.

He married Parnell Vennell on 20 Apr 1601 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷). She was born or baptized about 1580¹⁴.

Henry Sennock^{5, 17} was also known as "Harry"¹⁷.

Notes for Henry Sennock:

I assume Henry is a son of Mathew and Grace because of the rarity of the name, the same last name spelling as their other children, and the Hastings location his birth and death, the same location as many of the presumed siblings children. It appears Mathew may have moved to Hastings, where he and Grace had their last child, Henry. Their family then grew up there and many of Mathew and Grace's grandchildren were born there.

Henry Sennock and Parnell Vennell had the following children:

17. i. JOAN⁴ SENNOCK^{5, 17} was born or baptized on 12 Dec 1601 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Clement's^{5, 17}). Notes for John Sennock:

This John Sennock maybe the John Sennocke who married Doritie Neave

11. CHRISTOFER³ SINNOCK (John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)⁴ was born or baptized on 17 Apr 1580 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He died on 01 Aug 1651 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴). He married Mary Wrenn on 21 Jan 1611 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She was born or baptized about 1585¹. She died on 02 Jul 1633 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴).

Christofer Sinnock⁴ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴).

Notes for Christofer Sinnock:

Christofer's parentage "Christopher the sonne of John Sevenocke christened", marriage "Christofer Sevenock and Mary Wrenn wyddow married", children (Nicholas, Elias, Mary, Constance, and Richard) and death "Christofer Sinnock an aged man was buried" are well established in the Eastbourne Parish Register. Christofer, through various spellings of his last name in the register, represents one a single link between several spellings of the Sinnock-Senoke name, including rare links to the Sevenoak (Sevenock, Sevenocke) family of names. Baptismal entries for his children also account for all occurrences I have found for variations on the last name that start with "Z"; "Zenoke", "Zeanoke" and "Zeanoak".

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sevenocke", and "Sevenock" in the IGI and "Zenoke", "Zeanoke", "Zeanoak", "Senoke", "Senoak", "Sevenocke" and "Sinnock" in the Eastbourne parish register. His birth entry is for "Sevenocke", as for most of his siblings. Only his death entry uses the spelling "Sinnock", though I use that name here to standardize the family name that can be traced uninterrupted from Christofer through many generations of Sinnocks. Christofer's death entry on 1 Aug 1651 is the first record of the "Sinnock" spelling I have found in Eastbourne, and, in all England except for one entry in the Hastings, St. Clement's Parish, 16 Jan 1605, "Agnes wife of Thomas Sinnock buried" and another entry in the IGI for the 23 Apr 1606 christening of Marye Sinnock, daughter of James, in Cornhill, London.

Mary Zenoke⁴ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴).

18. iii. ELIAS SINNOCK^{2, 4-5, 25} was born or baptized on 29 Aug 1613 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He died on 21 Feb 1690 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's⁴). He married Margery Frankwell on 11 Oct 1649 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴. She was born or baptized about 1615⁹. Constance Senoke^{4, 23} was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴).

Notes for Constance Senoke:

Generation 3 (con't)

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Zenoke" in the Eastbourne parish register.

19. v. RICHARD SENOKE^{4-5, 7} was born or baptized on 10 Apr 1622 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He died on 17 Mar 1676 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.

She was born or baptized about 1585¹. She died on 13 Jun 1632 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England¹⁸.

John Sevenocke⁴⁻⁵ was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Notes for John Sevenocke:

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Senoke" in the IGI and "Sevenocke" in the Eastbourne parish register

Notes for Jon Senoke:

I assume Jon Senoke born in Ticehurst is the same person as John Sennock who 24 years later married Mariam Feshenden in nearby Lamberhurst (about 3 miles as the crow flies, 6 around the lake) because of the rarity of the similar names, geographic proximity and compatible ages.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Senoke", like his father in his birth entry, "Sennock" in Boyds Marriage Index, assuming it is the same person.

Marriage Notes: (Mariam)

An earlier reference to the International Genalogical Index which I cannot retrieve gave a marriage date of 13 August 1600. Boyds marriage index just gives the year of 1600.

Jon Senoke and Mariam Fishenden had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH⁴ SENNOCK¹⁹ was born or baptized about 1595 in England¹⁴. She married John Dunster in 1620 in Lamberhurst, Kent, England¹⁹. He was born or baptized about 1600¹⁴.
- Notes for Elizabeth Sennock:
I assume ElizabethSennock who married in Lamberhurst, Kent according to Boyd's Marriage Index is a daughter of Jon Senoke (last name also spelled "Sennock" in Boyd's Marriage Index with his marriage to Mariam Fishendan who had children in nearby Ticehurst, East Sussex because of the rarity of the last name, geographic proximity and potentially compatible ages, assuming Elizabeth was 25 or so years old at her marriage. However she could be a young daughter of Wyllaym, her grandfather listed here, or she may even be unrelated.
20. ii. JOHN SENNOCK⁵ was born or baptized about 1600 in England¹⁴. He married Doritie Neave on 19 Nov 1625 in Withyham, East Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1605¹⁴.

She was born or baptized about 1610¹⁴. He married (2) DOROTHY CRACKBONE in 1629 in Lamberhurst, Kent, England¹⁹. She was born or baptized about 1610¹.
14. WYLLAYM³ SENOKE (Wyllaym², ?¹)^{5, 11} was born or baptized on 30 Aug 1579 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵).

Wyllaym Senoke^{5, 11} was baptized on 30 Apr 1579 in Ticehurst, East Sussex, England⁵. Migration: Abt. 1600 (Inter County, East Sussex to West Sussex (Ticehurst to East Grinstead area)¹²)

Notes for Wyllaym Senoke:

Wyllaym, son of Wyllaym moved from the family home in the Ticehurst - Lamberhurst - Tunbridge Wells area along the easter East Sussex - Kent border to the Crawley - East Grinstead - Worth area of West Sussex, just north of Brighton along the western border of East Sussex. His 13 known descendants lived in that area of West Sussexx for two more generations

- i. ELIZABETH⁴ SENOKE was born or baptized on 28 Dec 1616 in Crawley, West Sussex, England.
22. ii. WILLIAM SENNOCK^{5, 11, 26} was born or baptized on 06 Aug 1624 in Crawley, West Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 18}). He died on 01 Mar 1628⁵. He married Susanna Ledger on 06 Aug 1651 in East Grinstead, West Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized on 18 Nov 1621 in East Grinstead, West Sussex, England^{11, 26}.

Thomas Sennock^{5, 17, 20-21} lived in Hastings, East Sussex, England between 1601-1615¹⁷ at. He was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷).

Notes for Thomas Sennock:

I suspect that Thomas is a son of Mathew Senocke and Grace of Eastbourne, and that he moved to Hastings with his brother Emanuel about 1600, both to marry girls from the Hastings area. I do not have sufficient confidence in this association to link Thomas to Mathew, so currently no parents are shown for Thomas

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Sennock" (6), "Senocke" (2), and "Sinnock" (1) in the Hastings register for Thomas' four marriages, his childrens baptisms and burials, and all his wife's deaths. Poor guy had a hard time keeping a wife alive. The entry for his wife, Agnes', burial on 16 Jan 1605 reads "Agnes wife of Thomas Sinnock buried" and is the first use of the name "Sinnock" I have found anywhere.

Residence Notes:

Thomas lived in Hastings at least from 1601, his marriage date, until his death in 1615.

Jane Maylborne^{5, 17} was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷).

Marye Bigges^{5, 21-22} was born or baptized about 1550¹². She was baptized on 26 Apr 1602 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints²²). She was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints¹⁷).

Notes for Marye Bigges:

Mary died just three months after her only child, Thomas, was born, and apparently she had a deathbed conversion and was christened the day she died

Thomas Sennock and Marye Bigges had the following child:

- i. THOMAS⁴ SENOCKE^{20, 22} was born or baptized on 04 Apr 1602 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 22}).

Agnes Reeve^{5, 17} was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's¹⁷).

Notes for Agnes Reeve:

Aparently Agnes, also listed as "Agays" in her marriage entry in the Hastings Parish Register, died from the strain of childbirth, dieing just one month after her daughter Mary died at 3 days old.

Thomas Sennock and Agnes Reeve had the following child:

- ii. MARY SENNOCK^{4-5, 17} was born or baptized on 14 Dec 1604 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴). She died on 17 Dec 1604 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{5, 17}).

Notes for Elias Sinnock:

Elias' parentage "Elias the sonne of Christofer Zeanoke baptized", marriage "Elias Sinnock & Margery Frankwell married", and progeny (John, William, Mary, Nicholas, Elizabeth, Richard, Thomas and Elias) are well established in the Eastbourne Parish Register. Though his name is variously spelled in the parish register entries, Elias is the second person referred to by the spelling "Sinnock" in the Eastbourne area and the first to be consistently so (5 of his 12 entries in the register). The first reference to "Sinnock" is for Elias' father's death entry "Christofer Sinnock an aged man was buried". Descendants of Elias and Margery consistently use the name "Sinnock", so Elias represents a transition from predominantly Senoke and Sennock names to the Sinnock name.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sennock" in the IGI, "Zeanoke", "Sinnock" (5), "Sinnocke", "Senock", "Sennock" (2), "Sennocke", and "Simock" in the Eastbourne Parish Register

Notes for Ann Sinnock:

I assume Ann is a daughter of Elias and Margery because of the rarity of the name, her death in Eastbourne where Elias and Margery's other children were born, a compatible age, if, as likely she died as an infant, born about 1653 or 1654, matching a gap in Elias and Margery's children, and no other known Sinnock families having children in Eastbourne at the time. It is possible that Ann is the widow of an unknown Sinnock, or neither, or anything in between.

Migration: 1693 (Intra County, East Sussex (Eastbourne to Bexhill)²³) He owned 14 windows for which he was taxed 9 shillings in 1747²⁸.

Notes for William Sinnock:

I assume William who married Mary Langford in Bexhill is the same person as the son of Elias Sinnock and Margery Frankwell of Eastbourne based on rarity of the name, proximity of Eastbourne and Bexhill, and compatibility of ages, sort of, assuming William was an old, 41 when he married Mary. However, William may also be a son of John Seanocke of Tonbridge, Kent, though I doubt it.

Name Notes:

From Castle Parish in Hastings, after abt 1708; Name spelled "Sennock" in the IGI and "Senocke" in the parish register. Both these potential "parents" had sons William and Richard about this time.

She was born or baptized about 1720¹⁴.

John Sinnock^{5, 17, 19, 31} was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's³¹).

Notes for John Sinnock:

From Mark Milton: St Clements Church, Hastings; Burial Register Transcriptions 1803 - 1834; John SINNOCK This Parish 28 Feb 1810. I assume this is the same John Sinnock born in Hastings in 1713 because of the rarity of the name, the birth and death location in Hastings geographic, and no other John Sinnocks in Hastings during the time period, though this makes John 97 at his death, unusual but possible.

Notes for Elizabeth Young:

Elizabeth is assumed to be the wife this John Sinnock due to dates, but the only data is Boyd's Index

- 25. NICHOLAS⁵ SINNOCK (Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{4-5, 7, 25, 29-32} was born or baptized on 05 Oct 1658 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). Migration Notes:

Nicholas and Ursula had nine children in Hailsham from 1692 to 1707 so some time before then Nicholas moved to Hailsham, perhaps to marry his bride Ursula who may have been from Hailsham, pure conjecture there. In any event, Nicholas and Ursula are the first Sinnocks recorded in the Hailsham parish register with the baptism of Samuel, their son in 1692

John Sinnock^{7, 27} died on 24 Sep 1713 in Hastings, East Sussex, England¹⁷.

Notes for John Sinnock:

Two death dates and locations are given for John because the Bexhill and Hastings parish registers each recored a death of a John Sinnock to William and Mary Sinnock. Bexhill and Hastings are close (about 5 miles apart) and perhaps John's death and/or burial is recorded in each parish, but one must be in error or there are two families with identical names in the Hastings-Bexhill area.

- ii. RICHARD SINNOCK^{7, 27} was born or baptized on 25 Jan 1696 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 04 Feb 1696 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Peter's^{7, 27}).

35. v. ELIAS SINNOCK^{5, 7, 17, 21, 27, 30, 45-46} was born or baptized on 28 Mar 1708 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 16 Aug 1776 in Ore, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 45}). He married (1) ANNE RICHARDSON, daughter of James Richardson, on 22 Dec 1731 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Married by License, Banns posted at All Saints^{5, 17, 21}). She was born or baptized on 07 Jan 1707 in Liverpool, Lancashire, England^{7, 47}. She died on 26 Jul 1775 in Ore, East Sussex, England⁴⁶. She was born or baptized about 1721 in <of Battle, East Sussex, England>⁵⁰. She died on 15 Feb 1790 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷).
27. THOMAS⁵ SINNOCK (Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{4, 7, 33} was born or baptized on 10 Jan 1667 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He died on 07 Mar 1737 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's⁷). He married Naomi Cooper on 19 Jun 1694 in Friston, East Sussex, England³³. She was born or baptized in 1668 in Sussex, England³⁴. She died on 25 Aug 1738 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

I assume Thomas, christened 10 Jan 1667 as "Thomas son of Elias Sennock & Margery his wife was baptized" in the Eastbourne Parish Register is the same as "Thomas Synnack married Naomi Cooper" 19 Jun 1694 as a 27 year old in Friston, according to that parish register. This link is strengthened because of a third entry, this also in the Eastbourne register for 30 Jun 1695, "Tho ye son of Tho Synock and Naomi his wife bap", suggesting Thomas who married Naomi in Friston was from Eastbourne. Based on that location, the rarity of the name, and compatible ages I assume all these entries are for the same Thomas, son of Elias and Margery.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sennock" in the IGI and "Sennock", "Synock", and "Synnack" in the parish register, and "Sinnock" in the National Burial Index cited in Mark Milton's letter.

Naomi Cooper^{4, 34} was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's^{4, 7}).

Marriage Notes: (Naomi)

It seems that the brothers Thomas and Elias took their brides, Naomi and Katherine, respectively, to Friston, just about 5 miles down the road from Eastbourne, to be married there within a month of each other.

Thomas Sinnock and Naomi Cooper had the following child:

37. i. THOMAS⁶ SENNOCK^{2, 4, 21, 30} was born or baptized on 30 Jun 1695 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He married Elizabeth Looker on 05 Aug 1725 in Willingdon, East Sussex, England^{5, 21}. She was born or baptized about 1700¹. She died on 07 Mar 1736 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.

Elias Sinnock^{4-5, 35-37} owned Purchased Manor House in Eastbourne (now Towner Art Gallery) in 1713³⁶.

Notes for Elias Sinnock:

Apparently Elias, raised in Eastbourne, married Katherine, moved to Ninfield, raised a family there but retired back to Eastbourne. This accounts for the only Sinnocks known to have been from Ninfield.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Sinaok", "Sinuck", "Sinnock", "Sinock", "Synnock" and "Synnack" in the parish register

Katherine Vincent^{4-5, 33, 35-37} owned Sold Manor House in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England in 1736³⁶.

Elias Sinnock and Katherine Vincent had the following children:

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

Mary's only indication of birth date comes from a letter from Mark Milton citing her tombstone, and eight separate unsourced Family Tress at Ancestry.com, probably based on Mark's tombstone reference.

- iii. KATHERINE SINNOCK^{4-5, 18, 37} was born or baptized on 07 Feb 1697 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). She married an unknown spouse on 22 Apr 1718 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England^{5, 18}.

He married Margaret Busse on 05 Mar 1656 in Tonbridge, Kent, England⁵. She was born or baptized in 1633 in Tonbridge, Kent, England³⁸.

Notes for John Sennock:

John Sennock and Margaret Busse had the following children:

- 39. i. MARY⁶ SENOCKE⁵ was born or baptized on 06 Jan 1658 in Tonbridge, Kent, England⁵. She married John Turner on 05 Jun 1682 in Tonbridge, Kent, England⁵. He was born or baptized about 1658 in Kent, England³⁸.

- iii. RICHARD SENNOCKE^{5, 20} was born or baptized on 13 Apr 1662 in Tonbridge, Kent, England^{5, 23}.

Notes for Richard Sennocke:

Richard has 9 known Sennoke and Sennock children and grandchildren detailed in the Sinnock Name Variant.ftm database.

- iv. WILLIAM SENNOCK^{5, 20} was born or baptized on 11 Apr 1664 in Tonbridge, Kent, England⁵. He married (1) ELIZABETH MASON. She was born or baptized in 1688 in Margate, Kent, England³⁸. He married (2) ELINOR MAY. She was born or baptized about 1665²³.

Notes for William Sennock:

William and Elizabeth have 802 known descendants listed in the Sinnock Name Variants.ftm database, Many occur in the Brenchley area of Kent with "Sennock" and "Sevenoaks". Though this family may descend from a common ancestor or family as the Eastbourne Sinnocks, all from the current Kent-East Sussex border area and near Ticehurst, Sussex and Lamberhurst and Goodhurst, Kent, that has yet to be established. I note that this area is , just outside Sevenoaks, Kent, and could be close enough to be an eponym. But that probably occurred several times, independently, no relations; hence the variations on the name.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sennoke" in the IGI

- 30. WILLIAM⁵ SENOCKE (William⁴ Sennock, Wyllaym³ Senoke, Wyllaym² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 11} was born or baptized on 16 Aug 1662 in East Grinstead, West Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). Generation 5 (con't)

William Sevenoke⁵ was also known as "Gulielmi", the French name⁵.

Notes for William Sevenoke:

Assuming this William is placed right, it ties 3 Arlington generations together. His name is spelled "Guilielmi Senocke" and "Guilielai Senoke" in the IGI entries of sons Richardus and Edmundus, respectively.

William Sevenoke and Elizabeth (Sevenoke) ? had the following children:

- i. WILLIAM⁶ SEVENOKE^{5, 7} was born or baptized on 26 Jan 1650 in Arlington, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). He died on 01 Oct 1674 in Arlington, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Pancras^{7, 18}).

Last name spelled "Sencoke" in the IGI and "Sennocke" in Mark Milton's tombstone and burial index.

32. NICHOLAS⁶ SINNOCK (William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 17, 21, 27-28} was born or baptized on 04 Nov 1705 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 01 Feb 1754 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Peter's⁷). He married Sarah Ginner on 14 Feb 1731 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns posted at All Saints^{5, 17, 21}). She was born or baptized about 1709 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Mary in the Castle⁷). She died on 23 May 1791 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Peter's^{7, 17}).

Nicholas Sinnock^{5, 7, 17, 21, 27-28} owned 14 windows for which he was taxed 9 shillings in 1747²⁸.

Notes for Nicholas Sinnock:

An entry for 28 Feb 1777 in the Bexhill parish register reads "Nicholas Sinnock buried" and may be for this Nicholas or Nicholas born 15 Sep 1738 also in Bexhill. Instead, I assume another entry for Nicholas Sinnock's burial from Mark Milton's Tombstone and Burials Index for 1 Feb 1754 refers to this Nicholas, and the 1777 entry refers to the Nicholas born in 1738. These two death dates could be switched, I assigned them to minimize the maximum age of the Nicholas's.

Notes for Sarah Ginner:

death date may be for Ann Richardson, entered as for widow Sinnock

Nicholas Sinnock and Sarah Ginner had the following children:

- i. THOMAS⁷ SINNOCK²⁷ was born or baptized on 12 Sep 1734 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 13 Dec 1742 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Peter's²⁷).
- 40. ii. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{7, 17, 20-21, 27} was born or baptized on 03 Aug 1736 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He married Hannah Lock on 16 Feb 1778 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{17, 21}). She was born or baptized about 1755⁵².
- iii. NICHOLAS SINNOCK^{7, 27} was born or baptized on 15 Sep 1738 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 28 Feb 1777 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date²⁷).

Nicholas Sinnock^{7, 27} was buried in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (St. Peter's^{7, 27}).

Notes for Nicholas Sinnock:

An entry for 28 Feb 1777 in the Bexhill parish register reads "Nicholas Sinnock buried" and may be for this Nicholas or Nicholas born 15 Sep 1738 also in Bexhill. Instead, I assume another entry for Nicholas Sinnock's burial from Mark Milton's Tombstone and Burials Index for 1 Feb 1754 refers to this Nicholas, and the 1777 entry refers to the Nicholas born in 1738. These two death dates could be switched, I assigned them to minimize the maximum age of the Nicholas's.

- iv. MERCY SINNOCK^{18, 27} was born or baptized on 09 Jun 1740 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). She married John Smith on 03 Apr 1768 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England¹⁸. He was born or baptized about 1740³⁹.
- v. ELIZABETH SINNOCK^{7, 27} was born or baptized on 26 Sep 1742 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). She died on 07 Oct 1742 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date²⁷).
- Elizabeth Sinnock^{7, 27} was buried in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (St. Peter's^{7, 27}).
- 41. vi. THOMAS SINNOCK^{7, 27, 53-54} was born or baptized on 11 Dec 1742 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 29 Sep 1788 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷). He married Elizabeth Sharp on 26 Nov 1776 in Frittenden, Kent, England⁵³⁻⁵⁴. She was born or baptized about 1755 in <of Frittenden, Kent, England>⁵³.

33. WILLIAM⁶ SINNOCK (William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 17, 19, 21, 27-28, 40} was born or baptized on 25 Apr 1708 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary in the Castle^{7, 17}). He died on 30 Apr 1749 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary the Virgin^{7, 27-28, 40}). He married Elizabeth Spudgens on 24 Jan 1734 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns^{5, 17, 21}). She was born or baptized about 1710 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Mary in the Castle¹). She died on 24 Oct 1776 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date²⁷).

William Sinnock^{5, 7, 17, 19, 21, 27-28, 40} owned 13 windows for which he was taxed 8 shillings 6 d. in 1747.

Notes for William Sinnock:

I assume William, who married Elizabeth and had children in Hastings from the parish registers, is the same person as William, the father of John Sevenoaks (also Sennock) who was born in Crowhurst in 23 March 1734 according to the IGI. Crowhurst is only about 2 miles from Hastings where William was born less than a mile from Battle where he died. William and Elizabeth were married in Jan 1734 and may have gone to Crowhurst to have the baby, returning to Hastings to have their other children in 1736 and 1737, the interpretation represented here.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Sennock" in Boyds Marriage Index and "Sinnock", "Sennock" and "Sennoke" in the IGI, and "Sinnock" "Senoke" and "Sennocke" in the parish registers and "Sinoke" in the National Burial Index cited in Mark Milton's letter, and "Sennoke" in the England and Wales Marriages

Notes for Elizabeth Spudgens:

The entry in the Bexhill parish register for 24 Oct 1776 is "Widow Sinnock buried", assumed to be the widow of William who died in 1749 in Bexhill. No other candidates are apparent.

Marriage Notes: (Elizabeth)

IGI gives the marriage year as 1733, same date.

William Sinnock and Elizabeth Spudgens had the following children:

- 42. i. JOHN⁷ SINNOCK^{5, 20, 55-57} was born or baptized on 23 Mar 1734 in Crowhurst, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). He died on 07 Feb 1789 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at Parish Church^{7, 56}). He married Susanna Claire, daughter of Edward Clare and Ann (Clare) ?, on 10 Dec 1758 in Newhaven, East Sussex, England^{5, 18}. She was born or baptized about 1730¹. She died on 18 Nov 1779 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁵⁶).
- ii. WILLIAM SENNOCKE¹⁷ was born or baptized on 15 Apr 1737 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Clement's¹⁷). He died on 19 Aug 1737 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Clement's¹⁷).

34. NICHOLAS⁶ SINNOCK (Nicholas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 41-43} was born or baptized on 17 Mar 1696 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 41}). He married (1) SUSAN (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized about 1710¹. He married (2) ALICE (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized about 1695³⁹.

Notes for Nicholas Sinnock:

Perhaps a twin of William, they were baptized on the same day.

Nicholas Sinnock and Susan (Sinnock) ? had the following children:

- i. FRANCES⁷ SINNOCK^{5, 42-43} was born or baptized on 21 Aug 1735 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 42-43}).
- ii. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{5, 42-43} was born or baptized on 29 Aug 1737 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 42-43}).

Notes for William Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

The IGI lists William's Baptism date as 29 Aug 1737 and his age as one year at Baptism, so the birth year is set at exactly one year earlier than the Baptism..

Notes for Alice (Sinnock) ?:

Alice, who with Nicholas had Mary in 1720 is assumed to be the wife of the Nicholas from Hailsham, because of name (Nicholas) and dates

Nicholas Sinnock and Alice (Sinnock) ? had the following child:

- iii. MARY SINNOCK^{18, 42} was born or baptized on 17 Jul 1720 in London City, London, England (St. Andrew's-by-the-Wardrobe^{18, 42}).
35. ELIAS⁶ SINNOCK (Richard⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 17, 21, 27, 30, 45-46} was born or baptized on 28 Mar 1708 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 16 Aug 1776 in Ore, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 45}). He married (1) ANNE RICHARDSON, daughter of James Richardson, on 22 Dec 1731 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Married by License, Banns posted at All Saints^{5, 17, 21}). She was born or baptized on 07 Jan 1707 in Liverpool, Lancashire, England^{7, 47}. She died on 26 Jul 1775 in Ore, East Sussex, England⁴⁶. He married (2) KATHERINE PHILLIPS on 07 Apr 1776 in Ore, East Sussex, England⁴⁸. She was born or baptized about 1710⁶.

Elias Sinnock^{5, 7, 17, 21, 27, 30, 45-46} was employed as a Blacksmith, Apprentice to Joseph Greyling and partners in 1723³⁰. He was employed as a Clerk, Parish in 1776⁷. He was buried in Ore, East Sussex, England (St. Helen's, London Road, Tombstone 74, buried with wife Ann^{7, 46}).

Notes for Elias Sinnock:

I suspect that a son of this Elias and Ann is the Elias Sinnock who married Elizabeth and had children in Hastings, Sussex, and the Rochester, Kent, areas. This is because of the family name and the proximity of Bexhill, where Elias Sr. was born, and Hastings where Elias, the supposed son, had children with Elizabeth. I also strongly suspect that the son Elias is the same Elias who had sons William, and John Walker Sennock (note spelling) born in, respectively, Chevening, Kent, and Rochester, Kent, according to entries in the International Genealogical Index (IGI) of the Church of the LDS. Elias, the presumed son of Elias Sr. appears as a father in an obscure reference to "1769 Elias, son of Elias" in a letter of research notes from the Hastings library I received in a letter from John Norman Sinnock in April, 1994. Elias also shows up with a wife Elizabeth in a Parish Register entry from Hastings, East Sussex, "June 18, 1777, Catherine Sinnock d. Elias & Eliz. baptized." So I suspect that Catherine was the sister of Elias, both were children of Elias and Elizabeth in Hastings, and both are grandchildren of Elias Sinnock and Ann Richardson of Bexhill, Kent. Entries in the LDS's IGI indicate that Elias Sinnock and Elizabeth had sons William and John Walker (Sennock) in Kent, as indicated above. So apparently, Elias and Elizabeth had four children, William and John Walker in Kent and Elias and Catherine in Hastings. Another entry in the Hastings Parish Register indicates John Walker Sinnock (note spelling) married Mary Bean in Hastings in 1806, tying the John Walker Sennock (note spelling), listed in the IGI from Kent, to the Hastings area where the Elias Sinnock Sr. and Elizabeth had Catherine and, apparently, Elias.

Inscription on Elias and Ann's Tombstone, Ore, East Sussex

Elias Sinnock and Anne Richardson had the following child:

43. i. ELIAS⁷ SINNOCK^{5, 16-17, 20, 58} was born or baptized on 04 Jan 1743 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints¹⁶). He died on 02 Dec 1792 in Rochester, Kent, England (St. Nicholas Parish¹⁶). He married Elizabeth Thatcher on 29 Sep 1768 in Ore, East Sussex, England (All Saints⁵⁸). She was born or baptized about 1750⁹.
36. RICHARD⁶ SINNOCK (Richard⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 16, 21, 27, 30-31} was born or baptized on 20 Sep 1713 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{27, 30}). He died on 16 Dec 1742 in Guestling, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Laurence⁷). He married (1) MARY ANN CHAPMAN on 17 Feb 1731 in Rye, East Sussex, England²¹. She was born or baptized about 1705⁴⁹. She died on 23 Apr 1764 in Battle, East Sussex, England⁴⁰. He married (2) ELIZABETH BURCHETT on 30 Dec 1743 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns posted at St. Clement's^{5, 17}). She was born or baptized about 1721 in <of Battle, East Sussex, England>⁵⁰. She died on 15 Feb 1790 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷).

Richard Sinnock^{5, 7, 16, 21, 27, 30-31} was employed as a Tailor, Apprentice to William Eaton of Battle in 1725³⁰.

Notes for Richard Sinnock:

I assume Richard from Bexhill married first Mary Ann Chapman, had 3 children with her, then married Elizabeth Burchett and had two more children all in the Battle, Guestling, Hastings area because of the rarity of the last name, the common first name, geographic proximity to Battle, compatible ages, and no other Richard Sinnocks in the area at the time.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Sinnock", "Sennoke" in the parish registers

Death Notes:

His wife, Elizabeth, was a widow when she died in 1790

Mary Ann Chapman^{5, 7, 21, 40} was buried in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Richard Sinnock and Mary Ann Chapman had the following children:

44. i. MARY⁷ SINNOCK^{5, 17-18, 59} was born or baptized on 07 May 1736 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary in the Castle¹⁷). She married Stephen Middlemas on 13 Oct 1763 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 17}). He was born or baptized in 1733 in Hastings, East Sussex, England²².
- ii. THOMAS SENOKE^{7, 40} was born or baptized about 1740 in England⁶. He died on 27 Oct 1744 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴⁰).

Thomas Senoke^{7, 40} was buried in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Notes for Thomas Senoke:

Thomas is assumed to be the son Richard based on Parish Register Death entry.

45. iii. RICHARD SINNOCK^{5, 31, 40, 60} was born or baptized on 12 Dec 1740 in Guestling, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date³¹). He died before 07 Feb 1828 in Hastings, East Sussex, England^{31, 60}. He married (1) LUCY PAINE on 07 May 1770 in Battle, East Sussex, England³¹. She was born or baptized about 1745²³. She died on 30 Oct 1800 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷). He married (2) MARY ELIZABETH WILLIAMS on 27 Apr 1763 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 60}). She was born or baptized on 29 Mar 1740 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Clement's³¹). She died on 24 Aug 1817 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷).
- iv. ANN SINNOCK^{7, 31} was born or baptized before 1741 in England²³. She died on 18 Jan 1741 in Guestling, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 31}).

Ann Sinnock^{7, 31} was buried in Guestling, East Sussex, England (St. Lawrence⁷).

Elizabeth Burchett^{5, 7, 17-18, 31, 50} was buried in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Richard Sinnock and Elizabeth Burchett had the following children:

- v. ELIZABETH SINNOCK⁶¹⁻⁶² was born or baptized about 1748 in England⁶¹. She died on 02 Dec 1813 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁶¹). She married Thomas Parks on 18 Apr 1770 in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's Church⁶²). He was born or baptized about 1746⁶¹. He died on 19 Aug 1816 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁶¹).

Elizabeth Sinnock⁶¹⁻⁶² was buried in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁶²).

Notes for Elizabeth Sinnock:

I assume Elizabeth who married Thomas Parks in Battle in 1770 is the same as the Elizabeth Parks who died in Battle in 1813 is the same as Elizabeth, daughter of Richard and Elizabeth who had other children in Battle at the time. Thomas and Elizabeth had 10 children according to the Ancestry.com WorldConnect Project, "The Cocks/Baker Line", in birth order, Elizabeth, Abraham, Thomas, Richard, William, Joseph, Phillip, Mary, Samuel, and Robert.

Thomas Parks⁶¹⁻⁶² was buried in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁶²).

46. vi. THOMAS SINNOCK^{5, 7, 40, 53-54} was born or baptized about 1750 in England⁵³. He died on 12 Nov 1794 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷). He married Mary Inskipp on 11 Apr 1774 in Battle, East Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1745¹.
- vii. ANN SINNOCK³¹ was born or baptized on 23 Feb 1753 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date³¹).
47. viii. JAMES SINNOCK^{31, 63} was born or baptized on 12 Sep 1755 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{31, 63}).
37. THOMAS⁶ SENNOCK (Thomas⁵ Sinnock, Elias⁴ Sinnock, Christofer³ Sinnock, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{2, 4, 21, 30} was born or baptized on 30 Jun 1695 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He married Elizabeth Looker on 05 Aug 1725 in Willingdon, East Sussex, England^{5, 21}. She was born or baptized about 1700¹. She died on 07 Mar 1736 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁴.

Migration: Abt. 1730 (Intra County, East Sussex (Eastbourne to Westham)¹²) Image: (descendant tree)

Notes for Thomas Sennock:

I assume Thomas, son of Thomas Sinnock and Naomi, baptized 30 Jun 1695 in the Eastbourne Parish Register "Tho ye son of Tho Synock and Naomi his wife bap" is the same as Thomas Sennock, who, married Elizabeth Looker in Willingdon 5 Aug 1725, just two miles up the road, and had children with her as recorded in the Westham Parish Register 11 Apr 1728 "Thomas the son of Mr Thomas Sennock and Elizabeth baptized" and 15 Jul 1732 "James [John partly erased] the son of Thomas Sennock and Elizabeth his wife was baptized" and in Arlington (William and Elizabeth) according to Howard Sinnocks email. I assume they are the same because of rarity of the name, general proximity (Westham is about 4 miles from Eastbourne), and compatible ages. However, Thomas who had children in Westham, including my 5th great grandfather, James, may also be Thomas Sinnock baptized 24 Jan 1697 in Bexhill about 8 miles from Westham "Thomas son of Richard and Mary Sinnock baptized" according to the Bexhill Parish Register or Thomas Sinnock son of Nicholas Sinnock and Ursula in Hailsham in 1699. As recorded here, this latter Thomas is a cousin of the Thomas here, with common grandparents, Elias and Margery. He also had a wife Elizabeth. But because he appears to have lived his entire life in Bexhill (he was born and died there) and the fact that Bexhill is farther from Westham and Arlington, I assume the Thomas from Eastbourne is a better fit for the father of children in Westham and perhaps Arlington, though any of the three Thomas's would fit the bill. In any case, it seems clearer that Elias and Margery are my great grandparents, though either Richard, Thomas, or Nicholas, Elias and Margery's sons. Any of these three sons could be the parents of Thomas, who, with Elizabeth, had James, my ancestor, in Westham.

Thomas Sennock and Elizabeth Looker had the following children:

48. i. THOMAS⁷ SINNOCK^{5, 18, 29-30, 35} was born or baptized on 11 Apr 1728 in Westham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 29, 35}). He married Lucy Fletcher on 11 Sep 1740 in Litlington, East Sussex, England^{5, 18}. She was born or baptized about 1725³⁹. She died on 10 Sep 1773 in Arlington, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 31}).
49. ii. JAMES SINNOCK^{5, 29, 32, 41} was born or baptized on 15 Jul 1732 in Westham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 29}). He died on 10 Jan 1813 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He married Sarah Marshall, daughter of Thomas Marshall and Elizabeth Meppam, on 30 Jan 1757 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns⁴¹). She was born or baptized on 07 Oct 1733 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). She died on 13 Nov 1811 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴¹).
50. iii. WILLIAM SINNOCK¹⁸ was born or baptized on 20 May 1734 in Arlington, East Sussex, England¹⁸.
- iv. ELIZABETH SINNOCK¹⁸ was born or baptized on 07 May 1736 in Arlington, East Sussex, England¹⁸.
38. SAMUEL⁶ SINNOCK (Elias⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{4-5, 41} was born or baptized on 11 Apr 1714 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴⁻⁵). He died before 1785⁴¹. He married Mary Polhill on 24 Apr 1739 in Folkstone, Kent, England^{5, 18}. She was born or baptized about 1715²³. She died on 05 Jul 1785 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴¹).

Life in East Sussex in 1750 - 1800

Taken from The History of the Battle Baptist Church by Rev. F. W. Butt-Thomson, 1909, Burfield and Pennells, Hastings

Received from Mark Milton 20 Sep 2010

"The East Sussex of the second half of the eighteenth century was so unlike the East Sussex of today that it is interesting to attempt its reconstruction. There appear to have been but three main roads, and these were hardly worthy of that title, for the coach from London to Brighthelmstone took two days for its journey, and even then the optimism of the way-bill was frequently the only thing that did not break down. "Impassable Sussex roads" - so runs the verdict passed upon them by Dr. Burton, a professor of Greek at Oxford, who in 1751 visited his relations in this, "muddy, fertile, pastoral" spot. He is also responsible for the statement that the people he saw on the journey were "long-legged, because they stretched their muscles so frequently in pulling their feet out of the mud." The great majority of the men were farmers, living in houses scattered over the district with many a long mile of timbered hill and dale between. Not much did they think or speak about save the rearing and selling of stock and the advantages or otherwise of the various markets, at which they appeared picturesquely dressed in blue coats, yellow breeches, and top boots. The following may not be the whole of the truth, but it was written by one who knew his subject - "The men's whole attention is given to get their cattle, and everything else fat, their own intellect not excepted." Concerning the ladies we have better things recorded, they were "modest, fond of elegance in dress, but, at the same time, fond of labour, and experienced in household affairs..... Both by nature and education.better intellectually generally than the men." The home-life was not such a problem as it is today. They made room in their home for man and maid as well as their own children. Employers and employed with family and friends dined around one sufficient table. After the toil of the day the evenings would be devoted to talk around the heaped-up log fire in the common room. A few may have been brave enough to spend the sixpence or eightpence necessary to purchase the "North Briton" (edited by the famous John Vilks, M.P., and Lord Mayor of London), or the "Kentish Gazette," and so could relate the doings of George the Second and his court\ or the progress of the various wars then on hand; or tell over again the coarse jests of the wayside tavern, and the smug puns of the village squire (that found a place in the pages of newspapers of that period); or excite themselves into a quarrelsome mood in the discussion of the Jacobite chances of success. Of books there were a considerable number, but of little value. "Pilgrim's Progress" and "Robinson Crusoe," and such like had not found their way to such remoteness as this. Picture-books were hawked from village to village, but these "chap books," told of no higher heroes than "Robin Hood," "Jack the Giant Killer," and "Tom Thumb." The majority of the people could not read, hence the illustrations. Yet so well were these books thumbed that few houses could be visited without hearing words of admiration for the Robber's daring, or the cunning nimbleness of Jack, or the diplomacy of the midget. Sleep would claim them at a much earlier hour than that at which we moderns are accustomed to retire, and the ghosts that regularly walked the churchyards would have the night to themselves. The summer Sundays would be all too short for witnessing the "main of cocks," between rival districts or owners; the "pitch and toss" or "Meg Morris," played by stealth out of the way of the village constable; the rounders: and - the getting drunk on a pennyworth of gin at the tavern. The peasantry were almost slaves, even their right to participate in the Poor Law of that day was denied them by an ingenious system of discharging them for a few days each year. They were ragged in dress, famished in appearance, and had an almost chronic lifting of the hand "to pull a meek forelock to their betters." Any feelings of revolt were effectually crushed by the masters, who were almost their owners, and by the English Law. In that day the value of a man's life was the value of a starved sheep. And, lest they should forget, the countryside was dotted with aids to memory, i.e. decaying bodies - swayed with every breeze - dangling from the roadside gallows. Often those bodies represented men whose only crime was the attempt to satisfy the hunger of their children. Wages for the women averaged £2 yearly; for coachmen, £5 10s.; for shepherds (without food) £20; for farm labourers, their food and a few shillings at Michaelmas or New Year. In towns like Battle, situate near the ironfields, skilled labour had a little better existence. But what it gained in wage it lost in degradation, John Richard Green says of the time that the inhabitants of the towns were "ignorant and brutal to a degree which it is hard to conceive, for the vast increase of population had been met by no effort for their religious or educational improvement." In this birthplace of Mr. Vidler and his Church, the people were "reared under conditions that engendered sensuous immorality." Mr. George Gilbert found it "a benighted place," and actively opposed to the preaching of the Gospel. And Mr. Vidler himself (in "A short account of the Planting of the Particular Baptist Church at Battle, Sussex") calls it "a place of darkness." In very few places was "Dissent" known, and where it had gained a footing, it was relegated to the back street of the town, or an obscure cottage in the village."

Mary Polhill^{5, 18, 41} was buried in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹.

Samuel Sinnock and Mary Polhill had the following children:

- i. SAMUEL⁷ SINNOCK^{5, 7} was born or baptized on 29 Jun 1739 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). He died on 13 Oct 1761 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷).

Samuel Sinnock^{5, 7} was buried in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Notes for Samuel Sinnock:

I assume Samuel, son of Samuel and Mary Polhill, is the same person as Samuel who died in Eastbourne 22 years later because of rarity of the name, the Eastbourne location, and compatible ages.

51. ii. JOHN SINNOCK^{4-5, 31-32, 41, 64-66} was born or baptized on 29 Jun 1740 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's⁴). He died on 14 May 1817 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England³¹. He married (1) MARY ROADS, daughter of William Roads and Mary Crowhurst, on 18 Jan 1773 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Married by License^{5, 41, 64, 66}). She was born or baptized on 05 Nov 1750 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{7, 41, 64}). She died on 31 Dec 1827 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷). He married an unknown spouse in 1802 (Not Married⁶⁵).
52. iii. ELIAS SINNOCK³¹ was born or baptized on 20 Jul 1746 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date³¹). He married ELIZABETH NOAKES. She was born or baptized about 1850²³.
39. MARY⁶ SENOCKE (John⁵ Sennock, John⁴ Sennoke, Jon³ Senoke, Wyllaym² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)⁵ was born or baptized on 06 Jan 1658 in Tonbridge, Kent, England⁵. She married John Turner on 05 Jun 1682 in Tonbridge, Kent, England⁵. He was born or baptized about 1658 in Kent, England³⁸.

John Turner and Mary Senocke had the following children:

Generation 6 (con't)

- i. HANNAH⁷ TURNER³⁸ was born or baptized in 1683 in Tonbridge, Kent, England³⁸.
- ii. ELIZABETH TURNER³⁸ was born or baptized in 1690 in Tonbridge, Kent, England³⁸.
- iii. THOMAS TURNER³⁸ was born or baptized in 1691 in Tonbridge, Kent, England³⁸.
- iv. BENJAMIN TURNER³⁸ was born or baptized in 1698 in Tonbridge, Kent, England³⁸.

Generation 7

40. WILLIAM⁷ SINNOCK (Nicholas⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{7, 17, 20-21, 27} was born or baptized on 03 Aug 1736 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 15 Oct 1792 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 27}). He married Hannah Lock on 16 Feb 1778 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{17, 21}). She was born or baptized about 1755⁵².

William Sinnock^{7, 17, 20-21, 27} was buried in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (St. Peter's^{7, 27}).

Notes for Hannah Lock:

Birth Notes:

Birth year estimated from assuming an age of about 25 when her first child was born in 1779.

William Sinnock and Hannah Lock had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH⁸ SINNOCK^{5, 20-22, 67} was born or baptized on 16 Oct 1779 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at All Saints^{5, 20, 22}). She married John Allen on 23 Dec 1805 in Brighton, East Sussex, England (Married by License^{21, 67}). He was born or baptized about 1780 in England¹.

Notes for Elizabeth Sinnock:

Elizabeth may have married John Allen in Brighton, in 1805

- ii. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{5, 17, 20, 31} was born or baptized on 04 Aug 1782 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Clement's^{17, 20}). He married Ann Bennett on 20 Jul 1807 in Dover, Kent, England (St. Mary the Virgin⁵). She was born or baptized about 1792⁶⁸. She died about Feb 1870 in Poplar, Tower Hamlets, London, England⁶⁸.
- iii. HANNAH SINNOCK¹⁷ was born or baptized on 02 Jun 1783 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Clement's¹⁷).
- iv. ABRAHAM SINNOCK^{5, 20, 22} was born or baptized on 22 Jun 1785 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at All Saints^{20, 22}). He married Sophia Howlett on 27 Dec 1807 in Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1785²³.

Notes for Abraham Sinnock:

I assume Abraham, son of William and Hannah, of the parish register transcript of Hastings, East Sussex, is the same person as Abraham who married Sophia in Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, according to the IGI, though a long distance for the time separates Hastings where Abraham was born and Great Yarmouth where he was married. However, there are no other Abraham Sinnocks in the database, and a likely birth date for Abraham of the IGI of about 1785, assuming he was 22 when married, matches the birth date from the Hastings parish register transcript. No other records of Sinnocks mention Great Yarmouth, so perhaps Abraham and Sophia took a boat around the mouth of the Thames and married in Great Yarmouth as a lark or marriage/honeymoon vacation, not putting down any roots, or perhaps they settled there, perhaps Sophia's home area, where she, as a widow, later married an unknown person in nearby Mutford.

Notes for Sophia Howlett:

I assume Sophia Sinnock who married an unknown person in Mutford, Suffolk is the same person as Sophia Howlett who married Abraham Sinnock in nearby (5 miles) Great Yarmouth, Norfolk because of the rarity of the name, both last and first, geographic proximity, and compatible ages, assuming Sophia was either a widow or divorcee at the time of her second marriage.

- 53. v. GEORGE SINNOCK^{5, 17, 20, 68-72} was born or baptized on 23 Jan 1788 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at All Saints^{17, 20, 69}). He died about Sep 1848 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married (1) SARAH GOVEY on 11 Feb 1817 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, England (Married by Banns posted at St. Leonard's, High Street^{5, 70-71}). She was born or baptized about 1795¹. She died about 1818. He married (2) MARY ANNE GORRINGE on 28 Aug 1818 in Kirdford, West Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1801 in Sussex, England⁶⁹. She died about Dec 1845 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.
41. THOMAS⁷ SINNOCK (Nicholas⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{7, 27, 53-54} was born or baptized on 11 Dec 1742 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁷). He died on 29 Sep 1788 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷). He married Elizabeth Sharp on 26 Nov 1776 in Frittenden, Kent, England⁵³⁻⁵⁴. She was born or baptized about 1755 in <of Frittenden, Kent, England>⁵³.

Thomas Sinnock^{7, 27, 53-54} was buried in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (St. Peter's⁷).

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

It appears that Thomas, baptized 11 Dec 1742, was named for his 8 year old brother, Thomas, baptized 12 Sep 1734, who was buried just two days after Thomas was baptized, 13 Dec, 1742, perhaps the older Thomas survived and the infant died, except that Thomas the second, who died as an infant would then have been given the same name as his living 8 year old brother.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sevenoke"

Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Sharp had the following child:

54. i. SARAH⁸ SINNOCK^{18, 31, 73-74} was born or baptized on 06 May 1782 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England^{18, 31, 74}. She died in 1835 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England⁷⁴. She married James Cramp, son of Benjamin Cramp and Elizabeth Ades, on 12 Nov 1806 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England¹⁸. He was born or baptized on 12 Nov 1783 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England⁷⁴. He died in 1835⁷⁴.
42. JOHN⁷ SINNOCK (William⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 20, 55-57} was born or baptized on 23 Mar 1734 in Crowhurst, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). He died on 07 Feb 1789 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at Parish Church^{7, 56}). He married Susanna Claire, daughter of Edward Clare and Ann (Clare) ?, on 10 Dec 1758 in Newhaven, East Sussex, England^{5, 18}. She was born or baptized about 1730¹. She died on 18 Nov 1779 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁵⁶).

Notes for John Sinnock:

John Sevenoaks, married to Susanna Claire in Newhaven in 1759 and parents of 8 children in nearby Selmeaton, according to the parish register, is assumed here to be the same person as John Sennock, born to William Sinnock and Elizabeth Spudgens in Crowhurst, near Hastings, on 17 Mar 1734 according to the IGI. If this were true, John would have been 25 years old at his marriage to Susanna, a common marriage age at the time. Crowhurst is about 20 miles from Newhaven and nearby Selmeaton, a long separation distance for married couples at the time, but not unheard of. Based on current data, these are the only two John's with any variation of the Sinnock last name living in England at the time (1735+-5 yrs), except for a John Sevenoaks married in Brenchley, Kent to Ann Walker in 1759 and John Synnuck married in 1665 to Elizabeth Gregg. In addition I can imagine a young man, adventurous and Travelling around the county, meeting and marrying a bride far (20 miles) from his home in the Hastings area and moving to her home area, a common practice at the time. This possible, even likely, scenario connects the Selmeaton Sinnocks and their descendants to the main branch originating in Easbourne in the mid 1500's. If this turns out to be false, detach John Sevenoaks from William and Elizabeth and reattach John Sennock as their son with the 17 Mar 1734 birth date. Here they are treated as the same person.

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Sennock", son of William "Sinnock" in the IGI and "Sevenoaks" in the parish register. This reference to Sevenoaks represents a rare change (regression?) of the family name from "Sinnock" to "Sevenoaks", so I leave the name "Sevenoaks" here to draw attention to this change.

Notes for Susanna Claire:

The death date may be for her daughter, Susanna.

Name Notes:

Her last name is spelled as "Clare" in the IGI

Marriage Notes: (Susanna)

The IGI indicates a marriage date of 16 Apr 1759

John Sinnock and Susanna Claire had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH⁸ SEVENOAK⁵⁵⁻⁵⁶ was born or baptized on 18 Nov 1757 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵⁶).
- ii. SAMUEL SEVENOAKE⁵⁷ was born or baptized on 06 Jan 1760 in Alciston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵⁷).
- Notes for Samuel Sevenoake:
All Samuel's siblings were born in nearby (less than a mile) Selmeaton. Perhaps Samuel was born the same place as his siblings at a family home but the birth/baptism was entered in Alciston rather than Selmeaton this one time.
55. iii. JOHN SINNOCK^{5, 18, 20-21, 55-56, 75} was born or baptized on 05 Dec 1761 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56, 75}). He died on 01 Apr 1827 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁵⁶). He married (1) JANE THORN on 29 Jun 1789 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England^{5, 21, 56}. She was born or baptized about 1765¹. She died on 26 Jul 1808 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁵⁶). He married (2) SARAH DULY on 03 Jun 1809 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England^{5, 21, 56}. She was born or baptized about 1790¹⁴. She died about Sep 1849 in Bethnal Green, Tower Hamlets, London, England⁶⁸.
- iv. ANN SEVENOAK⁵⁵⁻⁵⁶ was born or baptized on 28 Apr 1767 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵⁶).
- v. SUSANNA SINNOCK^{5, 20, 55-56} was born or baptized on 05 Aug 1770 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56}). She married George Croucher on 22 Jun 1800 in Sevenoaks, Kent, England⁵. He was born or baptized about 1775²³.

Notes for Susanna Sinnock:

I assume Susanna Sevenoaks born in Selmeaton in 1770 is the same person as Susanna Sinnock married in Sevenoaks in 1800 because of the rarity of the last name, noting the link between the Sinnock and Sevenoaks name throughout her supposed family, the rarity of her first name, geographic proximity, sort of, about 20 miles between Selmeaton and Sevenoaks, a loing distance at the time actually, compatible age, assuming she married at 30, and no other Susanna candidates for this match.

Name Notes:

Last name given as "Sevenoaks" in her birth entry in the Selmeston parish register and "Sinnock" in her marriage at Sevenoaks, for a twist on words.

- vi. SARAH SEVENOAKS^{20, 55-56} was born or baptized on 05 Oct 1772 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56}).
- 56. vii. THOMAS SINNOCK^{5, 20-21, 56, 70, 76} was born or baptized on 09 Jan 1775 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56, 76}). He died on 22 Aug 1824 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{56, 70}). He married Mary Fennall on 19 Feb 1805 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England^{5, 18, 21}. She was born or baptized in 1786 in Battle, East Sussex, England⁷⁷.
- viii. EDWARD SINNOCK^{20, 55-56} was born or baptized on 27 Apr 1777 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56}).
- 43. ELIAS⁷ SINNOCK (Elias⁶, Richard⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 16-17, 20, 58} was born or baptized on 04 Jan 1743 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints¹⁶). He died on 02 Dec 1792 in Rochester, Kent, England (St. Nicholas Parish¹⁶). He married Elizabeth Thatcher on 29 Sep 1768 in Ore, East Sussex, England (All Saints⁵⁸). She was born or baptized about 1750⁹.

Notes for Elias Sinnock:

I suspect that this Elias is the son of Elias and Ann Richardson because of the family name, Elias, and the proximity of Bexhill, where Elias Sr. was born, and Hastings where Elias, the supposed son, had children with Elizabeth. I also strongly suspect that this Elias is the same Elias who had sons William, and John Walker Sennock (note spelling) born in, respectively, Chevening, Kent, and Rochester, Kent, according to entries in the International Genealogical Index (IGI) of the Church of the LDS. This Elias appears as a father in an obscure reference to "1769 Elias, son of Elias" in a letter of research notes from the Hastings library I received in a letter from John Norman Sinnock in April, 1994. Elias also shows up with a wife Elizabeth in a Parish Register entry from Hastings, East Sussex, "June 18, 1777, Catherine Sinnock d. Elias & Eliz. baptized." So I suspect that Catherine was the sister of Elias, both were children of Elias and Elizabeth in Hastings, and both are grandchildren of Elias Sinnock and Ann Richardson of Bexhill, Kent. Entries in the LDS's IGI indicate that Elias Sinnock and Elizabeth had sons William and John Walker (Sennock) in Kent, as indicated above. However, the IGI lists Williams birth as Mar 1777, too close in time to Catherine's birth. So apparently, Elias and Elizabeth had about eight children, William and John Walker in Kent; John, Elias and Catherine in Hastings; and three in Catsfield. Another entry in the Hastings Parish Register indicates John Walker Sinnock (note spelling) married Mary Bean in Hastings in 1806, tying the John Walker Sennock (note spelling) listed in the IGI from Kent to the Hastings area where the family of Elias Sinnock and Elizabeth had John (born in Ore, right beside Hastings) and Catherine and, apparently, Elias. Further, it is possible, perhaps likely, that one of the children of Elias Sinnock, this Elias's grandson, i.e. either Elias (IV), Thomas, John Henry, or Uriah is the father of George Sinnock, Walter Sinnock, and William Sinnock the ancestors of the Michigan Sinnocks in America (see the notes for George Sinnock, born about 1840). If this were true, links between the Michigan Sinnocks and the Hailsham Sinnocks who were my ancestors would be forged.

Elias Sinnock and Elizabeth Thatcher had the following children:

- 57. i. ELIAS⁸ SINNOCK^{5, 16} was born or baptized on 29 Jun 1769 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints^{5, 78}). He married Rebecca (Sinnock) ? about 1802 in Rochester, Kent, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1770¹⁴.
- 58. ii. ELIZABETH SINNOCK^{5, 20-21, 70-71, 79-80} was born or baptized on 04 Jun 1771 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 79-80}). She married (1) GEORGE DOBSON on 02 Nov 1789 in Frindsbury, Kent, England⁸⁰. He was born or baptized about 1770³⁹. She married (2) JONATHAN THOMAS on 27 Nov 1796 in Marylebone, Westminster, London, England (Married by Banns posted at St. Mary's^{5, 70-71}). He was born or baptized about 1770⁴⁹. She married (3) RICHARD DIWELL, son of William Richard Diwell and Frances Croucher, on 05 Jun 1813 in Rotherfield, East Sussex, England (St. Deny's²¹). He was born or baptized about 1790 in Rotherfield, East Sussex, England³¹. He died about Dec 1847 in Frant, East Sussex, England⁸¹⁻⁸².
- 59. iii. THOMAS SINNOCK^{5, 7, 20-21, 80, 83-85} was born or baptized on 13 Jun 1773 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England²⁰. He died on 04 Jan 1854 in Hastings, East Sussex, England^{80, 84}. He married (1) JANE THATCHER, daughter of Robert Thatcher, on 22 Nov 1796 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints, Married by License^{5, 17, 21}). She was born or baptized in 1764^{7, 80, 84}. She died on 16 Dec 1820 in Hastings, East Sussex, England¹⁶. He married (2) ELIZABETH LUCK on 19 Apr 1826 in Fairlight, East Sussex, England⁸⁰. She was born or baptized about 1775⁴⁹.
- 60. iv. ANN SINNOCK^{5, 20, 80} was born or baptized on 23 Jun 1774 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 80}). She died in Oct 1856 in Port Clinton, Ottawa, Ohio, USA⁸⁰. She married Thomas Slackford, son of Robert Slackford and Elizabeth Jane (Slackford) ?, on 07 Oct 1792 in Rochester, Kent, England (St. Nicholas Parish^{5, 80}). He was born or baptized on 22 Jul 1764 in Woodbridge, Suffolk, England⁸⁰. He died on 11 Apr 1841 in Woodbridge, Suffolk, England⁸⁰.
- 61. v. CATHERINE SINNOCK^{5, 20, 22, 80} was born or baptized on 18 Jun 1777 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at All Saints^{5, 20, 22}). She married Daniel Wood on 25 Feb 1793 in Rochester, Kent, England (St. Nicholas^{5, 80}). He was born or baptized about 1775³⁹.
- vi. PHYLLIS SINNOCK^{5, 17, 21} was born or baptized about 1780 in England⁴⁹. She married John Yeap on 17 Dec 1805 in Hastings, East Sussex, England^{5, 17, 21}. He was born or baptized about 1780⁴⁹.

Notes for Phyllis Sinnock:

I assume Phyllis (spelling in the Parish Regsiter) is a daughter of Elias and Elizabeth because of the rarity of the last name, the Hasting location, and age compatibility, though Phyllis does not appear in any other known records other than her marriage records.

- vii. JOHN SINNOCK^{7, 80} was born or baptized on 30 Aug 1782 in Ore, East Sussex, England^{7, 80}. He died on 01 Sep 1782 in

Generation 7 (con't)

She was born or baptized about 1784 in Battle, East Sussex, England⁸⁶.

Last name spelled "Sennock" in the IGI

Mary Bean^{5, 17, 86} lived in Battle, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (Netherfield Road⁸⁶).

Notes for Mary Bean:

Mary was a widow when she married John Enefer.

A widow in 1861

44. MARY⁷ SINNOCK (Richard⁶, Richard⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 17-18, 59} was born or baptized on 07 May 1736 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary in the Castle¹⁷). She married Stephen Middlemas on 13 Oct 1763 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's^{5, 17}). He was born or baptized in 1733 in Hastings, East Sussex, England²².

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

Mary, the daughter of Richard and Mary from the IGI, is assumed to be Mary, wife of Stephen Middlemas, because of shared birth locations in Hastings, plus this seems to be the only Mary "Sinnock" found in this time period. She is shown as "Sarah", mother of Richard and Sarah Middlemas in the parish register.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sennoke" in the Hastings parish register. First name is given as "Sarah" in Janice Middlemas' letter of 18 Nov 1996

Stephen Middlemas^{5, 22, 59} was baptized on 21 Sep 1763 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (age 30²²).

Notes for Stephen Middlemas:

It appears that a condition Mary set for her marriage to Stephen was that he be baptized, so he was just three weeks before their wedding.

Stephen Middlemas and Mary Sinnock had the following children:

62. i. RICHARD⁸ MIDDLEMAS²² was born or baptized on 01 Dec 1767 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²²).
63. ii. RICHARD SINNOCK MIDDLEMAS^{22, 55, 59-60} was born or baptized on 27 Jul 1783 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²²). He died on 19 Apr 1848⁵⁵. He married ANN (MIDDLEMAS) ?. She was born or baptized about 1785¹⁴. She died on 09 Oct 1848⁸⁷.
- iii. STEPHEN MIDDLEMAS⁸⁷ was born or baptized in 1784⁸⁷.
- iv. SARAH MIDDLEMAS²² was born or baptized on 18 Nov 1787 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²²).

She died on 24 Aug 1817 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁷).

Richard Sinnock^{5, 31, 40, 60} owned Sinnock Square (Sinnock Alley) in Hastings and much other property in Hastings and Battle about 1800⁶⁰.

Notes for Richard Sinnock:

This person is the Richard Sinnock who bought Tripe Alley in nearby Hastings in 1766 for £130, providing the basis of the name of "Sinnock Square" as established in his will by the following quote "And also all that messuage or tenement and premises being in the parish of St Clements in the town and port of Hastings afsd now in the tenure or occupation of my nephew Richard Sinnock Middlemass tailor and also all that two messuage of tenements one whereof is in the tenure or occupation of James Funnell and the other being in two dwellings is in the several tenures or occupations of William Mare and Clark together with the grounds and premises to the same being in the Court formerly called Tripe Alley but now called Sinnock Alley in the parish of St Clements afsd and which the two last mentioned dwellings were purchased by me of the said George Tree and of Mr Robert Thatcher.

His daughter Mary is married to Stephen Middlemas whose son was Richard Sinnock Middlemas who was living at Sinnock Alley and whose family was mentioned by Howard Sinnock in September 29, 1996 telephone conversation..

- iv. SARAH SINNOCK⁵ was born or baptized about 1777 in Northiam, East Sussex, England⁵.

Notes for Sarah Sinnock:

I assume Sarah is a sibling of Richard Sinnock and Lucy Paine's other children because of the rarity of the name, the proximity of Northiam to Battle, and compatible birth dates.

- v. RICHARD SINNOCK³¹ was born or baptized on 03 Nov 1779 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date³¹).

Notes for Sarah Sinnock:

I assume Sarah is a sibling of the Sinnocks born in Birmingham because of the rarity of the name, the Birmingham location of her marriage, and compatible ages.

Notes for John Mapson:

Howard Sinnock's letter indicated his first name is James, and the IGI indicates it is John.

Mary Elizabeth Williams^{5, 7, 31} was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Croft Chapel⁷).

Migration: Abt. 1857 (Intra County, East Sussex (Westham to Hailsham)¹²)

Notes for James Sinnock:

James Sennock's parentage is recorded in the Westham Parish Register 15 Jul 1732 as " James [John partly erased] the son of Thomas Sennock and Elizabeth his wife was baptized". The identity of Thomas is somewhat in question and could be either Thomas Senneck married to Elizabeth Looker from Eastbourne, the case assumed here, or Thomas Sinnock married to Elizabeth Sinden in Bexhill. I assume that James, baptized in Westham, is the same as James who married Sarah Marshall in Hailsham 30 Jun 1757 then raised a family there. A note of interest, James and Sarah's first child, Thomas, was baptized only 4 months after they were married. By this time, the "Sinnock" spelling of the family name is fairly well established, though "Sinnick" and "Sennock" spellings still appear in the parish register for the christening entries of John Sinnick and Samuel Sennock, two of James and Sarah's seven children.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sinnock" (7 times), "Sinnick" (1) and "Sennock" (1) in the Hailsham parish register, and "Sennock" in the Westham parish register

Occupation Notes:

The History of Hailsham notes that H. C. Sinnock, James grandson who died in 1888, was the last of three generations of lawyers.

Sarah Marshall⁴¹ was buried in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁴¹).

James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall had the following children:

She was born or baptized on 20 Feb 1782 in Sandwich, Kent, England^{68, 79, 110-112}. She died about Sep 1866 in Thanet District, Kent, England^{68, 109}.
50. WILLIAM⁷ SINNOCK (Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)¹⁸ was born or baptized on 20 May 1734 in Arlington, East Sussex, England¹⁸.

Notes for William Sinnock:

I assume William is the father of John because of the rarity of the name, his birth place in Arlington where no other Sinnock families were at the time, and compatible ages.

William Sinnock had the following child:

79. i. JOHN⁸ SINNOCK¹¹³ was born or baptized about 1775 in England²³. He died before 1841³¹. He married Emma Highlands on 13 Aug 1800 in Arlington, East Sussex, England³¹. Migration: 1773 (Intra County, East Sussex (Eastbourne to Hailsham)²³) He owned Rent: 6s. 13p. 6d. about 1780⁶⁶. He was employed as a Lawyer about 1800⁶⁶.

Notes for John Sinnock:

John and Mary Roads had several Sinnock children in Hailsham and were progenitors of 122 Sinnocks. One of Mary and John's daughters, Anne, married Thomas Bonyface, the son of Thomas Bonyface and Elizabeth Sinnock, perhaps John's. Five months after they were married, their first son, John, was baptized.

I assume that John, son of Samuel and Mary from the Eastbourne parish register is the same person as John who married Mary Roads from the Hailsham register, based on his age as the only John Sinnock in my records at the time, the ages and names of his children, esp. John and Samuel as first-born sons, and proximity of Eastbourne and Hailsham. John had an illegitimate son, John, by Frances (Fanny) Sinnock, his second cousin twice removed when she was 20 and he 62 years old (PAR353/34/4/8 - date: 27 Apr 1802 John Sinnock of Hailsham, gent, the father of the illegitimate son (born on 1 Mar 1802 at the house of Elizabeth Sinnock) of Frances Sinnock, to pay 50s towards the lying-in and 2s 6d per week, FS to pay 6d per week)

Occupation Notes:

John's son, Samuel, is listed as a lawyer for Sinnock and Son in the 1840 Hailsham city directory.

John Sinnock had the following children:

- i. ANN⁸ SINNOCK^{18, 55-56, 116-118} was born or baptized about 1796 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹¹⁸. She died on 06 Mar 1881 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹¹⁶⁻¹¹⁷.

Ann Sinnock^{18, 55-56, 116-118} was baptized on 14 Feb 1796 in Selveston, East Sussex, England^{56, 116-119}. She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1871 at (High Street¹¹⁸). She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1881 at (Alexandra Terrace¹¹⁶). She owned < £400 in 1881¹¹⁷. Image: (death certificate¹⁸) Her cause of death was "senile decay"¹¹⁶.

Notes for Ann Sinnock:

Spinster at her death, I assume this is the same Ann as baptized in Selveston in 1796 because of her age at death, 85, and proximity of Hailsham and Selveston.

- ii. JOHN SINNOCK^{7, 41, 65, 68, 120-122} was born or baptized on 04 Mar 1802 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{7, 41, 68, 120-121}. He died on 08 May 1877 in Cuckfield District, West Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 68}). He married MARIA HOLLANDS. She was born or baptized about 1805⁶.

John Sinnock^{7, 41, 65, 68, 120-122} was baptized on 12 Dec 1802 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He lived in Horsted Keynes, West Sussex, England in 1851 at (Waterbury Castle¹²¹). He was employed as a Laborer, Brickmaker between 1851-1861¹²⁰⁻¹²¹. He lived in Bolney, West Sussex, England in 1861 at (North Grasellies, lodger in the home of Stephen Fairall¹²⁰). He was buried in Horsted Keynes, West Sussex, England (St. Giles⁷).

Notes for John Sinnock:

From: Maintenance orders: (as child) PAR353/34/4/8 27 Apr 1802 of the East Sussex Record Office, Contents: "John Sinnock of Hailsham, gent, the father of the illegitimate son (born on 1 Mar 1802 at the house of Elizabeth Sinnock) of Frances Sinnock, to pay 50s towards the lying-in and 2s 6d per week, FS to pay 6d per week". Could this John be the illegitimate son? The birth date and location and lack of identified parents suggests so, and such is shown as the relationship here. (as father, carrying on the family tradition) PAR353/34/4/49 - date: 30 Jan 1828 John Sinnock of Hailsham, labourer, the father of the illegitimate son (born on 24 Nov 1827) of Maria Hollands, to pay 9s costs, 40s towards lying-in and 2s per week, MH to pay 6d per week

Notes for Maria Hollands:

Notes for Samuel Sinnock:

Henrietta Fenner, his sister-in-law lived with him as a housekeeper in 1841 and 1851 and he claimed in his will of 1847 that she was his best friend, leaving her an annuity of £60 and the rest of his meager estate, admonishing his son, Charles Henry, to treat her kindly. I sense some friction there.

Notes for George Sinnock:

I assume George Sinnock christened to William and Hannah Lock in Hastings in 1788, is George Sinnock age 52, in the 1841 Eastbourne census based on no other reason except ages and the same name and no other George Sinnocks born at about the same time along the Sussex coast, though many George Sinnocks were born in the approximate time of 1790 plus or minus a few years. I violated my rule of three or more independent suggestions of identity, but I do that occasionally, not very often, but occasionally. If you are reading this, Hi, you have really dug deep into the roots and breadth of the Sinnock name. I've been quite obsessed with the subject for a few years now, as you can tell by this database. Well, have fun on your explorations. I also assume this George is the same as married Mary Anne Gorringer. A marriage entry in the London Daily News, 06 Jul 1849 for the marriage of his daughter to William Bullock lists him as the late G. Sinnock, Esq.

Relations among George Sinnocks born about 1790 in southern Sussex remain unknown, including possible duplication among:

- George, born about 1785 in Battle, son of Thomas Sinnock and Mary Inskip, no other information
- George, baptized 23 Jan 1788 in Hastings, son of William Sinnock and Hannah Lock, m. Sarah Govey in 1817 in Shoreditch, London and by 1818 had two children there, Sarah died or divorced (later marrying Robert Parker, perhaps)
- George, m. Mary Anne Gorringer in 1818 in Kidford, West Sussex and the same (assumed) George and Mary had 4 children in Eastbourne in the 1820's.
- George, baptized 7 Aug 1791 in Hellingly son of George Sinnock and Martha Shedwick; m. Mary Tampkin in Hellingly and raised 9 children there all born before 1934.
- George, baptized 16 Jun 1793 in Hailsham, son of Edward Sinnock and Elizabeth Bonyface, m. (1) Elizabeth Apps in 1807 in Catsfield and had 6 children in Battle and nearby villages from 1815 to 1821

Further research is needed to fully disentangle their families, so all are currently listed separately in the database

Sarah Govey^{5, 70-72} lived in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, England in 1817 at (George Street⁷⁰).

Notes for Sarah Govey:

I assume Sarah who married Robert Parker from the London, England, Marriages and Banns is George's sister because the witnesses to her 1823 wedding were Peter and Ann Elizabeth Govey, with the same last name as George's wife, Sarah Govey, so Peter, with a wife Ann

Generation 8 (con't)

Elizabeth, is assumed to be Sarah's brother, Sarah may be Sarah Sinnock of 1881 Census from Southwark, Surrey, age 70 in 1881; and she could be the sister of William born about 1805.

Death Notes:

Sarah died in 1818, perhaps during or as a result of Sarah, her daughter's childbirth in January. Her husband, George, apparently remarried in August that year

George Sinnock and Sarah Govey had the following children:

86. i. GEORGE⁹ SINNOCK^{5, 68, 70, 72, 85, 138-140} was born or baptized on 11 Feb 1817 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, England^{5, 72, 140}. He died on 09 Jul 1854 in Bethnal Green, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{68, 138, 140}). He married (1) ELIZABETH VERABAY on 07 Apr 1851 in Hackney, London, England (South Hackney Parish Church, George was a widower when he married the widow Elizabeth^{70, 85, 138}). She was born or baptized about 1799 in Hackney, London, England¹⁴¹. He married (2) LOUISA LAWRENCE COWLEY, daughter of Thomas Cowley, on 16 Mar 1840 in Hackney, London, England (Married by Banns posted at St. Johns^{70, 85}). She was born or baptized about 1820 in Hackney, London, England¹³⁸.
87. ii. SARAH SINNOCK^{5, 68, 72, 85} was born or baptized on 13 Jan 1818 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, England^{5, 72}. She died about Sep 1849 in Bethnal Green, Tower Hamlets, London, England⁶⁸. She married Matthias Fielder on 20 Jan 1841 in Finsbury, Islington, London, England (St. Luke⁸⁵). He was born or baptized on 25 Mar 1817 in Southwark, London, England¹⁴².

Mary Anne Gorringe^{5, 68-69} lived in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Grotto Cottage Terrace, near Wish Road⁶⁹).

George Sinnock and Mary Anne Gorringe had the following children:

- iii. GEORGIANA SINNOCK^{68-69, 117, 143-147} was born or baptized about 1819 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England^{68-69, 143-147}. She died on 19 Feb 1906 in Long Ashton, Somerset, England^{68, 117}.

Georgiana Sinnock^{68-69, 117, 143-147} lived in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Grotto Cottage Terrace, near Wish Road⁶⁹). She lived in Chedzoy, Somerset, England in 1851 at (Chedzoy Rectory, servant in the home of George Nutting, rector¹⁴⁴). She was employed as a Governess in 1851¹⁴⁴. She lived in Cardiff, Glamorgan, Wales in 1861 at (8 Woodfield Place, Routh Road, St. John's, lived with her sister and brother-in-law¹⁴⁷). She lived in Aylsham, Norfolk, England in 1881 at (Cawston Road, lived as a spinster with her widowed sister Caroline Bullock¹⁴⁵). She lived in Aylsham, Norfolk, England in 1891 at (116 St. Michael Terrace¹⁴⁶). She was employed as a Living on own means between 1891-1901^{143, 146}. She lived in Clevedon, Somerset, England between 1901-1906 at (13 Victoria Road¹⁴³). She owned £5235 6s. 11d. in 1906¹¹⁷.

Notes for Georgiana Sinnock:

listed as "Sinnork" living in Aylsham, Norfolk in the 1881 Census, a spinster when she died in 1906

- iv. CAROLINE SINNOCK^{31, 69-70, 85, 145, 148} was born or baptized on 04 Apr 1822 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's^{31, 69, 145}). She married William Bullock on 03 Jul 1849 in Willesden, Brent, London, England (St. Mary's^{70, 85}). He was born or baptized about 1820 in <of Timberscombe, Somerset>⁷⁰.

Caroline Sinnock^{31, 69-70, 85, 145, 148} was born or baptized in 1826¹⁴⁸. She lived in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Grotto Cottage Terrace, near Wish Road⁶⁹). She lived in Northiam, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Servant in the home of James and Mary Smith¹⁴⁸). She was employed as a Servant, age 13 in 1841¹⁴⁸. She lived in Aylsham, Norfolk, England in 1881 at (Cawston Road, live as a widow with her spinster sister Georgiana¹⁴⁵).

Notes for Caroline Sinnock:

I assume Caroline Bullock 61, living in Aylsham, Norfolk in the 1881 Census is the same person Caroline Sinnock who married William Bullock in Willesden in 1849, and further that she is also the same as two Caroline Sinnocks that appear in the 1841 census, one as a 13 year old servant in Northiam and the other as a 15 year old daughter in the family of George and Mary in Eastbourne, a hard day's ride away. I combine them here based on the rarity of the name and somewhat proximal locations (Aylsham exepted), noting it is possible she could have been at both places on the same day in 1841, early in the morning in one, late in the evening in the other. However, without a third "leg" of the stool, I here violate one of my principles of requiring at least three quasi-independent indicators of potential identity before incorporating merging names in the database. However, I could include as "evidence" the absence of evidence of any other Caroline, Sinnock or otherwise, in my database born anywhere near 1822, except Caroline Pettitt and Caroline Foord, both born 1824 or so, and neither fits.

William Bullock^{70, 85} was employed as a Clerk in 1849⁷⁰.

88. v. MARGARET SINNOCK^{31, 69, 85, 147} was born or baptized on 30 Apr 1823 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{31, 69, 147}).  89. vi. CHARLES HENRY SINNOCK^{31, 69, 85, 149-155} was born or baptized about 1826 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England^{69, 149, 152-154}. He died about 1888 in New Zealand¹⁵⁰. He married (1) ANNIE THORNE about Mar 1863 in Chelsea, Kensington and Chelsea, London, England⁸⁵. She was born or baptized about 1829 in Isle of Wight, England¹⁵⁰. She died about Dec 1867 in Alverstoke District, Hampshire, England^{31, 151}. He married (2) ANNIE (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized in 1829 in Isle of Wight, England^{68, 153}. She died about Dec 1867 in Alverstoke District, Hampshire, England⁶⁸.

He was born or baptized on 12 Nov 1783 in

Generation 8 (con't)

Bexhill, East Sussex, England⁷⁴. He died in 1835⁷⁴.

Notes for Sarah Sinnock:

The tie of Sarah to her parents is based solely on a descendant tree and associated GED file sent to Scott Sinnock by Howard Sinnock on December 20, 1996. A Sarah Sinnock who was the daughter of Thomas Sinnock died in Battle in 1784 according to the Battle Parish register. This Sarah may be the child of another Thomas Sinnock but the coincidence is pretty hard to take unless cousins or other relative both Thomas's had girls at the same time and named them the same for family coincidences, perhaps. However, I should note that all of Howards other family statistics are confirmed by other sources, so this lends credibility to his birth date and parentage of Sarah. All the know descendants of Sarah Sinnock are taken from a family tree placed on the Internet by the Whipple family. From Mark Milton is an entry from Bexhill St Peter 1558 - 1797: First name Sarah, Surname SINNOCK, Baptism Date 06-May-1782, Father first name Thomas, Father surname SINNOCK, Mother first name Sussanah, Mother surname SINNOCK

Last name given as "Sinnock" in the England and Wales Christening Records and in the England and Wales Marriages, as "Sinnock" and "Sennoke in the IGI, and as "Sinnock", "Sevenoaks", "Sunnick", "Sinnick", in the Parish Register of Selmeaton, East Sussex. Elias, alone, is one example of ties between the "Sevenoaks" and "Sinnock" names in the Eastbourne-Hailsham area of East Sussex, England (Selmeaton is but five miles from Hailsham). His children's names are given as "Sinnock" in the christening records

Jane Thorn^{5, 7, 20-21, 55-56} was buried in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Parish Church^{7, 56}).

Mary Sinnock^{5, 18, 20, 55-56} was baptized on 31 Jan 1802 in Selveston, East Sussex, England^{20, 56}.

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

Name Notes:

I assume that Mary, the daughter of John and Jane as recorded in the census data for Selveston is the same person as the Mary who married Richard Love in Brighton, just 10 miles away, but perhaps a significant distance in the early 1800's, a full day's hike there and back.

94. vi. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{5, 20, 55-56, 68, 161} was born or baptized on 02 Oct 1803 in Selveston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56, 161}). He died on 31 Aug 1886 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 68}). He married Ann Brookes about 1850 in Chailey, East Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1829 in Chailey, East Sussex, England^{5, 68, 167, 169-170}. She died about Mar 1900 in Lewes, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

She was born or baptized in 1786 in Battle, East Sussex, England⁷⁷.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

Name Notes:

Last name spelled "Sinnock" in the England and Wales Christening Records, England and Wales Marriages, and most entries in the Selveston parish register, but as "Sevenoaks" in one entry of the Selveston Parish Register (his baptism), one example of tying the Sevenoaks name to the Sinnock name.

Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall had the following children:

97. i. THOMAS⁹ SINNOCK^{5, 7, 18, 68, 107, 171-173} was born or baptized on 10 Aug 1806 in West Firle, East Sussex, England^{7, 18, 68, 171-173}. 98. iii. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{5, 20, 56, 68, 70, 72, 85, 177} was born or baptized on 16 Nov 1809 in Selveston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56, 68, 177}). He died about Mar 1879 in Camden, London, England (St. Pancras District⁶⁸). He married (1) MARY MALTMAN on 29 Jul 1827 in Lewisham, London, England (St. Mary's⁷⁰). She was born or baptized about 1810⁶. He married (2) ELIZABETH PRITCHARD on 01 Jan 1838 in Camden, London, England (Old Church, St. Pancras District^{5, 70, 85}). (SINNOCK) ? on 26 Sep 1853 in Camden, London, England (St. Pancras District⁷⁰). He was born or baptized about 1810. She married (2) GEORGE ALLEN about Dec 1842 in Bedford District, Bedfordshire, England (Anne Sinnock married either George Allen or Joseph Wooding⁸⁵). He was born or baptized about 1815²³.

Anne Sinnock^{20, 56, 70, 85} lived in Camden, London, England in 1853 at (Hampden Street, St. Pancras District⁷⁰).

Notes for Anne Sinnock:

I assume Anne, born in Selvestone in 1811 is the same person as Anne who married George Allen or Joseph Wooding in 1842 in Bedfordshire and then married an unknown person in 1853 in London based on the rarity of the name and the identical spelling of her first name. Geographic proximity does not lend support to this association, but what the heck, sometime you gotta go for it.

Several Sinnock with Ann in their name born in about 1815 appear in England, same persons suggested by numbers:

- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1812, London, Camden, Holborn
- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1838, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Camden, Holborn
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields

1, 2, and 3. Mary Ann (1), Sarah Ann (2), and Ann (3) are sisters, daughters of James Sinnock and Ruth Blacktop; I assume Mary Ann and Sarah Ann are the same as those with the same names married in nearby St. Martin in the Fields at 21 and 22 years old.

Ann (3) is assumed to the same person married in 1833 to George Holloway in Hampshire for no reason other than the name and age and a common information source, the Australian Descendant Family Tree. Ann, the daughter of James and Ruth could be the bride in any of the marriages listed here except those of her sisters (see 1 and 2).

4. Anne, born to Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall in Selveston, Sussex is assumed to be "Anne" married in 1842 to George Allen in Bedfordshire and in 1853 to an unknown spouse in St. Pancras, mostly because of the spelling of the name, poor evidence at best.

5. Mary Ann born in 1810 to George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps in Battle is assumed to be the same person who married James Smith in nearby (2 miles) Catsfield, mostly from Mark Milton, because of the name and location.

7. Ann, born in 1815 to Thomas Sinnock and Mariah Geall could be any of the above Ann's.

8. Ann, 25, of the 1841 Westminster census is assumed to be the same person as Ann born in Worth in 1816 to Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Rice for no other reason than the name and birth date. She could be the bride in any of the marriages listed above.

9. Two marriages of Ann Elizabeth are recorded, one in July 1839 in Marylebone from the IGI and one in the last quarter or 1839 in the Medway District from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. Because no other known Ann Elizabeth's live at the time, I assign both marriages to the same person.

George Allen⁸⁵ also went by the name of Joseph Wooding⁸⁵.

99. v. JOHN SINNOCK^{20, 56, 68, 70, 85, 117, 179} was born or baptized on 03 Jan 1813 in Selveston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56, 68, 70, 179}). Elias Sinnock^{5, 16} was employed as a Blacksmith in 1814⁷⁸.

Notes for Elias Sinnock:

Elias is assumed to be the son of Elias and Elizabeth of Rochester. Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

Name Notes:

Pallots marriage index gives the marriage location as Westminster, London, St. Martin in the Fields in 1805, while the IGI gives the location as Hastings, All Saints on July 8, 1805 I used the later reference because of the more precise date and wonder how London and Hastings got mixed up.

Image: (tombstone photograph) She was buried in Ore, East Sussex, England (St. Helen's, London Road, Tombstone 75^{7, 84}).

Notes for Jane Thatcher:

Jane was a widow when she married Thomas so Thatcher is probably a married name, so Robert Thatcher is probably not her father.

Thomas Sinnock and Jane Thatcher had the following children:

108. i. ELIZABETH⁹ SINNOCK^{5, 16, 20, 22, 84, 185} was born or baptized on 03 Sep 1797 in Ore, East Sussex, England^{5, 20, 22, 84}. She died in Jan 1878 in Hastings, East Sussex, England^{84, 185}. - v. JOHN HENRY SINNOCK³¹ was born or baptized before 1808 in England³¹. He died on 11 Jan 1808 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (All Saints³¹).

Notes for John Henry Sinnock:

I assume John Henry is a son of Thomas and Jane Thatcher because of the rarity of the name, death location in Hastings, no other Sinnock families having children in Hastings at the time, and no other likely candidates for John Henry's birth during the preceding 70 or so years, a weak association.

60. ANN⁸ SINNOCK (Elias⁷, Elias⁶, Richard⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 20, 80} was born or baptized on 23 Jun 1774 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 80}). He lived in Mansell Lacy, Herefordshire, England between 1841-1851 at (Mansel Common (The Town), lived as a widower with his son Samuel and family⁸⁸⁻⁸⁹). He was buried in Mansell Lacy, Herefordshire, England (St. Michael's).

Notes for Samuel Sinnock:

Though there are other Samuel Sinnocks at the time, they are all married to wives other than Sarah Pardoe, so I assume Samuel, son of Richard Sinnock and Lucy Paine in Battle from Mark Milton's GEDCOM is the same as Samuel who married Sarah Pardoe in Birmingham in 1807 and with her raised a family there according to the IGI, and whose son, Samuel moved on to Mansel Lacy, Hereford. This requires that Samuel be about 37 when he married Sarah far from his family home in Battle, East Sussex. Further, it seems perhaps that after Sarah died Samuel went to live with his son in Mansel Lacy and was buried there, being the "Sinnock" 61 years old buried in Mansel Lacy in 1837 according to the National Burial Index cited in Mark Milton's letter.

Sarah Pardoe^{5, 7} was buried in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Notes for Sarah Pardoe:

Birth Notes:

She married Francis Smith on 30 Oct 1773 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He was born or baptized about 1750¹⁴.

Notes for Lucy Sinnock:

Francis Smith married Lucy Sinnock, as did his grandson, Peter Parks one Lucy thus the grandmother of the other, resulting in two interminglings of the Parks - Sinnock Families in Hailsham in the late 1700's and early 1800's

Generation 8 (con't)

Francis Smith^{36, 41} was employed as a Laborer, Turnpike Gate Keeper, Hailsham in 1790³⁶.

Francis Smith and Lucy Sinnock had the following child:

122. i. MARY⁹ SMITH¹⁹⁴ was born or baptized in 1786 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁹⁴. She died on 05 Oct 1851 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁹⁴. She married HENRY PARKS. He was born or baptized on 02 Sep 1781 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁹⁴. He died on 28 Nov 1853 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁹⁴.
69. EDWARD⁸ SINNOCK (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{31, 41} was born or baptized on 16 Apr 1749 in Arlington, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{18, 31}). He died on 15 Feb 1800 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴¹). He married Elizabeth Bonyface on 06 Dec 1777 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. She was born or baptized about 1755¹⁴. She died on 26 Jun 1808 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹.

Notes for Edward Sinnock:

The relationships of Thomas, Edward's presumed father and Edward to the Eastbourne Sinnocks is tenuous and based on a descendant tree in Howard Sinnocks 1996 letter to Scott Sinnock. In the tree, Howard identifies Thomas Sinnock and his wife Lucy as the parents of Edward Synnock, born April 16, 1749 in Arlington, East Sussex and married to Elizabeth Bonnyface on December 7, 1777. He also indicated that another Thomas Sinnock and his wife Elizabeth are the grandparents of Edward. Scott Sinnock's database independently showed an Edward Sinnock married to Elizabeth Bonyface on December 6, 1777. Scott's database also showed a Thomas Sinnock, born June 30, 1695, married to Elizabeth and having sons, Thomas, born April 11, 1728 and James, Scott's 5th great grandfather. The appropriateness of birth dates of the Thomas's, the common identity of Elizabeth of the wife of the oldest Thomas, and the common identity of Edward's marriage to Elizabeth Bonyface all lead to an inference that Thomas and Lucy are indeed the parents of Edward and the descendants of the Eastbourne Sinnocks.

He is assumed to be the son of Thomas Sinnock, who is a son of Thomas and brother of James, Heather Sinnock's 6th great grandfather, but he could be Edward Sevenoakes born 1741 in Stone, Isle of Oxney, Kent.

Elizabeth Bonyface⁴¹ was also known as "Emmy"⁴¹.

Notes for Elizabeth Bonyface:

Register transcript entry for burial spelled "Sennock", Elizabeth and Edward's first child, Elizabeth, was born just one month after their marriage.

Edward Sinnock and Elizabeth Bonyface had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH⁹ SINNOCK⁴¹ was born or baptized on 02 Jan 1778 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). She died on 30 Jan 1781 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴¹).
- ii. RUTH SINNOCK^{18, 68} was born or baptized on 25 Dec 1779 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹⁸). She died about Dec 1849 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Ruth Sinnock:

There are three Ruth Sinnock's from the Hailsham area that could be either of the persons identified in the Civil Registration Index of Deaths as dying in about Dec 1879 and 1881:

- Ruth, daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Sinnock, baptized Christmas day 1779 (not likely to have lived 102 years)
 - Ruth Bateman Sinnock, born about 1806, and having children with William in nearby Hellingly and Arlington in the 1820's and 1830's (assumed here), and their daughter
 - Ruth born in Hellingly in 1831.
- iii. FRANCES SINNOCK^{7, 41, 65} was born or baptized on 22 Jan 1782 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). She died on 22 Dec 1802 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁴¹).

Frances Sinnock^{7, 41, 65} was buried in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's^{7, 41}). She was also known as "Fanny"⁴¹.

Notes for Frances Sinnock:

Fanny, at 20 years old, had an illegitimate son, John, by John Sinnock her second cousin twice removed, who was 62 years old at the time. Fanny then died nine months after John's birth.

PAR353/34/4/8 - date: 27 Apr 1802 John Sinnock of Hailsham, gent, the father of the illegitimate son (born on 1 Mar 1802 at the house of Elizabeth Sinnock) of Frances Sinnock, to pay 50s towards the lying-in and 2s 6d per week, FS to pay 6d per week

- iv. EMMY SINNOCK^{7, 41} was born or baptized on 07 Oct 1784 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). She died on 30 Jul 1799 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 41}).
- Emmy Sinnock^{7, 41} was buried in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's^{7, 41}).
123. v. THOMAS SINNOCK^{5, 41, 70, 72, 130-131, 140, 195-196} was born or baptized on 25 Jul 1786 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{41, 140}). He died on 07 Aug 1831 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England¹⁴⁰. He married Mary Ann Norman, daughter of William Norman and Hannah (Norman) ?, on 06 Nov 1819 in Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. George in the East^{70, 195}). She was born or baptized on 05 Aug 1804 in Selveston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 131, 196}). She died about Jun 1854 in Hastings District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Generation 8 (con't)

124. vi. GEORGE SINNOCK^{5, 20, 41, 68, 70, 197-199} was born or baptized on 16 Jun 1793 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{41, 198-199}). He died about Sep 1859 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married (1) ELIZABETH APPS on 08 Jan 1807 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns¹⁹⁷). She was born or baptized about 1779 in Dunkirk, Kent, England²⁰⁰⁻²⁰¹. She died on 18 Mar 1821 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's⁷). He married (2) ? LEWIS. She was born or baptized about 1805⁶.
- vii. MARY SINNOCK^{41, 70-71} was born or baptized on 22 Feb 1795 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). She married Felix Hewitt on 06 Nov 1819 in Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. George in the East⁷⁰⁻⁷¹). He was born or baptized about 1795 in England⁹.

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

I assume Mary, daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Sinnock in Haisham in 1795 is the same as Mary Sinnock who married Felix Hewitt in London in 1919 because of the same first name, rarity of the last name, and compatible age (about 24), noting that all other Mary Sinnock's of ages between 20 and 50 were married elsewhere or otherwise not viable candidates.

70. HENRY⁸ SINNOCK (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18} was born or baptized on 07 Jun 1752 in Arlington, East Sussex, England¹⁸. He married Mary Stone on 17 May 1776 in Worth, West Sussex, England^{5, 18}. She was born or baptized about 1755²³.

Migration: Abt. 1776 (Inter County, East Sussex to West Sussex (Arlington to Worth)¹²)

Notes for Henry Sinnock:

I assume Henry, born to Thomas and Lucy in Arlington, Sussex, moved as a young man of 24 to Worth, Sussex, where he married Mary Stone and there raised a family, according to the IGI and Howard Sinnock's letter and enclosed GEDCOM. I assume these are the same person because of the rarity of the name, geographic (sort of) proximity (Arlington to Worth is about 20 miles), compatible ages, and no other known "Henry" in the area at the time. After two generations in Worth, Henry's son, Thomas seemed to have moved further west, first to Hampshire, then on to Dorset where he began using the "Sinnick" spelling of the family name. This is the only line suggested in this database as a link between the Sinnocks of Sussex and the Sinnicks and Sennecks of Dorset. I believe there are others, and that this family, or one or more similar families, moved from Sussex to Dorset in the late 1700's and early 1800's.

Henry Sinnock and Mary Stone had the following children:

125. i. SARAH⁹ SINNOCK^{5, 18, 202} was born or baptized on 29 Oct 1776 in Worth, West Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹⁸). She died on 09 Oct 1862 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England²⁰². She married Thomas Rovey on 21 Aug 1794 in Worth, West Sussex, England^{5, 18}. He was born or baptized in 1770 in Worth, West Sussex, England²⁰².
- ii. MARY SINNOCK^{18, 140} was born or baptized on 07 Feb 1779 in Worth, West Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{18, 140}). She died on 20 Dec 1836 in St Martin in the Fields, Camden, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁴⁰).

Mary Sinnock^{18, 140} lived in St Martin in the Fields, Camden, London, England in 1836 at (Workhouse¹⁴⁰).

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

I assume Mary who died in London in 1836 at age 60 is the same as Mary born in Worth in 1779, though the years are off by three. I can find no other Mary of any surname in this database that could be a viable candidate for the forgotten person who died in a London workhouse. Her parents were probably dead, she had no money, no other records exist for her. Perhaps she is the one who died poor in London too.

126. iii. THOMAS SINNOCK^{5, 18, 68} was born or baptized on 07 Oct 1781 in Worth, West Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹⁸). He died about Dec 1850 in Leominster, Herefordshire, England⁶⁸. He married Elizabeth Rice on 09 Apr 1805 in Worth, Kent, England¹⁸. She was born or baptized about 1774 in Puddlestone, Worcestershire, England²⁰³. She died about Nov 1852 in Leominster, Herefordshire, England⁶⁸.
71. EMMA⁸ SINNOCK (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 20, 22, 31} was born or baptized on 15 Aug 1756 in Arlington, East Sussex, England^{18, 31}.

Notes for Emma Sinnock:

I assume Emma Sinnock, born the daughter of Thomas and Lucy from Arlington in 1756 is the same person as Emma, the mother of Caroline in Hastings in 1785 because of the rarity of the last name, the common first name, the near proximity, about 15 miles, and the fact that the parish register entry only mentioned Emma as the mother of Caroline, while all other nearby entries include both a father and mother for all births. Thus it appears Emma went away to Hastings to have her daughter, Caroline, perhaps in shame of being unwed. Alas, Caroline died four month later.

Emma Sinnock had the following child:

- i. CAROLINE⁹ SINNOCK^{5, 7, 20, 22, 31} was born or baptized on 10 Dec 1785 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at All Saints^{5, 20, 22}). She died on 04 Apr 1786 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{17, 31}).

Caroline Sinnock^{5, 7, 20, 22, 31} was buried in Hastings, East Sussex, England (St. Clement's⁷).

Notes for Caroline Sinnock:

Name Notes:

First name give as "Christine" in the Hastings, St. Clement's, Parish Register.

Generation 8 (con't)

72. THOMAS⁸ SINNOCK (James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 16, 41} was born or baptized on 30 May 1757 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). He married ANNE (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized about 1760¹.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

I assume Thomas who with Anne had children in Gloucestershire is the same as Thomas, son of James and Elizabeth from Hailsham because of the rarity of the last name, matching of the first name, no other Thomas Sinnocks known with birthdates within 20 years of 1757, though the geographic separation argues against this assumption, but Thomas of Gloucester had to come from somewhere, why not Hailsham?.

Thomas Sinnock and Anne (Sinnock) ? had the following children:

- i. THOMAS WATKINS⁹ SINNOCK⁵ was born or baptized on 24 Aug 1783 in Coleford, Gloucestershire, England⁵.

Notes for Thomas Watkins Sinnock:
last name also spelled "Senock"

- ii. WILLIAM SINNOCK⁵ was born or baptized on 06 Jun 1785 in Newland, Gloucestershire, England⁵.

- iii. JOHN GODWIN SINNOCK^{5, 70-71} was born or baptized on 09 Sep 1787 in Newland, Gloucestershire, England⁵. He married Frances Clarke on 23 Mar 1811 in Camden, London, England (Old Church, St. Pancras District^{5, 70-71}). She was born or baptized about 1790^{39, 49}.

John Godwin Sinnock^{5, 70-71} lived in Camden, London, England in 1811 at (St. Pancras District).

Notes for John Godwin Sinnock:
Middle name spelled "Goding" in IGI

Frances Clarke^{5, 18, 71} lived in Camden, London, England in 1811 at (St. Pancras District⁷⁰).

- iv. HENRY SINNOCK⁵ was born or baptized on 05 Nov 1789 in Newland, Gloucestershire, England⁵.

73. JAMES⁸ SINNOCK (James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{2, 5, 41, 68, 98-101} was born or baptized on 11 Aug 1758 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{98, 100}. He died on 27 Nov 1839 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 98}. He married Elizabeth Ruth Weller, daughter of John Weller and Mary (Weller) ?, on 30 Nov 1784 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns⁴¹). She was born or baptized on 28 Jul 1759 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁰⁰. She died on 28 Feb 1830 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{31, 41, 100}.

James Sinnock^{2, 5, 41, 68, 98-101} was baptized on 20 Aug 1758 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He was employed as a Laborer about 1810^{98, 101}. His cause of death was "decay of nature"^{98, 100}. Image: (family photograph, family home photographs (2), death certificate, descendant trees (2)²⁰⁴)

Notes for James Sinnock:

James' parentage is well established in the Hailsham Parish Register entry for 20 Aug 1758 "James Sinnock s. James & Sarah baptized" as is his marriage on 30 Nov 1839 "James Sinnock and Elizabeth Weller married by Banns" as are the baptisms of their 9 children in the Hailsham register, including Samuel, my 3rd great grandfather. James and Elizabeth are also identified as the parents of Samuel in Thomas Sinnock's family history, linking family recollections to the parish records. For all James and Elizabeth's descendants, the most reliable information about family ties is provided by family records, commonly polished by dates and events from official records.

130. v. SAMUEL SINNOCK^{21, 41, 100-101, 209, 214-228} was born or baptized on 13 Nov 1793 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{5, 41, 209, 214, 217-219, 223-226}. Notes for Ann Sinnock:

Thomas Sinnock's Family Tree indicates Ann was baptized 3 Feb 1796 in Lewes and died 18 Aug 1818; the London England Deaths and Burial identifies Ann Sinnock of Norwich Court buried Aug 23, 1818 in Holborn, London. Thomas Sinnock as well as John McKee give her birth date as Christmas Day, 1795.

- vii. JOHN SINNOCK^{7, 31, 41, 100, 209} was born or baptized on 08 Feb 1798 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{41, 100, 209}. He died on 05 Dec 1798 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{41, 100}.

John Sinnock^{7, 31, 41, 100, 209} was baptized on 25 Apr 1798 in Lewes, East Sussex, England (Jireh Chapel, Cliffe³¹). He was buried in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's^{7, 41, 100}).

131. viii. CHARLES SINNOCK^{5, 7, 68, 75, 85, 100-101, 107, 118, 123, 130-131, 230-231} was born or baptized on 22 Mar 1800 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{7, 41, 68, 75, 100, 118, 130-131, 230}. He died on 10 Feb 1882 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 68, 100, 231}). She was born or baptized about 1808 in Chelsea, Kensington and Chelsea, London, England^{75, 118, 130, 231-232}. She died about Jun 1878 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England^{68, 231}. He married (2) MARIA PARSONS on 08 May 1821 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns, witness William Sinnock^{5, 123}). She was born or baptized about 1800¹⁴. She died on 06 Jul 1828 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England³¹.
- ix. MARY SINNOCK¹⁰⁰ was born or baptized on 10 Aug 1803 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁰⁰. She died on 12 Aug 1817 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁰⁰.

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

I found no references to Mary's baptism or burial in the Hailsham Parish Register for the dates provided by Thomas Sinnock's Family Tree, but this was at the time the registers throughout England were becoming less complete as more people opted out of the parish communities centered on the parish church and parish priests were less diligent in keeping birth, marriage, and burial records for their rapidly growing parishes, eventually leading to creation of the Civil Registration in 1837 to again encompass all, or nearly all, people in the registration and taxing process.

74. WILLIAM⁸ SINNOCK (James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{27, 41} was born or baptized on 11 Apr 1762 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). He married (1) SUSANNA BROWN on 18 Nov 1781 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Married by License²⁷). She was born or baptized about 1762¹. She died on 13 May 1797 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date²⁷). He married (2) ELIZABETH CHAPMAN on 07 Nov 1790 in Margate, Kent, England (St. John⁵). She was born or baptized about 1765 in England²³.

Notes for William Sinnock:

I assume William, born in Hailsham in 1762 to James and Sarah is the same as William, who married Susanna Brown in Bexhill in 1781, because of the rarity of the name, no other viable candidates among known William's, proximity (Bexhill is about 8 miles away as the crow flies, 12 by road), and compatible ages, assuming he was 19 when he married Susanna. I also assume this same person married again, Elizabeth Chapman in Margate, joining his brother there perhaps after Susanna died, or less likely, they divorced, noting that the only reference I have to Elizabeth and William's marriage is the notoriously inaccurate International Genealogical Index of Britain.

Susanna Brown^{27, 31} was buried in Bexhill, East Sussex, England (St. Peter's²⁷).

William Sinnock and Susanna Brown had the following child:

- i. WILLIAM⁹ SINNOCK^{18, 31} was born or baptized on 23 Apr 1783 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England¹⁸.

William Sinnock^{18, 31} was baptized on 25 Apr 1783 in Bexhill, East Sussex, England³¹.

75. JOHN⁸ SINNOCK (James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 19, 41} was born or baptized on 04 Jul 1763 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{7, 41}). He died on 08 Feb 1830 in Arlington, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Pancras⁷). He married Sarah Goodhew on 11 Oct 1787 in Bredgar, Kent, England^{5, 19}. She was born or baptized about 1765¹⁴.

Migration: 1787 (Inter County, East Sussex to Kent (Hailsham to Borden)²³)

Notes for John Sinnock:

Based on closeness of age (assuming John was about 25 when he married Sarah in Bredgar, Kent), common name, a lack of other families with John Sinnocks at that general time, I assume John of the IGI who, with Sarah, had many children in Borden (less than a mile from Bredgar) is the same as the John, born in Hailsham, East Sussex to James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall from the Hailsham parish register. In this interpretation, John of Hailsham met Sarah of Bredgar, Kent, married her in Bredgar in 1787, had a son William, 1791, settled in her home area just a mile up the road and had seven more children in Borden, near Chatham and Sittingbourne along the north coast of Kent.

Name Notes:

First name spelled "Jesse" in a single entry in the IGI, "John" in many others in the same source. Last name spelled "Sinnick" in the parish register.

John Sinnock and Sarah Goodhew had the following children:

132. i. WILLIAM⁹ SINNOCK^{20, 68, 85, 117, 233-235} was born or baptized about 1791 in Bredgar, Kent, England²³³. He died on 18 Feb 1862 in Chatham, Kent, England (11 John Street-Ordinance-Place^{68, 117}). He married Ann Whitehead, daughter of Richard Whitehead and Mary Grigsby, on 26 Sep 1812 in Rochester, Kent, England^{85, 235}. She was born or baptized on 04 Aug 1794 in Stockbury, Kent, England²³³. She died about Mar 1870 in Poplar, Tower Hamlets, London, England⁶⁸.
- ii. SARAH SINNOCK^{5, 53} was born or baptized on 15 Sep 1793 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). She married Richard Wood on 07 Nov 1820 in Bredgar, Kent, England⁵³. He was born or baptized about 1790¹.
133. iii. JAMES SINNOCK^{5, 70, 78, 236-238} was born or baptized on 13 Mar 1796 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 236, 238}). He died before 1866⁷⁰. He married FRANCES (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized in 1804 in Leybourne, Kent, England^{14, 49, 68, 236-239}. She died about Mar 1881 in Lewisham, London, England⁶⁸.
- iv. STEPHEN SINNOCK⁵ was born or baptized on 18 Nov 1798 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵).
- v. MARY SINNOCK^{5, 240} was born or baptized on 12 Jan 1800 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). She married JOSEPH JUDGE. He was born or baptized on 25 Sep 1796 in Ospringe, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²⁴⁰).

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

I assume Mary born to John and Sarah in Borden in 1800 from the IGI is the same as Mary who was married to Joseph Judge from the Ancestry.com family tree, because of rarity of the name, geographic proximity (Borden, where Mary was born is about 4 miles from Ospninge where Joseph was christened in 1796), and compatible ages.

- vi. ELIZABETH SINNOCK^{5, 68, 79} was born or baptized on 17 Apr 1803 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 68, 79}). She died about Dec 1878 in Weobley, Herefordshire, England⁶⁸.

Elizabeth Sinnock^{5, 68, 79} lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1841 at (Drake Street⁷⁹). She was employed as a Draper in 1841⁷⁹.

Notes for Elizabeth Sinnock:

I assume Elizabeth, born in Borden in 1803 is the same person as Elizabeth, 75, who died in Weobley in 1878 is the same as the Draper in Margate in the 1841 census

- vii. JOHN SINNOCK⁵ was born or baptized on 25 Sep 1808 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). He died before 1810 in Borden, Kent, England¹⁴.

134. viii. JOHN W. SINNOCK^{5, 85, 241-245} was born or baptized on 26 Aug 1810 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 241-242, 245}). He died on 08 Feb 1891 in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA (720 Yak Avenue²⁴²). He married Sarah Swift Coultrup on 23 Sep 1832 in Minster-in-Sheppey, Kent, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1812 in Kent, England^{68, 241}. She died about Jun 1866 in Hoo District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

76. ELIZABETH⁸ SINNOCK (James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{41, 68, 79, 102} was born or baptized on 23 Mar 1766 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{41, 79, 102}). She died about Dec 1857 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 102}. She married Thomas Boniface, son of William Boniface and Mary Coleman, on 14 Dec 1786 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns^{41, 102}). He was born or baptized about 1766 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹⁰²⁻¹⁰⁵. He died on 16 Sep 1875 in Ashford, Kent, England¹⁰².

Notes for Elizabeth Sinnock:

Elizabeth married Thomas Boniface, and together they had at least 150 known descendants, almost all of whom are Bonifaces, constituting one of the largest branches descended from James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall. I refer readers to several Boniface family trees available on line for more reliable information about this branch.

Thomas Boniface^{41, 102-105} lived in Shoreham by Sea, West Sussex, England in 1841 at (Upper Lancing Road¹⁰⁵). He was employed as a Farm Laborer (Agricultural), age 75 in 1841¹⁰⁵.

Notes for Thomas Boniface:

Information about Thomas and Elizabeth's descendants in this database is almost entirely from "Ancestors and Descendants of Thomas are:" a message posted by Nissa D. Armstrong in a Rootsweb message board, 18 Jul 2005 and sent to me by Mark Milton. Quoted here as:

"Posting this here, as I am not sure how the Rootsweb gateway works. I am still learning about it. Thanks for your understanding. I thought this might be more helpful than e-mailing everyone I have seen in the last month, that I think fits into my genealogical puzzle. I am sorry if I confuse anyone. My husband's line is as follows and I need practically all information on the people listed, including but not limited to birth dates and places, marriage dates and places, children, other wives and their children, as well as siblings; anything that could help me with the puzzle. Like most of you, I am sure you have a line that eludes you with information. Well, my husband's family has done practically no genealogy and saved practically no documentation. Now just a few family members remain living and they are old enough that information is hard to get. So here we go: Note: To my knowledge, everyone on this list is now deceased. My appologies to anyone that may still be alive.

Ok, that is nearly all the information I have on my bonifaces. Anything anyone might be able to add to, copy off documents at my expense (or scan), etc. I would be eternally grateful. As I stated before, I am new to this and the family hasn't done ANYTHING with their genealogy before. If I may be of assistance to anyone, by sharing what little information I have not listed, please contact me. Many thanks to the BIG subscriber that shared Mr. Parsons information with me, and allowed me to go back as far as I have listed. I have nothing much, beyond Clara Martha Boniface's parents, Thomas Boniface and Caroline Burton. So many thanks to everyone that has helped me connect this information to my family tree. I truly appreciate it. Nissa D. Armstrong - Poll, nissa@nycap.rr.com

Image: (descendant tree) Her cause of death was paralysis^{31, 108}.

Notes for Ann Judd:

Ann was a Samuel Sinnock's widow when she married Thomas Boniface in 1825, after her liason with Samuel Long. It seems that the surgeon Samuel Long, perhaps attending Ann's husband, Samuel, in his final days, took sympathy on the widow. Thirteen 13 months after Samuel died, Ann gave birth to Frederick, an illegitimate son by Samuel, who adopted the Sinnock name.

From Mark Miltons GEDCOM, Death Certificate 23rd April 1843, Hailsham, Sussex, Female, 60 years, Widow of Thomas Boniface, Labourer, Cause of Death = Paralysis, Informant = Marion Smith; present at death; used her mark.

He lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1826 at (Cranbourne Alley¹⁰⁷). He was employed as a Upholster in 1841⁷⁹. He lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1841 at (St. John the Baptist⁷⁹). Notes for Henry Sinnock:

I suspect the Henry Sinnock who was born in Hailsham to James and Sarah Marshall Sinnock from the Hailsham Parish Register is the Henry Sinnock who married Mary Wood from Margate then settled in Margate, establishing the first Sinnock link to Margate, Kent. This still leaves two Henry's living in Hailsham at this time, one born to John and Mary Roads and the this one born to James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall. John and Mary's son, Henry, may be one who migrated to the Margate area to marry Mary Wood in 1802, but his age at that marriage would have been just 17, a very early age for marriage in England at that time, especially considering he would have had to have left his home and go to faraway Margate as such a young lad, again not likely. Thus this Henry is assumed here to be the husband and Mary Wood. In either case, it appears a Henry migrated from the Hailsham area to Margate in about 1800. Two assumption are necessary to link the families of John Sinnock and Scott Sinnock, including the link of Hailsham to Margate Sinnocks.

- that the Henry Sinnock discussed below in assumption 2 as the father of William Sinnock of Margate, Kent, is the same as the Henry Sinnock baptized to James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall in Hailsham, East Sussex, on September 13, 1778. Henry Sinnock and Mary Wood had several children in Kent, the oldest, John, born on August 05, 1804 in Sandwich, Kent, a small town just outside Margate and the home town of Mary Wood. They had all their other children including William in nearby Margate according to parish records summarized in the IGI. If Henry Sinnock were about 25 or 26 when his first child was born in 1804, a common age for the fathers of first born children in England at this time, then he would have been born in about 1778 or 1779, matching the birth date of Henry Sinnock from Hailsham. Another Henry Sinnock was baptized in Hailsham to John Sinnock and Mary Roads at about the same time, 12 Feb 1779, but apparently died two weeks later. Still another Henry, son of John and Mary Roads, appears only in the IGI, born about 1885, but he would have been only 17 at the time of his marriage to Mary Wood, so because of lack of corroboration of the IGI and the young potential marriage age, I don't believe this Henry is the one from Margate. I have found no other evidence of any other Henry Sinnocks in England who could have been born at this general time (1775 to 1795). I conclude that Henry Sinnock, born in Hailsham in 1778, moved to the home town of his bride, Mary Woods after their marriage in nearby Margate (a common practice even to this day) where they had one son in 1804 before moving to nearby Margate, settling there, and having 4 more children including William who, in turn, moved to Somerset to marry Susan Matthews. Whew! So John and I are probably 5th cousins, once removed, whatever that is, having as our nearest common ancestors, the inferred parents of Henry, James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall.
- Second, that William Sinnock, John Norman Sinnock's ancestor from the Bristol area is the same as William, son of Henry Sinnock and Mary Wood of Margate. Several weak lines of evidence seem to combine to make a strong case that William, mentioned as an ancestor in John Norman Sinnock's letter, is indeed from Margate, Kent, and whose father, Henry, was from Hailsham, Sussex, and whose grandfather, James Sinnock, from Hailsham, is Scott Sinnock's fifth great grandfather. However the separate pieces of evidence, as follows, ensure that it is unknown if:

- (1) the William Sinnock baptized November 06, 1812 in Margate, Kent to Henry Sinnock and Mary Wood (data from the IGI)

is the same as

- (2) the William Sinnock who had a wife Susan who bore Eliza Mary and William Stiles Sinnock in Langport and Low Ham, Somerset in the 1830's (data from the IGI)

Generation 8 (con't)

and or

- (3) the William Sinnock who was born in Margate, Kent, was 68 years old in 1881, and lived in Bristol, St. James Parish with a wife Susan Sinnock who was born in Langport, Somerset (data from the 1881 British Census)

and or

- (4) the William Sinnock who is the second great grandfather of John Norman Sinnock from the Bristol, Avon, area who had a wife, Susan Mathews, and who, by estimating about 25 to 35 years per generation was born in about 1815 (data in a letter from John Norman Sinnock to Scott Sinnock on April 24, 1994)

Taken together, however,

- (1) the closeness in the estimated birth year of the father, William Sinnock, (about 1812, assuming he was 24 years old when William Stiles was born in January, 1836, in Langport, Somerset, from the IGI entry) to the November 06, 1812 date of the baptism of a William Sinnock in Margate, Kent (from the other IGI entry),
- (2) the fact that a William Sinnock lived in Bristol in 1881, the nearest large city to Langport, and who had a wife named Susan who was born in Langport, Somerset (from the Census)
- (3) the fact that John Norman Sinnock's ancestor William Sinnock was from the Bristol area, was born in about 1815 by estimating generations, and had a wife Susan Matthews (from John's letter), and

- (4) the fact that John Norman Sinnock's ancestors William and Susan had a daughter "Lizzy" by family tradition and that an "Eliza" Mary Sinnock was born to the William and Susan Sinnock of Langport in 1837, (noting that "Lizzy" is a common familiar name for Eliza or Elizabeth), comprise separate pieces of evidence that strongly suggest a William Sinnock was born in Margate, Kent to Henry Sinnock and Mary Woods in November 1812, and that this William moved all the way across the country to Somerset County where he married Susan Matthews of Langport, Somerset, and had several children there before moving to Bristol, Avon County, where he lived with his wife Susan during the 1881 Census. It is also reasonable to conclude that this William and Susan are the second great grandparents of John Norman Sinnock of Bridgeport, Connecticut, who according to John's family traditions, had ancestors who came to the United States from the Bristol, Avon, area of England.

I wrote the above in about 2011 in response to Lesley Miller, a descendant of Henry from Australia, who wondered about her ancestry. In late 2014 I discovered the 1861 Canterbury census entry for William S. Sinnock's birth in Wingham, almost certainly the son of William Sinnock and Susan Matthews of Bristol because of age and middle initial. I suggest William and Susan just married in their early 20's (no marriage date available, noting Susan is from Langport, near Bristol), and perhaps visiting or still living in 1835 near or with William's mother, Mary Wood Sinnock, who herself was still living in the Wingham area in 1861 when William Stiles was born. I think this nails it.

Death Notes:

Mary Sinnock, likely Mary Wood, his wife, is listed as a widow in the 1851 Margate census

Mary Wood^{2, 5, 68, 79, 109-112} was baptized on 03 Mar 1782 in Sandwich, Kent, England¹¹². She lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1841 at (St. John the Baptist⁷⁹). She was employed as a Social Worker, Charity in 1851¹¹⁰. She lived in Margate, Kent, England between 1851-1861 at (Draper Alms House, St. John the Baptist^{79, 111}). He married Esther Hewitt, daughter of Thomas Hewitt and Sarah Kitcherman, on 19 Aug 1826 in Margate, Kent, England (St. John⁵). Edward Sinnock^{5, 68, 109} was baptized on 20 Nov 1814 in Margate, Kent, England⁵.

Notes for Edward Sinnock:

I assume Edward born in Margate in 1814 is the same person as Edward who died in the inclusive Thanet District in 1838.

- vii. AMELIA SINNOCK⁸⁵ was born or baptized about 1815 in England²³. She married an unknown spouse about Dec 1842 in Thanet District, Kent, England⁸⁵.

Notes for Amelia Sinnock:

I assume Amelia, who appears only as an entry in the Civil Registration Index of Marriages with no identified husband, is a daughter of Henry and Mary because of the rarity of the name, her marriage location in the Thanet District which includes Margate where her supposed siblings were born, compatible age, and lack of other Sinnock families having children there at the time.

79. JOHN⁸ SINNOCK (William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)¹¹³ was born or baptized about 1775 in England²³. He died before 1841³¹. He married Emma Highlands on 13 Aug 1800 in Arlington, East Sussex, England³¹. She was born or baptized in 1776 in Willingdon, East Sussex, England^{31, 114-115}. She died about Dec 1858 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. Emma Highlands^{68, 114-115} lived in Arlington, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Millhouse¹¹⁴). She lived in Arlington, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (Michelham¹¹⁵).

Notes for Emma Highlands:

widow, 1851, living with son, William

John Sinnock and Emma Highlands had the following child:

144. i. WILLIAM⁹ SINNOCK^{5, 7, 31, 68, 115, 278-279} was born or baptized about 1799 in Arlington, East Sussex, England (Millhouse^{7, 68, 114}). He died on 06 Dec 1873 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 31, 68}). He married RUTH BRANSTON BATEMAN. She was born or baptized about 1806 in Aldwinckle, Northamptonshire, England^{7, 68, 115, 278-279}. She died on 02 Oct 1881 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 31, 68}).
80. GEORGE⁸ SINNOCK (John⁷, Samuel⁶, Elias⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 41, 123} was born or baptized about 1770 in England⁶. He died on 23 Feb 1796 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 123}). He married Martha Stredwick, daughter of Thomas Stredwick and Hannah Roads, on 04 Mar 1791 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{5, 123}. She was born or baptized on 13 Jan 1770 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁸¹).

George Sinnock^{5, 7, 41, 123} was baptized on 25 Feb 1780 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁵. He was buried in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (St. Peter and St. Paul⁷).

Notes for George Sinnock:

George and wife Martha are the first Sinnocks to show up in the Hellingly parish register, marrying there in 1791. I assume George as a young man from Hailsham baptised to John Sinnock and Mary Roads of that parish register on 15 Feb 1780, is the same as the George, born about 1761, that married Martha Shedwick from nearby Hellingly of that parish register and who together were the progenitors of the Hellingly Sinnocks. Besides the rarity of the name and proximity, the ages don't seem to match unless George was baptised when he was about 20 years old, certainly possible, but not noted in the parish register. Also, Naomi, daughter of Samuel Sinnock and Ann was baptized and buried in late Oct 1805, and it could be that Samuel and his wife Ann were at the place of his brother George. For these reasons, or perhaps excuses, I assume, George, son of John and Mary, and his wife Martha started the Hellingly Sinnock clan.

George Sinnock and Martha Stredwick had the following children:

145. i. GEORGE⁹ SINNOCK^{5, 68, 107, 123, 280-283} was born or baptized on 05 Jun 1791 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{68, 280-283}. He died on 04 Sep 1866 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{68, 123, 283}. He married Mary Tamkin, daughter of Samuel Tamkin and Sarah (Tamkin) ?, on 30 Jun 1818 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{5, 123}. She was born or baptized on 30 Jun 1791 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{68, 123, 280-284}. She died on 09 Dec 1866 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{68, 123}).
146. ii. JAMES SINNOCK^{5, 42, 68, 123, 280-282, 285} was born or baptized on 25 Jan 1793 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 68, 123, 281-282, 285}). He died about Mar 1881 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married (1) SARAH (SINNOCK) ? about 1825¹⁷⁴. She was born or baptized about 1806^{14, 123}. She died on 11 Nov 1830 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England¹²³. He married (2) MARY GREENACRE on 13 May 1832 in St Pancras, Camden, London, England⁴². She was born or baptized about 1811 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{23, 280-282, 285}.
- iii. JOHN SINNOCK^{5, 7, 123} was born or baptized on 11 Aug 1795 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹²³). He died on 21 Jan 1796 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹²³).

Generation 8 (con't)

John Sinnock^{5, 7, 123} was buried in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (St. Peter and St. Paul⁷).

Notes for John Sinnock:

Generation 8 (con't)

John is shown as "John junr" in the parish register. His marriage to Sarah may have been a "shotgun" wedding, Charlotte, their daughter, was born 5 months later, then his new wife died the same day, probably in child birth.

Sarah: Her cause of death was childbirth, during birth of her daughter, Charlotte⁶.

Notes for Sarah Hilder:

The marriage to John may have been a "shotgun" wedding, Charlotte was born 5 months later, then the same day, Sarah died, probably in child birth.

Cause of Death Notes:

I assume Sarah died of causes related to the birth of her daughter Charlotte the day before she died.

Marriage Notes: (Sarah)

John Sinnock and Sarah Hilder had the following child:

153. i. CHARLOTTE⁹ SINNOCK^{31, 41, 65} was born or baptized on 26 Nov 1797 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁴¹). She died on 09 Nov 1856 in Lewes, East Sussex, England³¹. She married (1) HENRY MERRICKS in 1819 (Not Married⁶⁵). He was born or baptized on 23 Oct 1793 in Uckfield, East Sussex, England (Baptist Church, Rockhall^{5, 31}). She married (2) WILLIAM TANNER on 10 Feb 1823 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns⁴¹). He was born or baptized about 1795¹.

Notes for Mary Ann Sinnock:

Apparently Mary Ann had two children, Mary Ann and Elizabeth, before she was married in 1803 to John Coleman, who may be the father John Coleman and Mary Ann Sinnock had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH⁹ SINNOCK^{31, 68, 85} was born or baptized on 09 Jul 1797 in Eastbourne, East Sussex, England^{31, 68}. She died about Feb 1873 in Lambeth, London, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Elizabeth Sinnock:

From Mark Milton: Entry from Eastbourne St Mary 1558 - 1821

Surname SINNOCK

- ii. MARY ANN SINNOCK^{41, 131} was born or baptized on 20 Feb 1800 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{41, 131}).

Mary Ann Sinnock^{41, 131} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Workhouse, Hailsham Union¹³¹).

Notes for Mary Ann Sinnock:

I assume Mary Ann Sinnock is the daughter of John and Mary, based on sameness of "mother's" name, apparently Mary Ann had two children before she was married in 1803 to John Coleman, who may be the father

154. iii. ELIZABETH SINNOCK^{41, 65, 132} was born or baptized on 02 Mar 1802 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. She married Edward Tanner in 1828 (Not Married⁶⁵). He was born or baptized about 1800 in <of Hailsham, East Sussex, England>⁶⁵.

He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England between 1841-1851 at (The Town^{75, 131}). He served in the military between 1841-1861^{66, 117, 131, 133-134} (Royal Army, Major, Madras Army (1841) East India Company L. Major (1851), Honorable Lieutenant Colonel retired with full pay (1861), Member of Gentry). He lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England between 1851-1861 at (1 Queens Road, Lodger¹³³⁻¹³⁴). He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (Terminus Road¹³⁰). He owned < £25,000 in 1862¹¹⁷.

Notes for Charles Henry Sinnock:

In both 1851 and 1861 Charles, the military man, shows up in both the Brighton and nearby Hailsham censuses.

(from Kay Winkworth, July 26, 1999) "Col. Henry Sinnock was always reputed to have 'run away with the wife of the Sultan of Zanzibar' - but Louia Francis Salzmann said he thought that he eloped with a Frenchwoman, and was then drowned in a shipwreck off the coast of Australia in 1862." He was probably a twin of William Henry.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sinnick" in the 1881 Brighton census

Generation 8 (con't)

Residence Notes:

Apparently Henry appears twice in the 1861 census, once in Hailsham with is family and once in Brighton, where he is a lodger with William Towner and his sisters.

Notes for Jane Harris:

The 1861 Census illegible suggests to me that Charles' wife was 66 years old. In the 1841 Census, 6 year old Ellen lived with Jane Harris, age 26, so Jane is assumed to be the wife of Charles Sinnock. However, Charles died the next year and may have been sick, so his daughter may have been "taken in" by Jane, a relative, friend, or neighbor.

Name Notes:

First name is spelled "Jayne" in the 1841 Hailsham census

Charles Henry Sinnock and Jane Harris had the following children:

Notes for George Sinnock:

Generation 9 (con't)

George is listed as "underage" at his marriage when he was 20, so the "legal" age of marriage must have been 21 for males in this time period. He could not write and made his "X" mark on the marriage entry. He is a widower at his marriage to Elizabeth Verabay in 1851

Notes for Elizabeth Verabay:

George died soon after his marriage to Elizabeth, who then lived in London in 1861 with two of his children by his first marriage to Louisa Cowley, William A. and Sarah, though I have no record of William A., other than the 1861 census entry where he is listed as a 27 year old son of Elizabeth, placing his birth in 1834, well before George's first marriage in 1840.

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Sarah's birth location as the Bethnal Green District

Notes for John Stapley:

I assume John Stapley married this Sarah Sinnock in Tonbridge, Kent, for no good reason; there are several other Sarah Sinnocks, including widows that could be his bride, though none have any connection I can find to Tonbridge.

Notes for John Sinnock:

Death Notes:

John appears in the 1861 census but not in the 1871 census where his wife Susan is listed as a widow

Susannah Hook^{4, 19, 68, 76, 83, 160} lived in St. Leonards-on-Sea, East Sussex, England between 1841-1871 at (5 Lavatoria, St. Mary Magdalen^{76, 83, 160}).

Notes for Susannah Hook:

I assume Susannah Hook who was born in 1801 in Arlington, married John Sinnock in Hollington and had children in Hastings in the 1820's is the same person as Susannah Sinnock who died in Hastings in 1875, noting the age given in her entry in the Civil Registration of Index of Deaths is 79, yielding a birth year of about 1796, an easily accepted, though somewhat large, discrepancy, because of the rarity of both the first and last names, geographic proximity, compatible ages, noting the noted discrepancy, and no other Susanna candidates for the match.

John Sinnock and Susannah Hook had the following children:

166. i. EMILY¹⁰ SINNOCK^{5, 70, 85, 103, 322-324} was born or baptized about 1812 in Sussex, England^{322, 324}. She died on 26 Oct 1896 in Christchurch, Canterbury, New Zealand³²². Notes for William Sinnock:

Several William Sinnock's from England about this time could be confused, as one or more probably are in this database, amateur that I am. Actually this problem points to the great advantage of researching a rare surname - even common first names, such as William, are usually distinguishable. Woe betide the person trying to find an ancestor from the early 1800's in England named William Brown, armed with no more than the name. But for the rare name, the search is feasible, with rare, though minor possible confusion and duplication as listed here:

- William Sinnock, b. abt 1799, in Willingdon m. Ruth Bateman and had many children in around Hailsham from the late 1920's through the 1830's

Generation 9 (con't)

- William of New Jersey who appears as William b. abt 1805 (1850), b. 1800 (1860), or b. 1804 (1870) and William D(?). b. 1803 (1880) all in England with wife Sally (?) b. abt 1802 in Connecticut (1850) or Sarah (?), b. abt 1802 in New York (1860) or Connecticut (1870) and had a son William P. b. abt 1837 in Connecticut (1850, 1860)

- William Sinnock b. 16 Nov 1809, Selmeaton, son of Thomas, m. (1) Mary Maltman, 29 Jul 1827, in Lewisham, London, and had children there, in Sydenham in the 1830's; m. (2) Elizabeth Pritchard, 1 Jan 1838, in Camden, one son in nearby Camberwell
- William Henry Sinnock, b. 29 Feb 1824, m. Sarah Ann Mace, Jun 1855, Malling, had a son there later in the same year; perhaps the same William and Sarah disembarked in New York with 6 other children born also in the 1850's to 1860's in 1863, as assumed in this database

Notes for Ann Sinnock:

I assume Ann born in Selmeaton to William and Catherine is the same as the Ann Sinnock who married in Lewisham in 1859, only because of age compatibility and the fact that her sister, Maria, also married in Lewisham; weak I know.

Generation 9 (con't)

Selmeston, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Poor House¹⁶¹). She was employed as a Servant in 1861³²⁶. She lived in Battersea, Wandsworth, London, England in 1861 at (Laurel Grove, servant in the home of Charlotte L. Williams³²⁶).

Notes for Rhoda Sinnock:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Rhoda's birth location as the Lewes District, which encompasses Selmeston, where the census data indicate she was born.

George Daniel Duff⁸⁵ also went by the name of John Skeels⁸⁵.

Thomas Sinnock^{5, 18, 20, 56, 68, 85, 119, 162, 331} lived in Selmeston, East Sussex, England in 1851¹⁶² at. Migration: Bef. 1875 (Inter County, East Sussex to London (Selmeston to Beckenham)²³) He lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1881 at (Mills Cottages, Croydon Road³³¹). He was employed as a Plasterer in 1881³³¹.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

Maria and Thomas are progenitors of several Sinnock families in closely spaced London boroughs, namely Beckenham, where Thomas migrated from Selmeston to marry Maria, as well as Bromley, Lambeth, and Lewisham.

Death Notes:

Apparently Thomas died before the 1901 census of Beckenham, where his wife, Maria, and son, John, were recorded and he was not.

Migration Notes:

Thomas first child and only child, John, was born to him and Maria in 1875 in Beckenham, so he must have moved there by then. He probably moved there to marry Maria in her home town.

Maria Elizabeth Mitchell^{18, 70, 85, 327, 331-332} lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1871 at (Boarder, 4 Fullers Place, Elmers End³²⁷). He married Anne Rebecca Blake, daughter of William Blake and Elizabeth Lloyd, on 20 Feb 1871 in St. George the Martyr, Southwark, London, England^{18, 70, 85}. She was born or baptized about Dec 1849 in Stratford, Newham, London, England (West Ham District^{119, 327, 332, 335, 337-339}). She died about Mar 1907 in Bromley, London, England^{68, 337}.

She lived in Ealing, London, England in 1881 at (Morgan House, St. Mary's, nurse in the home of Walter Vaughn¹⁶⁵).

Notes for Susan (Sinnock) ?:

A widow in 1881

Edward Sinnock and Susan (Sinnock) ? had the following child:

- i. MARY ANNE¹⁰ SINNOCK^{5, 20, 31, 93} was born or baptized on 14 Oct 1840 in Hastings, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at All Saints^{5, 20, 31, 93}).

96. JAMES⁹ SINNOCK (John⁸, John⁷, William⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 18, 20, 55-56, 68, 134, 167-169} was born or baptized on 16 Jan 1825 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 7, 20, 56, 68, 134, 168-169}). He died on 31 Aug 1886 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 68}). He married Ann Brookes about 1850 in Chailey, East Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1829 in Chailey, East Sussex, England^{5, 68, 167, 169-170}. She died about Mar 1900 in Lewes, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Generation 9 (con't)

He lived in Chailey, East Sussex, England in 1871 at (South Street¹⁶⁹). He was employed as a Farmer about 1875¹⁶⁹. He was buried in Chailey, East Sussex, England (St. Peter's⁷).

Notes for James Sinnock:

I assume James of the IGI and of the Civil Registration Index of Deaths are the same person (does that make sense grammatically? or should it be "is the same"?)

James' age in the 1861 Chailey census is given as 39, indicating a birth year of 1822.

Birth Notes:

The IGI lists James' birth place as "Alderton, , Sussex", the two commas intended, indicating a missing town. I can find no Alderton in Sussex though several other Aldertons occur in far away counties.

Death Notes:

His wife Ann and her son William were recorded in Chailey in the 1891 census but James was not, so I assume he died before then.

Migration Notes:

Born in Selveston in 1825, at age 16, in 1841, young James was in Alciston, less than a mile from his hometown of Selveston, then in 1851 he apparently lived in nearby Brighton, settling in Chailey for a while where he and Ann had six children from 1852 to 1861, and later a 7th., then on to Lewes where their final 4 children were born from 1862 to 1875.

Ann Brookes^{5, 55, 68, 134, 167, 169-170} was born or baptized in 1827 in Brighton, East Sussex, England¹³⁴. She lived in Chailey, East Sussex, England in 1871 at (South Street¹⁶⁹). She lived in Chailey, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (South Common¹⁷⁰).

James Sinnock and Ann Brookes had the following children:

He was born or baptized about 1848 in Bishopstone, East Sussex, England^{21, 290, 342}. He died on 08 Jun 1912 in Brighton, East Sussex, England³⁴⁰.

She was employed as a Servant, Domestic in 1871³⁴¹. She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1881 at (30 Artillery Street²⁹⁰).

Notes for Harriett Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Harriet's birth location as the Lewes District which encompasses Chailey where the census date indicates she was born.

Alfred Onions^{5, 21, 85, 290, 340, 342} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1881 at (30 Artillery Street²⁹⁰). He was employed as a Laborer, Brewer's in 1881²⁹⁰. He lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (1 Norfolk Street³⁴²).

Jane Sinnock^{5, 20, 56, 85, 180} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (St. Georges Road, servant in the home of Henry Young¹⁸⁰). She was employed as a Servant in 1841¹⁸⁰.

Notes for Jane Sinnock:

I assume Jane, daughter of Thomas and Mary born in 1816 from the Selmeaton parish register, is the same person as Jane who married James Toft 27 years later in Brighton, about 10 miles west of Selmeaton along current route 27; because of rarity of the name, age of the bride, 27, a common age of marriage in the 1800's, birth location near Brighton, the marriage location, and no other likely candidates for the marriage. However, she may be Jane (Sinnock) of unknown last name who was listed as the wife of Edward Sinnock in the 1861 Brighton census

Residence Notes:

Brighthelmstone, the stated 1841 census location. is an older name for Brighton

James Toft and Jane Sinnock had the following children:

- i. GEORGE¹⁰ TOFT¹⁸¹ was born or baptized in 1844 in Ditchling, East Sussex, England¹⁸¹.

Notes for John Henry Sinnock:

I assume John Henry Sinnock is the father of George and William O. Sinnock both of whom migrated from England to Michigan, and George is the progenitor of the Michigan clan of Sinnocks. This presumption is based on (1) the name of one of George's children, John Henry, assumed to be named for his grandfather, and (2) because Bernice Lakvold indicated in a letter that the Sinnocks from Michigan came from the Hoo District of Kent, England, which is very near Rochester, where John Henry was born in 1806, according to the IGI. The age in 1841 census of John Sinnock is given as 30, assumed to be for this John Henry, though the age yields a birth year of about 1811. The middle name and birth date comes from the IGI.

Generation 9 (con't)

Three families were having children in the Chatham, Gillingham, Rochester, Medway, Brompton area of northern Kent from just before 1840 until about 1870, interpreted here to be: (1) Henry Sennock and Mary Kelloway, 7 children from 1855 to 1870, (2) an unknown Sinnock, seven children from 1839 to 1852, and (3) this individual, John Henry Sinnock and wife Elizabeth, 4 children from 1836 to 1853. Because parentage information is lacking for many of the children, they could be and probably are assigned to the wrong family in several cases.

He died on 07 Aug 1831 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England¹⁴⁰. He married Mary Ann Norman, daughter of William Norman and Hannah (Norman) ?, on 06 Nov 1819 in Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. George in the East^{70, 195}). She was born or baptized on 05 Aug 1804 in Selmeston, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 131, 196}). She died about Jun 1854 in Hastings District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Thomas Sinnock^{5, 41, 70, 72, 130-131, 140, 195-196} lived in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England between 1821-1824 at (Wells Yard⁵). He was baptized on 09 Jun 1822 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. Mary's¹⁹⁵). He was employed as a Laborer in 1825⁷². He lived in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England between 1825-1831 at (Gower's Walk⁷²). He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Hailsham Common¹³¹). He was employed as a Farmer, 22 acres in 1861 between 1841-1871¹³⁰⁻¹³¹. He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (Opposite Nursery¹³⁰). Image: (signature⁷⁰) He was buried in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. Mary's¹⁴⁰).

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

I assume Thomas the son of Edward and Elizabeth born in Hailsham is the same person as Thomas who married Mary Ann Hopkins (Norman) born in nearby (3 miles) Selmeston and with her raised a family in Whitechapel, London in the late 1820's before returning to the Hailsham area by 1841 to farm, because of the rarity of the name, proximal locations (Selmeston and Hailsham), compatible ages, and no other single Thomas Sinnock's around to marry Mary, noting that Mary, 16 when her first child was born, was married to Thomas, 34, more than twice her age, nearly the 25 year difference between Thomas, age 50, and Ann, age 25, in the 1841 Hailsham census, where they have a daughter Mary, 10, born, apparently, when her mother Ann (Mary Ann Norman) was just 15, all compatible ages given that the 1841 census rounds ages to the nearest 5 years.

Mary Ann Norman^{5, 68, 72, 131, 196} lived in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England in 1821 at (Wells Yard⁵). She lived in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England between 1825-1831 at (Gower's Walk⁷²). She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Hailsham Common¹³¹).

Notes for Mary Ann Norman:

I assume Mary Ann who died in Hastings in 1854 is the same person as the wife of Thomas Sinnock.

Name Notes:

The London Marriages and Banns lists her last name as "Hopkins"

Thomas Sinnock and Mary Ann Norman had the following children:

- i. EDWARD¹⁰ SINNOCK^{72, 140} was born or baptized on 29 Nov 1820 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England^{72, 140}. He died on 12 Feb 1826 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's¹⁴⁰).

Edward Sinnock^{72, 140} was baptized on 29 Apr 1821 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. Mary's⁷²).

Notes for Edward Sinnock:

I assume thoams and Mary had two sons named Edward. The first born in 1820, the second in 1825. I assume the first died soon before the second, his namesake, was born.

- ii. THOMAS SINNOCK^{5, 72, 140, 392} was born or baptized on 03 Feb 1822 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England^{5, 72, 140}. He died on 07 Aug 1831 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's¹⁴⁰).

Thomas Sinnock^{5, 72, 140, 392} lived in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England in 1822 at (Wells Yard^{5, 72, 392}). He was baptized on 06 Jun 1822 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. Mary's^{5, 72}). He was employed as a Servant in 1841³⁹². He lived in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England in 1841 at (St. Giles³⁹²).

- iii. EMMA SINNOCK^{5, 72} was born or baptized on 25 Dec 1823 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England^{5, 72}.

- iv. ANN SINNOCK¹⁴⁰ was born or baptized about 1824 in England¹⁴⁰. She died on 07 Aug 1831 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's¹⁴⁰).

Notes for Ann Sinnock:

I assume Ann s a daughter of Thomas and Mary Ann because of the rarity of the last name, the death location in Whitechapel, and the birth date of another Ann to Thomas and Mary Ann just 4 months after the first Ann died iin January 1832. I suspect strongly that the second Ann was named in memory of this, the first. Strange that she does not appear in the birth records of Thomas and Mary Ann's other children.

- 225. v. EDWARD SINNOCK^{5, 70, 72, 85, 133, 393} was born or baptized about 1825 in Laughton, East Sussex, England^{133, 393}. He married (1) MARY JANE SWEENEY, daughter of James Sweeny, on 27 Nov 1844 in Clerkenwell, Islington, London, England (St. James⁷⁰). She was born or baptized about 1816 in Castham, Essex, England³⁹³. He married (3) JANE (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized about 1816 in Sussex, England¹³³.
- vi. HARRIETT SINNOCK^{5, 70, 85} was born or baptized on 24 Mar 1825 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England^{5, 72}. She married William James Benfield on 19 Sep 1853 in Camden, London, England (Old Church, St. Pancras District^{5, 70, 85}). He was born or baptized about 1825¹.

Harriett Sinnock^{5, 70, 85} was baptized on 05 Jun 1825 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. Mary's⁷²). She lived in Camden, London, England in 1853 at (Hampden Street, St. Pancras District⁷⁰).

William James Benfield^{5, 70, 85} lived in Camden, London, England in 1853 at (Kings Road, St. Pancras District⁷⁰).

- vii. CHARLES SINNOCK^{5, 72, 140} was born or baptized on 28 Feb 1827 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 72, 140}). He died on 19 Feb 1829 in Whitechapel, Tower Hamlets, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's¹⁴⁰).

Charles Sinnock^{5, 72, 140} was baptized on 02 May 1827 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England (St. Mary's⁷²).

- viii. MARY SINNOCK^{68, 130-131, 134, 313} was born or baptized about 1831 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 130, 134}. She died about Dec 1906 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Mary Sinnock^{68, 130-131, 134, 313} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Hailsham Common¹³¹). She was employed as a Servant in 1851¹³⁴. She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (6 Upper North Street, servant in the home of George Sawyer¹³⁴). She was employed as a Servant, Cook between 1851-1861¹³⁰. She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (13 Cacklebury Close, lived with her 3rd cousin, Elizabeth and family¹³⁰). She was employed as a Living on own means, disability for partial blindness in 1891³¹³. She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (Elmsdown Place³¹³).

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

I assume Mary Sinnock, who at age 10 lived with Thomas and Ann in the 1841 Hailsham census is Thomas' daughter in that census. Further, I assume this Mary is the same Mary who died in Hailsham in 1906, giving an age of 77 at death or a birth in 1929, well within the roundoff of the census dates, though these dates consistently indicated a birth in 1831. In 1861 and 1871 Mary lived with her third cousin, Elizabeth Sinnock and Henry Hastings and family. In 1861 she was listed as a visitor, in 1871 as Henry's daughter-in-law.

226. ix. ANNE SINNOCK^{5, 337} was born or baptized on 30 Jan 1832 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England⁵. She died about Dec 1887 in Guildford District, Surrey, England (Drummond Road³³⁷). She married Edward Henry Robbins on 26 Sep 1853 in Camden, London, England (St. Pancras Parish Chapel⁷⁰). He was born or baptized on 15 Aug 1831 in Camden, London, England (Somers Town³⁹⁴). He died on 01 May 1906³⁹⁴.

124. GEORGE⁹ SINNOCK (Edward⁸, Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 20, 41, 68, 70, 197-199} was born or baptized on 16 Jun 1793 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{41, 198-199}). He died about Sep 1859 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married (1) ELIZABETH APPS on 08 Jan 1807 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England (Married by Banns¹⁹⁷). She was born or baptized about 1779 in Dunkirk, Kent, England²⁰⁰⁻²⁰¹. She died on 18 Mar 1821 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Mary's⁷). He married (2) ? LEWIS. She was born or baptized about 1805⁶.

George Sinnock^{5, 20, 41, 68, 70, 197-199} lived in Catsfield, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Church House¹⁹⁹). He lived in Ninfield, East Sussex, England in 1841¹⁹⁸ at. He was employed as a Farm Laborer (Agricultural) in 1841¹⁹⁸⁻¹⁹⁹.

Notes for George Sinnock:

I assume George born in Hailsham in 1793 is the same person as George who died there in the last quarter of 1859 because of rarity of the name, location in Hailsham, and compatible dates, though death dates for this (1859) and another George Sinnock born in Hailsham in 1806 (died 1863) could be switched, but I chose this association to preserve "first born - first to die". None of these George's may be related, and four separate individuals may exist, one for each birth and death date.

Relations among George Sinnocks born about 1790 in southern Sussex remain unknown, including possible duplication among:

- George, born about 1785 in Battle, son of Thomas Sinnock and Mary Inskipp, no other information
- George, baptized 23 Jan 1788 in Hastings, son of William Sinnock and Hannah Lock, m. Sarah Govey in 1817 in Shoreditch, London and by 1818 had two children there, Sarah died or divorced (later marrying Robert Parker, perhaps)
- George, m. Mary Anne Gorrige in 1818 in Kidford, West Sussex and the same (assumed) George and Mary had 4 children in Eastbourne in the 1820's.
- George, baptized 7 Aug 1791 in Hellingly son of George Sinnock and Martha Shedwick; m. Mary Tampkin in Hellingly and raised 9 children there all born before 1934.
- George, baptized 16 Jun 1793 in Hailsham, son of Edward Sinnock and Elizabeth Bonyface, m. (1) Elizabeth Aps in 1807 in Catsfield and had 6 children in Battle and nearby villages from 1815 to 1821

Further research is needed to fully disentangle their families, so all are currently listed separately in the database

George Sinnock is listed in 1841 as 50 years old (rounded to the nearest 5 years) in both the Catsfield and Ninfield census, towns less than a mile apart. George, 50, is shown in the Ninfield census with two children William and Mary, ages 8 and 5; these two children, at least identically named ones, are also shown in the 1841 census in Hooe, less than a mile to the south. George appears also at the Church House in the Catsfield census, less than a mile to the north. Nearby, just on the other side of Battle, Jane Sellens, 1, appears in both the 1841 Sedlescombe and Westfield census's with different families. The Sellens and Sinnocks were later in-laws. I suspect George, William, and Mary Sinnock are members of a single family, and that Jane Sellens is but one person also. It is possible that after the census takers visited one house where George, William and Mary were counted in Ninfield, and another house in Sedlescombe where Jane was counted. As soon as the census takers left, runners hurried the children just up the road by shortcuts to the other houses, arriving before the census takers (who, for all they knew may already have been there, unless other-way runners informed them or they asked the census takers from whence they came upon arriving at the first house). Such movement of the children may have been intentional as a joke on the census, or may have occurred just during normal activities of the day.

It seems odd that two related families, the Sellens and Sinnocks, people with rare names in rural settings of few people living along the same road within a few miles of each other would independently have children of the same name at the same time that show up in geographically adjacent census records, but not in subsequent census's. Perhaps, but I am beginning to doubt it. And note. all the "duplicates" were under 8, so no chance was left that the census could say we just missed 'em last time around in '31.

So, I suspect (1) George lived in Ninfield with two children, William and Mary; (2) after the census taker counted them in Ninfield, the children went to Hooe where they show up in the home of Jim and Maria Lewis, newlyweds, 20, with a 1 year old daughter who were perhaps the children's aunt and uncle; (3) George went to Church where he was counted in Catsfield; and (4) Jane Sellens, an infant, was similarly hurried down the road ahead of the census takers.

The joke scenario is supported by such similar goings-on in both the Sellens and Sinnock families, families that later were in-laws. It seems possible that this clan of Sinnocks with their friends and neighbors may have pulled a couple of fast ones on the census. I suspect a quite well-planned ruse cussed and discussed at length, tossed out as a joke, and planned with contingencies of which children would be moved based on where the census takers first showed up, with maybe a dare or two throw in for good measure. It appears we might have had a couple of takers. High fives, anyone? All conjecture from the scantiest of fact, all conjecture! and I think beyond ever knowing, but once the possibility consistent with the meager facts is put forth it can never be put to rest without more bearing facts, which may, but probably do not exist.

Elizabeth Apps^{5, 7, 20, 197, 200-201} lived in Canterbury, Kent, England between 1851-1861 at (7 Nunnery Cottages, Old Dover Road, St. Mary Bredin²⁰⁰⁻²⁰¹).

Notes for Elizabeth Apps:

I assume Elizabeth of the IGI, Elizabeth Apps who married George, and Elizabeth who died in Battle in 1821 are all the same person because of rarity of the name, Battle locations, and compatible ages

George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps had the following children:

227. i. WILLIAM BARTON¹⁰ SINNOCK^{5, 20, 70, 72, 85, 140, 177, 197, 324} was born or baptized on 10 Jan 1808 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England^{140, 177, 197, 324}. He died on 04 Apr 1847 in Staines-upon-Thames, Surrey, England (Burial date is used as the death date¹⁴⁰). He married (1) ELIZABETH MILLER on 05 Oct 1829 in Westminster, London, England²⁰⁴. She was born or baptized in 1812 in Bath, Somerset, England^{68, 324}. She died about Mar 1876 in Holborn, Camden, London, England⁶⁸. He married (2) SARAH PEAD. She was born or baptized about 1802 in Connecticut, USA³⁹⁵⁻³⁹⁷. She died about Sep 1884 in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England⁶⁸.
- ii. MARY ANN SINNOCK^{5, 31, 200-201} was born or baptized on 11 Jul 1810 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date³¹). She married James Smith on 28 Mar 1834 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England⁵. He was born or baptized about 1810²³.

Mary Ann Sinnock^{5, 31, 200-201} was born or baptized about 1812 in Ospringe, Kent, England²⁰⁰⁻²⁰¹. She lived in Canterbury, Kent, England in 1851 at (7 Nunnery Cottages, Old Dover Road, St. Mary Bredin²⁰⁰⁻²⁰¹). She was employed as a Servant, Housekeeper in 1861²⁰⁰.

Notes for Mary Ann Sinnock:

I assume Mary Ann Sinnock daughter of Elizabeth Apps and George Sinnock is the same as Mary Ann Sinnock daughter of James Harding and his wife Elizabeth, here assumed to be Elizabeth Apps second husband, after her first husband George died in 1859. Her daughter Mary Ann, perhaps semi-invalid, lived with her alone in 1851 and with hew new husband in 1861. As a widow with an adult daughter to take care of, I am sure she would welcome a suitor in her older years.

Several Sinnock with Ann in their name born in about 1815 appear in England, same persons suggested by numbers:

- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1812, London, Camden, Holborn
- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1838, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Camden, Holborn
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 3 Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, London, Camden, Holborn
- 3 Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, Hampshire, Southampton
- 4 Anne Sinnock, b. 1811, Sussex, Selveston
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1842, Bedfordshire
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1853, London, Camden, St. Pancras
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, Sussex, Battle
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1834, Sussex, Catsfield
- 7 Ann Sinnock, b. 1815, Sussex
- 7 Ann Sinnock, d. 1842, Sussex, Hailsham
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, Sussex, Worth
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Westminster census
- 9 Ann Elizabeth Sinnock, m. 1839, London, Westminster, Marylebone

1, 2, and 3. Mary Ann (1), Sarah Ann (2), and Ann (3) are sisters, daughters of James Sinnock and Ruth Blacktop; I assume Mary Ann and Sarah Ann are the same as those with the same names married in nearby St. Martin in the Fields at 21 and 22 years old.

Ann (3) is assumed to be the same person married in 1833 to George Holloway in Hampshire for no reason other than the name and age and a common information source, the Australian Descendant Family Tree. Ann, the daughter of James and Ruth could be the bride in any of the marriages listed here except those of her sisters (see 1 and 2).

4. Anne, born to Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall in Selveston, Sussex is assumed to be "Anne" married in 1842 to George Allen in Bedfordshire and in 1853 to an unknown spouse in St. Pancras, mostly because of the spelling of the name, poor evidence at best.

5. Mary Ann born in 1810 to George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps in Battle is assumed to be the same person who married James Smith in nearby (2 miles) Catsfield, mostly from Mark Milton, because of the name and location.

7. Ann, born in 1815 to Thomas Sinnock and Mariah Geall could be any of the above Ann's.

8. Ann, 25, of the 1841 Westminster census is assumed to be the same person as Ann born in Worth in 1816 to Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Rice for no other reason than the name and birth date. She could be the bride in any of the marriages listed above.

9. Two marriages of Ann Elizabeth are recorded, one in July 1839 in Marylebone from the IGI and one in the last quarter of 1839 in the Medway District from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. Because no other known Ann Elizabeth's live at the time, I assign both marriages to the same person.

- iii. ELIZA SINNOCK^{5, 70} was born or baptized on 11 Oct 1812 in Hooe, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date⁵). She married Joseph Stead on 10 Aug 1828 in West Norwood, Lambeth, London, England⁷⁰. He was born or baptized about 1805²³.

Notes for Eliza Sinnock:

I assume Eliza, daughter of George and Elizabeth from Hooe, is the same person as Eliza who at age 16 or so married Joseph Stead in Lambeth because of the identical name, compatible, barely, ages. Several other Elizabeth Sinnocks and one Eliza from Birmingham may also be Joseph's wife.

- iv. CHARLES SINNOCK^{7, 18, 31, 68} was born or baptized on 05 Jul 1815 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{7, 18}). He died about Jun 1841 in Battle, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Charles Sinnock^{7, 18, 31, 68} died on 28 Apr 1832 in Battle, East Sussex, England⁷. He was buried in Battle, East Sussex, England (St. Mary's⁷).

Notes for Charles Sinnock:

Death Notes:

Apparently Charles death was not register until about 9 years after his burial.

- v. MARIA SINNOCK^{18, 180} was born or baptized on 10 Apr 1818 in Battle, East Sussex, England^{18, 180}.

Maria Sinnock^{18, 180} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Old Steine, servant in the home of John Atkinson¹⁸⁰). She was employed as a Servant in 1841¹⁸⁰.

Notes for Maria Sinnock:

Residence Notes:

Brighthelmstone, the stated 1841 census location. is an older name for Brighton

- vi. GEORGE SINNOCK^{18, 31, 177} was born or baptized on 13 Mar 1821 in Battle, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{18, 31}).

George Sinnock^{18, 31, 177} lived in Cobham, Surrey, England in 1841 at (Rose Lodge, lived with his older brother, William Barton¹⁷⁷). He was employed as a Laborer, Manual in 1841¹⁷⁷.

Notes for George Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

George is listed as 10 years old in the 1841 census, living with William, his assumed older borther, William Barton Sinnock, both manual laborers. The 1841 census rounded ages, and perhaps George was closer to 20 than 10, as indicated by his birth date in in 1821 from Mark Milton's family database, a date for which I can find no other reference.

Notes for ? Lewis:

Two children of George Sinnock shown in the 1841 Ninfield census are William and Mary, ages 8 and 5; these two children, at least identical ones, are also shown in the 1841 census in Hooe, a less than a mile to the south. George also shows up at the Church House in the Catsfield census, less than a mile to the north. I suspect (1) George lived in Ninfield with two children, Mary and William; (2) after the census taker counted them in Ninfield, the children went to Hooe where they show up in the home of Jim and Maria Lewis, newlyweds, 20, with a 1 year old daughter, perhaps William and Mary's aunt and uncle or perhaps just friends; and (3) George went to work at the Church in Catsfield. Perhaps some or all, especially the kids and the young couple, did it as a joke on the census, or perhaps it was a result of just normal goings on. Based on this slim evidence, I assume George of Catsfield remarried a Lewis girl after his first wife, Elizabeth Apps died in 1921 and had two more children, William and Mary in the Ninfield-Hooe-Catsfield area. Perhaps the new wife, here named Lewis but could be anything, died before the 1841 census so does not appear there, perhaps she was a young mistress of George, the said Maria Lewis.

George Sinnock and ? Lewis had the following children:

- vii. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{198, 398} was born or baptized about 1833 (outside Sussex^{198, 398}).

Generation 9 (con't)

William Sinnock^{198, 398} lived in Ninfield, East Sussex, England in 1841¹⁹⁸ at. He lived in Hooe, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Gilberts³⁹⁸).

Notes for William Sinnock:

I assume William, 8, and Mary, 5, George's children apparent, were entered twice in the 1841 census, once living in Ninfield in the same house with George, 40, presumably their dad, possible grandfather, and once in Hooe, same ages, shown as living in the home of James and Maria Lewis, newlyweds, 20, with a 1 year old daughter, Ann. Hooe and Ninfield are less than a mile apart, perhaps the kids ran between family places faster than the census takers, perhaps as a trick knowing which way the census takers were headed, perhaps without the adults knowing 'til afterward, who then maybe laughed, maybe scolded, maybe a little of both. But a nine-year old boy and a tag-along 5 year old sister can cover a mile pretty fast, especially knowing all the shortcuts. They even told the census takers they were born in different places..... Or quite unlikely, two William and Mary Sinnocks occurred of the same age at the same place at the same time. While at the same time it seems, George, their father, beat the census takers to Catsfield, a mile in the other direction from Ninfield. So perhaps they were all in on it, or perhaps it's just the way things worked out, or perhaps, as said, there are two separate, perhaps related families in Hooe and Ninfield, and Catsfield, with no other evidence of such numerous people.

I suspect (1) George lived in Ninfield with two children; (2) after the census taker counted them in Ninfield, the children went to Hooe where they show up again; and (3) George went to Church in Catsfield. Perhaps some or all, especially the kids and the young couple, did it as a joke on the census, or perhaps it was a result of just normal goings on. For that weak reason, I assume George married a Lewis, James' sister, but perhaps Maria's of unknown maiden name is George's sister-in-law, or perhaps they are all unrelated.

viii. MARY SINNOCK^{198, 398} was born or baptized about 1836 (outside Sussex^{198, 398}).

Mary Sinnock^{198, 398} lived in Ninfield, East Sussex, England in 1841¹⁹⁸ at. She lived in Hooe, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Gilberts³⁹⁸).

125. SARAH⁹ SINNOCK (Henry⁸, Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 202} was born or baptized on 29 Oct 1776 in Worth, West Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹⁸). She died on 09 Oct 1862 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England²⁰². She married Thomas Rovey on 21 Aug 1794 in Worth, West Sussex, England^{5, 18}. He was born or baptized in 1770 in Worth, West Sussex, England²⁰².

Thomas Rovey and Sarah Sinnock had the following children:

- i. MARY¹⁰ ROVERY²⁰² was born or baptized in 1795 in Worth, West Sussex, England²⁰².
- ii. THOMAS ROVERY²⁰² was born or baptized in 1801 in Worth, West Sussex, England²⁰².
- iii. ANN ELIZA ROVERY²⁰² was born or baptized on 25 May 1806 in Worth, West Sussex, England²⁰².
- iv. JAMES ROVERY²⁰² was born or baptized in 1813 in Worth, West Sussex, England²⁰².

126. THOMAS⁹ SINNOCK (Henry⁸, Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 68} was born or baptized on 07 Oct 1781 in Worth, West Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date¹⁸). He died about Dec 1850 in Leominster, Herefordshire, England⁶⁸. He married Elizabeth Rice on 09 Apr 1805 in Worth, Kent, England¹⁸. She was born or baptized about 1774 in Puddlestone, Worcestershire, England²⁰³. She died about Nov 1852 in Leominster, Herefordshire, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

The letter from Howard Sinnock indicates Thomas was born, married, and had children in Worth, Kent, whereas the IGI indicates he was married in Worth, West Sussex. I have used the West Sussex location in this database for his birth and marriage location as well as for the location of the christenings of his and Elizabeth's children.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled both "Sinnock" and "Sinnick" in the IGI

Elizabeth Rice^{18, 68, 203} lived in Leominster, Herefordshire, England in 1851 at (Dishley Road²⁰³). She was employed as a Pauper in 1851²⁰³.

Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Rice had the following children:

- 228. i. HENRY¹⁰ SINNOCK⁵ was born or baptized on 17 Aug 1805 in Worth, West Sussex, England⁵. He died before 1861. He married Sarah Deal Cook on 11 Aug 1828 in Dover, Kent, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1811 in Dover, Kent, England^{141, 399}. She died about Mar 1875 in Brighton District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.
- ii. MARY SINNOCK¹⁸ was born or baptized on 22 Dec 1807 in Worth, West Sussex, England¹⁸.
- 229. iii. THOMAS SINNOCK^{18, 85} was born or baptized on 07 May 1810 in Worth, West Sussex, England¹⁸. He died about Mar 1849 in Lewes, East Sussex, England. He married Susannah Matilda Parsons about Dec 1839 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England (Thomas Sinnock married either Susannah Parsons or Harriet Illman⁸⁵). She was born or baptized about 1815²³.
- iv. JOHN SINNOCK¹⁸ was born or baptized on 09 May 1813 in Worth, West Sussex, England¹⁸.
- v. ANN SINNOCK^{18, 400} was born or baptized on 09 Sep 1816 in Worth, West Sussex, England^{18, 400}.

Ann Sinnock^{18, 400} lived in Marylebone, Westminster, London, England in 1841 at (Duke Street⁴⁰⁰).

Generation 9 (con't)

Notes for Ann Sinnock:

I assume Ann born in Worth in 1816 is the same person as Ann who appears in the 1841 Westminster census for no other reason than the name and common birth date.

Several Sinnock with Ann in their name born in about 1815 appear in England, same persons suggested by numbers:

- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1812, London, Camden, Holborn
- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1838, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Camden, Holborn
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 3 Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, London, Camden, Holborn
- 3 Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, Hampshire, Southampton
- 4 Anne Sinnock, b. 1811, Sussex, Selmeston
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1842, Bedfordshire
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1853, London, Camden, St. Pancras
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, Sussex, Battle
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1834, Sussex, Catsfield
- 7 Ann Sinnock, b. 1815, Sussex
- 7 Ann Sinnock, d. 1842, Sussex, Hailsham
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, Sussex, Worth
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Westminster census
- 9 Ann Elizabeth Sinnock, m. 1839, London, Westminster, Marylebone

1, 2, and 3. Mary Ann (1), Sarah Ann (2), and Ann (3) are sisters, daughters of James Sinnock and Ruth Blacktop; I assume Mary Ann and Sarah Ann are the same as those with the same names married in nearby St. Martin in the Fields at 21 and 22 years old.

Ann (3) is assumed to be the same person married in 1833 to George Holloway in Hampshire for no reason other than the name and age and a common information source, the Australian Descendant Family Tree. Ann, the daughter of James and Ruth could be the bride in any of the marriages listed here except those of her sisters (see 1 and 2).

4. Anne, born to Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall in Selmeston, Sussex is assumed to be "Anne" married in 1842 to George Allen in Bedfordshire and in 1853 to an unknown spouse in St. Pancras, mostly because of the spelling of the name, poor evidence at best.

5. Mary Ann born in 1810 to George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps in Battle is assumed to be the same person who married James Smith in nearby (2 miles) Catsfield, mostly from Mark Milton, because of the name and location.

7. Ann, born in 1815 to Thomas Sinnock and Mariah Geall could be any of the above Ann's.

8. Ann, 25, of the 1841 Westminster census is assumed to be the same person as Ann born in Worth in 1816 to Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Rice for no other reason than the name and birth date. She could be the bride in any of the marriages listed above.

9. Two marriages of Ann Elizabeth are recorded, one in July 1839 in Marylebone from the IGI and one in the last quarter or 1839 in the Medway District from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. Because no other known Ann Elizabeth's live at the time, I assign both marriages to the same person.

127. JAMES⁹ SINNOCK (James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{2, 5, 31, 41, 68, 70-72, 100-101, 140, 205} was born or baptized on 17 Apr 1785 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{100, 140}. He died on 15 Feb 1848 in Edmonton District, Enfield, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{31, 68, 100, 140}). He married Ruth Blacktop, daughter of Joshua Blacktop and Ann Holder Finkell, on 12 Dec 1808 in St. Martin in the Fields, Westminster, London, England^{5, 70-71}. She was born or baptized in Sep 1788 in Great Eversden, Cambridgeshire, England²⁰⁶⁻²⁰⁷. She died about Dec 1861 in Clerkenwell, Islington, London, England^{68, 206}.

James Sinnock^{2, 5, 31, 41, 68, 70-72, 100-101, 140, 205} was baptized on 08 May 1785 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. Migration: Bef. 1808 (Inter County, East Sussex to London (Hailsham to Holborn)²³) He lived in Holborn, Camden, London, England in 1810 at (Poole Lane²⁰⁵). He lived in Holborn, Camden, London, England in 1812 at (Norwich Court^{72, 205}). He was employed as a Carpenter between 1814-1842^{70, 72}. Image: (descendant tree) He was buried in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's¹⁴⁰).

Notes for James Sinnock:

The Hailsham Parish Register entry for 8 May 1785 "James Sinnock s. James & Mary baptized" shows James' mother to be Mary, not Elizabeth, as do 8 other register entries for James' children. I assume this is an error in the register and the mother should be identified as Elizabeth rather than Mary, because no other entries list James and Mary as parents and because James birth date is just 5 months after James and Elizabeth's marriage, suggesting, shall we say, a rapid marriage of the young couple. However, it's possible that this James was an illegitimate son of James and Mary (doubtful considering James marriage to Elizabeth 5 months later), or perhaps another couple, James Sinnock and Mary, had one child, this James, in Hailsham with no other register entries (doubtful, given the apparent completeness recording Sinnock family events in the area's registers), or perhaps the register entry error is for James' father's name and should read "s.(on) of John and Mary (Roads)", another of three Sinnock couples (the third is Edward and Elizabeth Bonnyface) having children in Hailsham in the mid to late 1700's (equally likely as the interpretation here, considering James baptism date of 8 May 1785 fits nicely into a gap in John and Mary's 12 other children, but rejected here because John and Mary already have enough children, and don't need any more, and because Thomas Sinnock's Family History identifies James, born 17 Apr 1785, as a son of James and Elizabeth Weller). I also assume James, baptized in Hailsham, is the same as James married to Ruth Blacktop in 12 Dec 1808 in Westminster, London, according to the London, England, Marriages and Banns, and with Ruth had children in nearby Holborn, London according to the London, England, Births and Baptisms, because of the rarity of the name, compatible ages, and geographic connections. The tie between Hailsham and London is found in Thomas Sinnock's Family history which mentions that James, son of James and Elizabeth, died in London.

Migration Notes:

James was born in Hailsham in 1785 and had children with Ruth in Holborn, London starting with Ann in 1810 and extending through Ruth Elizabeth in 1827, so sometime after his birth, probably at or near the time of his marriage to Ruth, James moved to Holborn where he settled for at least 17 years. It is likely he met and married Ruth who hailed from Holborn or nearby, resulting in a marriage in nearby Westminster, then settled with her in her home neighborhood in London.

Ruth Blacktop^{2, 5, 68, 70-72, 205-207} lived in Holborn, Camden, London, England in 1810 at (Poole Lane²⁰⁵). She lived in Holborn, Camden, London, England in 1841 at (St. Andrew's (Below the Bars)²⁰⁷). She died in Oct 1861 in London City, London, England²⁰⁷. Image: (descendant tree)

Image: (signature⁷⁰)

Notes for Emma Sinnock:

Emma and Andrew lived with Alice in 1851 through 1871. Alice is listed as a daughter of Andrew with the last name Walsh in 1851 and 1861, but listed as his niece with the last name Sinnock in 1871.

Andrew Walsh^{68, 70-71, 206, 404-406} was employed as a Clerk, Solicitor General's in 1851⁴⁰⁴. He lived in Islington, London, England in 1851 at (10 Shaham Place, East Islington⁴⁰⁴). She died on 28 Jun 1935 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date⁶⁸). She married John Gilbody on 06 Oct 1833 in St. Martin in the Fields, Westminster, London, England (Married by Banns^{5, 70-71}). He was born or baptized about 1815¹.

Sarah Ann Sinnock^{5, 68, 70-72, 206} lived in Holborn, Camden, London, England in 1817 at (Norwich Court^{5, 72}). She was baptized on 28 Sep 1817 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's⁷²). She was buried in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's^{68, 206}).

Notes for Sarah Ann Sinnock:

Several Sinnock with Ann in their name born in about 1815 appear in England, same persons suggested by numbers:

- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1812, London, Camden, Holborn
- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1838, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields

- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Westminster census
- 9 Ann Elizabeth Sinnock, m. 1839, London, Westminster, Marylebone

1, 2, and 3. Mary Ann (1), Sarah Ann (2), and Ann (3) are sisters, daughters of James Sinnock and Ruth Blacktop; I assume Mary Ann and Sarah Ann are the same as those with the same names married in nearby St. Martin in the Fields at 21 and 22 years old.

Generation 9 (con't)

Ann (3) is assumed to the same person married in 1833 to George Holloway in Hampshire for no reason other than the name and age and a common information source, the Australian Descendant Family Tree. Ann, the daughter of James and Ruth could be the bride in any of the marriages listed here except those of her sisters (see 1 and 2).

4. Anne, born to Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall in Selmeaton, Sussex is assumed to be "Anne" married in 1842 to George Allen in Bedfordshire and in 1853 to an unknown spouse in St. Pancras, mostly because of the spelling of the name, poor evidence at best.

5. Mary Ann born in 1810 to George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps in Battle is assumed to be the same person who married James Smith in nearby (2 miles) Catsfield, mostly from Mark Milton, because of the name and location.

7. Ann, born in 1815 to Thomas Sinnock and Mariah Geall could be any of the above Ann's.

8. Ann, 25, of the 1841 Westminster census is assumed to be the same person as Ann born in Worth in 1816 to Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Rice for no other reason than the name and birth date. She could be the bride in any of the marriages listed above.

9. Two marriages of Ann Elizabeth are recorded, one in July 1839 in Marylebone from the IGI and one in the last quarter or 1839 in the Medway District from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. Because no other known Ann Elizabeth's live at the time, I assign both marriages to the same person.

- vi. JAMES SINNOCK^{5, 68, 72, 140, 206} was born or baptized on 14 May 1819 in Holborn, Camden, London, England^{5, 68, 72}. He died on 11 Jul 1819 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{68, 140, 206}).

James Sinnock^{5, 68, 72, 140, 206} was baptized on 04 Jul 1819 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's⁷²). He was buried in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's^{68, 140}).

233. vii. SUSANNAH SINNOCK^{5, 68, 70, 72, 85, 206-207, 404, 407} was born or baptized on 14 Oct 1821 in Holborn, Camden, London, England^{5, 72, 404, 407}. She died about Sep 1879 in Islington District, Islington, London, England^{68, 206-207}. She married William Brazier on 16 May 1842 in Camden, London, England (Old Church, St. Pancras District^{5, 70, 85}). He was born or baptized about 1819 in Marylebone, Westminster, London, England^{68, 206, 404, 407-408}. He died about Mar 1885 in Islington District, Islington, London, England^{68, 206}.

- viii. FANNY SINNOCK^{5, 68, 72, 85, 117, 206, 407} was born or baptized on 09 Nov 1823 in Holborn, Camden, London, England^{5, 68, 72, 407}. She died on 28 May 1890 in Hackney, London, England (52 Downham Road, West Hackney^{68, 117, 206}). She married ? (Sinnock) ? about Sep 1857 in Brighton, East Sussex, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1820⁵².

Fanny Sinnock^{5, 68, 72, 85, 117, 206, 407} was baptized on 30 Nov 1823 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's⁷²). She was born or baptized about 1826 in London City, London, England⁴⁰⁷. She lived in Clerkenwell, Islington, London, England in 1871 at (50 Rosoman Street^{117, 407}). She was employed as a Merchant, Tobacconist and Agent in 1871⁴⁰⁷. She owned £926 11s. 8d. in 1890¹¹⁷.

Notes for Fanny Sinnock:

I assume Fanny born in Holborn in 1823 is the same as Fanny who died in Hackney in 1890 because of the rarity of the first and last name, geographic proximity, and the lack of other known Fanny or Frances Sinnocks in England at the time.

- ix. RUTH ELIZABETH JANE SINNOCK^{5, 68, 140, 206} was born or baptized on 29 Nov 1826 in Holborn, Camden, London, England^{5, 68, 140, 206}. She died on 10 Feb 1848 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Andrew's^{68, 140, 206}).

Ruth Elizabeth Jane Sinnock^{5, 68, 140, 206} was baptized on 14 Jan 1827 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's⁵).

Notes for Ruth Elizabeth Jane Sinnock:

Ruth and her father were buried five days apart in February, 1848, probably both succumbing to the same malady or plague upon the family, probably lung related in the dreary, coal-dust infested miasma of Dicken's London in 1848.

128. THOMAS⁹ SINNOCK (James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{41, 68, 75, 91, 100, 117, 130, 208-209} was born or baptized on 06 Oct 1787 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 75, 91, 100, 130}. He died on 16 May 1867 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 117, 208}. He married Mariah Geall, daughter of Robert Geall and Elizabeth Marquwick, on 06 May 1809 in Ripe, East Sussex, England^{24, 210}. She was born or baptized on 29 Mar 1793 in Ripe, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date²¹⁰). She died before 1851⁷⁵.

Thomas Sinnock^{41, 68, 75, 91, 100, 117, 130, 208-209} was baptized on 28 Oct 1787 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Hailsham Common⁷⁵). He was employed as a Farmer in 1841^{91, 131}. He lived in Battle, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Watch Oak⁹¹). He was employed as a Farm Laborer (Agricultural) in 1851⁷⁵. He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (Opposite Nursery, next door to his daughter, Lucy, and son in law, Peter Parks¹³⁰). He was employed as a Farmer (retired) in 1861^{130, 208}. He owned < £100 in 1867¹¹⁷. His cause of death was dysentery, diarrhea for 2 months¹⁰⁰. Image: (spousal photograph, death certificate⁴⁰⁹)

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

Thomas was a widower in 1851. The 1841 census gives his age as 50 (birth date as 1791), but the ages in the 1841 census were often rounded to the nearest 5 years. From Mark Milton, a removal order from Ripe - date: 3 May 1815, "Thomas Sinnock, wife Sarah and children Elizabeth (2), Ann (2 months), to Hailsham"

Name Notes:

Based on birth and marriage locations (Ripe is about 3 miles from Hailsham), I assume Thomas born to James and Elizabeth in Hailsham is the same as the Thomas who married Mariah or Mary Geal in Ripe when she was just 16 years old.

Mariah Geall^{24, 91, 210} lived in Battle, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Watch Oak). Image: (spousal photograph⁴⁰⁹)

Generation 9 (con't)

Notes for Mariah Geall:

Name Notes:

Name also given as Sarah or Mary

Death Notes:

Mariah is not present in the 1841 census so I assume she died before then. The 1851 census lists Thomas as a widower, so she was deceased by then for sure.

Thomas Sinnock and Mariah Geall had the following children:

234. i. ELIZABETH¹⁰ SINNOCK^{31, 75, 118, 130-131, 410} was born or baptized about 1814 in Ripe, East Sussex, England^{31, 75, 118, 130-131, 410}. She died in 1878 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹⁰. She married Henry Hastings, son of James Hastings and Martha Pocock, on 16 Oct 1837 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He was born or baptized about 1816 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 75, 118, 130-131, 410}. He died about Mar 1876 in East Sussex, England^{68, 410}.
- ii. ANN SINNOCK^{75, 85, 400} was born or baptized about Mar 1815 in Sussex, England^{31, 75, 400}. She died on 14 Jul 1842 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{31, 68}.

Ann Sinnock^{75, 85, 400} lived in Westminster, London, England in 1841⁴⁰⁰ at. She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (Hailsham Common⁷⁵).

Notes for Ann Sinnock:

From Mark Milton, a removal order from Ripe - date: 3 May 1815, "Thomas Sinnock, wife Sarah and children Elizabeth (2), Ann (2 months), to Hailsham", Ann's birth in March 1815 is estimated from this source. Ann Sinnock, who at age 25 lived with Thomas and Mary in the 1841 Hailsham census, is assumed to be Thomas' daughter in that census; Thomas, age 50 in that census, in turn, is assumed to be the husband of Mariah (Sarah) Geall and the son of James Sinnock and Elizabeth Weller baptized in Hailsham on 6 Oct 1787; however, Thomas could be the son of Edward Sinnock and Elizabeth Bonyface, baptised on 25 Jul 1786, also in Hailsham.

Several Sinnock with Ann in their name born in about 1815 appear in England, same persons suggested by numbers:

- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1812, London, Camden, Holborn
- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1838, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Camden, Holborn
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 3 Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, London, Camden, Holborn
- 3 Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, Hampshire, Southampton
- 4 Anne Sinnock, b. 1811, Sussex, Selmeaton
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1842, Bedfordshire
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1853, London, Camden, St. Pancras
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, Sussex, Battle
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1834, Sussex, Catsfield
- 7 Ann Sinnock, b. 1815, Sussex
- 7 Ann Sinnock, d. 1842, Sussex, Hailsham
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, Sussex, Worth
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Westminster census
- 9 Ann Elizabeth Sinnock, m. 1839, London, Westminster, Marylebone

1, 2, and 3. Mary Ann (1), Sarah Ann (2), and Ann (3) are sisters, daughters of James Sinnock and Ruth Blacktop; I assume Mary Ann and Sarah Ann are the same as those with the same names married in nearby St. Martin in the Fields at 21 and 22 years old.

Ann (3) is assumed to the same person married in 1833 to George Holloway in Hampshire for no reason other than the name and age and a common information source, the Australian Descendant Family Tree. Ann, the daughter of James and Ruth could be the bride in any of the marriages listed here except those of her sisters (see 1 and 2).

4. Anne, born to Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall in Selmeaton, Sussex is assumed to be "Anne" married in 1842 to George Allen in Bedfordshire and in 1853 to an unknown spouse in St. Pancras, mostly because of the spelling of the name, poor evidence at best.

5. Mary Ann born in 1810 to George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps in Battle is assumed to be the same person who married James Smith in nearby (2 miles) Catsfield, mostly from Mark Milton, because of the name and location.

7. Ann, born in 1815 to Thomas Sinnock and Mariah Geall could be any of the above Ann's.

8. Ann, 25, of the 1841 Westminster census is assumed to be the same person as Ann born in Worth in 1816 to Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Rice for no other reason than the name and birth date. She could be the bride in any of the marriages listed above.

9. Two marriages of Ann Elizabeth are recorded, one in July 1839 in Marylebone from the IGI and one in the last quarter or 1839 in the Medway District from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. Because no other known Ann Elizabeth's live at the time, I assign both marriages to the same person.

129. WILLIAM⁹ SINNOCK (James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 31, 68, 75, 100-101, 130-131, 209, 211-212} was born or baptized on 20 Feb 1790 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{75, 100, 130-131}. He died on 23 Jul 1862 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 211}. He married Mary Harmer, daughter of Joseph Harmer and Mary (Harmer) ?, on 21 Nov 1815 in Ripe, East Sussex, England²¹². She was born or baptized about 1797 in Ripe, East Sussex, England^{75, 118, 130-131}.

William Sinnock^{5, 31, 68, 75, 100-101, 130-131, 209, 211-212} was baptized on 13 Mar 1790 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He was employed as a Laborer in 1831³¹. He was employed as a Farm Laborer (Agricultural) in 1841¹³¹. He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Diplocks Farm¹³¹). He was employed as a Farmer, 30 acres in 1851⁷⁵. Mary Harmer^{75, 118, 130-131, 212} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Diplocks Farm¹³¹). She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England between 1851-1861 at (Pool Cottage^{75, 130}). She was employed as a Merchant, Home Renter in 1871¹¹⁸.

Lucy Sinnock^{31, 68, 131, 281} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Diplocks Farm¹³¹). She lived in Hellingly, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (Brown House²⁸¹). She was employed as a Servant, Domestic Nurse, for Edwin and Jane Ackers, farmers in 1851²⁸¹. Her cause of death was accident, burned to death⁴¹².

Notes for Lucy Sinnock:

Newspaper Clipping: Sussex Chronicle, 25 May 1850, Item about death of, I assume, this Lucy: "Shocking Death - A girl named Lucy Sinnock in the service of Mr. Beckett, of Bushy Lodge, Westfirle, has met a melancholy death. In the night of Monday week she rushed from the room enveloped in flames, and on these being exterminated she gave the following account of herself - 'Oh dear, I've been a bad girl, but I cannot help it now. I sat down on the bed with out going to bed, hemming a pocket handkerchief, and dropped to sleep, and when I awoke I was all in a flame of fire. I could not put it out, and went to Mrs. Beckett's door.' The poor girl was very much burnt, and died at seven o'clock in the morning, notwithstanding every exertion made on her behalf. The verdict of the jury who sat on the body was 'Accidental Death'."

- vii. EDWIN SINNOCK³¹ was born or baptized on 13 Feb 1831 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date³¹). He died on 16 May 1834 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England³¹.

Emily Sinnock^{31, 68, 75, 117, 131} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Diplocks Farm¹³¹). She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (Pool Cottage⁷⁵). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1851⁷⁵. She owned £920 14s 9d in 1901¹¹⁷. She died about Sep 1913 in Lewisham, London, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Emily Sinnock:

Emily was a spinster until she died at 68.

- ix. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{31, 68, 131} was born or baptized on 08 Mar 1837 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{31, 131}). He died on 15 Nov 1842 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{31, 68}.

William Sinnock^{31, 68, 131} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Diplocks Farm¹³¹).

Notes for William Sinnock:

William Sinnock of the 1841 Hailsham census may be William P. Sinnock of the 1850 New Jersey census. However, William P. was apparently born in Conecticut in 1837, whereas this William was living in Hailsham in 1941 as a 4 year old. If these Williams, both born in 1937, both with fathers name William are the same individual, then a connection is made between the main Sinnock family and the New Jersey family of jewelers.

130. SAMUEL⁹ SINNOCK (James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{21, 41, 100-101, 209, 214-228} was born or baptized on 13 Nov 1793 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{5, 41, 209, 214, 217-219, 223-226}. He died on 29 Sep 1886 in Payson, Adams, Illinois, USA^{5, 100, 214, 219, 223}. He married Mary Lindfield, daughter of William Lindfield and Mary Goldsmith, on 07 Sep 1818 in Hamsey, East Sussex, England (Hamsey Church, Married by Banns, George Shiffner officiating, witness William Lindfield^{21, 216}). She was born or baptized on 03 Aug 1797 in Offham, East Sussex, England^{216-218, 220, 224-225, 229}. She died on 26 Sep 1872 in Payson, Adams, Illinois, USA^{100, 229}.

Samuel Sinnock^{21, 41, 100-101, 209, 214-228} was baptized on 17 Feb 1794 in Lewes, East Sussex, England (Jireh Chapel, Cliffe¹⁰⁰). Notes for Samuel Sinnock:

From The Sinnock Family Tree by Thomas Sinnock, about 1910, Samuel's son.

"Samuel Sinnock at the age of thirteen was bound out as an Apprentice to a Boot and Shoe Maker. I have the original Indenture written on parchment, with seals attached. A copy, which may be interesting to the younger generation.

"After serving about seven years the Master died, and he carried on the work of the shop for the widow serving out his time. He then went to the town of Battle working at his trade. In this town he became acquainted with Miss Mary Lindfield a daughter of William and Mary Lindfield of Hamsey. They were united by marriage in Hamsey Church near Lewis in 1817. In the fall of 1819 they moved to the Town of Sedlescombe and opened up a shop and continued there in business until 1853. On the 8th of April 1853 Samuel Sinnock and family left the old home going to London and took a sailing ship "Margaret Evans" bound for America, arriving in New York on May 18, but disembarking on May 19.

Samuel and his family lived on Sedlescombe Hill between Sedlescombe and Westfield. Sedlescombe Hill is very near Battle where Samuel and Mary met and their first child, George was born, they then moved the short distance, about 2 miles, to Sedlescombe Hill. Both these locations, Battle and Sedlescombe Hill are near Hastings, the closest large town, being less than 5 miles away.

"The family consisted of Father and Mother and two daughters, Mary Ann Sinnock and Mrs. Harriett L. Inman and her husband and family and James W. and Thomas Sinnock. We left New York City by boat going up the Hudson River to Albany then by cars to Buffalo, then by boat to Detroit then by cars to Chicago, Illinois, then by cars to La Salle, then by boat down the Illinois river to St. Louis, then by boat on the Mississippi river to Quincy, where brother George met us with a team and took us to Payson arrived there May 28th. I give the route taken as that was the most direct at that date, taking ten days between New York and Quincy, Illinois.

"After coming to Payson Father worked in his shop for near 20 years and died September 29, 1886. My Mother, Mary Lindfield Sinnock was born in Offham near Lewis August 3, 1797. Died in Payson September 26, 1872. Was buried in Payson."

Thomas Sinnock, abt 1910

Samuel and Mary's family suffered a terrible loss in late May to early June, 1841, when three of their young sons (Charles, 14, Francis 9, and John, 2) died within 12 days of one another, apparently from a virulent fever that swept through the family. Later, Samuel and Mary came to America to join their son George in Payson, Illinois, not long after Mary's parents died in Hamsey in 1851. Samuel's parents had died a decade earlier, so perhaps the couple felt nothing held them in England, with their sons George and Samuel Jr. telling them (in letters) how great the United States are and encouraging them to come. For whatever reason, Samuel decided to take his family of his wife Mary and their children still at home, Mary Ann, Harriett, James William and Thomas, and Harriett's husband James Inman and two daughters, Mary Ann Inman, and Harriet Frances Inman and move with them across the ocean and half a continent on land. This must have been an arduous journey, and one member of the Travelling party, infant Harriett Frances Inman, died within days after the journey's end in Payson, Illinois.

Samuel was apprenticed as cordwainer to William Clapson, Hailsham, England, 11/21/1807. His training during his indentured servitude qualified him for a long and mostly successful career as a shoemaker, bootmaker, and cordwainer, a trade which he practiced all his life in both England and America and in which he taught his sons so they too could work in leather, as his eldest, George did, working with his father in Payson.

From Mark Milton, posted on Ancestry.com Message Board: Robert Sellens and Mary Ann Kenward, showing connections between the Sinnocks, Inmans, and Sellens:

'I was recently adding some information to my database and found some information on Mary Ann Kenward that may be of interest. In 1841 and 1851, Mary Ann Kenward was living in Westfield, Sussex. Thomas and Philadelphia Sellens (Robert Sellens' Uncle and Aunt) lived 2 houses away. Mary Ann's next door neighbor was Samuel Sinnock (a Shoemaker). Robert Sellens emigrated to the US in Nov 1850. In May 1853, Mary Ann Kenward emigrated to the US on the ship "Margaret Evans." Accompanying her was Samuel Sinnock and his family. Also Travelling were James Inman, his wife Harriet and their children. Harriet Inman was born Harriet Sinnock and was the sister of Samuel Sinnock. The Inmans and Sinnocks seem to have made directly for Payson, Illinois whereas Mary Ann Kenward seems to have headed for New York State where she married Robert Sellens in September 1853. It would therefore seem to be a fair guess that Robert had met Mary Ann through his Uncle (Thomas Sellens) and that Mary Ann emigrated to the US a few years after Robert in order to marry him. The story, however, does not stop here. After Robert and Mary Ann married they also moved to Payson, Illinois. In 1869 they had a daughter, Susan Orpha Sellens. In the meantime, James and Harriet Inman had a son James Inman who was born in Illinois in 1862. In 1890 James Inman married Susan Sellens. This information is, in and of itself, very interesting but it has great interest to me. Not only was Robert Sellens my first cousin five times removed, but Samuel Sinnock was fourth cousin five times removed. The relationship is through different maternal lines."

From an unknown paper, perhaps the Bee-Times:

Generation 9 (con't)

"Family Reunion"

A very pleasant reunion was held in Payson on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the residence of our aged citizen, Mr. S. Sinnock who on that day attained his 90th birthday. The children, grandchildren and great grandchildren numbering nearly 50, met at the family residence to celebrate the joyful day. The table was richly laden with the good things of this life, and four generations enjoyed the festive board with happy hearts and merry spirits, making the occasion one of joy and gladness. Father Sinnock, although bending under the weight of ninety years, was feeling young again and joined heartily with the children in singing some of the songs of his youth. There were present: Rev. J. W. Sinnock and family of Williamsville, Illinois; Thomas Sinnock and family; Mrs. William Sinnock and child; Kay and George Sinnock; Miss (Julia Nichols?) and (Maddie Irm?) from Quincy; the wife and family of Dr. H. F. Harris of Perry, Pike Co., Illinois; Mr. Samuel Sinnock and son; Mrs. Cottey and child from Knox, Co., Mo.; George Sinnock and family; James Inman and family; John Inman, wife and child; Samuel Inman and wife; Dr. C. T. Hewes, wife and child; Mr. Laney Baker and family; and Miss Mary Ann Sinnock of Payson. The (-- ? --) ones were not forgotten, as 20 grand and great grandchildren would have been welcomed in addition to the already large company present; they were with us in heart though not in body."

The following is taken from "The History of the Battle Baptist Church" by the Rev. F. W. Butt-Thomson, 1909, Burfield and Pennells, Hastings, I received it as an enclosure from Mark Milton 02 Sep 2010. This gives some idea of the life style at the time Samuel and his family lived in the Battle area, though I think the author somewhat pessimistic, for the people seemed to be just the same as now and do pretty much the same things as now, just with different toys.

Life in East Sussex in 1750-1800

The East Sussex of the second half of the eighteenth century was so unlike the East Sussex of today that it is interesting to attempt its reconstruction. There appear to have been but three main roads, and these were hardly worthy of that title, for the coach from London to Brighthelmston took two days for its journey, and even then the optimism of the way-bill was frequently the only thing that did not break down. "Impassable Sussex roads" - so runs the verdict passed upon them by Dr. Burton, a professor of Greek at Oxford, who in 1751 visited his relations in this, "muddy, fertile, pastoral" spot. He is also responsible for the statement that the people he saw on the journey were "long-legged, because they stretched their muscles so frequently in pulling their feet out of the mud." As late as this the carriages had to be drawn by oxen. In many parts of the "high road", the mud was so deep that wagons stuck so immovably that they would be left until the dry weather. A story is told of a Chichester Bishop, who, when inducting the Rector of a southern parish, made a point of exhorting the clergyman to get away to the abode of his flock as quickly as possible else he would not be able to accomplish the journey until the next summer.

The great majority of the men were farmers, living in houses scattered over the district with many a long mile of timbered hill and dale between. Not much did they think or speak about save the rearing and selling of stock and the advantages or otherwise of the various markets, at which they appeared picturesquely dressed in blue coats, yellow breeches, and top boots. The following may not be the whole of the truth, but it was written by one who knew his subject - "The men's whole attention is given to get their cattle, and everything else fat, their own intellect not excepted." Concerning the ladies we have better things recorded, they were "modest, fond of elegance in dress, but, at the same time, fond of labour, and experienced in house-hold affairs..... Both by nature and education.better intellectually generally than the men."

The home-life was not such a problem as it is today. They made room in their home for man and maid as well as their own children. Employers and employed with family and friends dined around one sufficient table. After the toil of the day the evenings would be devoted to talk around the heaped-up log fire in the common room. A few may have been brave enough to spend the sixpence or eightpence necessary to purchase the "North Briton" (edited by the famous John Vilks, M.P., and Lord Mayor of London), or the "Kentish Gazette," and so could relate the doings of George the Second and his court or the progress of the various wars then on hand; or tell over again the coarse jests of the wayside tavern, and the smug puns of the village squire (that found a place in the pages of newspapers of that period); or excite themselves into a quarrelsome mood in the discussion of the Jacobite chances of success. Of books there were a considerable number, but of little value. "Pilgrim's Progress" and "Robinson Crusoe," and such like had not found their way to such remoteness as this. Picture-books were hawked from village to village, but these "chap books," told of no higher heroes than "Robin Hood," "Jack the Giant Killer," and "Tom Thumb." The majority of the people could not read, hence the illustrations. Yet so well were these books thumbed that few houses could be visited without hearing words of admiration for the Robber's daring, or the cunning nimbleness of Jack, or the diplomacy of the midget.

Sleep would claim them at a much earlier hour than that at which we moderns are accustomed to retire, and the ghosts that regularly walked the churchyards would have the night to themselves. The summer Sundays would be all too short for witnessing the "main of cocks," between rival districts or owners; the "pitch and toss" or "Meg Morris," played by stealth out of the way of the village constable; the rounders: and - the getting drunk on a pennyworth of gin at the tavern.

The peasantry were almost slaves, even their right to participate in the Poor Law of that day was denied them by an ingenious system of discharging them for a few days each year. They were ragged in dress, famished in appearance, and had an almost chronic lifting of the hand "to pull a meek forelock to their betters." Any feelings of revolt were effectually crushed by the masters, who were almost their owners, and by the English Law. In that day the value of a man's life was the value of a starved sheep. And, lest they should forget, the countryside was dotted with aids to memory, i.e. decaying bodies - swayed with every breeze - dangling from the roadside gallows. Often those bodies represented men whose only crime was the attempt to satisfy the hunger of their children. Wages for the women averaged £2 yearly; for coachmen, £5 10s.; for shepherds (without food) £20; for farm labourers, their food and a few shillings at Michaelmas or New Year. In towns like Battle, situate near the ironfields, skilled labour had a little better existence. But what it gained in wage it lost in degradation, John Richard Green says of the time that the inhabitants of the towns were "ignorant and brutal to a degree which it is hard to conceive, for the vast increase of population had been met by no effort for their religious or educational improvement."

In this birthplace of Mr. Vidler and his Church, the people were "reared under conditions that engendered sensuous immorality." Mr. George Gilbert found it "a benighted place," and actively opposed to the preaching of the Gospel. And Mr. Vidler himself (in "A short account of the Planting of the Particular Baptist Church at Battle, Sussex") calls it "a place of darkness." In very few places was "Dissent" known, and where it had gained a footing, it was relegated to the back street of the town, or an obscure cottage in the village.

Thomas Sinnock's history of the Sinnock family indicates his mother Mary Lindfield was born in Ofham, East Sussex, England, on August 03, 1797, the daughter of William Lindfield, a gardener, and Mary, his wife. Notes for Mary Ann Sinnock:

I assume Mary Ann who migrated to America in 1853 is the same person as Mary Ann who appears in the 1841 Hastings census is the same person who married in Hastings in 1845 because of the rarity of the last name, the same first and middle (2 of 3) names, geographic proximity (Sedlescombe is just 5 miles up the road from Hasting), identical birth dates, and no other Mary or Mary Ann Sinnocks in Sussex at the time. However, this would mean she married and then was widowed or divorced because she migrated to America without a husband. This is especially troublesome since Thomas Sinnock, her brother, did not mention a husband in his history of the Sinnock family completed in about 1910.

"Mary Ann Sinnock, daughter of Samuel and Mary Lindfield Sinnock, came to America with her parents in 1853. She lived at the old homestead in Payson, Illinois where she kept house until after her father's death in 1886. Later she came to Quincy, Illinois and lived with her brother, Thomas Sinnock, until about a year before her death. In 1884 she had Glaucoma in her eyes. An operation was performed on one eye but it was not successful and the light went out. Later she went to Springfield, Illinois, and Dr. Prince operated on the other eye. It was partially successful, so she had a little light for several years, but the light gradually went out. For many years she has been very feeble in health. She is a faithful member of the Baptist Church."

Migration: Abt. 1867 (England to United States, Michigan (Borden, Kent to Detroit then to Missouri)²³) He lived in Grosse Pointe, Wayne, Michigan, USA in 1870²⁴⁵ at. Migration: Abt. 1880 (Inter State, Michigan to Washington (Wayne County to Tacoma)²⁴²) He lived in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA in 1883²⁴⁴ at. He died in 1885 in Cream Ridge Township, Livingston, Missouri, USA⁴⁸⁵. He was employed as a Farmer, jointly with his son-in-law, Frank Thompson in 1885⁴⁸⁵. He was buried in Cream Ridge Township, Livingston, Missouri, USA (May Cemetery⁴⁸⁵). His cause of death was enteritis²⁴².

Notes for John W. Sinnock:

Three families were having children in the Chatham, Gillingham, Rochester, Medway, Brompton area of northern Kent from just before 1840 until about 1870, interpreted here to be: (1) Henry Sennock and Mary Kelloway, 7 children from 1855 to 1870, (2) John Sinnock, this individual, and Sarah Swift Coultrup, nine children from 1839 to 1852, and (3) John Henry Sinnock and Elizabeth, 4 children from 1836 to 1853. Because parentage information is lacking for many of the children, they could be and probably are assigned to the wrong family in several cases. This individual is assumed to be a parent of a family of Sinnocks being born in the Medway area in the 1840's and 1850's.

I assume John migrated to the United States with two of his living children. John Lee and William Swift and William's wife, Sarah Wilson and their 3 year old, Alice A. Sinnock, and just after his John's wife, Sarah, died in 1866. They appear as separate families in the 1870 Detroit census.

Birth Notes:

The 1870 census indicates his age is 50 or 56.

Migration Notes:

The death entry for John in 1891 says he was a resident of Tacoma for 11 years

Sarah Swift Coultrup^{5, 68, 241} lived in Chatham, Kent, England in 1841 at (High Great Back²⁴¹).

Notes for Sarah Swift Coultrup:

I assume Sarah Swift Coultrup who married John Sinnock in Minster-in-Sheppey is the same person as Sarah S. Sinnock, who died in the nearby Hoo District just across the Medway because of the rarity of the name, likelihood that "Sinnock" was the maiden name of Elizabeth who died in the Hoo at 54 years old, the middle initial "S", geographic proximity of the Hoo, Minster-in-Sheppey and Chatham, and compatible birth dates, especially considering 1841 census records round dates to (usually) the nearest 5 years.

Birth Notes:

Sarah's age is given as 25 in the 1841 Chatham census indicating birth in about 1816, but ages are rounded to the nearest, sometimes, 5 years in the 1841 census

John W. Sinnock and Sarah Swift Coultrup had the following children:

249. i. WILLIAM SWIFT¹⁰ SINNOCK^{5, 85, 241-242, 244-245, 364, 366} was born or baptized on 04 Sep 1833 in Borden, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 241, 244, 364}). He died on 08 Feb 1891 in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA²⁴². He married Sarah Usher Wilson, daughter of James Wilson and Martha (Wilson) ?, about Sep 1862 in Hoo District, Kent, England⁸⁵. She was born or baptized on 17 Jun 1842 in England^{245, 306, 486-487}. She died on 28 Jan 1920 in Cream Ridge Township, Livingston, Missouri, USA³⁰⁶.
250. ii. JOHN LEE SINNOCK^{5, 219, 241-242, 244-245, 488-492} was born or baptized on 23 Sep 1835 in Borden, Kent, England^{5, 241-242, 244-245, 489-491}. He died on 19 Oct 1913 in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA^{242, 491}. He married Mary Elizabeth Payne, daughter of George W. Payne and Mary B. Hoyle, on 09 Sep 1860 in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, USA^{219, 489}. She was born or baptized on 07 May 1843 in Rhode Island, USA^{242, 244-245, 488-491}. She died on 26 Nov 1916 in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA^{242, 491}.
- iii. AMELIA MARY SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Sep 1841 in Medway District, Kent, England¹¹⁹. She died about Nov 1841 in Medway District, Kent, England⁶⁸.
- iv. ERNEST AUGUSTUS SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Dec 1842 in Medway District, Kent, England¹¹⁹. He died about Mar 1846 in Medway District, Kent, England⁶⁸.
- v. LOUISA MARY SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Mar 1845 in Medway District, Kent, England¹¹⁹. She died about Jun 1846 in Southwark, London, England⁶⁸.
- vi. EDGAR ERNEST SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Dec 1846 in Medway District, Kent, England¹¹⁹. He died about

Generation 9 (con't)

Sep 1847 in Medway District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

- vii. AUGUSTUS ERNEST SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Sep 1850 in Medway District, Kent, England¹¹⁹. He died about Sep 1850 in Medway District, Kent, England⁶⁸.
- viii. JOHN STEPHEN SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Jun 1852 in Medway District, Kent, England^{68, 119}. He died about Mar 1879 in Maidstone District, Kent, England⁶⁸. He married Eliza Jarvis about Sep 1873 in Sheppey, Kent, England⁸⁵. She was born or baptized about 1855²³.
- ix. JAMES WALTER SINNOCK^{119, 242, 244, 488-490, 493} was born or baptized about Dec 1853 in Medway District, Kent, England^{119, 242, 244, 488-490}. He died on 23 Aug 1911 in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA²⁴².

Migration: Bef. 1880 (England to United States, Washington⁶) He lived in Tumwater, Chelan, Washington, USA in 1880⁴⁹⁰ at. He lived in Thurston, Washington, USA between 1880-1881²⁴⁴ at. He was employed as a Contractor, Builder between 1880-1910^{244, 488-489}. He was employed as a Laborer, Mechanic in 1881²⁴⁴. He owned Applied for 4 land patents (1) SE¼NW¼ Sec 2 T18N R7W, (2) NE¼SW¼ Sec 2 T18N R7W, (3) NW¼NE¼ Sec 2 T18N R7W, (4) NE¼NW¼ Sec 2 T18N R7W, Willamette, Washington on 06 Feb 1892⁴⁹³. He lived in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA between 1900-1910 at (411 South L Street⁴⁸⁸⁻⁴⁸⁹). He was also known as "Walter"²⁴².

Notes for James Walter Sinnock:

I assume Walter is a son of John W. Sinnock and Sarah Swift Coultrup because of the rarity of the name, his birth in England and residence in Washington, compatible ages, and the fact James appears with his "borthor", John Lee, in both the 1887 Tacoma census and 1881 Thurston County census. Thus, I assume James Walter who migrated to Washington from England is James Walter Sinnock, born in Medway in 1853. The 1870 census gives an age of 17 for Walter, yielding a birth year of about 1853. The 1870 census lists Walter as John and Mary's son, but the 1900 and 1910 census both list as Walter (1900) and James W. (1910) as J.'s (1900) and John L.'s (1910) brother with births in September 1835 (1900) and March 1856 (1910). The ages fit better with brothers somewhere between 19 and perhaps 16 years apart in age, so Walter is listed here as a brother of John L. His name is given as "Walter" in the 1900 census and Washington death records, as "James W." in the 1910 census, and as "James Walter" in the English Civil Registration of Births.

135. THOMAS⁹ BONIFACE (Elizabeth⁸ Sinnock, James⁷ Sinnock, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵ Sinnock, Elias⁴ Sinnock, Christofer³ Sinnock, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{31, 41, 85, 103, 108, 132, 246-247} was born or baptized in 1791 in Pevensy, East Sussex, England^{103, 132, 246-247}. Thomas, the son of Elizabeth Sinnock, married Anne Sinnock, Elizabeth's third cousin through their 2nd great grandparents, Elias Sinnock and Margery Frankwell. Thomas and Anne had three children, John, Thomas and Louisa, living with them in Westham 1841. Information from the Pevensy census in 1891 and 1901 about other possible children has not been entered in the database because of insufficient evidence to establish correct relations. Image: (descendant tree) Her cause of death was paralysis^{31, 108}.

Notes for Ann Judd:

Ann was a Samuel Sinnock's widow when she married Thomas Boniface in 1825, after her liason with Samuel Long. It seems that the surgeon Samuel Long, perhaps attending Ann's husband, Samuel, in his final days, took sympathy on the widow. Thirteen 13 months after Samuel died, Ann gave birth to Frederick, an illegitimate son by Samuel, who adopted the Sinnock name.

Generation 9 (con't)

From Mark Miltons GEDCOM, Death Certificate 23rd April 1843, Hailsham, Sussex, Female, 60 years, Widow of Thomas Boniface, Labourer, Cause of Death = Paralysis, Informant = Marion Smith; present at death; used her mark.

Notes for William Boniface:

In 1871, William lived with a niece, Mary, 39, born in Billingshurst, and her son Thomas, 18, born in West Grinstead.

Birth Notes:

In 1841 William reported age in the census was 50, in 1851, 63, and in 1861, 76. He seemed to age faster than most of us, though he slowed down the next ten years when he reported 81 in 1871. I chose the 1851 resulting birth date of 1788 as sort of in the middle.

Ann Dunk^{104, 249-251} lived in West Grinstead, West Sussex, England between 1841-1861 at (Hobshorts²⁴⁹⁻²⁵¹).

Notes for Ann Dunk:

138. GEORGE⁹ SINNOCK (Samuel⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 20, 41, 68} was born or baptized on 26 Nov 1806 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He died about Dec 1863 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Harriett Pettitt, daughter of Stephen Pettett and Philadelphia (Pettett) ?, on 05 Mar 1827 in Crowhurst, East Sussex, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1805 in Wartling, East Sussex, England.

George Sinnock^{5, 20, 41, 68} was baptized on 20 Dec 1806 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹³².

Notes for George Sinnock:

I assumed that George of IGI is the same as George from Parish Register, because rarity of the name, proximity, and a compatible (common) age. I assume George born in Hailsham in 1806 is the same person as George who died there in the last quarter of 1863 because of rarity of the name, location in Hailsham, and compatible dates, though death dates for this (1863) and another George Sinnock born in Hailsham in 1793 (died 1859) could be switched, but I chose this association to preserve "first born - first to die". None of these George's may be related, and four separate individuals may exist, one for each birth and death date.

George Sinnock and Harriett Pettitt had the following children:

- i. GEORGE¹⁰ SINNOCK^{20, 68, 197, 505-506} was born or baptized on 10 Feb 1828 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 197, 505-506}).
George Sinnock^{20, 68, 197, 505-506} lived in Wartling, East Sussex, England between 1841-1851 at (Milles Farm, lived with his grandfather Stephen Pettett⁵⁰⁵⁻⁵⁰⁶). He was employed as a Farm Laborer (Agricultural) between 1841-1851⁵⁰⁵⁻⁵⁰⁶.
Notes for George Sinnock:
I assume George of Catsfield died in Hailsham in 18
 260. ii. THOMAS SINNOCK^{5, 70, 85, 160, 505-507} was born or baptized on 27 Dec 1829 in Catsfield, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 119, 160, 505-507}). 139. WILLIAM⁹ SINNOCK (Samuel⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 20, 41, 68, 85, 107, 113, 255-260}

was born or baptized on 20 Aug 1809 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{41, 68, 113, 255-261}. He died about Jun 1897 in Eastry District, Kent, England⁶⁸. He married (1) MARY ELIZABETH PERCH about 1835¹³². She was born or baptized in 1807 in Barham, Kent, England²⁵⁶⁻²⁵⁷. He married (2) CAROLINE PETTITT about Sep 1856 in Thanet District, Kent, England^{5, 85}. She was born or baptized about 1824 in Wingham, Kent, England^{255, 258-260}.

William Sinnock^{5, 20, 41, 68, 85, 107, 113, 255-260} was baptized on 18 Oct 1809 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁴¹. He was employed as a Laborer, Rope and Hemp Maker, Apprentice (indentured) to Thomas Burfield in 1824^{108, 113}. Migration: Bef. 1836 (Inter County, East Sussex to Kent (Hailsham to Wingham)²³) He was employed as a Merchant, Shopkeeper in 1840¹⁰⁷. He lived in Wingham, Kent, England in 1841 at (Dean Road²⁵⁷). He lived in Wingham, Kent, England between 1861-1891 at (Wingham Street^{255, 258-260}). He was employed as a Laborer, Rope Maker in 1887⁷⁰.

Notes for William Sinnock:

Apparently, William moved from his home town of Hailsham to Wingham of the Thanet District to marry Elizabeth Perch. The couple then settled near her home town of Barham, establishing the first Sinnocks in Wingham. After Mary Elizabeth died, he remarried Caroline Pettitt and they had several more children in Wingham. Several William Sinnock's from England about this time could be confused, as one or more may be in this database:

- William Sinnock, b. abt 1799, in Willingdon m. Ruth Bateman and had many children in around Hailsham from the late 1920's through the 1830's
- William Sinnock, b. 03 Oct 1803, Selmeston to John and Jane, m. Catherine Brown, 3 Mar 1828, in Pycombe (no parents listed), many children in Selmeston, until 1848
- William of New Jersey who appears as William b. abt 1805 (1850), b. 1800 (1860), or b. 1804 (1870) and William D(?). b. 1803 (1880) all in England with wife Sally (?) b. abt 1802 in Connecticut (1850) or Sarah (?), b. abt 1802 in New York (1860) or Connecticut (1870) and had a son William P. b. abt 1837 in Connecticut (1850, 1860)

Sarah Pead, 27 Sep 1842, in Shoreditch and soon had two more children with her, or at least she did, because they only appear with her as a widow in the in suburban London, Epson and Cobham in the
- William Sinnock, b. 20 Aug 1809, Hailsham to Samuel and Ann (Judd), m. 1st Mary Elizabeth Perch and had many children in Wingham, Kent in the 1840's and 1850's, then m. abt Sep 1856 Caroline Pettitt, and had many more children in Wingham in the 1850's and 1860's
- William Sinnock b. 16 Nov 1809, Selmeston, son of Thomas, m. (1) Mary Maltman, 29 Jul 1827, in Lewisham, London, and had children there, in Sydenham in the 1830's; m. (2) Elizabeth Pritchard, 1 Jan 1838, in Camden, one son in nearby Camberwell
- William Henry Sinnock, b. 29 Feb 1824, m. Sarah Ann Mace, Jun 1855, Malling, had a son there later in the same year; perhaps the same William and Sarah disembarked in New York with 6 other children born also in the 1850's to 1860's in 1863, as assumed in this database

Birth Notes:

In his indenture papers dated May 19, 1809, William, then age 15, reported an age of 16, somewhat early, probably to get the apprenticeship which may have been limited to 16 year olds.

Migration Notes:

I assume William lived at home in Hailsham until about 1835 when he moved to Wingham to marry Caroline Pettitt, where they had a daughter, Elizabeth Ann, in 1836.

Mary Elizabeth Perch^{5, 20, 256-257} lived in Wingham, Kent, England between 1841-1851 at (The Town²⁵⁶⁻²⁵⁷).

Generation 9 (con't)

Notes for Amelia Sinnock:

Name Notes:

Her name is given as "Emily" in 1841 census

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Amelia's birth location as the Eastry District, which encompasses Wingham. The 1901 census indicates an age of 57 giving a birth year of 1844.

- iv. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{5, 68, 85, 119, 256, 258} was born or baptized about Jun 1844 in Wingham, Kent, England^{68, 119, 256, 258}. He died about Aug 1898 in Hastings, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Emily Howard on 15 Jan 1873 in Welney, Norfolk, England²¹. She was born or baptized about 1850 in England²¹.

William Sinnock^{5, 68, 85, 119, 256, 258} lived in Wingham, Kent, England in 1851 at (The Town²⁵⁶). He was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1851²⁵⁶. He was employed as a Carpenter in 1861²⁵⁸. He lived in Wingham, Kent, England in 1861 at (Wingham Street²⁵⁸).

- v. SAMUEL HENRY SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized on 15 Oct 1846 in Wingham, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 119}). He died about Dec 1846 in Eastry District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Samuel Henry Sinnock:

Samuel of the Civil Registration Index is assumed to be the son of William and Elizabeth because of age and birth district, but he does not appear in the 1851 Wingham census, so he may have died young.

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Samuel's birth place as the Eastry District, which encompasses Wingham.

- vi. JANE SINNOCK^{5, 85, 119, 256, 258} was born or baptized about Mar 1848 in Wingham, Kent, England^{119, 256, 258}. She married George P. Stevens about Jun 1866 in Eastry District, Kent, England (Jane Sinnock married either George Stevens or William King⁸⁵). He was born or baptized about 1845²³.

Jane Sinnock^{5, 85, 119, 256, 258} lived in Wingham, Kent, England in 1851 at (The Town²⁵⁶). She lived in Wingham, Kent, England in 1861 at (Wingham Street²⁵⁸). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1861²⁵⁸.

George P. Stevens⁸⁵ also went by the name of William King⁸⁵.

Caroline Pettitt^{5, 85, 255, 258-261} lived in Wingham, Kent, England between 1861-1891 at (Wingham Street^{255, 258-260}).

William Sinnock and Caroline Pettitt had the following children:

- vii. LILLIAN MINNIE SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Jun 1856 in Thanet District, Kent, England¹¹⁹. She died about Mar 1857 in Thanet District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Lillian Minnie Sinnock:

I assume Lillian (Lilia) was a daughter of William Sinnock of Hailsham and Caroline Pettitt of Wingham. Lilia Minnie was born in about June 1856 in the Thanet District, after the 1851 census according to the Civil Registration Index of Births and Lillian died in the same district less than nine months later in about March 1857 according to the Civil Registration Index of Deaths, before the 1861 census. No parents were identified in either entry. Nearby, William and Caroline were just about to be married somewhere in the Thanet District. Later William and Caroline raised four other children in Wingham according to the 1861 and 1871 census. So it seems, William, from Hailsham, had six other children by Elizabeth Perch in Wingham, then met and probably courted the "elderly" Caroline, perhaps a widow, then 30 or so. They had Lillian shortly before they married in the Thanet District, it seems, then four other children in the adjacent Eastry District, Wingham, in particular. Perhaps William and Caroline, from Wingham, had Lillian then wed elsewhere, until they "made it proper" for the home folk, and so Lillian's birth, death, and William and Caroline's marriage are all listed in the adjacent Thanet District, rather than the southernly adjacent Eastry District of which Wingham was a part in the late 1800's. Perhaps Lillian is not related to William and Caroline at all, but no other parents seem to be such good candidates, though the story concocted here may seem a stretch from the facts

Birth Notes:

I assume Lillian, born in the Thanet District according to the Civil Registration Index of Births, was born in the nearby, later included, town of Wingham, where all her supposed siblings were born.

261. viii. JOHN SINNOCK^{5, 68, 85, 117, 119, 255, 258-261, 512-513} was born or baptized about Jun 1857 in Wingham, Kent, England^{5, 68, 119, 255, 258-260, 512-513}. He died on 14 Feb 1932 in Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire, England (North Staffordshire Royal Infirmary^{68, 117}). He married Selena Elizabeth Olive, daughter of Emily Mound, about Jun 1881 in Eastry District, Kent, England^{85, 513}. She was born or baptized about 1856 in Whitstable, Kent, England^{255, 512-514}. She died about Dec 1920 in Eastry District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Samuel Henry Sinnock^{5, 31, 41, 85, 131, 220, 262-266} was baptized on 03 Dec 1812 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England¹³². He was employed as a Farm Laborer (Agricultural) in 1841¹³¹. He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Summer Heath¹³¹). He owned $5000 Real Estate, $500 Personal in 1870²⁶². He was also known as "Harry" or "Henry"²⁶². Image: (marriage certificate³¹)

Notes for Samuel Henry Sinnock:

Samuel Henry of the Hailsham Parish Register is assumed to be Henry, half brother of Frederick who lived with Ann Boniface, 1841, assumed to be Anne Sinnock Bonyface, their aunt who married Thomas Boniface on 4 Apr 1825. Henry (or Harry) Sinnock the immigrant to Ohio with wife Mahula Cruttenden, known from several independent sources, may be this Samuel Henry Sinnock born 23 Jul 1812 in Hailsham. Samuel Henry and younger Frederick lived with their widowed aunt, Ann Sinnock Bonyface, during the 1841 Census. The New York passenger and immigration list index shows that Henry (as Samuel Henry was called) and Frederick along with Mahula immigrated to the United States in 1844. The Ohio 1870 Census shows Henry was born about late 1812 or early 1813. Given these observations, I conclude that Samuel Henry and Frederick, half brothers sharing Ann Judd as a mother, lived with an aunt, got bored and ready for adventure, and with new wives, Mahula (Henry's wife) and Maria or Jane (Frederick's wife), and a daughter, Jane, of Harry and Mahula, immigrated to the United States. I believe Frederick may have gone to Canada, and Samuel Henry settled in Massillon, Ohio.

From Mark Milton in an Ancestry.com Message Board Posting, Re: Harry Sinnock, England to Ohio, 31 Jan 2010:

Henry (Harry Sinnock) married Mahala Cruttenden in Bexhill on 6 Nov 1843. According to Henry's marriage certificate (I obtained the certificate from another Sinnock researcher), Henry's father was Boniface Sinnock. On 27 Feb 1844, Henry (age 28), Mahala (age 22) and their 3 month old daughter Jane arrived in New York on the ship Prince Albert. It isn't clear who the parents of Henry Sinnock were. There doesn't seem to be any such person as Boniface Sinnock, although there was a Thomas Boniface who married Ann Sinnock (widow) on 5 Apr 1825. I haven't been able to find out any definitive information regarding Ann Sinnock's previous marriage.

There are two records in the England and Wales Criminal Registers that may pertain to this Henry Sinnock.

(1) Henry Sinnock aged 21, County Assizes, 23 Mar 1835, Poaching, 4 months imprisonment

(2) Henry Sinnock aged 30, County Assizes, 31 Jul 1843, Burglary, no prosecution

The second definitely belongs to this Henry Sinnock since there is a newspaper account of the trial at which Mahala Cruttenden testified and gave Henry an alibi. The copy of the article that I have is very faint in one or two key places but it appears that Henry Sinnock turned Queen's evidence against four others who were accomplices of his but were charged with the crime. Apparently for turning states evidence, he was not charged, though he was, according to his own testimony, a major participant in the burglary of a house in Eastbourne. During his testimony he admitted to many, many other petty crimes, but only that he had been convicted of poaching and sent to gaol (jail) for four months. His action led the defence attorney in an attempt to discredit his testimony described Henry as: "..... unless the evidence of the principal witness, the accomplice (Henry), whose infamous course of life had steeped him in guilt, was confirmed in every particular by persons of undoubted character, the case must fall to the ground. No human being ought to be convicted upon such evidence as that given by that infamous man - a man who would commit the greatest atrocity the human mind could conceive or the human hand could perform; a man who obtained the feed for his horse from a neighbouring miller's granery; who obtained his mutton from a neighbouring farmer's field; a man who obtained his wheat from a neighbouring miller's house; who, in short, lived upon plundering his honest neighbours; and strangely, last, not least, he attempted, but his courage failed him, to rob his own parish church."

The four co-conspirators (William Roser, George Turner; Daniel Foster and Samuel Merricks) were sentenced to transportation for the rest of their natural lives, very severe for a robbery in today's (2011) England or United States. On 6th Nov 1843, just three months after the trial, Henry married Mahala Cruttenden. On 27 Feb 1844, Henry, Mahala and 3 month old Jane Sinnock, born about the time of the marriage, emigrated to the US. Regards, Mark." It isn't surprising that Henry left the country after the court case in which he "ratted out" his friends.

Henry and Mahala's marriage certificate refers to Henry's father as "Boniface Sinnock" reinforcing the ties to the Bonyfaces: Marriage Certificate from Mark Milton 2 Sep 2010, Marriage 6 Nov 1843, Bexhill Parish Church, Henry Sinnock; full age; bachelor; labourer; Bexhill; father = Boniface Sinnock, Labourer, Mahala Cruttenden; full age; spinster; Bexhill; father = Samuel Cruttenden, Brick Maker, Witnesses were ?? and Sabina Cruttenden

Name Notes:

First name is given as "Harry" in the 1870 census.

Generation 9 (con't)

Birth Notes:

The 1850 census for Perry Township lists Henry Sinks as 28 years old indicating a birth in 1822 rather than 1812. I suspect the census entered 28 instead of 38

Her name is "Serena Edith" in the letter from Mark Milton, and she is "unnamed" in the 1860 Perry Township census

- viii. EDITH SINNOCK⁵²² was born or baptized about 1860 in Ohio, USA⁵²².

Edith Sinnock⁵²² lived in Sugar Creek Township, Stark, Ohio, USA in 1870 at (Farm, lived with or visiting her sister Elizabeth and family⁵²²).

Notes for Edith Sinnock:

The only record I have for Edith is a listing in the 1870 Sugar Creek Township census where she is listed as being in the household of Elizabeth Sinnock and her husband William Fetrow. Because of her rare last name, birth in Ohio, and age, I believe she must be a daughter of Henry and Mahala born in about 1860, but after the census where she does not appear. She may have died or married before the 1880 census, no longer appearing as a Sinnock and eluding my

Notes for Amelia Sinnock:

She is a twin of Edward. I assume Amelia, the daughter of John and Hester from the census, is Amelia from Civil Registration Index of Births and Amelia "Sennock" from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages

Generation 9 (con't)

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sennock" in the London, England, Marriages and Banns.

Last name is spelled "Sennock" in the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. The entry in the 1841 census is not legible, looks like "?onsha" for a first name.

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Amelia's birth location as "I. of Thanet" short for Isle of Thanet, and is the Thanet registration district, which included Margate, where Edward was born according to the census data.

William Masters⁸⁵ also went by the name of Thomas Gower⁸⁵.

Alexis Francis Nicole^{5, 70, 85, 548} lived in Clerkenwell, Islington, London, England in 1865 at (St. James⁷⁰). He was employed as a Watch Case Maker in 1865⁷⁰.

- viii. HENRY SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Sep 1841 in Margate, Kent, England¹¹⁹. He died about Sep 1843 in Thanet District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Henry Sinnock:

I assume Henry is a son of John and Esther because of the rarity of the name, his birth in the Thanet District which includes Margate where his supposed siblings were born, a compatible birth date to be John and Esther's last, and no other known Sinnocks living in the Thanet District at the time. Being born after the 1841 census and dying before the 1851 census, he does not appear in any census with the rest of the family.

Birth Notes:

I assume Henry, born in the Thanet District according to the Civil Registration Index of births was born in the included town of Margate where all his supposed siblings were born according to multiple census entries, several of whom showed the same "Thanet District" birth location in the Civil Registration Index.

142. ELIZABETH SARAH⁹ SINNOCK (Henry⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 109} was born or baptized on 02 Feb 1806 in Margate, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. John's, Hawley Square⁵). She died on 02 Aug 1834 in Margate, Kent, England¹⁰⁹. She married Benjamin Hobday, son of Benjamin Hobday and Elizabeth Fordred, on 21 May 1831 in Margate, Kent, England (St. John Wesleyan¹⁰⁹). He was born or baptized in 1804 in Whitstable, Kent, England^{68, 79, 109, 111, 272}. He died on 23 Nov 1882 in Ramsgate, Kent, England^{68, 109}.

Benjamin Hobday^{68, 79, 109, 111, 272} was employed as a Draper, Linen in 1841²⁷². He lived in Ramsgate, Kent, England in 1841 at (Harbour Street²⁷²). He lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1851 at (7 Dane Hill Road, St. John the Baptist⁷⁹). He was employed as a Laborer, Draper's Assistant between 1851-1861^{79, 111}. He lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1861 at (26 High Street Bazaar, St. John the Baptist¹¹¹).

Notes for Benjamin Hobday:

Benjamin and Susanna (Elizabeth Sarah) lived with five children in Ramsgate in 1841, Mary, 9, Ellen, 7, Frances 3, Edgar, 2, and Charles, 3m, all born in Kent; Edgar and Charles, at least, were born in Ramsgate according to the 1851 census. I suspect Frances died, and perhaps Ellen, because they do not appear in the 1851 census, but Mary and Ellen may have been living elsewhere in 1851, perhaps as housemaids, which was common for young women of the time.

Benjamin Hobday and Elizabeth Sarah Sinnock had the following child:

269. i. MARY ELIZABETH¹⁰ HOBDAY^{273-275, 277, 549-551} was born or baptized on 03 Mar 1832 in Margate, Kent, England^{273-275, 277, 549-551}. She married WILLIAM PYKE. He was born or baptized about 1832 in North Tawton, Devon, England^{273-275, 549}. He died before 1881.
143. WILLIAM⁹ SINNOCK (Henry⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 16, 21, 68, 107, 109, 117, 273-276} was born or baptized on 03 Nov 1812 in Margate, Kent, England^{5, 273-276}. He died on 12 Jun 1881 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (King Street^{68, 109, 117}). He married SUSAN MATTHEWS. She was born or baptized in 1811 in Langport, Somerset, England²⁷³⁻²⁷⁷. She died about Mar 1900 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England^{68, 109}.

William Sinnock^{5, 16, 21, 68, 107, 109, 117, 273-276} was baptized on 06 Nov 1812 in Margate, Kent, England (St. John Wesleyan⁵). Migration: Abt. 1836 (Inter County, Kent to Gloucestershire (Margate to Bristol)) He lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England between 1851-1861 at (Sindin Hill, St. Andrew's^{273, 276}). He was employed as a Salesman (Commercial Traveller), Novelles between 1851-1871^{273-274, 276}. He lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England between 1871-1881 at (10 Freemantle Square^{107, 117, 274-275}). He was employed as a Businessman, Gibbons, Sinnock and Company, founded with a loan from St. Augustine bank in 1879¹⁰⁷. He owned £3,014 1s. 10d. in 1881¹¹⁷.

Notes for William Sinnock:

The ties of William Sinnock to Henry Sinnock of Margate, and further to James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall of Hailsham establishes the link between my family and tht of John Norman Sinnock from Connecticut. Several weak lines of evidence seem to combine to make a strong case that William, John Norman's ancestor, is indeed from Margate, Kent, and whose father, Henry was from Hailsham, Sussex, and whose grandfather, James Sinnock, from Hailsham is my fifth great grandfather. However, the separate pieces of evidence, as follows, ensure that it is unknown if:

- (1) the William Sinnock baptized November 06, 1812 in Margate, Kent to Henry Sinnock and Mary Wood (data from the IGI)
is the same as
- (2) the William Sinnock who had a wife Susan who bore Eliza Mary and William Stiles Sinnock in

Generation 9 (con't)

- Langport and Low Ham, Somerset in the 1830's (data from the IGI)
and or
- (3) the William Sinnock born in Margate, Kent, who was 68 years old in 1881, and lived in Bristol, St. James Parish with a wife Susan Sinnock born in Langport, Somerset (data from the 1881 British Census)
and or
 - (4) the William Sinnock who is the second great grandfather of John Norman Sinnock from the Bristol, Avon, area who had a wife, Susan Mathews, and who, by estimating about 25 to 35 years per generation was born in about 1815 (data in a letter from John Norman Sinnock to Scott Sinnock on April 24, 1994)

Taken together, however,

- (1) the closeness in the estimated birth year of (i) the father of William Stiles Sinnock, William Sinnock, (about 1811, assuming he was 25 years old when William Stiles was born in January, 1836, in Langport, Somerset, from the IGI entry) and (ii) the November 06, 1812 date of the baptism of a William Sinnock in Margate, Kent (from the other IGI entry),
- (2) the fact that a William Sinnock lived in Bristol in 188, the nearest large city to Langport, and who had a wife named Susan who was born in Langport, Somerset (from the Census entry)
- (3) the fact that John Norman Sinnock's ancestor William Sinnock was from the Bristol area, was born in about 1815 by estimating generations had a wife Susan Matthews as obtained from John's letter,
- (4) the fact that John Norman Sinnock's ancestors William and Susan had a daughter "Lizzy" by family tradition and that an "Eliza" Mary Sinnock was born to the William and Susan Sinnock of Langport in 1837, (noting that "Lizzy" is a common familiar name for Eliza or Elizabeth), these separate pieces of evidence strongly suggest that a William Sinnock was born in Margate, Kent to Henry Sinnock and Mary Woods in November 1812, and that this William moved to Somerset County, married Susan Matthews of Langport, Somerset, and had several children there before moving to Bristol, Avon County, where he lived with his wife Susan during the 1881 Census. It is also reasonable to conclude that this William and Susan are the second great grandparents of John Norman Sinnock of Bridgeport, Connecticut, who according to John's family traditions, had ancestors who came to the United States from the Bristol, Avon, area of England.

A second presumption is necessary to link the families of John Norman Sinnock and Scott Sinnock, namely that the Henry Sinnock discussed above as the father of William Sinnock in Margate, Kent is the same as the Henry Sinnock baptized to James Sinnock and Sarah Marshall in Hailsham, East Sussex, on September 13, 1778. I believe these Henrys are the same person. Henry Sinnock and Mary Wood had several children in Kent, the oldest, John, born on August 05, 1804 in Sandwich, Kent, as small town just outside Margate. This same Henry and Mary had all their other children including William in nearby Margate according to parish records summarized in the IGI. If Henry Sinnock were about 25 or 26 when his first child was born, a common age for the fathers of first born children in England at this time, then he would have been born in about 1778 or 1779, matching the birth date of Henry Sinnock in Hailsham. Because I have found no evidence of other Henry Sinnocks in England who could have been born at this general time (1775 to 1795), I am led to conclude that a Henry Sinnock born in Hailsham in 1778, moved to the Margate, Kent area where he married Mary Woods in about 1803. This couple then had several children including William who in turn moved to Somerset to marry Susan Matthews.

Another unidentified William born in Margate and age 68 from 1881 Census maybe a different person, thus invalidating the link between our and John Norman's Sinnock's family tree.

Susan Matthews^{5, 16, 68, 107, 109, 273-277} lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England in 1851 at (Sindin Hill, St. Andrew's²⁷⁶). She lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England between 1861-1871 at (10 Freemantle Square^{107, 117, 273-274}). She lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England in 1881 at (Westbury on Trym, St. James²⁷⁵). She lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England in 1891 at (13 Arley Hill, St. James and St. Paul, lived alone with a servant, next door to her daughter Eliza and family.²⁷⁷). She lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England between 1894-1897 at (2 Arley Hill at Redland Road¹⁰⁷).

William Sinnock and Susan Matthews had the following children:

- i. WILLIAM STILES¹⁰ SINNOCK^{5, 7, 16, 200} was born or baptized on 06 Sep 1835 in Wingham, Kent, England^{5, 200}. He died on 22 Feb 1906 in Clevedon, Somerset, England (Burial date is used as the death date, buried at St. Andrew's⁷).

William Stiles Sinnock^{5, 7, 16, 200} lived in Canterbury, Kent, England in 1861 at (Lodger with Ann Bridges²⁰⁰).

Notes for William Stiles Sinnock:

I assume the "Sinnock" who died in Clevedon in 1906 from the National Burial Index cited in the Tombstone and Burials Index from Mark Milton's letter is William Stiles Sinnock because of the rarity of the name, the location near Bristol, and the fact that all other Sinnock candidates in the area, except for William's sister Eliza Mary, are known with some confidence to have died at other times, and perhaps Eliza married, lost her maiden name, died, and hasn't been found in the records, leaving only William as a viable candidate; quite a stretch, but occasionally I fly free.

The 1861 Canterbury census entry further strengthens the link between the Kent and Bristol Sinnock families. (see notes for Henry Sinnock, William's grandfather). I wrote Henry's notes in about 2011 in response to Lesley Miller, a descendant of Henry from Australia, who wondered about her ancestry. In late 2014 I discovered the 1861 Canterbury census entry for William S. Sinnock's birth in Wingham in 1835. William Stiles Sinnock is almost certainly the son of William Sinnock and Susan Matthews of Bristol from other sources. William S. of the Canterbury census is most likely William Stiles because of age and middle initial. I suggest William's parents, William and Susan just married in their early 20's (no marriage date available, noting Susan is from Langport, near Bristol), and perhaps visiting or still living in 1835 near or with William's mother, Mary Wood Sinnock, who herself was still living in the Wingham area in 1861 when William Stiles was born. I think this nails the Sinnock connection between the east coast of Kent and the Bristol area.

- ii. ELIZA MARY SINNOCK^{5, 16, 68, 85, 109, 274-277} was born or baptized on 27 Jan 1837 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England^{5, 68, 109, 274-277}. She died about Mar 1882 in Weobley, Herefordshire, England⁶⁸. She married William Gibbons about Dec 1858 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (Clifton District⁸⁵). He was born or baptized about 1836 in Clutton, Somerset, England^{68, 109, 274-275, 277}. He died about Mar 1897 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (Barton Regis District, St. James and St. Paul^{68, 109}).

Eliza Mary Sinnock^{5, 16, 68, 85, 109, 274-277} was baptized on 04 Jun 1837 in Low Ham, Somerset, England⁵. She lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England in 1841 at (Redcliff²⁷⁶). She lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England between 1851-1861 at (Sindin Hill, St. Andrew's²⁷⁶). She lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England between 1881-1891 at (4 Arley Hill, St. James and St. Paul^{275, 277}). She was also known as "Lizzy"¹⁶.

Notes for Eliza Mary Sinnock:

In 1851, Sarah Gibbons, 16, born in Clutton, Somerset, visited the Sinnocks at Sindin Hill, close in age to Eliza, probably her friend, and likely the sister of William Gibbons also born in Clutton who married Eliza seven years later. In 1879 William Sinnock, Eliza's father started a business with a Gibbons, perhaps Sarah and William's father. In 1881, Lizzy and William had 2 Mayberry nieces and 4 Mayberry nephews age 4 to 10 living with them.

Another couple, William and Eliza Gibbons lived in the Weobley, Kings Pyon, Sarnsfield area of Herefordshire in 1861 and 1891, where Elizabeth Sinnock, born in 1837, died, who I assume is this Eliza. So do William and Eliza represent a Hereford connection?

Name Notes:

Eliza's first name is repeatedly given as "Eliza" in the census records, but as "Elizabeth" in the death record.

Birth Notes:

Eliza reported her birth location as Bristol in the 1871 census.

William Gibbons^{68, 85, 109, 274-275, 277} lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England in 1871 at (Grafton Villa, St. James and St. Paul²⁷⁴). He was employed as a Salesman in 1871²⁷⁴. Notes for William Edward Sinnock:

William Edward of the Civil Registration Index of Births (Sinnock) and Deaths (Sinnick) is assumed to be the son of William and Susan because of location, age, and no other Bristol Sinnocks. He died young and is not in the family records of John Norman Sinnock.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sinnick" in the Civil Registration Index of Deaths.

Frederick Wood Sinnock^{18, 68, 119, 274} was employed as a Laborer, Warehouseman in 1871²⁷⁴.

Notes for Lucy Sinnock:

A likely twin of William. It appears that the twins were born and died at nearly or essentially the same time.

- ix. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{68, 109, 119} was born or baptized about Dec 1848 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (Clifton District¹¹⁹). He died about Dec 1848 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (Clifton District^{68, 109}).

Ellen Sinnock^{68, 109, 119} lived in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England in 1852 at (Clifton District¹¹⁹).

Notes for Ellen Sinnock:

Likely twin of Henry. I assume Henry and Ellen are the children of William and Susan because of birth location and times. This is the second apparent pair of twins born to William and Susan, though Ellen died shortly, perhaps even in childbirth.

- xii. HENRY SINNOCK^{109, 119} was born or baptized about Jun 1852 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (Clifton District¹¹⁹). He died about Jun 1852 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (Clifton District¹⁰⁹).

Notes for William Sinnock:

Several William Sinnock's from England about this time could be confused, as one or more may be in this database. Actually this problem points to the great advantage of researching a rare surname - even common first names, such as William, are usually distinguishable. Woe betide the person trying to find an ancestor from the early 1800's in England named William Brown, armed with no more than the name. But for the rare name, the search is feasible, with rare, though minor possible confusion and duplication as listed here:

- William Sinnock, b. abt 1799, in Willingdon m. Ruth Bateman and had many children in around Hailsham from the late 1820's through the 1830's
- William Sinnock, b. 03 Oct 1803, Selmeston to John and Jane, m. Catherine Brown, 3 Mar 1828, in Pycombe (no parents listed), many children in Selmeston, until 1848
- William of New Jersey who appears as William b. abt 1805 (1850), b. 1800 (1860), or b. 1804 (1870) and William D(?). b. 1803 (1880) all in England with wife Sally (?) b. abt 1802 in Connecticut (1850) or Sarah (?), b. abt 1802 in New York (1860) or Connecticut (1870) and had a son William P. b. abt 1837 in Connecticut (1850, 1860) (parentheses are census years, Newark, NJ, except 1850 in Brooklyn, NY, parents unknown)

- William Sinnock b. 16 Nov 1809, Selmeaton, son of Thomas, m. (1) Mary Maltman, 29 Jul 1827, in Lewisham, London, and had children there, in Sydenham in the 1830's; m. (2) Elizabeth Pritchard, 1 Jan 1838, in Camden, one son in nearby Camberwell

She was buried in Findon, West Sussex, England⁷ (St. John the Baptist, Tombstone 0279, Gothic Style).

Notes for Martha Sinnock:

Apparently Martha was counted twice in the 1881 census, once in Hellingly with her family, then in Findon about 20 miles away where she was a servant for Hy (Henry?) Short. That would be a difficult day to be counted in Hellingly and Findon. However, Martha, the Findon servant and person who died in nearby Thakeham may also be her mother, Martha from Hampshire.

- vi. HARRIETT SINNOCK^{5, 68, 123, 134, 280, 582} was born or baptized on 20 Apr 1828 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 68, 123, 134, 280}). She died about Mar 1912 in Chelsea, Kensington and Chelsea, London, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Harriett Sinnock:

There are four Harriet(t) Sinnocks born in Sussex and London in 1825 to 1828, any of which could be this Harriett; too many to guess which here.

- vii. JOHN SINNOCK^{5, 123} was born or baptized in Nov 1829 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England¹²³. He died on 12 Oct 1830 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England¹²³.

John Sinnock^{5, 123} was baptized on 10 Jan 1830 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England⁵. His cause of death was plague that apparently swept through the Sinnock family in Hellingly in 1830⁵².

Notes for John Sinnock:

Baptized on the same day as his cousin, James, who was buried at 16 months old. John later died at only 11 months old. Apparently a plague swept through the Hellingly Sinnocks, and in 1830 five Sinnocks died, 3 infants, one 9 year old and one 25.

Birth Notes:

John was 11 month old when he was buried on Jan 10, 1830. so he was born in about mid November 1829.

He lived in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia between 1862-1894⁵⁸³ at.

Notes for John Sinnock:

John was named after his brother John who died in a plague in 1830. I assume John, as a young apprenticed cordwainer, set off for Australia, ending up as a long time shoemaker in Melbourne, appearing in the city directory as a bootmaker, mostly, but also a shoemaker from about 1864 to 1892. No known progeny or spice.

Elizabeth was apparently named after her sister Elizabeth who died in a plague in 1830.

Generation 9 (con't)

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sennock" in the 1871 Lewisham census

Birth Notes:

For the 1871 census Elizabeth gave her age as 30, rather than 36, so perhaps I read a "6"

Notes for James Sinnock:

I assume James born in Hellingly of the IGI and Hellingly Parish Register is the same person as James who died in nearby (about 1 mile) Hailsham in 1881, based on the name, location and compatible dates.

Sarah (Sinnock): Her cause of death was plague that apparently swept through the Sinnock family in Hellingly in 1830³⁹.

Notes for Mary Greenacre:

I assume the 1871 census in correct and James only had one wife, however he could have married 3 times, (1) mother of Stephen, unknown (2), Mary, b. 1829 from 1861 census and (3) Mary b. 1806 from 1871 census; 1861 Census indicates age as 32, suggesting birth date in 1829, too young to be the mother of Stephen and Elizabeth, however 1871 census indicates Mary, wife of James was 65 years old, suggesting birth in 1806, old enough to be their mother

Notes for Llewellyn Bodle:

Comment by Mark Milton:

"Llewellyn is listed in the Hailsham parish register with a Baptism date of 4 Jul 1815 and no birth date. He is later listed with a Baptism date of 5 Oct 1817 and a birth date of 1 Mar 1815. As two other children in the family had the same 2nd Baptism date and in 1 was considerably after the birth date (the other child did not have a birth date listed) I believe the previous christening had been forgotten."

Notes for Henry Charles Sinnock:

Generation 9 (con't)

2 Servants 1851 and 1871, House servant and Nurse Maid; He is mentioned as the nephew of Ann Sinnock, spinster who died 06 Mar 1881 in Hailsham, Henry Sinnock who died 28 Nov 1862 in Brighton, Maria Sinnock who died 9 Oct 1862 in Hailsham. I note a discrepancy in his death dates.

Henry Charles Sinnock and Eleanor Grover had the following child:

- i. THOMAS¹⁰ SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Sep 1840 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England¹¹⁹. He died about Sep 1842 in Lewes, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

I assume Thomas is a son of Henry Charles Sinnock and perhaps Eleanor Grover because of the rarity of the name, his birth in Hailsham just after Henry Charles marriage to Eleanor, and a compatible age, but he could also be a son of Henry Charles and Frances Neal, or of Charles Henry Sinnock. I also assume he is the same Thomas who died in Lewes in 1842 for the same reasons, noting Lewes is the big city near Hailsham where he may have been taken for medical care as a young sick toddler.

Frances Neal^{31, 68, 75, 130-132, 312} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Laurel Cottage¹³¹). She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (The Town⁷⁵). She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (212 George Street¹³⁰). She was also known as "Fanny"⁸⁵.

She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England between 1861-1909 at (212 George Street^{107, 117-118, 313}). She was employed as a Living on own means between 1891-1911^{313, 608}. She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1911 at (16 George Street⁶⁰⁸). She owned £16,613 15s. 8d. in 1938¹¹⁷. She was also known as "Fanny"^{117, 130, 608}.

Notes for Frances Susan Sinnock:

(from Kay Winkworth, July 26, 1999) "Fanny never married, but lived at Downford, Hailsham, the house built by her father, till she died in 1938 at the age of 97; she had a memorable pink and white complexion and lovely silver hair in her old age. Aunt Fan, or The Aunt, made a home for L.F.S. after his mother died, and he was devoted to her."

A spinster in 1889 and 1911, when she lived with her grand niece, Nancy Grace Salzmänn, 3, born in Bromley.

Name Notes:

Name is given as "Fanny L." in the 1851 and 1871 census, "Fanny S" in the 1891 census, name "Fanny" in 1861 census, and "Janice(?) Susan" an assumed misreading of "Frances Susan" in the Civil Registration Index of Births. From these I assume her name is "Frances Susan"

292. iii. CLARA SELINA SINNOCK^{31, 75, 85, 118-119, 130, 132, 290} was born or baptized about Mar 1844 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{75, 118-119, 130, 290}. She died on 01 Apr 1890 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{31, 132}. She married Frederick William Salzmänn, son of Edward Ludwig Salzmänn and Louisa Phillips, on 04 Apr 1872 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England⁸⁵. He lived in Kensington and Chelsea, London, England in 1875 at (161a Brompton Road¹¹⁷). He was employed as a Horse Keeper (Livery Stable) in 1875¹¹⁷. He owned < £100 in 1875¹¹⁷. His cause of death was drowned, lost at sea with the ship Strathmore⁶¹⁰.

Notes for Henry Charles Sinnock:

(from Kay Winkworth, July 26, 1999) "Col. Henry Sinnock was always reputed to have 'run away with the wife of the Sultan of Zanzibar' - but Louisa Francis Salzmänn said he thought that he eloped with a Frenchwoman, and was then drowned in a shipwreck off the coast of Australia in 1862." He was probably a twin of William Henry.

- v. WILLIAM HENRY SINNOCK¹¹⁹ was born or baptized about Jun 1845 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England¹¹⁹.

Notes for William Henry Sinnock:

William may be twin of Henry Charles, or he may be from another family because he does not show up in the 1861 census, so perhaps he died young.

156. CHARLES⁹ LONG (Caroline⁸ Sinnock, John⁷ Sinnock, Samuel⁶ Sinnock, Elias⁵ Sinnock, Elias⁴ Sinnock, Christofer³ Sinnock, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{31, 311} was born or baptized on 01 Sep 1820 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date³¹). Generation 10

157. JOHN THOMAS¹⁰ SINNOCK (George⁹, George⁸, William⁷, Nicholas⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{68, 70, 85, 314-316} was born or baptized about 1842 in Bethnal Green, Tower Hamlets, London, England^{68, 315-317}. Notes for John Thomas Sinnock:

I assume John Thomas who married Sarah Litton, parents of Samuel Thomas Sinnock who married Jane Watts progenitors of most Canadian Sinnocks. John Thomas' father is listed as "William", an ivory turner in his marriage entry with Sarah Litton in the London, England, Marriage and Banns, John Samuel (Jack) Sinnock, b. 1920, indicated in his letter that his ancestor from London was named "George", which fits both John Thomas' father from Shoreditch and grandfather. So perhaps the entry in the London Marriages and Banns should be just "George" or perhaps "George William" or "William George". However there were several William Sinnocks born in about the first decade of 1800 and several George Sinnocks a generation earlier in the London area and elsewhere in England who could be Jack's ancestors.

Name Notes:

John's middle name of "Thomas" is given only in the London, England, Marriages and Banns for the marriage of his son John Thomas Sinnock, all other references found so far are just to the first name only, John.

Sarah Elizabeth Litton^{68, 70, 85, 315} lived in Bethnal Green, Tower Hamlets, London, England in 1862 at (12 Duncan Street⁷⁰). She lived in Bethnal Green, Tower Hamlets, London, England between 1871-1884 at (39 Morpeth Street^{72, 315}).

I assume William Thomas Sinnock who died in Poplar, adjacent (about 1 mile) to Bethnal Green is the son of John Thomas Sinnock and Sarah Litton because of the rarity of the last name, the family use of the middle name "Thomas", geographic proximity compatible ages, and the fact that William died as an infant and would not show up in the census in which his siblings do.

- Notes for Emily Sinnock:
I assume Emily's father, John, from the London England Marriages and Banns is the same person as John Sinnock, who with Susannah Hook had children in Hastings in 1823 - 1830 when John was more than 30 years old. No other John Sinnock's are compatible with Emily's birth in 1808. This John would have been about 18 at the time. I suspect John had a child early, Emily, perhaps by another wife or consort, who married in 1840 and left home before the 1841 census in which John appears with his 3 other children by Susannah. The London England Marriages and Banns indicates Emily is a widow at her marriage in 1840, but her father is listed as John Sinnock, so she may have reassumed her maiden name for the marriage record. Both Emily and her husband Edward Brocker died on the same day, 26 Oct 1896, in Christchurch, New Zealand.
- Edward Brocker^{5, 70, 85, 103, 322-324} was employed as a Plasterer between 1840-1851^{70, 324}. He lived in Marylebone, Westminster, London, England in 1851 at (34 Carlisle Street, Christchurch³²⁴). Migration: 1858 (England to New Zealand¹⁰³)

Sarah J. Brocker^{119, 323-324} lived in Marylebone, Westminster, London, England in 1851 at (34 Carlisle Street, Christchurch³²⁴).
- Notes for John Morgan:
John may be the same person as John Morgan, born in Llanfoist, Wales about 1840 and with Sarah his wife, born about 1837 in Surrey, raised a large family in Wales. Intriguing coincidences but Sarah's birth place in Paddington, though close compared to Wales, is a few tens of miles from Surrey.
306. ii. EDWARD WILLIAM BROCKER^{72, 119, 322-324} was born or baptized about Mar 1844 in Marylebone, Westminster, London, England (St. Marylebone^{72, 119, 322, 324}). Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

I assume the same Thomas Sinnock married Frances Guy in Hailsham in 1855 then married Louisa Furley in Hastings in 1859, where he died 13 years later. I also assume his son is James T. Sinnock, born in Hastings in 1844 about the time Thomas might start having a child at 14, but no other candidates are around at the time. Another item pointing to James T. as a son is the association with the small village of Hollington, though at the first and last of James's life.

Thomas Sinnock had the following child:

Notes for Emily Funnell:

Emily is assumed to be the wife of William because of age similarity and a common location in Lewisham.

Perhaps the death date from St. Catherine's is for this young Frances, daughter of William and Catharine from Selmeaton, where she was born, to Hailsham, where she died, about five miles from Selmeaton. However, there is an entry for Fanny Wilton in the Civil Registration of Deaths for June 1899 that is more likely to be her, given her marriage and son's birth in late 1857.

MARIA¹⁰ SINNOCK (William⁹, John⁸, John⁷, William⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{18, 20, 56, 85, 119, 162, 333-334} was born or baptized on 03 May 1846 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{20, 56, 119, 162, 333}). She married George Miles about Dec 1866 in Lewisham, London, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1831 in Worthing, West Sussex, England³³³⁻³³⁴.

She lived in Mitcham, Merton, London, England in 1881 at (6 Spany Cottages, London Road, Christchurch³³⁴).

Notes for Maria Sinnock:

I assume Maria born to William and Catherine in Selmeaton in 1846 is the same person as Maria who married George Miles in Lewisham in 1866 because of the rarity of the last name, the identical first name, compatible ages, and no other known Maria Sinnocks that could be this match.

George Miles^{85, 333-334} lived in Streatham, Lambeth, London, England in 1871 at (Kenilford Road, Balham, St. Mary's³³³). He was employed as a Bricklayer, Journeyman (1871) between 1871-1881³³³⁻³³⁴. He lived in Mitcham, Merton, London, England in 1881 at (6 Spany Cottages, London Road, Christchurch³³⁴).

172. FREDERICK¹⁰ SINNOCK (William⁹, John⁸, John⁷, William⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{18, 20, 56, 68, 70, 85, 162, 332, 335-336} was born or baptized on 04 Jul 1848 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England^{20, 56, 68, 119, 162, 332, 336}. He died about Mar 1925 in Bromley, London, England⁶⁸. He married Anne Rebecca Blake, daughter of William Blake and Elizabeth Lloyd, on 20 Feb 1871 in St. George the Martyr, Southwark, London, England^{18, 70, 85}. She was born or baptized about Dec 1849 in Stratford, Newham, London, England (West Ham District^{119, 327, 332, 335, 337-339}). She died about Mar 1907 in Bromley, London, England^{68, 337}.

Frederick Sinnock^{18, 20, 56, 68, 70, 85, 162, 332, 335-336} was baptized on 20 Aug 1848 in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England⁵⁶. He lived in Selmeaton, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (The Village¹⁶²). He was employed as a Plasterer between 1871-1911^{70, 332, 336}. He lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England between 1891-1911 at (1 Acacia Road^{332, 335-336}). Image: (signature⁷⁰)

Notes for Frederick Sinnock:

George is listed as the father of Frederick in his marriage to Rebecca Blake in the London, England, Marriages and Banns, and William is listed as the father of Rebecca. I suspect these father's names were switched in the excitement of the moment, a rarity in the marriage records, and that William is the father of Frederick baptized to William and Catherine Brown in Selmeaton in 1848, because of rarity of the name, compatible ages, and, sort of, proximity (Selmeaton to London, not unheard of in those days of great migration into the cities in search of work). The 1891 and 1901 census identify Frederick Sinnock living in Beckenham, Kent, with a wife Ann R. and several children. This census gives Frederick's age as what appears to be 64, but later marks on the census obscure the entry, and his birth place as Brighton, indicating birth in about 1827. Ann R., his wife, is given as 41 years old, 23 years younger. In the 1901 census of Beckenham, Frederick is given an age of 37, yeilding a birth year of 1864 and his wife, Ann R., is listed as 51, ten years older, as she should be based on the age of 41 in the 1891 census. I suspect Frederick's age of 37 recorded in the 1901 census is a transposition of "73", closely matching the 64 years in the 1891 census. Howard Sinnock's letter identifies a Frederick Sinnock with a wife Ann Rebecca. The Selmeaton Parish Register identifes Frederick Sinnock born in 1848, implying he would be 43 during the 1891 census and 53 in 1901, a reasonable match for the husband of Ann Rebecca (Ann R. in the census). The 1851 Selmeaton census identifies Frederick as 2 years old, also indicating a birth year of 1849. This closely matches the birth date of 20 Aug 1848 in the English and Wales Christening Records of Frederick, born to William and Catherine in Selmeaton. The London, England, Marriage and Banns indicates the father of Frederick who married Anne Rebecca Blake in 1871 is George Sinnock, a carman. I assume the age of Frederick in the 1891 and 1901 census records is in error and Frederick, born in Selmeaton, married Anne Rebecca Blake in Southwark then with her raised a family in Beckenham.

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Frederick's birth location as the Lewes District, which encompasses Selmeaton where the parish register indicates he was baptized. The 1911 Beckenham census indicates Frederick was born in Brighton, the nearest big city to Selmeaton.

Anne Rebecca Blake^{5, 20, 68, 70, 85, 119, 327, 332, 335, 337-339} lived in Stratford, Newham, London, England in 1851 at (1 James Place, New Ham (Essex), All Saints³³⁹). She lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1871 at (11 Relsey Cottages, High Street, St. George³²⁷). Notes for Lily Martha B. Sinnock:

Lily's siblings were born in Beckenham though their entries in the Civil Registration of Births are, as for Lily, for Bromley District of which Beckenham is a part, but her siblings have birth entries in the 1891 or 1901 census for Beckenham, suggesting both that Lily was born in Beckenham, a subdistrict in the Bromley District, and that she died before the 1901 census

316. ix. CATHERINE SINNOCK^{85, 119, 332, 352} was born or baptized about Jun 1885 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England^{119, 332, 352}. She married Ernest G. Harland about Jun 1911 in Brighton, East Sussex, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1888³³⁷.

The families are: Family 1 - Thomas, born about 1843 and Fanny E., Family 2 - Thomas, born 1833 and Sarah Stone, and Family 3 - James and Charlotte Cooper, Family 4 - Robert James and Emma Allan.

Notes for Margurite Augustine May Sinnock:
I assume Margurite (Margaret) May Sinnock is the same person as Augustine May Sinnock and that she is the daughter of Thomas and Fanny because of the rarity of the last name, similar first names, identical middle names, geographic proximity, identical birth dates and the identification of Margurite May Sinnock as a recipient of her presumed brother, Thomas Patrick Sinnock's estate upon his death in 1933.

178. JAMES¹⁰ SINNOCK (William⁹, Thomas⁸, John⁷, William⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{18, 119} was born or baptized about Jun 1840 in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England^{18, 119}. James Sinnock^{18, 119} was employed as a Merchant, Cab Owner in 1891⁷⁰.

Notes for James Sinnock:

Death Notes:

Mary A. Payn, assumed to be James' wife is listed as a widow in 1891, living next door to Emma Sinnock in Staplegate, Kent.

Mary Ann Payn^{85, 365} lived in Canterbury, Kent, England in 1891 at (No. 3 Staplegate Place, Westgate³⁶⁵). She was employed as a Laundress in 1891³⁶⁵.

James Sinnock and Mary Ann Payn had the following child:

324. i. ELIZABETH¹¹ PAYN³⁶⁵ was born or baptized about 1869 in Canterbury, Kent, England³⁶⁵.

179. GEORGE¹⁰ SINNOCK (John Henry⁹, Elias⁸, Elias⁷, Elias⁶, Richard⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 85, 119, 220, 241, 245, 306, 366-369} was born or baptized on 18 Jan 1839 in Medway District, Kent, England^{119, 241, 245, 306, 369-370}. He died on 14 Jan 1876 in Lyon, Oakland, Michigan, USA³⁶⁸⁻³⁷⁰. He married Elizabeth Riseborough, daughter of James Riseborough and Amelia (Riseborough) ?, on 21 Dec 1862 in Hoo District, Kent, England^{85, 370}. She was born or baptized on 04 May 1845 in Chatham, Kent, England^{245, 370}. She died in 1894 in Milford, Oakland, Michigan, USA³⁶⁸.

George Sinnock^{5, 85, 119, 220, 241, 245, 306, 366-369} lived in Chatham, Kent, England in 1841 at (High Great Back²⁴¹). Migration: 1865 (England to United States, Michigan (Hoo District to Detroit)^{220, 370}) He was employed as a Laborer in 1865³⁶⁷. Travel: 11 Jun 1865 (Arrived New York from Liverpool, England aboard ship "Wm F. Storer"²²⁰) He lived in Detroit, Wayne, Michigan, USA in 1870 at (5th Ward²⁴⁵). He was buried in Lyon, Oakland, Michigan, USA (Old Kensington Cemetery^{306, 368-369}). Image: (tombstone photographs (2)³⁰⁶)

Notes for George Sinnock:

I suspect this individual is progenitor and ancestor of the Michigan Sinnocks. I suspect that the George Sinnock, born in 1839, according to and the ancestor of Bernice Sinnock Lakvold of Michigan, is the same person as George Sinnock whose birth is registered by the Civil Registration Index of Births in First Quarter of 1840 in the Medway District, Kent. This is because

1. the date of birth is right,
2. the district of Medway is near the Hoo district where George Peter Sinnock, George's presumed son (see facts for George Peter), was born,
3. According to Bernice Lakvold (and later her daughter Kathryn), George had brothers William and Walter; and according to the Civil Registration Index of births, William Sinnock was born in Medway in 1839 and James Walter Sinnock was born in Medway in 1853 (possibly Walter), so the names support the three brothers being born in Medway, and no other location matches to these three names are found in the Civil Registration Index.

I also think it possible that George is the son of a Sinnock from the Rochester area which is near the Medway District, possibly Elias, b. 1803, John Henry, b. 1806, Uriah b. 1812, Thomas, b. 1815, or an unnamed Sinnock, assumed to father of children born in the Medway district in the 1840's and 1850's. Links may occur to the Rochester or Borden Sinnocks in Kent; could be George Sinnock, born September 1839 in Wingham, Kent or George Sinnock, b. Mar 1840 in Medway Kent (see Civil Registration), I suspect the Medway George because of proximity to Hoo District

Migration: 1865 (England to United States, Michigan (Hoo District to Detroit)^{370, 657}) Travel: 11 Jun 1865 (Arrived New York from Liverpool, England aboard ship "Wm F. Storer"²²⁰) She lived in Detroit, Wayne, Michigan, USA in 1870 at (5th Ward²⁴⁵). She was employed as a Servant, Housekeeper in 1870²⁴⁵. She was buried in Milford, Oakland, Michigan, USA (Oak Grove Cemetery³⁶⁸).

Notes for Elizabeth Riseborough: supposedly of Royal decent

George Sinnock and Elizabeth Riseborough had the following children:

325. i. GEORGE PETER¹¹ SINNOCK^{119, 245, 306, 366, 370, 636-643} was born or baptized on 26 Sep 1863 in Hoo District, Kent, England^{119, 245, 306, 370, 636-637, 639, 641-642}. He married Hulda Ruth Johnson, daughter of William P. Johnson and Nancy W. Phillips, on 31 Oct 1900 in Milford, Oakland, Michigan, USA^{647, 649}. She was born or baptized on 26 Oct 1874 in Michigan, USA^{637, 646-649}. She died in 1960⁶⁴⁹.
- vi. JAMES WILLIAM SINNOCK^{366, 370, 650-652} was born or baptized on 09 Sep 1873 in Michigan, USA^{370, 636, 650-652}. He died on 17 Nov 1957^{370, 652-653}. He married Paulina J. Milner, daughter of James Milner and Matilda Dixon, on 25 Dec 1897 in Michigan, USA^{306, 654}. She was born or baptized in Dec 1876 in Oakland County, Michigan, USA^{306, 636, 650-652, 655}. She died in 1953^{306, 652}.

James William Sinnock^{366, 370, 650-652} lived in Milford Township, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1900 at (Farm, adjacent to his father's farm⁶³⁶). He was employed as a Farm Laborer in 1900⁶³⁶. He lived in South Lyon, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1910 at (The Village⁶⁵⁰). He was employed as a Laborer, Factory between 1910-1920⁶⁵⁰⁻⁶⁵¹. He lived in Pontiac, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1920 at (Ward 2⁶⁵¹). He was buried in Lyon, Oakland, Michigan, USA (South Lyon Cemetery⁶⁵²). Image: (tombstone photographs (2))

Paulina J. Milner^{306, 636, 650-652, 654-655} lived in South Lyon, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1880 at (The Village⁶⁵⁵). She lived in Milford Township, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1900 at (Farm⁶³⁶). She lived in South Lyon, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1910 at (The Village⁶⁵⁰). She lived in Pontiac, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1920 at (263 Park Street⁶⁵¹). She was employed as a Merchant, Book Store Owner in 1920⁶⁵¹. She was also known as "Lina"^{306, 636, 650}. Image: (tombstone photograph)

Notes for Paulina J. Milner:

In 1880 Paulina, 3, lived in South Lyon with her parents. and 5 sisters (making up the six Milner girls), Helen, 17, Hattie, 14, Anne, 13, Amy, 10, and Edith, 5, all born in England. Thus it appears the Milners migrated from England to America after Edith was born in England in 1874 or 1875 and 1876 when Paulina was born in Michigan.

- vii. LINN J. SINNOCK⁶⁵⁶ was born or baptized about 1874 in Michigan, USA⁶⁵⁶. He married LINA (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized about 1877 in Michigan, USA⁶⁵⁶.

Linn J. Sinnock⁶⁵⁶ lived in Pontiac, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1940 at (449 Central Avenue⁶⁵⁶). He owned $25 Rent in 1940⁶⁵⁶. He was employed as a Laborer, Factory Laundry in 1940⁶⁵⁶.

Notes for Linn J. Sinnock:

I assume Linn, who first appeared to me in the 1940 Pontiac census, is a son of George and Elizabeth because of the rarity of the last name, geographic proximity, compatible age, and not other known Sinnock family in Michigan at the time, though I note that no earlier records of Linn have been found so maybe he is unrelated to the Michigan Sinnock clan.

Generation 10 (con't)

Lina (Sinnock) ?⁶⁵⁶ lived in Pontiac, Oakland, Michigan, USA in 1940 at (449 Central Avenue⁶⁵⁶).

William O. Sinnock²⁴⁴ lived in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA in 1889²⁴⁴ at. He was employed as a Laborer, Cashier in 1889²⁴⁴.

Notes for William O. Sinnock:

I assume John Henry Sinnock is the father of George and William O. Sinnock both of whom migrated from England to Michigan. This presumption is based on (1) the name of one of George's children, John Henry, assumed to be named for his grandfather, and (2) because Ida Sinnock is listed as a 19 year old daughter or servant of William born in Michigan, and (3) the links among Michigan and Washington Sinnock families. However, William might also be a son of William Swift Sinnock from Missouri, or perhaps a son of John W. Sinnock born about 1848 in a time gap between existing children. The Kent - Michigan - Washington puzzle continues.

Frances (Sinnock) ?²⁴⁴ lived in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA in 1889²⁴⁴ at.

William O. Sinnock and Frances (Sinnock) ? had the following child:

- i. IDA¹¹ SINNOCK²⁴⁴ was born or baptized about 1870 in Michigan, USA²⁴⁴.

Ida Sinnock²⁴⁴ was employed as a Servant, Domestic in 1889²⁴⁴.

Notes for Ida Sinnock:

Ida is listed as a domestic for William O. and Francis Sinnock in the Washington 1889 census, but I assume she is their daughter who works as a domestic elsewhere

Perhaps two Mary Ann's were born in succession to James and Maria, the first dying as an infant and becoming a namesake for the second born just after the first died, a situation of sadness followed by joy and remembrance I seem to have encountered often; its as if the families are saying "she (he) has come back to us".

He came to Truro, Nova Scotia in 1891, where he followed his trade until 1904, when he engaged in carriage building for himself, continuing successfully until 1911, when he associated himself with the Truro Foundry & Machine Company, as secretary. A year later he was promoted to the presidency of the company, which position he retained until in September, 1913, during which period he increased the efficiency and business of the plant very materially. He also has other important business interests in Truro and elsewhere in the Province and the Dominion. Mr. Slackford was married March 24, 1891, to Annie Saunders, a daughter of John and Isabelle (McLean) Saunders, a prominent family of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, where Mrs. Slackford was reared and educated. Notes for Lucy Sinnock:

I assume, as apparently did my source, Ancestry.com Public Family Tree for Lesley_Bonehill, that Lucy who married Peter Parks in Hellingly is Lucy the daughter of Thomas Sinnock and Sarah Geall, though I have no other information that links between Lucy and these parents, though, possibly the same or but probably another Lucy Sinnock was baptized to John Sinnock and Jane Thorn in nearby Selmeaton in 1797, entered here as a separate person. Lucy's marriage was witnessed by Elizabeth Sinnock, perhaps her sister Elizabeth Sennoke, or perhaps the wife of George, born in about 1785. Notes for William Barton Sinnock:

I assume William who married Sarah Pead in Shoreditch, Hackney in 1842 is the same person as William Barton Sinnock because of the common location in Hackney, compatible ages, and both having fathers named "George". I assume William first married Elizabeth, had three children in central London, then Elizabeth died, probably, or divorced, unlikely, and William married Sarah Pead, had two more children in suburban London, then William died and Sarah appears as a widow in the 1861 census with the two children.

William Sinnock, 45, born in England appears in the 1850 Brooklyn census with a wife Sally, 48, and son William P., 13, both born in Connecticut. William, 60, appears in the 1860 Newark census with wife Sarah, 58 and several other children; likewise at age 66 in 1870, Sarah now 68; finally as a widower, 77, in 1880. This William is the progenitor of several generations of Sinnock family jewelers, among others, who lived in the Newark area. His origin is unknown. However, assuming a complete inventory of "William Sinnocks" born in England in about 1804 (William's assumed birth year based on the census ages given above), I believe I can narrow the search to one of several possible candidates, namely all known William Sinnock's born within 5 years of 1804. Perhaps there are others, but this list includes, in order of birth:

- William Sinnock, b. abt 1799, in Willingdon m. Ruth Bateman and had many children in around Hailsham from the late 1920's through the 1830's (not a likely candidate)

Generation 10 (con't)

- William Sinnock, b. 03 Oct 1803, Selmeston to John and Jane, m. Catherine Brown, 3 Mar 1828, in Pycombe (no parents listed), many children in Selmeston, until 1848 (not likely)
- William Sinnock (no age) a gardener, m. Sarah Pead (no age), 27 Jan 1842, Shorditch, Hackney, son of George, a gamekeeper (most likely)
- William Sinnock, b. 16 Nov 1809, Selmeston, m. Mary Maltman, 29 Jul 1827, Lewisham (no ages or parents) had a son George, b. 28 Feb 1830 in Sydenham, Lewisham (possible)
- William Barton Sinnock b. 10 Jan 1808, Catsfield to George and Elizabeth Apps, m. Elizabeth Miller 5 Oct 1829 in Westminster, had children there and in Shoreditch, Hackney with her, then, assumed the same William m. Sarah Pead, 27 Sep 1842, in Shoreditch and soon had two more children with her, or at least she did, because they only appear with her as a widow in the in suburban London, Epson and Cobham in the 1861 census (not likely)
- William Sinnock, b. 20 Aug 1809, Hailsham to Samuel and Ann (Judd), m. 1st Mary Elizabeth Perch and had many children in Wingham, Kent in the 1840's and 1850's, then m. abt Sep 1856 Caroline Pettitt, and had many more children in Wingham in the 1850's and 1860's (not likely)
- William Sinnock b. 16 Nov 1809, Selmeston, son of Thomas, m. (1) Mary Maltman, 29 Jul 1827, in Lewisham, London, and had children there, in Sydenham in the 1830's; m. (2) Elizabeth Pritchard, 1 Jan 1838, in Camden, one son in nearby Camberwell (not likely)
- William Henry Sinnock, b. 29 Feb 1824, m. Sarah Ann Mace, Jun 1855, Malling, had a son there later in the same year; perhaps the same William and Sarah disembarked in New York with 6 other children born also in the 1850's to 1860's in 1863, as assumed in this database (not likely)

Of these, William the gardener who married Sarah Pead seems the most likely candidate for William of New Jersey, an interpretation shown in this database. I further assume that this is the same person as William Barton Sinnock, son of George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps of Catsfield, East Sussex, because of the rarity of the name and the wife's name of Sarah. To facilitate this very weak case, William may have gone to America, met Sarah Pead (Sally in the 1851 census) from Connecticut, had William P. there then returned to his home town of Hackney, married Sarah there and had two more children, who appear with Sarah in the 1861 Southwark, London census.. Perhaps Sarah was on an extended, "living" visit to her English home in 1861, though she is listed as widow, perhaps misunderstood by the census taker when she reported she lived alone, because Sarah appears as William's wife in 1870 in America. Also, Sarah in America reports a birth in Connecticut while Sarah Pead reports hers as Southwark, London.

Another confusing piece of the puzzle of William's ancestry is his middle initial, taken as "D" because of his listing in the 1880 Newark census; that a "D" could be a "B" or even a flair at the end of the name William.

Birth Notes:

I estimate William's age at his marriage as a widower to Sarah in 1842 to be about 35 to 40, about 25 to 30 at his first marriage and 10 to 15 years hence, but this estimate is quite uncertain.

Migration Notes:

According to the 1850 Brooklyn census, William, born in England, was in the United States with a wife Sarah and together had son, William P. born in Connecticut in 1837. He may have returned to England to marry Sarah in his parent's presence in 1842. He stayed in the US after 1850.

Residence Notes:

In 1841 William was a laborer in Cobham, some distance from his home in central London, perhaps chasing work, living there in a lodge with his younger brother, I assume, George, also a laborer. Later, I assume the same William had children in Cobham with Sarah Pead after having several in central London with Elizabeth Miller. Perhaps while taking a job out in the suburbs of Cobham, William met Sarah while there. Brought her back home to marry a year later, in 1842, then moved back to her home to raise their family. Perhaps Elizabeth who died, though he and Elizabeth apparently registered a daughter, Emma's birth in Sep 1843. If the registration was a little late, Emma could be Elizabeth's daughter born in say early 1842, but not registered until later. Perhaps Elizabeth died during Emma's childbirth and William needing help quickly married Sarah, forgetting or postponing Emma's birth registration amid all the chaos.

Elizabeth Miller^{5, 68, 72, 324} lived in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, England in 1833 at (Kingsland Road⁵). She lived in St. Clement Danes, Westminster, London, England in 1851 at (8 Shire Lane³²⁴).

Notes for Elizabeth Miller:

I show Elizabeth as the Elizabeth Sinnock who died in Holborn in 1876 because of the rarity of the name, the likelihood that Sinnock was the married name of Elizabeth who died in Holborn, the proximity of Holborn, Westminster, and Hackney, and compatible birth years of the two Elizabeths (1811 and 1812). However, William's wife, Elizabeth may have died in about 1842, because William married Sarah Pead then, if that is the same William.

Name Notes:

I have several references which occur only in my notes to this person being Elizabeth Miller, married to William Sinnock, October 5, 1829. I suspect the initial information was from the IGI, yet I can find no reference there now, either in the online version at FamilySearch.org (soon to be taken off the site), or in my extracted records, or in any other marriage record.

She married (1) CHARLES GEORGE HUNTLEY on 10 Dec 1865 in St. Clement Danes, Westminster, London, England^{5, 85}. He was born or baptized about 1840¹. She married (2) ALFRED HENRY SMALL about Dec 1865 in Strand District, Westminster, London, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1840¹⁰.

Emma Sinnock^{5, 85, 119, 324} was baptized on 09 Jul 1843 in St. Clement Danes, Westminster, London, England⁵. She lived in St. Clement Danes, Westminster, London, England in 1851 at (8 Shire Lane³²⁴). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1851³²⁴.

Sarah Pead^{5, 68, 70, 72, 85, 318, 395-397, 677, 681, 683, 686} was born or baptized about 1812 in Southwark, London, England^{68, 318, 681, 683, 686}. She was employed as a Servant, Housekeeper in 1851⁶⁸³. She lived in Southwark, London, England in 1851 at (14 Green Walk, Christchurch⁶⁸³). She lived in Newark, Essex, New Jersey, USA in 1860 at (10th Ward^{396, 677}). She was employed as a Servant, Domestic in 1861³¹⁸. She lived in Southwark, London, England in 1861 at (15 Green Walk, Christchurch³¹⁸). She was employed as a Keeping House in 1870³⁹⁷. She lived in Newark, Essex, New Jersey, USA in 1870 at (7th Ward³⁹⁷). She was employed as a Keeping House in 1870³⁹⁷. She lived in Newington, Southwark, London, England in 1871 at (126 Rooney Road, St. Mary's⁶⁸¹). She was employed as a Merchant, Tobacconist in 1871⁶⁸¹. She died before 1880. She was employed as a Medical Nurse in 1881⁶⁸⁶. She lived in Southwark, London, England in 1881 at (6 Morris Street, visitor in the home of Alfred Hems⁶⁸⁶). She was also known as "Sally"³⁹⁵.

Notes for Sarah Pead:

Apparently Sarah and perhaps William, her husband, moved between London and Newark during the 1860's and 1870's. She may have returned to the old country for periodic visits home, but surprisingly all correspond to census dates. I assume Sarah, 49 and widowed mother of Sarah Elizabeth and Elizabeth Jane from the 1861 - 1881 Southwark censuses is the same person as Sarah Pead who married William Sinnock in adjacent Hackney in 1842. This is solely because in 1861 Sarah lived with Elizabeth H. Pead, 31, an unmarried visitor and Sarah's presumed sister. But Pead is perhaps a more common name than Sinnock, so perhaps it is just coincidence. William, Sarah's presumed husband, is also subject to considerable uncertainty, especially with respect to his supposed connection to the New Jersey family of Sinnocks headed by William D. Sinnock. This supposed connection is based heavily on the "Sarah" and "Pead" family connections and compatible ages, noting that William in America had a wife Sarah (1860 census) or Sally (1850 census) born in Connecticut or New York.

Name Notes:

First name given as "Sally" in the 1850 Brooklyn census

Birth Notes:

The 1860 census indicates Sarah was born in New York

Death Notes:

Sarah does not appear with other family members in the 1880 census

William Barton Sinnock and Sarah Pead had the following children:

386. iv. WILLIAM P. SINNOCK^{243, 395-396, 674-679} was born or baptized in Aug 1837 in Connecticut, USA^{396, 674, 676}. He died on 03 Feb 1909 in At Sea⁶⁷⁸. He married RACHEL MATILDA (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized in Aug 1841 in New Jersey, USA^{396, 676}.
387. v. SARAH ELIZABETH SINNOCK^{70, 72, 85, 119, 318, 680} was born or baptized about Sep 1844 in Epsom District, Sutton, London, England^{72, 119, 318}. She died in 1869 in Southwark, London, England⁶⁸⁰. She married Jonathan Pester on 21 May 1866 in Newington District, Southwark, London, England (St. Mary's^{70, 85}). Elizabeth Jane Sinnock^{68, 318, 681-685} lived in Southwark, London, England in 1851 at (14 Green Walk, Christchurch^{318, 683}). She lived in Southwark, London, England in 1861 at (15 Green Walk, Christchurch). She was employed as a Teacher, Public School between 1861-1871^{318, 681}. He died before 1861. He married Sarah Deal Cook on 11 Aug 1828 in Dover, Kent, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1811 in Dover, Kent, England^{141, 399}. She died about Mar 1875 in Brighton District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Henry Sinnock⁵ was baptized on 29 Sep 1805 in Worth, West Sussex, England⁵. Migration: Abt. 1828 (Inter County, West Sussex to Kent (Worth to Dover))

Notes for Henry Sinnock:

Generation 10 (con't)

This Henry could be linked to the Massillion, Ohio Sinnocks, being perhaps the original Henry in Ohio who had children "Henry E." and "Charlotte I."

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled both "Sinnock" and "Sinnick" in the IGI

Death Notes:

Sarah Sinnock, age 50 in the 1861 Lambeth census, Henry's likely wife, is listed as a widow.

Sarah Deal Cook^{5, 68, 141, 399} lived in Dover, Kent, England in 1851 at (30 Queens Garden³⁹⁹). She was employed as a Teacher (Schoolmistress) in 1851³⁹⁹. She was employed as a Servant, Housekeeper in 1861¹⁴¹. She lived in Lambeth, London, England in 1861 at (137 Waterloo Road, St. Mary's, lived as a widow with George Webbs(?), unmarried, as his mother-in-law. Now, how is that possible.¹⁴¹).

Henry Sinnock and Sarah Deal Cook had the following children:

- i. HENRY THOMAS¹¹ SINNOCK^{5, 687} was born or baptized on 23 Mar 1831 in Dover, Kent, England⁵.

Henry Thomas Sinnock^{5, 687} was baptized on 05 Jun 1831 in Dover, Kent, England (St. Mary the Virgin^{5, 687}). He served in the military in 1851 (Royal Army, Artillery⁶⁸⁷).
- ii. MARY ANN SINNOCK^{5, 85, 399} was born or baptized on 30 Jun 1833 in Dover, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 399}). She married Charles Henry King about Mar 1860 in Dover District, Kent, England (Mary Ann Sinnock married either Charles Payne or Charles King⁸⁵). He was born or baptized about 1830²³.

Mary Ann Sinnock^{5, 85, 399} lived in Dover, Kent, England in 1851 at (1 James Street³⁹⁹). She was employed as a Servant in 1851³⁹⁹.

Charles Henry King²³ also went by the name of Charles Payne⁸⁵.
- iii. CHARLOTTE JANE SINNOCK^{5, 85, 399} was born or baptized on 12 Jul 1835 in Dover, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 399}). She married William Frissell Fothergill about Jun 1855 in Dover District, Kent, England (Charlotte Jane Sinnock married either George Lobb or William Fothergill⁸⁵). He was born or baptized about 1835²³.

Charlotte Jane Sinnock^{5, 85, 399} was baptized on 12 Jul 1835 in Dover, Kent, England (St. Mary the Virgin⁵). She lived in Dover, Kent, England in 1851 at (30 Queens Garden³⁹⁹). She was employed as a Laborer, Shopwoman, age 15 in 1851³⁹⁹.

William Frissell Fothergill⁸⁵ also went by the name of George Lobb⁸⁵.

229. THOMAS¹⁰ SINNOCK (Thomas⁹, Henry⁸, Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{18, 85} was born or baptized on 07 May 1810 in Worth, West Sussex, England¹⁸. He died about Mar 1849 in Lewes, East Sussex, England. He married Susannah Matilda Parsons about Dec 1839 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England (Thomas Sinnock married either Susannah Parsons or Harriet Illman⁸⁵). She was born or baptized about 1815²³.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

I assume Thomas born in Worth in 1810 is the same person as Thomas who married Susannah Parsons in Lewes in 1839 and then raised a family there because of the rarity of the name, the proximity of Lewes and Worth (about 15 miles), and compatible ages. However one other possibility for the marriage is Thomas Sinnock, born in Rochester, Kent about 30 miles from Lewes in 1815, but because of the distance from Lewes, I prefer this associaton. Of course the Thomas married in Lewes may be neither of these candidates.

Susannah Matilda Parsons⁸⁵ also went by the name of Harriet Illman⁸⁵.

Thomas Sinnock and Susannah Matilda Parsons had the following children:

388. i. JOHN¹¹ SINNOCK^{119, 688} was born or baptized about Sep 1842 in Hamsey, East Sussex, England^{119, 688}. He married JESSIE (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized about 1849 in London, England⁶⁸⁸.
- ii. CHARLES SINNOCK^{18, 119} was born or baptized about Mar 1846 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England^{18, 119}.

Notes for Charles Sinnock:

I assume Charles and John are siblings because of the rarity of the name, birth locations in Lewes, and compatible ages, and further assume both siblings are the children of Thomas Sinnock and Susannah Parsons for the same reasons.

230. ANN¹⁰ SINNOCK (James⁹, James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 68, 99, 205-207, 324, 401} was born or baptized about 1804 in Marylebone, Westminster, London, England^{324, 401}. She died on 21 Jan 1849 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England (Portsea Island District^{68, 206}). She married George Holloway, son of Thomas Holloway and Mary Bannister, on 11 Aug 1833 in Southampton, Hampshire, England (Holy Rood^{206, 402}). He was born or baptized on 20 Mar 1813 in Beaulieu, Hampshire, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{206, 324, 401}). He died on 23 Feb 1858 in Portsea, Hampshire, England^{206, 402}.

Ann Sinnock^{5, 68, 99, 205-207, 324, 401} was born or baptized in 15 1810 in Holborn, Camden, London, England²⁰⁷. She was baptized on 15 Feb 1810 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's^{5, 99, 205-207}). She lived in Paddington, Westminster, London, England between 1851-1861 at (6 Victoria Grove, Baywater^{324, 401}).

Notes for Ann Sinnock:

Several Sinnock with Ann in their name born in about 1815 appear in England, same persons suggested by numbers:

- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1812, London, Camden, Holborn

Generation 10 (con't)

- 1 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1838, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Camden, Holborn
- 2 Sarah Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, London, Westminster, St. Martin in the Fields
- 3 Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, London, Camden, Holborn
- 3 Ann Sinnock, m. 1833, Hampshire, Southampton
- 4 Anne Sinnock, b. 1811, Sussex, Selveston
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1842, Bedfordshire
- 4 Anne Sinnock, m. 1853, London, Camden, St. Pancras
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, b. 1810, Sussex, Battle
- 5 Mary Ann Sinnock, m. 1834, Sussex, Catsfield
- 7 Ann Sinnock, b. 1815, Sussex
- 7 Ann Sinnock, d. 1842, Sussex, Hailsham
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, Sussex, Worth
- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Westminster census
- 9 Ann Elizabeth Sinnock, m. 1839, London, Westminster, Marylebone

1, 2, and 3. Mary Ann (1), Sarah Ann (2), and Ann (3) are sisters, daughters of James Sinnock and Ruth Blacktop; I assume Mary Ann and Sarah Ann are the same as those with the same names married in nearby St. Martin in the Fields at 21 and 22 years old.

Ann (3) is assumed to the same person married in 1833 to George Holloway in Hampshire for no reason other than the name and age and a common information source, the Australian Descendant Family Tree. Ann, the daughter of James and Ruth could be the bride in any of the marriages listed here except those of her sisters (see 1 and 2).

4. Anne, born to Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall in Selveston, Sussex is assumed to be "Anne" married in 1842 to George Allen in Bedfordshire and in 1853 to an unknown spouse in St. Pancras, mostly because of the spelling of the name, poor evidence at best.

5. Mary Ann born in 1810 to George Sinnock and Elizabeth Apps in Battle is assumed to be the same person who married James Smith in nearby (2 miles) Catsfield, mostly from Mark Milton, because of the name and location.

7. Ann, born in 1815 to Thomas Sinnock and Mariah Geall could be any of the above Ann's.

8. Ann, 25, of the 1841 Westminster census is assumed to be the same person as Ann born in Worth in 1816 to Thomas Sinnock and Elizabeth Rice for no other reason than the name and birth date. She could be the bride in any of the marriages listed above.

9. Two marriages of Ann Elizabeth are recorded, one in July 1839 in Marylebone from the IGI and one in the last quarter of 1839 in the Medway District from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. Because no other known Ann Elizabeth's live at the time, I assign both marriages to the same person.

George Holloway^{206, 324, 401} lived in Paddington, Westminster, London, England between 1851-1861 at (6 Victoria Grove, Baywater^{324, 401}). He was employed as a Merchant, Laundry Owner between 1851-1861^{324, 401}.

Notes for George Holloway:

In 1861, George and Ann lived with George's niece, Ellen Granther, 23, born in London

Birth Notes:

Ages of 40 and 50 reported in the 1851 and 1861 census indicates a birth year of about 1811, the more precise date of 20 Mar 1813 in Judy Halliday's family tree is assumed to be a baptism date.

George Holloway and Ann Sinnock had the following children:

389. i. THOMAS¹¹ HOLLOWAY^{149, 206, 402, 689-692} was born or baptized on 12 Nov 1837 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England^{149, 206, 402, 689-692}. He died on 28 Nov 1904 in Croydon, Croydon, London, England (74 Cross Street^{206, 402}). He married Mary Ann Langridge on 03 Apr 1859 in Ealing, London, England (St. Mary's²⁰⁶). She was born or baptized about 1838 in Westerham, Kent, England^{68, 149, 206, 402, 689-692}. She died about Mar 1920 in Croydon, London, England^{68, 206, 402}.
- ii. GEORGE HOLLOWAY²⁰⁶ was born or baptized in 1839 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England²⁰⁶. He died on 30 Sep 1842 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England²⁰⁶.
- iii. JAMES GEORGE HOLLOWAY^{119, 206} was born or baptized on 22 Nov 1842 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England (Portsea Island District^{119, 206}). He died on 21 Oct 1843 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England²⁰⁶.
390. iv. WILLIAM HOLLOWAY^{206, 693} was born or baptized about 1845 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England^{206, 693}. He married EMMA (HOLLOWAY) ?. She was born or baptized about 1849 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England⁶⁹³.
- v. THOMAS W. HOLLOWAY²⁰⁶ was born or baptized about 1846 in Jersey, Channel Islands, England²⁰⁶.

Notes for Thomas W. Holloway:

Birth Notes:

In the 1861 census, Thomas W. Holloway, 5, born in Jersey, son of George, 39, and Mary Ann, 38, Holloway, not matching the ages of Thomas parents in this database. The Australian descendants family tree is the only source I have that identifies Thomas W. as a son of George Holloway and Ann Sinnock, though the birth in Jersey matches parents that would have aged differently, so George and Ann may never have had a son Thomas W., especially considering they had another son named Thomas, still alive when Thomas W. was born.

- vi. MARY ANN HOLLOWAY²⁰⁶ was born or baptized about 1847 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England²⁰⁶.

Notes for Mary Ann Holloway:

Birth Notes:

In the 1861 census, Mary Ann Holloway, 4, born in Portsmouth, is listed as a daughter of George, 39, and Mary Ann, 38, Holloway, not matching the ages of Mary Ann's parents in this database. The Australian descendants family tree is the only source I have that indentifies Mary Ann as a daughter of George Holloway and Ann Sinnock, though the birth in Portsmouth along with a brother Thos. W. matches parents that would have aged differently, so George and Ann may never have had a daughter Mary Ann.

Generation 10 (con't)

- vii. SARAH HOLLOWAY^{68, 119, 206} was born or baptized on 16 Jan 1849 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England^{119, 206}. She died about Mar 1849 in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England (Portsea Island District^{68, 206}).

231. JOSEPH⁷⁰ SINNOCK (James⁹, James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)⁷⁰ was born or baptized about 1808 in England²³.

Joseph Sinnock⁷⁰ was employed as a Contractor, Builder in 1877⁷².

Notes for Joseph Sinnock:

I assume Joseph, listed only as far as I can tell as the father of Alice in her marriage to Alfred Saunders, is a son of James and Ruth because I assume he is a brother of Emma Sinnock, married to Andrew Walsh who lived with Alice Walsh a daughter in 1851 and 1861 and Alice Sinnock in 1871, a niece of Emma, presumably, though strictly Andrew's niece as listed, and the same age and birth place as Alice Walsh listed in the two previous census's. Apparently Alice Walsh is Alice Sinnock, because of the same age and "parentage". Alice Sinnock (assumed to be the same person) married Alfred Saunders in 1877 and listed Joseph as her father. If Alice is a niece of Emma, and her father is Joseph, both uncertain, then Joseph must be Emma's brother. However, I have found no record of Joseph being a child of James and Ruth, though birth records occur for some of their earlier and later children, in fact for all the others.

Birth Notes:

I estimate Joseph' birth year as half way between Ann's in 1804 and Mary Ann's in 1812, thereby filling in a gap in birth years for James and Ruth. For the assumption that Joseph is a son of Ruth and James via reasoning he is a sibling of Emma, a known daughter of theirs, see the general comments.

Occupation Notes:

Listed as the father of Alice

Joseph Sinnock had the following children:

- i. ELIZA ANN¹¹ SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Mar 1839 in Bloomsbury District, Camden, London, England¹¹⁹. She died about Sep 1841 in Strand District, Westminster, London, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Eliza Ann Sinnock:

I assume Jane, Alfred, and Eliza Ann are siblings because of the rarity of the name, births in nearby London areas (Bloomsbury and St. Pancras), compatible birth dates, and no other Sinnock's known to be in that area at the time.

Death Notes:

This death may be for Elizabeth Miller Sinnock, William Barton Sinnock's wife, who had children in the Strand District of Westminster and who apparently died about this time.

- ii. JANE HARVEY SINNOCK¹¹⁹ was born or baptized about Mar 1842 in Camden, London, England (St. Pancras District¹¹⁹).

Notes for Jane Harvey Sinnock:

I assume Jane, Alfred, and Eliza Ann are siblings because of the rarity of the name, births nearby in London (Bloomsbury and St. Pancras), compatible birth dates, and no other Sinnock's in the area at the time.

- iii. ALICE SINNOCK^{70, 85, 406} was born or baptized about 1849 in St. Pancras, Camden, London, England⁴⁰⁶. She married Alfred Saunders on 09 Sep 1877 in Hackney, London, England (West Hackney^{70, 85}). He was born or baptized about 1845²³.

Alice Sinnock^{70, 85, 406} lived in Hackney, London, England in 1871 at (18 Downham Road, West Hackney⁴⁰⁶). She was employed as a Milliner in 1871⁴⁰⁶. Image: (signature⁷⁰)

Notes for Alice Sinnock:

I assume Jane, Alfred, and Eliza Ann are Alice's siblings because of the rarity of the name, births in nearby London areas (Bloomsbury and St. Pancras), compatible birth dates, and no other Sinnock's known to be in that area at the time. As for Alice also being a child of Joseph, see the comments for Joseph, her assumed father here.

Alfred Saunders^{70, 85} was employed as a Green Grocer in 1877⁷⁰.

- iv. ALFRED JOHN SINNOCK^{119, 316} was born or baptized about Mar 1850 in Camden, London, England (St. Pancras District¹¹⁹).

Notes for Alfred John Sinnock:

I assume Jane, Alfred, and Eliza Ann are siblings because of the rarity of the name, births nearby in London (Bloomsbury and St. Pancras), compatible birth dates, and no other Sinnock's in the area at the time.

232. MARY ANN¹⁰ SINNOCK (James⁹, James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 99, 205-206, 403} was born or baptized on 06 Dec 1812 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Andrew's^{5, 99, 205, 403}). She died on 19 Feb 1893 in London, England²⁰⁶. She married Joseph Rice Pyrke, son of Martin Robert Pyrke and Ann Ledger, on 10 Jul 1838 in St. Martin in the Fields, Westminster, London, England⁵. He was born or baptized on 10 Sep 1800 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England (St. Sepulchre⁴⁰³).

Notes for Mary Ann Sinnock:

- 8 Ann Sinnock, b. 1816, London, Westminster census
- 9 Ann Elizabeth Sinnock, m. 1839, London, Westminster, Marylebone

1, 2, and 3. Mary Ann (1), Sarah Ann (2), and Ann (3) are sisters, daughters of James Sinnock and Ruth Blacktop; I assume Mary Ann and Sarah Ann are the same as those with the same names married in nearby St. Martin in the Fields at 21 and 22 years old.

Ann (3) is assumed to be the same person married in 1833 to George Holloway in Hampshire for no reason other than the name and age and a common information source, the Australian Descendant Family Tree. Ann, the daughter of James and Ruth could be the bride in any of the marriages listed here except those of her sisters (see 1 and 2).

4. Anne, born to Thomas Sinnock and Mary Fennall in Selmeaton, Sussex is assumed to be "Anne" married in 1842 to George Allen in Bedfordshire and in 1853 to an unknown spouse in St. Pancras, mostly because of the spelling of the name, poor evidence at best.

9. Two marriages of Ann Elizabeth are recorded, one in July 1839 in Marylebone from the IGI and one in the last quarter or 1839 in the Medway District from the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. Because no other known Ann Elizabeth's live at the time, I assign both marriages to the same person.

Joseph Rice Pyrke and Mary Ann Sinnock had the following child:

- i. JOSEPH SINNOCK¹¹ PYRKE⁴⁰³ was born or baptized on 25 Oct 1846 in Holborn, Camden, London, England (St. Andrew's⁴⁰³).

233. SUSANNAH¹⁰ SINNOCK (James⁹, James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 68, 70, 72, 85, 206-207, 404, 407} was born or baptized on 14 Oct 1821 in Holborn, Camden, London, England^{5, 72, 404, 407}. Notes for Harriett Sinnock:

Harriett was listed as a 43 year old unmarried daughter of William in the 1861 Hailsham census. In the same census Clara Taylor was listed as a grand daughter of William. I assume Harriett married a Taylor, had Clara, became divorced (almost unheard of) or widowed, retained her maiden name, and, with her young daughter, moved in with her father. All this from the entries of Harriet as William's daughter and Clara as William's grand daughter.

Birth Notes:

1841 census gives her age as 20, yielding a birth year of 1810;

1851 census gives her age as 36, yielding a birth year of 1815;

Notes for Elizabeth Sinnock:

Elizabeth is assumed to be the mother of Betsey Taylor, who is listed as the grand daughter of William in the 1851 census, but the mother could be Harriet, Elizabeth's sister

Notes for Thomas Taylor:

If Elizabeth is the mother of Betsey Taylor, she must have married a man named Taylor.

Thomas Taylor and Elizabeth Sinnock had the following child:

- i. BETSY¹¹ TAYLOR⁷⁵ was born or baptized in Dec 1850 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁷⁵.

Tuesday morning at 9:00 am as the bright sunshine for a winter's morn shone forth, an epoch in the history of our little village was marked when the earthly spirit of our beloved and esteemed fellow citizen - Mr. George Sinnock departed this life and entered into everlasting rest. Mr. Sinnock took ill only seven days ago, and his condition did not assume seriousness until the latter part of last week, when a complication with the La Grippe set in, and the end soon came. Probably will no news be read throughout this land with so deep regret as the passing away of this man. Hew was a citizen of this place for 43 years. He was known by many having been engaged in the mercantile manufacturing and retail shoe business in the building on Main street which carries his name. He was loyal to every one, as was he to the village, county, and state in which he lived. During his business career he accumulated a neat sum of money for the support of himself and family in declining years. Hew was a member of the Methodist church and took great interest in its welfare. He was a literary man was found of his daily paper and it seemed a pleasure to him to make the usual trips to the post office for his periodicals. He possessed excellent business qualifications and was a good penman. A peculiarity which most people his age do not follow was that he kept a cash account of daily transactions and his books were inspiring to anyone. We will indeed miss one of our best and esteemed citizens"

Notes for Samuel Sinnock Jr.:

Samuel Jr. was the first of Samuel Sr. and Mary Lindfield's family to migrate from Sedlescombe, East Sussex, England to America, in Samuel Jr.'s case to the Newark area, Knox County, Missouri where he married Martha Ann Clark in 1842. Samuel was the first Sinnock with current ancestors to have migrated to the United States and was closely followed by his older brother, George, then his parents' whole family in 1854. The Missouri Marriage Record indicates his marriage was in Scotland, which almost certainly is Scotland County, just north of Newark, Knox County, though the Sinnock Family Tree of Thomas Sinnock indicates his marriage in La Grange, Missouri, across the river from Quincy, Illinois, near where George settled in Payson. Apparently in 1850 during the census Samuel and his family visited his brother, George, in Payson, Illinois. One daughter, Susan, was born in Illinois during the visit. Perhaps Samuel thought of moving his family to Payson, but returned to the Newark area to farm and operate a nursey, and there he and Martha raised their family, as progenitor of many Missouri Sinnocks.

"Samuel Sinnock Jr., son of Samuel Sinnock, came to America in the Spring of 1936, the first Sinnock descendant of James and Elizabeth Sinnock to do so. He worked in the State of New York for a year, then went south and spent two winters chopping wood, came west in 1839 and worked for a time for Buckland and Weller in a mill at Wyaconda, Missouri. He later bought a farm near Newark, Knox County, Missouri, where he farmed for many years and later engaged in the nursery business. He was a member of the Baptist Church and a Republican in politics. He was married to Martha Ann Cleck in La Grange, Missouri, May 5, 1842. She was a daughter of Spencer and Elizabeth Cleck, at that time President of La Grange College. Thirteen years after Martha died, Samuel Jr. married Beckee Pugh, on May 2, 1889."

Thomas Sinnock, abt 1910

The 1870 and 1880 census list Samuel and Martha's location as Fabius Township, which is the township of Newark.

Migration Notes:

Samuel beat his older brother, George, to America by one year, making me suspect that perhaps as a sibling rivalry they challenged each other to be the first to emigrate to America.

Residence Notes:

I assume Samuel and Martha settled down to farming near Newark just after or soon after their marriage.

Martha Ann Cleck^{2, 100, 306, 415, 424-425, 428, 430} lived in Fabius Township, Knox, Missouri, USA between 1860-1870 at (Farm^{424, 428}). She was employed as a Keeping House in 1870⁴²⁴. She was buried in Newark, Knox, Missouri, USA (Newark Cemetery^{306, 430}). Her cause of death was heart attack, "dropsy"¹⁰⁰. Image: (tombstone photograph, cemetery map, descendant tree)

Generation 10 (con't)

Notes for Martha Ann Cleck:

The Missouri Marriage Record indicates her marriage to Samuel was in Scotland, assumed to be Scotland County, adjacent to and north of Knox County and that her last name was "Clark", though Thomas Sinnock, Martha's brother-in-law indicates in his Sinnock Family Tree that the marriage was in La Grange, Missouri, and her last name is "Cleck"

Name Notes:

The Sinnock family tree by Thomas Sinnock gives her maiden name as "Cleck", while the IGI and the Missouri Marriage Record gives it as "Clark" Because Thomas was her brother in law and should know her name, I use "Cleck" here.

Samuel Sinnock Jr. and Martha Ann Cleck had the following children:

Thomas Sinnock, abt 1910

Spent his life preaching the gospel at small frontier churches. Was a circuit rider, rode horseback between churches to preach the circuit.

Roberta Kell Sinnock, 1995

James William moved to New Mexico for the health of his wife and daughter, Emma who both had tuberculosis. The family hoped the "dry" air of New Mexico would be palliative. Their migration occurred shortly after their daughter, Adah, and her husband, William Darling, both died of tuberculosis in Illinois in 1883 just months after their marriage. James William then decided in 1884 to move his remaining family to New Mexico where, as was commonly believed in the day, the clear, dry desert air would be good for his wife, Mary Baker, and other daughter, Emma, who both had tuberculosis at the time. However, soon after they arrived in Raton, Emma died of the dreaded disease in September 1884, just one year after her sister died back in Illinois, adding to the family tragedy.

Article: Dedication Of New Methodist Church, Raton

In February of 84, however, the Rev J W Sinnock who was here with his family, partly for recreation and partly in search of more robust health was appointed to the pastorate.

He entered upon his duties immediately and pushed the unfinished building to completion. Mr Sinnock continued his work as pastor for approximately three years.

The contract for the present $28,000 edifice was let to C D Stevens on July 20 1907.. On the 6th of August the work of razing the old building was begun. The first week of January 1908 saw the laying of the corner stone. The present pastor, Rev Charles J Dickey A B came to Raton from Chicago in December of 08 exchanging with Rev William Reace, under whose leadership the new undertaking was inaugurated. The church now has 200 members.

Marriage Notes: (Mary Rebecca)

Mary's obituary gives the wedding date as October 20, JW's obituary as October 30.

James William Sinnock and Mary Rebecca Baker had the following children:

414. i. CHARLES WESLEY¹¹ SINNOCK^{2, 100, 440-445, 448, 450, 452, 812-815} was born or baptized on 28 Jul 1858 in Moweaqua, Christian, Illinois, USA^{440-441, 444-445, 813-814}. He died on 06 Aug 1917 in Las Cruces, Doña Ana, New Mexico, USA^{440, 814-815}. He married (1) MARY KAVANAUGH LETTON, daughter of Reuben Pike Letton and Permelia M. Kavanaugh, on 23 Jun 1892 in Raton, Colfax, New Mexico, USA (Methodist Church, married by Charlie's father, the Reverend James William (JW) Sinnock^{440, 812}). She was born or baptized about 1867 in Lexington, Lafayette, Missouri, USA^{306, 445, 813, 816-820}. She died on 07 May 1947³⁰⁶. He married (2) MARTHA E. RAY on 05 Oct 1887 in Roseville, Wabash, Illinois, USA^{100, 442}. She was born or baptized in 1866^{306, 821}. She died on 08 Jul 1888 in Raton, Colfax, New Mexico, USA^{100, 306}.
- ii. ADAH S. SINNOCK^{100, 440-442, 444, 450, 452, 822-824} was born or baptized on 10 Feb 1861 in Kinderhook, Pike, Illinois, USA^{440-441, 444, 822-823}. She died on 11 Sep 1883 in Stanford, McLean, Illinois, USA^{100, 823-824}. She married William A. Darling on 28 Dec 1882 in Williamsville, Sangamon, Illinois, USA (Married by Reverend W. H. H. Moore^{100, 442, 824}). He was born or baptized in 1858^{24, 440, 824}. He died on 16 Dec 1883 in Stanford, McLean, Illinois, USA^{440, 824}.

Adah S. Sinnock^{100, 440-442, 444, 450, 452, 822-824} was baptized on 12 May 1861 in Kinderhook, Pike, Illinois, USA⁴⁴⁰. She lived in Barry Township, Pike, Illinois, USA in 1870⁴⁴⁴ at. She was employed as a Student in 1880⁴⁴¹. She lived in Bloomington, McLean, Illinois, USA in 1880⁸²² at. She lived in Stanford, McLean, Illinois, USA in 1880⁴⁴¹ at. Her cause of death was tuberculosis (consumption)^{440, 823}. She was buried in Bloomington, McLean, Illinois, USA⁴⁴⁰.

Notes for Adah S. Sinnock:

Adah died at age 23 of tuberculosis, and her husband, William Darling, died three months later at age 25 of the same dreaded disease, both deaths occurred less a year after their wedding leading to a short and tragic marriage. Later when his wife Mary Rebecca and his other daughter Emma Arrette also caught the croup or worse, James William moved his family to Raton, New Mexico for the clean mountain air, to no avail, for Emma who died shortly after their arrival, but Mary struggled with it till her death 25 years later. Apparently Adah was counted twice in the 1880 census of McLean county; first on June 15th in Bloomington as "Adia" Sinnock or Sennock where, living in a boarding house, a sort of dormitory with six other young, single girl students, probably attending the college there, now Illinois State University. Eight days later on June 23 she appears again with her family in nearby (10 miles) Stanford, finals over, home for the summer.

William A. Darling^{100, 442, 824} was employed as a Professor, Bloomington Normal College in 1883^{100, 824}. His cause of death was tuberculosis (consumption)¹⁰⁰.

Notes for William A. Darling:

William, a young college professor died in December of tuberculosis just after his beautiful bride of 9 months died three months earlier in September. What a tragedy and loss of dreams for such a young promising couple.

- iii. EMMA ARRETTE SINNOCK^{100, 441, 444, 449-450, 452, 825} was born or baptized on 20 Dec 1865 in Mendon, Adams, Illinois, USA^{100, 441, 444, 449, 825}. She died on 24 Sep 1884 in Raton, Colfax, New Mexico, USA^{100, 449, 825}.

Emma Arrette Sinnock^{100, 441, 444, 449-450, 452, 825} lived in Barry Township, Pike, Illinois, USA in 1870⁴⁴⁴ at. She was employed as a Student in 1880⁴⁴¹. She lived in Stanford, McLean, Illinois, USA in 1880⁴⁴¹ at. Migration: 1884 (Inter State, Illinois to New Mexico (Raton), via Colorado Springs, Colorado, for "clean air" for her tuberculosis⁴⁴⁹) She was buried in Quincy, Adams, Illinois, USA (Woodland Cemetery^{449, 825}). Her cause of death was tuberculosis (consumption)⁸²⁶. Image: (cemetery map)

Notes for Emma Arrette Sinnock:

Emma died shortly after her arrival in Raton with James and Mary's family. Perhaps the trip was too arduous for her, a tombstone marker was erected back in Quincy.

415. iv. HELLENA MYRTLE SINNOCK^{100, 440-441, 445, 450, 452, 782, 813, 827-828} was born or baptized on 03 Dec 1873 in Jacksonville, Morgan, Illinois, USA^{100, 441, 445, 813, 827-828}. She married (2) RALPH FREDERICK WHISTLER, son of Ralph Whistler and Alice A. (Whistler) ?, on 14 Jun 1893 in Raton, Colfax, New Mexico, USA¹⁰⁰. He was born or baptized on 15 Jan 1861 in Croydon, London, England (Norwood^{440, 445, 831}). He died on 16 Jan 1901 in Raton, Colfax, New Mexico, USA¹⁰⁰.

Mary Jane Smith^{444, 446, 454-455} was born or baptized in 1845 in Pittsfield, Pike, Illinois, USA^{444, 446}. She was employed as a Teacher, Public

Generation 10 (con't)

Notes for Mary Jane Smith:

An obscure entry in the 1870 Barry Township census was used by the "Smiths, Smiths and more Smiths" family Tree on the WorldConnect Project at Rootsweb.com to link Mary Smith of the census entry to Mary J. Smith who later lived as the mother-in-law with Edward Nowers and his wife Laura B, while identifying Laura B. as the daughter of William James Sinnock because, as far as I can tell, Laura is listed as the daughter of Wm and Mary J. Smith. Further Mary's entry in the 1870 census is obscure because she is listed on the following page after the Sinnock family, her dwelling and household numbers left blank, a practice that indicates the previous entries apply, which would be James William and Mary's family. However, there is oddly a blank line at the end of the page where the Sinnock family is listed, though Mary is the only person listed before the "next" dwelling is listed on the next page. Why was the single line required for Mary's entry not entered in the obvious place at the end of the Sinnock family, if indeed she lived with them. Anyway, I conclude Mary was just a boarder, probably, though the 1870 census does not indicate relationships to the head, and can find no evidence that she is an illegitimate child of James William, which the Smith database implies. However I have included Mary, as a consort of JW, with her supposed later marriage and family including her parents, though as noted, I find no evidence other relationship to JW, just for completeness of including an interpretation that is plausible given the data I have. If true, such would be a wonderful story of the severe Methodist circuit reacher, failing to temptation but then accepting his sins for an illegitimate child conceived on his circuit rounds. His family remained intact, more evidence I think for the falseness of this story.

James William Sinnock and Mary Jane Smith had the following child:

416. v. LAURA BEBEE SMITH^{446, 454-455, 755} was born or baptized on 11 Dec 1867 in Illinois, USA^{446, 454-455, 755}. She died on 13 Jan 1940 in Atkinson, Henry, Illinois, USA⁷⁵⁵. She married EDWARD NOWERS. He was born or baptized in Jul 1863 in Illinois, USA⁴⁵⁴⁻⁴⁵⁵.

She was born or baptized on 20 Oct 1849^{458, 466}. She died in Mar 1928⁴⁶⁶.

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

From Thomas Sinnock's Family Tree, written about himself in about 1910;

"After coming to the United States with his parents in 1853, Thomas Sinnock worked at shoemaking in his brother George's shop in Payson, Illinois, during the summer and in the fall attended school taught by Mr. Metcalf. And on May 1, 1854, he engaged to work in the Nursery for Mr. William Stewart Sr. at a salary of $5.00 per month and board where he worked for two years.

In the spring of 1856 he was employed by William Stewart and Sons at Quincy where he worked for several years. In the spring of 1860 he started in the Nursery business for himself, locating in Griggsville, Illinois, where he stayed for five years when he sold out and come to Quincy and entered into partnership with J. H. Stewart of Quincy Nursery. After a few years, Mr. Stewart sold his interest in the business to Mr. Artemis Curtis, and the business was conducted under the firm name of Sinnock & Company. They continued the business until family health caused them to close it out and dissolve partnership in 1885. Since then Thomas Sinnock has lived on his farm near the city.

On April 24, 1907, his large house burned to the ground. He then rented his farm and retired from business and spent the following winter in California, and returned in the spring and prepared to rebuild on the old foundation, putting up a bungalow cottage and moved into it October 21, 1909."

Thomas compiled the "Sinnock Family Tree" in about about 1910 documenting the early Sinnock history in the United States and linking his family to James and Elizabeth Sinnock of Hailsham, East Sussex, England. Several versions of the "Sinnock Family Tree" exist, some are marked up copy's of a transcribed original while others seem to preserve a copy of at least parts of the original.

Eliza Streeter^{100, 219, 442, 457, 459-460, 463-465} lived in Ellington Township, Adams, Illinois, USA between 1850-1880 at (Farm^{457, 459, 465, 846}). Notes for Eliza Streeter:

Eliza was already in Illinois, born probably in Ellington Township just north of Quincy in 1835, when Thomas arrived from England as a young man in 1853. Somehow they met and Thomas settled in Ellington Township, establishing a very successful nursery business in Eliza's home township, perhaps even her home farm.

Thomas Sinnock and Eliza Streeter had the following children:

If original source were provided in the GEDCOM they were used here, otherwise, Tony Moore's letter of 9 Oct 1995 and its enclosed GEDCOM were cited as the source of the information for items in this database. It appears William, Ruth's husband, married earlier and had several children by this unknown wife, before he married Ruth in 1849.

244. SARAH ANNE⁷⁰ SINNOCK (Charles⁹, James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{76, 231, 247, 472-473} was born or baptized on 19 Feb 1825 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{76, 231, 247, 472-473}. She married John Hoadley about Jun 1844 in Hailsham District, East Sussex, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1822 in Lewes, East Sussex, England⁴⁷²⁻⁴⁷³.

Sarah Anne Sinnock^{76, 231, 247, 472-473} lived in Hastings, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (High Street, St. Thomas in the Cliffe⁷⁶). Notes for Sarah Anne Sinnock:

Two entries of a fifteen year old Sarah (Ann) Sinnock living alone occur in the 1841 census, one in Hastings and one in Westham. Though most likely for different people, citations to both census entries are included here. However, a short days trip could take one from Westham to Hastings, just 8 miles away. Perhaps she worked for two different homes as a young female servant, a common occupation.

John Hoadley^{85, 472-473} lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1871 at (North Street, South Malling⁴⁷²). He was employed as a Merchant, Shopkeeper between 1871-1880⁴⁷². He lived in Hamilton, Butler, Ohio, USA in 1880 at (Schmidtman Street⁴⁷³).

245. JAMES CHARLES¹⁰ SINNOCK (Charles⁹, James⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{31, 68, 75, 85, 131, 231} was born or baptized on 06 Dec 1827 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{68, 75, 131, 231}. He died on 04 May 1875 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{31, 68, 231}. He married Elizabeth Tamkin, daughter of Richard Tamkin and Elizabeth (Tamkin) ?, on 29 Jan 1849 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Married by License, given the birth date of Sarah Ann this was apparently a shotgun marriage^{5, 85, 123}). She was born or baptized about 1832 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{75, 280, 474}.

James Charles Sinnock^{31, 68, 75, 85, 131, 231} lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Bell Bamly Street¹³¹). He lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (The Town⁷⁵). He was employed as a Shoemaker in 1851⁷⁵.

Notes for James Charles Sinnock:

Apparently James and Elizabeth moved from Hailsham to Kent after their second daughter died in 1858, perhaps to leave a place where disease took their daughters, having two more children in Kent before James died in 1875 and Elizabeth remarried Edward Tomlin and had another son, James Tomblin.

Elizabeth Tamkin^{5, 75, 85, 123, 231, 280, 474} lived in Hellingly, East Sussex, England in 1841²⁸⁰ at (Workhouse, Union). She lived in Hailsham, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (The Town⁷⁵). She lived in Hunton, Kent, England in 1881 at (Elphicks⁴⁷⁴).

Notes for Elizabeth Tamkin:

Generation 10 (con't)

Elizabeth who married James Charles Sinnock in 1876 may be related to Mary Tampkin or Tompkin who married George Sinnock in Hellingly. I assume here she, Elizabeth, is the same person as Elizabeth Tamkin of Hunton, Kent from the 1881 Census, where she lived with Edward Tomblin and her two daughters, Emily Anne and Mary A. (as Edward's two step daughters). This assumption is made because of the rarity of the name, identical birth years, and birth location in either Hailsham or Hastings. An interesting fact is she married Edward Tomblin after James Charles Sinnock, her first husband, whose sister married William Tomlin, coincidence or misspelling of Tamkin or Tomblin? Tony Moore indicates Elizabeth was born in Hastings, in about 1830 as does the 1881 Hunton census; the 1851 census indicates Hailsham; nearby Hellingly is indicated in her marriage record. I suspect Hellingly is her birth location, in the Hailsham district. There may be a separate Elizabeth Tampkin born in Hastings

James Charles Sinnock and Elizabeth Tamkin had the following children:

- i. SARAH ANN¹¹ SINNOCK^{68, 123} was born or baptized on 29 Apr 1849 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Hailsham District¹²³). She died about Mar 1850 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.
424. ii. BETSY EMMA SINNOCK^{85, 119, 130, 213, 852-856} was born or baptized on 10 Oct 1852 in Hailsham, East Sussex, England^{119, 130, 213, 852-856}. She married Silas Peters, son of Thomas William Peters and Emily (Peters) ?, about Mar 1875 in Sussex, England^{85, 213}. He was born or baptized about Sep 1853 in Snodland, Kent, England (Malling District^{119, 213, 853-858}).
- iii. MARY A. SINNOCK⁴⁷⁴ was born or baptized about 1861 in Pembury, Kent, England⁴⁷⁴.
- iv. Mary A. Sinnock⁴⁷⁴ lived in Hunton, Kent, England in 1881 at (Elphicks, lived with her mother Elizabeth Tamkin and stepfather Edward Tomblin⁴⁷⁴). She was employed as a Dressmaker in 1881⁴⁷⁴.
425. iv. EMILY ANNE SINNOCK^{5, 18, 20, 85, 119, 474, 859-861} was born or baptized on 14 Apr 1872 in Nettlestead, Kent, England (Maidstone District, Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 20, 119, 859-861}). She married (1) WILLIAM CHARLES JEFFERY, son of Ann (Jeffery) ?, about Dec 1899 in Norwich, Norfolk, England^{85, 859}. He was born or baptized about 1873 in Lamberhurst, Kent, England⁸⁵⁹⁻⁸⁶². She married (2) GEORGE REEVE. He was born or baptized about 1836 in Tunbridge Wells, Kent, England⁸⁶¹.
246. WILLIAM¹⁰ SINNOCK (William⁹, John⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{2, 5, 20, 31, 68, 70, 107, 117, 234, 241, 315, 475-478} was born or baptized on 08 Aug 1813 in Chatham, Kent, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at St. Mary's^{20, 31, 68, 234}). He died on 29 Sep 1896 in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England^{68, 117}. He married Mary Elizabeth Crittenden, daughter of John Chapman Crittenden and Betsy Parsons, about 1838 in Chatham, Kent, England⁴⁷⁵. She was born or baptized on 13 Oct 1811 in Sheerness, Kent, England^{68, 241, 475-477, 479}. She died about Jun 1897 in Camberwell District, Southwark, London, England⁶⁸.

William Sinnock^{2, 5, 20, 31, 68, 70, 107, 117, 234, 241, 315, 475-478} was born or baptized about 1816 in Stockbury, Kent, England (Burham, Kent⁴⁷⁵⁻⁴⁷⁸). Notes for William Henry Sinnock:

I assume William Henry Sinnock married to Sarah Mace in 1855 is the same person as William Sinnock who with a wife Sarah and 6 children disembarked in New York in 1863. Several William Sinnock's from England about this time could be confused, as one or more may be in this database:

Travel: 20 Jul 1863 (London, England to New York, New York aboard ship "Amazon"²²⁰)

William Henry Sinnock and Sarah Ann Mace had the following children:

- i. ROSE¹¹ SINNOCK²²⁰ was born or baptized about 1854 in England²²⁰.

Travel: 20 Jul 1863 (London, England to New York, New York aboard ship "Amazon"²²⁰)

- ii. WILLIAM ALFRED SINNOCK^{85, 119, 238} was born or baptized about Sep 1855 in Malling District, Kent, England^{119, 238}. He married Emily Pigden about Dec 1881 in Lewisham, London, England (William Sinnock married either Emily Pigden or Phillippa Mutton⁸⁵). She was born or baptized about 1860²³.

William Alfred Sinnock^{85, 119, 238} lived in Chatham, Kent, England in 1861 at (High Street, Middleton Building²³⁸).

Notes for William Alfred Sinnock:

William is listed as a grandson of Jesse (James) and Fanny (Frances) Sinnock in the 1861 Chatham census. I assume he is a son of William Henry and Sarah Ann Mace because William Henry, b 1824 and Alfred, b 1846, are the only known married sons of Jesse and Fanny, and Alfred is too young to have a son born in 1855. Other sons of Jesse and Fanny, James and Thomas both born in the early 1830's and unmarried as far as I know are others who could be William Alfred's father. Or perhaps William Alfred, born 1855 in the Malling District according to the Civil Registration Index of Births, is the same person as Albert Sinnock born 1846 in West Malling according to several census entries, and his birth was not registered until he was about 9 or 10 years old, rare, not unheard of in those days. The marriage of William Alfred Sinnock to Emily Pigden or Phillippa Mutton in 1881 mitigates against these being the same person, because Alfred, b 1846 raised a large family with Mary Ann Silverston throughout the late 1870's and 1880's.

Emily Pigden⁸⁵ also went by the name of Phillippa Rogers Mutton⁸⁵.

- iii. MARTHA SINNOCK²²⁰ was born or baptized about 1858 in England²²⁰.

Travel: 20 Jul 1863 (London, England to New York, New York aboard ship "Amazon"²²⁰)

- iv. KATE SINNOCK^{220, 331, 867} was born or baptized about 1859 in West Malling, Kent, England^{220, 331}.

Kate Sinnock^{220, 331, 867} was born or baptized in 1859 in West Malling, Kent, England⁸⁶⁷. She lived in Tower Hamlets, London, England in 1881 at (12 Dee Street⁸⁶⁷).

Notes for Kate Sinnock:

In 1881 Kate "Sinnocks" (note "s" at the end) was listed as a 22 year old visitor of Willam and Hannah Sinnock in Tower Hamlets. I assume she is the same person as the daughter, 12, of William Henry and Sarah Sinnock recorded disembarking in New York in 1863. Though the ages don't match, William Henry's brother, William Alfred was born in the Malling District, where Kate reported her birth in the 1881 census. This plus the name and no other Kate, Katherine, or Catherine Siinnocks were known to be born anywhere near the 1850's, Perhaps a little exaggeration each way may account for the reported age differences. Perhaps they are different people.

248. ALFRED¹⁰ SINNOCK (James⁹, John⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{18, 21, 68, 72, 85, 237-239, 290, 351, 482-483} was born or baptized about 1846 in West Malling, Kent, England^{18, 68, 237-239, 483}. He died about Dec 1924 in Lewes, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Mary Ann Silverstone, daughter of Olivia (Silverstone - Kinshott) ?, about Mar 1876 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{85, 483}. She was born or baptized about Mar 1854 in Eltham, Greenwich, London, England (Lewisham District^{68, 119, 290, 351, 482-484}). She died about Mar 1939 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Alfred Sinnock^{18, 21, 68, 72, 85, 237-239, 290, 351, 482-483} lived in West Malling, Kent, England in 1851 at (Norman's Place²³⁷). He was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1851²³⁷. Notes for Alfred Sinnock:

The identity of Alfred Sinnock, father of the family of children with Mary Ann, is somewhat problematic. Alfred Flowers Sinnock was born in Brighton in 1847 according to the Civil Registration Index and the 1851, 1861, and 1871 Hellingly census. The name is given as "Alfe F. Sinnock" in the 1851 census. The 1881 and 1891 and 1901 Census data indicate another, probably, Alfred, born in Malling, Kent. The Brighton census indicates his birth in Malling (1891) or West Malling (1881, 1901), and that he was 35 (1881 census), 42 (1891 census), and 55 years old (1901 census). The Civil Registration Index of Births lists Alfred William Sinnock born in the Malling District in 1855, indicating he would be 26 years old in 1881 and 36 years old in 1891. . No Alfred in the Civil Registration Index matches either birth year indicated by the ages given in the Census data for either Alfred. I assume Alfred William Sinnock is the father of Sinnock children born in Brighton, though it is quite possible the father of these children is Alfred Flowers Sinnock. In any case, it is unknown if and why Alfred of Brighton misrepresented his age to the census takers.

Mary Ann Silverstone^{5, 20, 68, 72, 85, 119, 290, 351, 482-484} lived in Eltham, Greenwich, London, England in 1861 at (1 Harrow Cottages⁴⁸⁴). Notes for Edith Mary Sinnock:

Emily Mary may have been counted in two places in the 1901 census, once in Preston as Mary Sinnock, 17, born in Lewes, housemaid in the home of Sarah Irving and second in adjacent Brighton as Emily Mary Sinnock, 19, born in Brighton. I can find no other family home for 17 year old Mary and I assume here she is the same as Edith Mary, 19; but they may be a different people.

Notes for John Lee Sinnock:

John Lee is listed as J. W. in the 1881 Thurston County census. He and his family appear in several censuses taken in Washington in the 1880. He moved around quite a bit in the Puget Sound area. I assume Walter and William O. are sons of John Lee Sinnock and Mary Payne because of the rarity of the name, the location in Washington, birth in England, somewhat compatible ages, and the fact they all they all appear in both the 1887 Tacoma census and 1880 and 1881 Thurston County census, noting that if the ages given in those census are correct, Walter would have been born when Mary was only 14 years old. In the 1880 Thurston County census James W. Sinnock is listed as a 26 yr old son of 45 year old John L. and 37 year old Mary E., again indicating birth at 11 or 12, not very likely. Since the census dates are fairly consistent, I suspect James Walter is not the son of Mary, but is a son of John Lee, age 19 or so when James was born in England, who brought young James Walter to America, where John met and married Mary Elizabeth Payne in Ohio and then moved to Washington.

Mary Elizabeth Payne^{219, 242, 244-245, 488-491} lived in Grosse Pointe, Wayne, Michigan, USA in 1870²⁴⁵ at. Migration: Bef. 1880 (Inter State, Michigan to Washington (Wayne County to Tumwater)⁴⁹⁰) She lived in Tumwater, Chelan, Washington, USA in 1880⁴⁹⁰ at. She was employed as a Servant, Housekeeper in 1880⁴⁹⁰. She lived in Thurston, Washington, USA between 1880-1881²⁴⁴ at. She lived in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA between 1900-1910 at (411 South L Street⁴⁸⁸). She was buried in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA (Tacoma Mausoleum⁴⁹¹).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Payne:

Both of Mary's parents were born in New York according to the 1900 Tacoma census and in Rhode Island in the 1880 Tumwater and 1910 Tacoma census

John Lee Sinnock and Mary Elizabeth Payne had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH A. F.¹¹ SINNOCK^{68, 245} was born or baptized in 1861 in Ohio, USA^{68, 245}. She died about Dec 1943 in Hastings, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Elizabeth A. F. Sinnock^{68, 245} lived in Grosse Pointe, Wayne, Michigan, USA in 1870²⁴⁵ at. She died about Dec 1943 in Poplar, Tower Hamlets, London, England⁶⁸.

- ii. JOHN SINNOCK²⁴⁴ was born or baptized about 1876 in England²⁴⁴.

John Sinnock²⁴⁴ lived in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA in 1887²⁴⁴ at.

Notes for John Sinnock:

Because of the rarity of the name, the location in Washington, birth in England, compatible ages, and the fact they all they all appear together in the 1887 Tacoma census, I assume John is a son of John Lee Sinnock and Mary Payne.

- iii. ALBERT E. SINNOCK²⁴⁴ was born or baptized about 1880 in Washington, USA²⁴⁴.

Albert E. Sinnock²⁴⁴ lived in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington, USA in 1887²⁴⁴ at.

Generation 10 (con't)

Notes for Albert E. Sinnock:

Because of the rarity of the name, the location in Washington, compatible ages, and the fact they all they all appear together in the 1887 Tacoma census, I assume Albert is a son of John Lee Sinnock and Mary Payne 251. JOHN¹⁰ BONIFACE (Thomas⁹, Elizabeth⁸ Sinnock, James⁷ Sinnock, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵ Sinnock, Elias⁴ Sinnock, Christofer³ Sinnock, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{246-247, 494-497} was born or baptized about 1830 in Westham, East Sussex, England^{246-247, 494-497}. He married (1) CAROLINE (BONIFACE) ? after 1871⁴⁹⁶. She was born or baptized about 1846 in Westham, East Sussex, England⁴⁹⁴⁻⁴⁹⁷. He married (2) ? (BONIFACE) ?. Two different John Boniface's married a girl named Caroline, one born in Westham, the other in Ditchling. They both, with Caroline, appear in several census of the general Brighton area, the one in West Sussex, the other in East Sussex. I assume the East Sussex birth is for this John, because his birth in Westham and residence in adjacent Pevensey occurred in the same Hailsham - Arlington region as his parents.

Caroline (Boniface) ?⁴⁹⁴⁻⁴⁹⁷ lived in Pevensey, East Sussex, England between 1881-1911 at (Thatch Cottage⁴⁹⁴⁻⁴⁹⁷).

Notes for Caroline (Boniface) ?:

In 1881 Caroline lived in Pevensey with John Boniface, their daughter Caroline, and four of her son's from a previous marriage, Jesse L., 12, Edwin A., 11, Thomas H., 9, and Ernest W., 6, all with the last name Beal and all born in Pevensey.

Marriage Notes: (Caroline (Boniface))

John is listed as a widower with two children, Louisa and Rosa, in the 1871 Pevensey census, so he must have remarried Caroline sometime thereafter, but before Caroline, Caroline's daughter, was born in about 1880.

John Boniface and Caroline (Boniface) ? had the following children:

- i. CAROLINE¹¹ BONIFACE^{494, 497} was born or baptized about 1880 in Pevensey, East Sussex, England^{494, 497}.

Selena Elizabeth Olive^{5, 68, 85, 255, 261, 512-514} lived in Whitstable, Kent, England in 1871 at (62 Victoria Street⁵¹⁴). She lived in Wingham, Kent, England in 1891 at (Wingham Street²⁵⁵). She lived in Wingham, Kent, England between 1901-1911 at (The Waterlock⁵¹²⁻⁵¹³).

Notes for Selena Elizabeth Olive:

1901 census gives Selena's birth location as Wingham, Kent. In 1871 Selena, 15, lived in Whitstable with her widowed mother, four brothers, William, 15, a possible twin, Thomas, 9, Albert, 8, and John 5, and three sisters, Martha, 13, Emily, 11, and Thoda, 6, all born in Whitstable, and her grandmother, Catherine Mound, 69, as widow born in Margate. I suspect Selena is entered twice in the 1871 census, once with her family in Whitstable and then as a servant in the home of Ann Rye in St. Mary Bredin, Canterbury, about 3 or 4 miles away. Perhaps she spent the night in Canterbury, so was there counted in the census, even perhaps after she left for home in Whitstable, then at home there when the census taker arrived, and he or she probably didn't question her sleep location when she was obviously a child of the home and entered her there also. How else can I account for 2 Selena Olives born in Whitstable, the family one, 15, the servant, 16, perhaps exaggerated by a year to get the job.

John Sinnock and Selena Elizabeth Olive had the following children:

- 444. i. HARRY¹¹ SINNOCK^{18, 68, 255, 261, 865, 882} was born or baptized about Jun 1882 in Wingham, Kent, England^{68, 119, 255, 882}. He died about Mar 1938 in Dover, Kent, England⁶⁸. Notes for Olive Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

Olive reported her age as 19 in the 1911 Dover census, perhaps because at 18, she thought she might not get her job as housemaid.

- vii. EDITH SINNOCK^{119, 512-513} was born or baptized about Mar 1896 in Wingham, Kent, England^{119, 512-513}. She died before 1986 (Assumed to have died before age 90¹⁷⁴).

He was employed as a Farm Laborer, Stockman in a Barn in 1910⁵¹⁷.

Notes for William Sinnock:

I suspect William was entered twice in the 1870 census, once at the family farm in Perry Township on June 7, then at the American Hotel in nearby Massillon on July 22.

Anna Fisher^{219, 516-517} lived in Massillon, Stark, Ohio, USA in 1880 at (Thorn Street⁵¹⁶). She lived in Santa Ana, Orange, California, USA in 1910 at (910 East 3rd Street⁵¹⁷).

William Sinnock and Anna Fisher had the following children:

- i. WILLIAM¹¹ SINNOCK⁵²⁸ was born or baptized about 1867 in Ohio, USA⁵²⁸.

Notes for William Sinnock:

I assume William is a son of William because of the name, age, and location in Ohio, but he could as easily be a son of William's brother, John W. Sinnock, in any case he is almost certainly a grandchild of Samuel and Mahala Cruttenden Sinnock who settled in the Massillon area after immigrating from the Hailsham, East Sussex area of England

448. ii. E. L. SINNOCK⁸⁹¹ was born or baptized about 1871 in Indiana, USA⁸⁹¹. He married GENEVIEVE (SINNOCK) ?. She was born or baptized about 1881 in Minnesota, USA⁸⁹¹.

Notes for John Sinnock:

John and Emma apparently moved from the family home in Margate to Canterbury, where they and their descendants for three generations lived in a very small area of the north central city, including addresses on Knott Lane, Cobden Place, Pound Lane, and Church Lane, as well as Admans Square, which I can't find but assume is nearby because it is listed in Staplegate, a registration district. All the addresses are where several such districts come together: Central Canterbury, Staplegate, Westgate, and Northgate.

Emma Tester^{68, 109, 111, 365, 535-537, 539-541, 914} lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1861 at (6 Princes Street, St. John¹¹¹). The 1861 and 1901 census give Emma's birth location as Herne Bay, Kent, the 1891 census as nearby Beltinge, Kent, and the 1871 as also nearby Reculver.

John Sinnock and Emma Tester had the following children:

- i. ALFRED¹¹ SINNOCK⁶⁸ was born or baptized about 1859 in Thanet District, Kent, England⁶⁸. He died about Sep 1859 in Thanet District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Alfred Sinnock:

I assume Alfred is a son of John and Emma because of the rarity of the name, birth in the Thanet District which includes Herne Bay where John and Emma's other children were born, and an compatible age, assuming Alfred died young as John and Emma's first born, apparently before they were married, so he does not appear with the family in the 1851 or 1861 census. Nine months after Alfred died, a second son was born, which, perhaps in memory, they also named Alfred, i.e. Alfred John.

458. ii. ALFRED JOHN SINNOCK^{2, 18, 68, 85, 111, 119, 365, 535, 541, 914-917} was born or baptized about Jun 1860 in Herne Bay, Kent, England^{68, 111, 119, 365, 535, 541, 914, 917}. William Sinnock^{70, 79, 85, 107, 109-110, 112, 401, 539, 542-543} was baptized on 31 Aug 1835 in Margate, Kent, England (St. John Wesleyan, Hawley Square¹¹²). He lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1841 at (New Cross Street, St. John the Baptist⁷⁹). He was employed as a Carpenter, Journeyman to his father in 1851¹¹⁰. He lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1851 at (8 New Cross Street¹¹⁰). He lived in Westminster, London, England in 1861 at (16 Blackmoor Street⁴⁰¹). He lived in Paddington, Westminster, London, England in 1891 at (4 Rundell Road⁵⁴³). Image: (marriage banns example⁵³⁹)

Notes for William Sinnock:

It appears that William and Mary, both from Margate, moved to London, Islington area, shortly after their marriage in 1861, and there had many children, despite appearing in census data in Tunbridge Wells, Kent (1874), Frant, East Sussex (1881), Paddington, Westminster (1891). Later, perhaps up to 5 years later, it appears William divorced Mary and moved to Hertfordshire, married Harriet and had at least two more children, James John and Maud Fanny, all of whom, Harriet and her children, were unknown to me before the 1911 census. However, because James' childrens' names, Kathleen, Doris May, and Edward, and locations, Hertfordshire, especially Watford, are shared with the family of Edward George, his assumed brother, and son of William and Mary from other sources, it appears William, at least, may have moved to Hertfordshire in about 1870, after Marian was born, the last of the many children born in 1868 in Islington and James John was born in 1873 in St. Albans. Thus it appears William and Harriet are parents of nearly all Sinnocks born in or hailing from Hertfordshire. Harriett indicated she had 8 children in the 1911 census only 3 of which were alive. Not all those would necessarily be William's. Such a large amount of conjecture from such little data on shared names and locations.

Death Notes:

Mary, William's lifelong wife appears as a widow in the 1901 Hammersmith census.

Migration Notes:

William and Mary's first son was born in Islington, London in 1862, and it appears the family moved around southeastern London at least until 1891

Mary East^{68, 70, 85, 236-237, 381, 401, 539, 542-543} lived in West Malling, Kent, England between 1841-1851 at (Ryarsh Lane²³⁶⁻²³⁷). Notes for Frederick William Jenkins:

I assume Frederick is the husband of Nora Sinnock because of somewhat tenuous assumptions. The will of Frederick William Sinnock lists Frederick as a partial recipient of his estate, which also goes to his daughter, Bertha, and to Miles Harris Phillips, the husband of his other daughter, Edna; thus it seems fair to leave some to his other daughter, Nora, but he chose to leave it to their husbands instead, maybe a little chavanistic.

274. CHARLES¹⁰ SINNOCK (William⁹, John⁸, William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 20, 31, 70, 85, 122, 133-134, 560-561} was born or baptized on 15 Feb 1824 in Brighton, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date^{5, 20, 122, 133-134, 562}). Notes for John Henry Sinnock:

I assume John Henry is the son of Charles and Ellen because of the rarity of the name, the Brighton birth location, and compatible dates, noting that he may be a member of another Sinnock family, John Sinnock and Amelia Sabine, also having children in Brighton at this time.

He died about Sep 1900 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Harriet Hallett Ovenden about Mar 1850 in Uckfield District, East Sussex, England⁸⁵. She was born or baptized about 1829 in Rotherfield, East Sussex, England^{68, 565-568}. She died about Mar 1907 in East Grinstead, West Sussex, England⁶⁸.

John Sinnock^{5, 68, 85, 114, 564-565} was baptized on 30 Jun 1826 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Zoar Street Baptist Church⁵). He lived in Arlington, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (Millhouse¹¹⁴). He lived in Banstead, Surrey, England in 1851 at (The 100 Arms⁵⁶⁵). He was employed as a Miller, Journeyman in 1851⁵⁶⁵. He was employed as a Servant, Miller in 1871⁵⁶⁴. He lived in Speldhurst, Kent, England in 1871 at (Groombridge Road⁵⁶⁴).

Notes for John Sinnock:

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sinnick" in the Civil Registration Index of Marriages

Birth Notes:

The 1871 Speldhurst census lists John's birth location as Harlington, Kent, which I can't find on my maps, so I assume this is a transcription error in the census for Arlington, East Sussex, which matches the birth data and location of John, the son of William Sinnock and Ruth Bateman from the 1841 and 1851 census.

Residence Notes:

I assume the 1871 Speldhurst census entry of John's residence in "Groombridge" meant Groombridge Road, about half way from

Generation 10 (con't)

Speldhurst to Groombridge, East Sussex, just across the county line. However, "Speldhurst Road" connects Speldhurst and Groombridge, and I bet I was called "Groombridge Road" in Speldhurst. However, the entry could also mean John lived in Groombridge. In any case the route of the census taker was strange, Pehnhurst, and Barden roads north of Speldhurst to Groombridge and Pook Hill, then to Langton, Speldhurst, and Bardsen roads, south of Speldhurst. So Groombridge must be along the route somewhere in central Soeldhurst where no such road exists on any of my maps.

Harriet Hallett Ovenden^{68, 85, 565-568} lived in Banstead, Surrey, England in 1851 at (The 100 Arms⁵⁶⁵). She lived in Mitcham, Merton, London, England in 1871 at (Meitor Road⁵⁶⁶). She was employed as a Grocer in 1871⁵⁶⁶. She lived in Groombridge, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (13 Conselery Road⁵⁶⁸). She lived in Groombridge, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (10 Conselery Road, 1 Springfield Place⁵⁶⁷).

John Sinnock and Harriet Hallett Ovenden had the following children:

486. i. JAMES¹¹ SINNOCK^{5, 107, 119, 566} was born or baptized about Sep 1851 in Banstead, Surrey, England (Epsom District^{119, 566}). He married Esther Walder on 27 Apr 1873 in Mitcham, Merton, London, England⁵. She was born or baptized about 1851⁶⁸. She died about Mar 1882 in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England⁶⁸.
- ii. RUTH SINNOCK^{68, 117, 119, 566-568} was born or baptized about Mar 1853 in Mitcham, Merton, London, England^{68, 119, 566-568}. She died on 12 Feb 1938 in Groombridge, East Sussex, England (Uckfield District^{68, 117}).

Ruth Sinnock^{68, 117, 119, 566-568} was employed as a Servant, Domestic in 1871⁵⁶⁶. She lived in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England in 1871 at (Cumberland Hill⁵⁶⁶). She lived in Groombridge, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (13 Conselery Road⁵⁶⁸). She was employed as a Dressmaker in 1891⁵⁶⁸. She lived in Groombridge, East Sussex, England between 1901-1938 at (10 Corseley Road, 2 Springfield Place^{117, 567}). She owned £264 6s. 7d. in 1938¹¹⁷.

Notes for Ruth Sinnock:

Apparently Ruth lived between Groombridge and Withyham, which are only a mile or so apart. In 1891 and 1901, Ruth is shown as the daughter of Harriet, who is grandmother of William J. Is William a son of Ruth or a nephew, either is possible. In the 1911 Ruth lived with her nephew, William James. I suspect, as recorded here, Ruth, a spinster, adopted and lived with the son of her brother James who died sometime before 1891. Harriet's other son, William could be William James' father, but he lived until 1930, so it is unlikely his son would live with his grandmother and aunt rather than with his father and mother, while William and his wife, Louisa, were alive.

487. iii. WILLIAM SINNOCK^{68, 85, 119, 334, 566, 972-973} was born or baptized about Sep 1855 in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England^{68, 119, 334, 566, 972-973}. He died about Dec 1930 in Croydon, London, England⁶⁸. He married Louisa Weaver, daughter of Henry Weaver and Mary Ann (Weaver) ?, about Sep 1877 in Lambeth, London, England^{85, 973}. She was born or baptized about 1859 in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England^{334, 972-974}. She died about Mar 1912 in Kingston District, Kingston upon Thames, London, England⁶⁸.

276. THOMAS¹⁰ SINNOCK (William⁹, John⁸, William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 68, 85, 114, 278-279, 281, 382} was born or baptized on 25 Jul 1833 in Arlington, East Sussex, England (Baptism date is used as the birth date, baptized at Zoar Street Baptist Church^{5, 68, 114, 278-279, 281, 382}). He died about Mar 1888 in Brighton, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Sarah Stone about Dec 1858 in Cuckfield District, West Sussex, England^{5, 18, 85}. She was born or baptized about 1841 in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England^{279, 342, 350, 569}. She died about Dec 1924 in Brighton, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Thomas Sinnock^{5, 18, 68, 85, 114, 278-279, 281, 382} lived in Arlington, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (43 Clifton House, Upper Dicker¹¹⁴). He lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England between 1851-1861 at (152 North Street, St. Thomas in the Cliffe²⁷⁹). He was employed as a Miller, Journeyman to Michael Martin (1851) in 1861^{279, 281}. He was employed as a Carpenter in 1871²⁷⁸. He lived in Arlington, East Sussex, England in 1871 at (43 Clifton House, Upper Dicker²⁷⁸).

Notes for Thomas Sinnock:

The IGI indicates Thomas's birthplace is Hellingly, Twineham, Keymer, and Burgess Hill, West Sussex. where 8 of 10 of Thomas and Sarah's children were born are all within a one-mile radius and all in the Cuckfield District. Four separate Sinnock families were raising children in the Keymer - Burgess Hill area during the 1870's and 1880's. Several of the children may have been placed in the wrong families, especially those with only Civil Registration Index of Birth sources, which does not give the mother's maiden name for any of the Cuckfield District entries. The families are:

- 1 - Thomas, born about 1843 and Fanny E.,
- 2 - Thomas, born 1833 and Sarah Stone, and
- 3 - James and Charlotte Cooper,
- 4 - Robert James and Emma Allan

Birth Notes:

The IGI indicates Thomas was born in Hellingly, just two or three miles from Arlington

Sarah Stone^{5, 18, 68, 85, 279, 342, 350, 569, 745} lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (152 North Street²⁷⁹). She lived in Keymer, West Sussex, England in 1871 at (London Road⁵⁶⁹). She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (8 Bentham Road³⁴²). She was employed as a Living on own means in 1891³⁴². She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (27 Duke Street, St Peter's³⁵⁰). She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (24 Robertson Road, Preston, lived as a widow with her son George Sinnock and family³⁵⁰). She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1918 at (79 Upper North Street⁷⁴⁵).

Notes for Sarah Stone:

1891 census lists "Harriett" as the wife of Thomas and mother of Frank

Thomas Sinnock and Sarah Stone had the following children:

488. i. EMMA¹¹ SINNOCK^{5, 18, 85, 279, 342, 569} was born or baptized about Mar 1860 in Twineham, West Sussex, England^{5, 119, 279, 342, 569}. She married Frederick John Spillett about Jun 1887 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{18, 85}. He was born or baptized

She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1871⁵⁶⁹. She lived in St. Martin in the Fields, Westminster, London, England in 1901 at (1 Trafalgar Square, servant in Morley's Hotel⁵⁸²). She was employed as a Servant, Chambermaid, Morley's Hotel in 1901⁵⁸². She was also known as "Annie".

Notes for Anne Sinnock:

I assume Anna Sinnock born in Twineham is the same person as Annie Sinnock, chambermaid in London in 1901, and Anne Sinnock who died in Brighton in 1956 because of the rarity of the name, Twineham birth near Brighton, identical birth years, and a lack of other Anne Sinnocks in the area at the time.

Name Notes:

First name given as "Anna" in the Death Index

Birth Notes:

Annie reported her age as 36 in the 1901 census, perhaps shaving a little from her more likely age of 40, perhaps as a ploy to keep her age-related job at the hotel.

- iii. FREDERICK SINNOCK^{5, 18, 68, 85, 119, 342, 350, 569, 576} was born or baptized about Dec 1863 in Alfriston, East Sussex, England^{5, 18, 68, 119, 342, 350, 569, 576}. He died about Mar 1922 in Steyning District, West Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Lizzie Rose about Dec 1902 in Brighton District, East Sussex, England^{85, 576}. She was born or baptized about 1868 in Haddenham, Buckinghamshire, England^{68, 576}. She died about Dec 1949 in Worthing District, West Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Frederick Sinnock^{5, 18, 68, 85, 119, 342, 350, 569, 576} was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1871⁵⁶⁹. He lived in Keymer, West Sussex, England in 1871 at (London Road⁵⁶⁹). He lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (8 Bentham Road³⁴²). He lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (27 Duke Street, St Peter's³⁵⁰). He was employed as a Laborer, Railroad between 1901-1911^{350, 576}. He lived in Hove, East Sussex, England in 1911 at (9 Lower Market Street⁵⁷⁶).

Notes for Frederick Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Frederick's birth location as Eastbourne District, of which Alfriston is a part.

Notes for James Sinnock:

I assume James, 8, living in the Hellingly union house in 1841, James from the 1851 census of Brighton (for James Sinnick, born in Hailsham) and James of the 1861 census of Hove, and the Civil Registration Index of Deaths are all the same person based on the rarity of the name, the general proximity in southern, East Sussex, and compatible dates. James and his brother, Charles, are one of the few rare ties between the Sinnock and Sinnick surnames.

Notes for Mary Ann Sinnock:

Generation 10 (con't)

The three separate birth entries could represent three distinct Mary Ann's, but I included them together here because of the rarity of the name, the compatability of the locations (noting she was counted in the 1891 census in Brighton in April, then moved to Camberwell to marry John Cox in November), and compatible, nearly identical ages.

She lived in Hastings, East Sussex, England between 1871-1881 at (2 Albion Place, Prion Road, St. Mary in the Castle^{160, 373}). She was employed as a Servant, Domestic in 1881³⁷³. In 1861, before she was born, her parents are listed also with three older brothers that probably moved out or died before 1871, William, 10, John, 8, and Howard, 6, also all born in Hastings, and another possible brother, Stanley, 48, living with her parents in 1901, also born in Hastings.

Notes for William Sinnock:

I assume William born to James and Caroline in Hove in 1870 is the same person as William who died at age 61 in Lewisham, London in 1932 or William who died in in 1904 at age 30 in Brighton adjacent to Hove where he was born because of the rarity of the name, compatible ages, and, for one case, the Brighton/Hove area,

Generation 10 (con't)

Notes for Sarah Sinnock:

I assume Sarah born in Hellingly in 1822 to George and Mary Sinnock is the same person as Sarah Sinnock married to John Cottrell in Brighton in 1847 based on age, assuming Sarah married at a reasonable age of 25 or birth date of about 1822, matching her parish register birth entry in 1822 and matches the marriage entry of 1847 in the IGI, and on proximity (Hellingly, her birth location, to Brighton, her marriage location, is about 15 miles). I also assume she is the same person as the, likely unwed, mother of Mary born and died in 1842 in the Hellingly Parish register, who then, I assume, later married John Cottrell and raised a large family in Brighton.

Sarah Sinnock had the following child:

- i. MARY¹¹ SINNOCK^{5, 68, 119, 123} was born or baptized about Jun 1842 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{119, 123}. She died on 17 Sep 1842 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{68, 123}).

Mary Sinnock^{5, 68, 119, 123} was baptized on 21 Aug 1842 in Hellingly, East Sussex, England^{5, 123}.

Notes for Mary Sinnock:

Name Notes:

Mary seems to have adopted the last name of her mother's maiden name or perhaps previously married name.

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Mary's birth location as Eastbourne District, which includes many villages along the coast, but not nearby Hellingly where she was born according to the Hellingly Parish Register. 1842, Mary's birth date is in the time of transition from parish registers to the Civil Registration. Entries in both usually concur, but occasionally are somewhat different as in the case of Mary's birth location.

Notes for William Foord:

From Mark Milton who cites John Kay (Ringmer Historical Society, May 2002)

"William and Jane Foord came to Ringmer between Jan 1890 and Jan 1891 to take the tenancy of Upper Lodge or Pesthouse Farm, a medium sized farm belonging to the Glyndebourne Estate. This farmhouse still survives and had Foords living there until 1988 (the last owners are still resident in Ringmer). Farm tenancies usually changed hands at Michaelmas, so they probably arrived in September 1890. William and Jane were in their late 40s at the time, and the 1891 and 1901 censuses tell us that Jane was born in Sedlescombe, Sussex. They brought with them 9 children who in 1891 were aged from 28 down to 9 - those aged 28-11 were all born in Westham (next to Pevensey, just inland from Eastbourne) but the youngest was born in Plumpton (a few miles west of Ringmer). This was not necessarily their entire family. The two eldest sons were both married and had separate households nearby, both daughters-in-law were from Herstmonceux. The eldest (Charles) had 5 children born in Westham, Plumpton and Hellingly and the next oldest (James) had a baby aged three months (James Sexton), the first member of the family born in Ringmer. Within a few months of the family's arrival, William Foord died and was buried at Ringmer 20 Feb 1891, aged 48. Jane carried on farming with the help of her sons. She died 20 Feb 1909, aged 69. The couple are remembered by memorial E21 in Ringmer churchyard. Jane was succeeded as farmer at Upper Lodge by her son James Foord, then by his son James Sexton Foord, then by Robert (his son?) until 1988."

Occupation Notes:

Farmer

Jane Sellens^{31, 217, 296-297, 299, 588, 600-604, 998} lived in Sedlescombe, East Sussex, England in 1841 at (The Street⁶⁰¹). She lived in Sedlescombe, East Sussex, England in 1851 at (Swales Green⁶⁰²). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1851⁶⁰². She was employed as a Servant, Housekeeper in 1861²⁹⁷. She was employed as a Farmer between 1891-1901^{603, 998}. She lived in Ringmer, East Sussex, England between 1891-1901 at (Upper Broyle^{603, 998}). Her cause of death was stroke, cerebral hemorrhage (apoplexy)⁶⁰⁴.

Notes for Jane Sellens:

Within a few months of the family's arrival in Ringmer, William Foord died and was buried at 20 Feb 1891, aged 48. Jane carried on farming with the help of her sons, and she died on 20 Feb 1909, aged 69. The couple are remembered by memorial E21 in Ringmer churchyard. Jane was succeeded as farmer at Upper Lodge by her son James Foord, then by his son James Sexton Foord, and then by Robert (his son?) until 1988.

Two "Jane Sellens", age 1, appear in the 1841 census in the Sedlescombe - Westfield area, counted: (1) along The Street, Sedlescombe, District 9, living with Walter, agricultural laborer, 25, Charlotte, 23, Martha, 3, (who later married John Elphick and had a daughter who also married a Sellens and had a son, Ernest, 19, in 1891, born in Westminster, London) and Jane, 1, all born in Sussex and along the same street as Hyland and Catt families, and (2) along Cottage Lane, Woodhouse, Westfield, District 11, living with Thomas, 45, Farmer, Philadelphia (sic), 40, Esther, 15, William, 15, Thomas, 13, Tully, 11, Henry, 9, James, 7, Mary, 5, Frederick 3, and Jane, 1 all born in Sussex, after the twins, right on schedule every two years, and just seven doors down along same census route from my 3rd great grandparents, Samuel Sinnock and Mary Lindfield, living on Selescomb (sic) Hill.

In 1851 Jane, 11, lived with her parents Walter and Charlotte, two sisters, Mary Ann, 8, and Sarah, 7, and a brother, Walter, 3, all born in Sedlescomb (sic).

I assume that Walter is the oldest son of Thomas and Philadelphia, and, as chance would have it, both father and son had a daughter at about the same time, and together decided to name them both Jane.

Or, another possibility, one that fits with a similar scenario for the nearby family of George Sinnock of nearby Ninefield and Hooe, (just 5 miles away on the other side of Battle), is that this clan of Sinnocks, friends and neighbors decided to pull a couple of fast ones on the census.

Facts: George Sinnock is listed in 1841 as 50 years old (rounded to the nearest 5 years) in both the Catsfield and Ninfield census, towns less than a mile apart. George, 50, is shown in the Ninfield census with two children William and Mary, ages 8 and 5; these two children, at least identically named ones, are also shown in the 1841 census in Hooe, less than a mile to the south. George appears also at the Church House in the Catsfield census, less than a mile to the north. Nearby, just on the other side of Battle, Jane Sellens, 1, appears in both the 1841 Sedlescombe and Westfield census's with different families. The Sellens and Sinnocks were later in-laws. I suspect George, William, and Mary Sinnock are members of a single family, and that Jane Sellens is but one person also. It is possible that after the census takers visited one house where George, William and Mary were counted in Ninfield, and another house in Sedlescombe where Jane was counted. As soon as the census takers left, runners hurried the children just up the road by shortcuts to the other houses, arriving before the census takers (who, for all they knew may already have been there, unless other-way runners informed them or they asked the census takers from whence they came upon arriving at the first house). Such movement of the children may have been intentional as a joke on the census, or may have occurred just during normal activities of the day, except the census was taken at night.

It seems odd that two related families, the Sellens and Sinnocks, people with rare names in rural settings of few people living along the same road within a few miles of each other would independently have children of the same name at the same time that show up in geographically adjacent census records, but only Jane, Walter's daughter in the 1851 census. Perhaps, but I am beginning to doubt it. And note. all the "duplicates" were under 8, so no chance was left that the census could say we just missed 'em last time around in '31.

So, I suspect (1) George lived in Ninfield with two children, William and Mary; (2) after the census taker counted them in Ninfield, the children went to Hooe where they show up in the home of Jim and Maria Lewis, newlyweds, 20, with a 1 year old daughter who were perhaps the children's aunt and uncle; (3) George went to Church where he was counted in Catsfield; and (4) Jane Sellens, an infant, was similarly hurried down the road ahead of the census takers.

The joke scenario is supported by such similar goings-on in both the Sellens and Sinnock families, families that later were in-laws. It seems possible that this clan of Sinnocks with their friends and neighbors may have pulled a couple of fast ones on the census. I suspect a quite well-planned ruse cussed and discussed at length, tossed out as a joke, and planned with contingencies of which children would be moved based on where the census takers first showed up, with maybe a dare or two throw in for good measure. It appears we might have had a couple of takers. High fives, anyone? All conjecture from the scantiest of fact, all conjecture! and I think beyond ever knowing, but once the possibility consistent with the meager facts is put forth it can never be put to rest without more bearing fact, which may, but probably does not, exist.

Notes for Frederick William Salzmann:

Old family tree said he died in 1894.

Frederick William qualified in medicine at St. Thomass Hospital, and practised at Brighton, where he was very successful. A kind and busy man, he made a lot of money, but was extremely generous, and did not leave as much at his death as had been expected, having given so much away. He died early of peritonitis. He married, firstly, Clara Sinnock of Hailsham and had two sons by her, Frederick Henry and Louis Francis; and after her death at an early age of cancer he married Grace Thornton, who was a rather shadowy figure known as the Mater, whose interests were not on the Salzmann side and died in the 1930s. She lived during her last years in one of those hotels so well described by Anthony Powell as the Ufford, where Uncle Giles spent some of his time, and she had a prim little dumpling of a companion.

Notes for Samuel Thomas Sinnock:

Internet, Find a Grave web site indicates Samuel died in France on August 29, 1918. His birth was not found in the Civil Registration Index of Births. Though John Samuel Sinnock and Jane Watts ancestry is unknown, because of the name, birth location and date I assume Sam was a son of John Thomas Sinnock who married Sarah Litton in 1871 in Bethnal Green. He appears in the 1901 census in Mile End New Town with wife Jane, assumed to be the same couple who immigrated to Canada. According to his grandson John Samuel (Jack,) Sam was athletic, a boxer. his father is listed as a "seatsman" in the marriage entry with Jane Watts in the London, England, Marriages and Banns, perhaps an upholsterer, with similar skills to a leather worker, which John was. Then, as a final review of all letters I received over the past 20 years about our family, I noted a forgotten, one line phrase in a 3 page handwritten letter on May 12, 1994, from Joyce Cooper Sinnock. Joyce is Lawrence Sinnock's wife and she indicated her husband's grandparents were John and Lucy from Beckenham, then the phrase, and "he had a brother (name unknown) who immigrated to Canada, around about 1906 - 1910", suggesting perhaps that Frederick Sinnock and Ann Blake are the parents of Sam, because they are Arthur John Sinnock's who married Louisa (Lucy?).

Name Notes:

The 1901 Canadian census and 1871 and 1901 English census list him as "Samuel Sinnock", whereas the 1911 Canadian census list him as merely "T. Sinnock" which the "T" may be for "Thomas". He is listed as "John" in the 1871 English census. His name full name "John Samuel" is inscribed on a World War I memorial in front of the parliament building in Winnipeg. He is listed as "Samuel" on his son, Ted's, birth certificate, according to Brian Palmer

Notes for John James C. Sinnock:

John's entry in the 1930 Detroit census is for the name "James" with "John C." written above "James" in superscript. He reported both his parents were born in English speaking Canada. The only Sinnock couple having children in Canada at the time of his birth that I know of are John Samuel Sinnock and Jane Watts, though they were both born in England. So I stuck John James C. here for lack of a better place, though reliable family records of John and Mary's family do not include him.

Notes for Lydia Elizabeth Sinnock:

I assume Lydia A. Sinnock who married Peter Abate in Hackney in 1952 is the same person as Lydia Elizabeth, born in nearby Whitechapel and died in nearby Bethnal Green because of rarity of the name, noting the "A" initial for the married Lydia, geographic proximity in central London, and compatible dates. Apparently Lydia died in the Bethnal Green Tube Distaster from the World War II bombing of London on 3 Mar 1943.

Generation 11 (con't)

Notes for Catherine E. A. Hurdle:

I assume Catherine married George Thomas Sinnock in 1944 after his first wife Beatrice Morris with whom he had five children died in 1936. He is the only George Sinnock that remains a viable candidate for Catherine's husband. Plus the Tower Hamlets location helps, but at the end of the war, that loses some relevance.

Generation 11 (con't)

Notes for Frederick Sinnock:

Three brothers, (Arthur) John, Frederick, and William were raising families in Beckenham in the early 1900's and several of the children of these families could be mixed.

Amelia M. Holledge^{68, 335} lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1901 at (23 Eden Road³³⁵). She was employed as a Laundress in 1901³³⁵.

Notes for Amelia M. Holledge:

Amelia's last name obtained from 1901 census that lists Robert Holledge as the father-in-law of Frederick Sinnock, head of household Frederick Sinnock and Amelia M. Holledge had the following child:

- i. LILLIAN MAUD⁷² SINNOCK^{85, 119, 335-336} was born or baptized about Mar 1894 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England (Elmers End^{119, 335-336}). She died before 1985⁵². She married Henry J. Notes for Lillian Maud Sinnock:

Two "Lilian Maud Sinnock"s are listed in the Civil Registration Index of Births, one born Jun 1893 in the Bethnal Green District, the other born March 1894 in the Bromley District. Because of the rarity of the name and closeness of birth times it is tempting to consider them the same person, but because of the difference in birth years in sources with precise dates, separation of locations (across London), and marriages, both Lillian Maud's are retained in the database.

I assume Lillian Maud, born in 1894 in Bechenham is the same person as Lillian who at age 24 married Henry Honess in somewhat nearby Dartford in 1918 because of the rarity of the last name, the identical first name, compatible ages, geographic proximity, and no other Lillian Sinnock candidates in the area at the time of her marriage.

Name Notes:

Last name is spelled "Sinneck" in the entry for Lilian but "Sinnock" in the entry for Henry, her husband, in the Civil Registration Index of Marriages

312. WILLIAM¹¹ SINNOCK (Frederick¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, John⁷, William⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 20, 31, 68, 85, 107, 117, 119, 154, 332, 335-336, 347} was born or baptized on 06 Nov 1872 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England^{18, 20, 68, 119, 332, 335-336, 347}. He died on 29 Nov 1934 in Penge, Bromley, London, England^{68, 117}. He married Annie Louisa Smith, daughter of William Charles Smith and Harriet Ann Hollands, about Dec 1897 in Eastry District, Kent, England^{85, 336}. She was born or baptized about 1877 in Walmer, Kent, England^{335-337, 347}. She died on 28 Feb 1951 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England^{337, 347}.

William Sinnock^{5, 18, 20, 31, 68, 85, 107, 117, 119, 154, 332, 335-336, 347} was baptized on 02 Feb 1873 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England^{5, 31}. He lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1891 at (1 Acacia Road³³²). He was employed as a Laborer, Fishmonger's Assistant (retired in Birwash) in 1891^{332, 347}. He lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1901 at (16 Yew Tree Road³³⁵). He was employed as a Laborer, General in 1901³³⁵. Travel: 08 Apr 1905 (Liverpool, England to Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada aboard ship "Bavarian"¹⁵⁴) He lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1911 at (4 Blandford Road⁵). He lived in Penge, Bromley, London, England in 1934 at (95 Woodbine Grove¹¹⁷).

Notes for William Sinnock:

Howard Sinnock in his letter to Scott Sinnock indicated that William Sinnock, John (Arthur)'s brother, is the husband of Ann Smith and father of Nellie, Beatrice, William and others. However, Dorothy Cox Sinnock's letter to Scott Sinnock indicates that, as listed in the 1901 census, John (Arthur) Sinnock, William's brother is husband of Ann (Annie Louisa Smith or Louisa Annie Johnson) Smith and father of Nellie, Beatrice, Vera, Theodora, Nancy, James, and William Frederick George. The Horsefall Family Tree from Ancestry.com indicates that William is a son of William and Annie Louisa Smith and that he married Dorothy V. Ashton and Ada E. White. Dorothy Victoria Cox married William Frederick George Sinnock and was his second wife after Ada White. Is it highly likely that Dorothy Victoria Cox is Dorothy V. Ashton, one or both last names from a previous marriage. That identity, and the family relations shown in the Horsefall Family Tree are used here because of Dorothy's vagueness in recalling her Sinnock relatives and the apparent consistency of the Horsefall Family Tree, noting that source cites no more primary sources. Three brothers, (Arthur) John, Frederick, and William were raising families in Beckenham in the early 1900's and several of the children of these families could be mixed. Release of the 1911 census shortly should straighten out the families of these brothers in Beckenham.

Assumed to be the William Sinnock listed in the Canada Passenber Lists arriving in Canada in 1905 from England.

Birth Notes:

The 1891 census gives William's birth place as Beckenham, Kent while the "descendants of John Sevenoke" by Howard Sinnock gives Wisebech, Cambridgeshire as his birth location and the Civil Registration Index of Births gives Bromley

Annie Louisa Smith^{85, 117, 119, 335-337, 347} was born or baptized about Dec 1880 in Croydon, London, England³³⁷. She lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1901 at (16 Yew Tree Road³³⁵). She lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1911 at (4 Blandford Road³³⁶). She lived in Penge, Bromley, London, England in 1934 at (95 Woodbine Grove¹¹⁷).

Notes for Annie Louisa Smith:

Generation 11 (con't)

Annie's maiden name of Smith is from the listing of James Sinnock's birth in the Civil Registration Index of Births

William Sinnock and Annie Louisa Smith had the following children:

Hughes about Mar 1928 in Bromley District, Bromley, London, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1900²³. He died before 1990⁵².

Notes for Eva Frances Sinnock:

I assume Eva was the daughter of John Sinnock and Lucy Johnson because they were having children in the Bromley District at this time

He died in Jun 1994 in Surrey South Eastern District, Surrey, England⁶⁸. He married Edna May Loosemore, daughter of Frank Loosemore and Kate Roberts, about Dec 1935 in Croydon, London, England⁸⁵. She was born or baptized on 20 May 1911 in Pontypridd, Glamorgan, Wales⁶⁸. She died in Mar 1999 in Surrey South Eastern District, Surrey, England⁶⁸.
- vii. LILLIAN SINNOCK^{68, 119, 627} was born or baptized about Jun 1922 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England¹¹⁹. She died about Jun 1922 in Bromley District, Bromley, London, England⁶⁸.

Lillian Sinnock^{68, 119, 627} was also known as "Nell"¹¹⁹.

Notes for Lillian Sinnock:

assumed that Lillian of the Civil Registration Index and "Nell" of Joyce Cooper's letter are the same individual because of birth location, time and mother's maiden name

313. LUCY ELIZA¹¹ SINNOCK (Frederick¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, John⁷, William⁶, William⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 20, 85, 119, 332} was born or baptized on 13 Jun 1875 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England^{5, 20, 119, 332, 336}. She married Thomas David Lumsden about Sep 1896 in Bromley District, Bromley, London, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1875²³. He died before 1911.

Lucy Eliza Sinnock^{5, 20, 85, 119, 332} was baptized on 09 Feb 1876 in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England^{5, 20}. She was employed as a Servant, Housemaid in 1891³³². She was also known as "Lizzie"³³².

Notes for Lucy Eliza Sinnock:

I assume Lucy Eliza is "Lizzie" born in Beckenham of the 1891 census and is a daughter Frederick Sinnock and Anne Blake because of rarity of the name, the birth location where only Frederick and Anne were raising a Sinnock family and compatible ages.

Notes for Thomas David Lumsden:

Lucy reported she had 5 children, all living in 1911, but only 4 are living with her in her father's house.

Death Notes:

Lucy, Thomas' wife, is listed as a widow in the 1911 Beckenham census

Generation 11 (con't)

He was employed as a Laborer, Builder's in 1911³³⁶. He lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1915 at (3 Sultan Street⁶²²). He was employed as a Plasterer in 1915⁶²². He was also known as "John"³³⁶. He was described as 5 ft 6⁶²² in.

Notes for Arthur John Sinnock:

Howard Sinnock in his letter to Scott Sinnock indicated that William Sinnock, John (Arthur)'s brother, is the husband of Ann Smith and father of Nellie, Beatrice, William and others. Dorothy Cox Sinnock's letter to Scott Sinnock indicates that, as listed in the 1901 census, John (Arthur) Sinnock, William's brother is husband of Ann (Annie Louisa Smith or Louisa Annie Johnson) Smith and father of Nellie, Beatrice, Vera, Theodora, Nancy, James, and William Frederick George. Joyce Cooper Sinnock indicates her husband Lawrence Sinnock's grandparents were John and Lucy (Louisa?) Sinnock of Beckenham. The Horsefall Family Tree from Ancestry.com indicates that William is a son of William and Annie Louisa Smith and that he married Dorothy V. Ashton and Ada E. White. Dorothy Victoria Cox married William Frederick George Sinnock and was his second wife after Ada White. Is it highly likely that Dorothy Victoria Cox is Dorothy V. Ashton, one or both last names from a previous marriage. That identity, and the family relations shown in the Horsefall Family Tree are used here because of Dorothy's vagueness in recalling her Sinnock relatives and the apparent consistency of the Horsefall Family Tree, noting that source cites no more primary sources. Three brothers, (Arthur) John, Frederick, and William were raising families in Beckenham in the early 1900's and several of the children of these families could be mixed. Joyce Cooper mentioned in her letter of May 12, 1994 that one of John's brothers migrated to Canada.

Louisa Annie Johnson^{18, 68, 85, 119, 336-337, 622, 627} lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1911 at (92 Churchfields Road³³⁶). She lived in Beckenham, Bromley, London, England in 1915 at (3 Sultan Street⁶²²). She was also known as "Lucy"⁶²⁷.

Notes for Robert James Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Robert's birth location as the Neath which encompasses Aberavon, where the census data indicate he was born.

Emma Sarah Allan^{85, 220, 658-659, 661-667} lived in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England in 1891 at (West Street⁶⁵⁹). Notes for Emma Sarah Allan:

Both Emma's parents were from England, In 1930 she lived with a niece, Olive Barkham, 30, born in England

Birth Notes:

The 1940 Auburn census indicates, I believe in error, that Emma was born in New York, despite listing her daughter, Ada's birth in England

Robert James Sinnock and Emma Sarah Allan had the following children:

- i. STEPHEN HENRY¹² SINNOCK¹¹⁹ was born or baptized about Mar 1882 in Hastings, East Sussex, England¹¹⁹.

Notes for Stephen Henry Sinnock:

I assume Stephen, born in Hastings in 1882 is a son of Robert James and Emma who died as an infant because of the rarity of the name, the Hastings location of his birth when Robert and Emma, his parents, were living there and his supposed sister Lillian was born there according to the 1881 census, compatible age, and the fact that Stephen, if he died young, would not show up in the 1891 census data for the family. This supposes Robert and Emma had a child before their marriage when both were nearly 30, Stephen being born when Robert was 26 and his mother, Emma, 28, so perhaps in 1884, their marriage year, they decided to make it all legit.

- ii. LILLIAN A. SINNOCK^{68, 220, 658-659, 663} was born or baptized about 1885 in Hastings, East Sussex, England^{68, 659, 663}. She died about Dec 1964 in Bridge District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Lillian A. Sinnock^{68, 220, 658-659, 663} lived in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England in 1891 at (West Street⁶⁵⁹). Migration: 1901 (Wales to United States, New York (Tai-bach, Clwyd to Binghamton)²³) Travel: 03 Aug 1901 (Southampton, England to New York, New York aboard ship "St. Paul" thence to Binghamton, New York²²⁰) She lived in Union Township, Broome, New York, USA in 1910 at (37 Endicott Avenue⁶⁶³). She was employed as a Laborer, Factory, Shoe Stitcher in 1910⁶⁶³.

- iii. ROBERT SINNOCK⁶⁸ was born or baptized about 1887 in England⁶⁸. He died about Jun 1887 in Hastings, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Robert Sinnock:

I assume Robert is a son of Robert James and Emma who died as an infant because of the rarity of the name, the Hastings location of his death when Robert and Emma, his parents, were living there and his supposed sister Lillian was born there according to the 1881 census, compatible age, family use of the name "Robert", and the fact that Robert, if he died young, would not show up in the 1881 census data for the family.

- iv. EDITH EMILY SINNOCK^{119, 220, 658-659, 662} was born or baptized about 1888 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{220, 659}. She married CHARLES RODMAN. He was born or baptized about 1880¹⁴.

Edith Emily Sinnock^{119, 220, 658-659, 662} was born or baptized about Mar 1888 in Hastings District, East Sussex, England¹¹⁹. She lived in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England in 1891 at (West Street⁶⁵⁹). Migration: 1901 (Wales to United States, New York (Tai-bach, Clwyd to Binghamton)²³) Travel: 03 Aug 1901 (Southampton, England to New York, New York aboard ship "St. Paul"²²⁰)

Notes for Edith Emily Sinnock:

Edith could be Margaret May born Cuckfield, 1888 from the Civil Registration of Births. However, she is assumed to be Edith, born in Hastings, because of age and earlier family in Hastings, though her birth in Hastings is at odds with the rest of the family born in the Burgess Hill, Keymer, Clayton area along the border between East and West Sussex.

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives her birth location as the Hastings District, but, as with her brother Stephen Henry, the census gives their birth location as Brighton.

Notes for Charles Rodman:

- 560. v. ALBERT JAMES SINNOCK^{18, 119, 220, 658-659, 661-663, 902, 1045-1047} was born or baptized on 30 Oct 1890 in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England (West Clayton Street^{119, 220, 659, 661, 663, 1045-1047}). The Civil Registration Index of births gives Charles' birth location as the Neath District, which does not include Tai-back, Clwyd, where the census data indicate he was born, in fact the Neath District is in a different county, West Glamorgan.

He was employed as a Businessman, Founded Sinnock and Sherrill Jewelry Manufacturer about 1859^{412, 678-679}. He lived in Newark, Essex, New Jersey, USA in 1860 at (10th Ward^{396, 677}). He lived in Newark, Essex, New Jersey, USA between 1900-1909 at (693 High Street^{676, 678}). His cause of death was stroke, "dropped dead at sea watching a bridge game from a cerebral hemorrhage"⁶⁷⁸.

Notes for William P. Sinnock:

The 1860 New Jersey Census gives William D. (P.)'s age as 23 making his birth year 1837 or 1838. The 1880 census gives his age as 40, making his birth year 1840. The 1900 Soundex gives his age as 62 and birth date as August 1834. It all doesn't add up, so, based on the census date closest to his birth, I use the 1860 census birth year of 1837. William Sinnock of the Hailsham, Sussex, England census maybe the same as William D. Sinnock of the 1860 New Jersey census. No other William Sinnocks are known to have been born in this approximate time except these two. Coincidence of their possible birth years augments this identity. The New Jersey 1860, 1880 census indication of birth in Connecticut may be in error or may have been provided to census takers to avoid indicating a foreign birth in the politically sensitive period at the start of the Civil War and during the flood of immigrants in the 1880's, or perhaps.

William, of the 1860 New Jersey census, is assumed to be the father William D., with William P. being the William Jr. of the census

In a telephone conversation Edwin P. Sinnock indicated his grandfather was named William and that his family came from New Jersey. I assume this William is the grandfather Edwin referred to.

Rachel Matilda (Sinnock) ?^{396, 676-677} lived in Newark, Essex, New Jersey, USA in 1860 at (10th Ward^{396, 677}). She lived in Newark, Essex, New Jersey, USA in 1900 at (693 High Street⁶⁷⁶).

Notes for Spencer W. Sinnock:

All other male children of William and Rachel from New Jersey either married other women or lived past 1900, so I assume Spenser was the husband of Mary Mattison and died before the 1900 census.

Death Notes:

Spenser does not appear in the 1900 Newark census, though Mary Sinnock, a widow, daughter of Andrew and Delia Mattison does.

Mary Mattison⁶⁷⁶ lived in Newark, Essex, New Jersey, USA in 1900 at (1 Emmett Street⁶⁷⁶).

Notes for Edmund Perion Sinnock:

In 1940, Edmund, 63, is listed as the brother-in-law of Joseph Brucy, whose wife, Olive, 47, then is Edmund's likely sister, though I have no other record of her and have not entered her in the database.. Her age suggests she was born nearly 16 years after Edmund, the youngest of 8 know children of William and Rachel, an unlikely surprise for William and Rachel. So, perhaps Joseph Brucy married one of Edmund's sister, any of which would have been much older than Joseph, then she died, and Joseph remarried, also unlikely.

Notes for John Sinnock:

I assume John and Charles are siblings because of the rarity of the name, birth locations in Lewes, compatible dates, and no other known families having children in Lewes at this time, and further assume both siblings are the children of Thomas Sinnock and Susannah Parsons for the same reasons. I also assume John who appears in Camden, London in 1871, or a difficult to read reported age of 25 and a similarly nearly illegible occupation and birth location of possilbe "Hamsey, Ssx" or even "Haringay, Lnd", Hamsey is in the Lewes District reported for John's birth in the Civil Registration of Births in 3rd quarter of 1842. So if John rounded his reported age and the entry indeed reads "Hamsey", then it is likely they are the same person.

Notes for Amy Elizabeth Hastings:

Occupation Notes:

Amy appears as probationer under both the "relation to head" and "occupation" columns in the 1891 Paddington census while living at Warrington Lodge, Henrietta Rigby listed as head. We all wonder what she did to be on probation in 1891, a young girl from Hastings in London, in trouble, so early. She came from a VERY large family of 14 children, so I am sure more than one played the "bad" girl or boy role, perhaps Amy. So much conjecture from such little fact. You see, I too mixed with the law and was a probationer, so I may sympathize a little more than some, perhaps, probably, most.

Edwin appears as an heir of his father Thomas in Thomas' probate entry, though he does not appear in any census with Thomas' family after the 1841 census, though as a child he should have appeared with the family after 1841, when he was 10 months old. Perhaps the heir, Edwin is a different person than the son, Edwin.

Listed in same household is Della Sinnock, 3 years old, a niece of Jacob. I assume "Amy S." is Angeline Sinnock, the aunt of Della Sinnock, daughter of Charles W. Sinnock, Angeline's brother.

Notes for Charles Wesley Sinnock:

Charles W. Sinnock, a well-to-do and respected farmer of La Plata township, was born in Adams County, Illinois, August 15(sic), 1849 and was brought up to the boot and shoe-maker trade, which he followed in that county, connected with the boot and shoe business, until the spring of 1876, when, needing the open air and outdoor exercise incident to farming, he quit his trade and business and removed to Missouri, locating near La Plata, across in Adair County, where he bought and improved a farm. He followed farming there for about six years, and then returned to Adams County, Illinois, where he engaged in the boot and shoe business. But having tried farming he came to the conclusion that, after all, it is about the best business one can follow, health and independence of life considered. So he returned to Missouri in 1853 and bought the farm where he now resides in Macon County. Mr. Sinnock has a neat place of 120 acres, two miles south-east of La Plata, all in active cultivation and neatly improved. May 6, 1872, he was married in Payson, Adams County, Illinois, to Miss Lydia K. Wharton, a daughter of Benjamin and Amy S. Wharton, of Adams County, but formerly of Pennsylvania, by way of Indiana. Mrs. Sinnock was reared and educated in Adams County. Mr. Sinnock's parents were George Sinnock, a native of England, and Sarah Ann Kay, formerly of Kentucky. They were married in Illinois and afterwards settled at Payson, where the father engaged in the boot and shoe business, which he still carries on at that place. Charles W. became his partner after he grew up and was his father's partner prior to coming to Missouri that last time. Charles W. Sinnock and his wife have six children: Nellie M., Harry, Della, Amy M., Charles, and Clem.

bio of unknown origin, but apparently written in about 1886 when James had but his first six of nine children, though Clem must be Ernest.

Charles and Lydia took most of their family and migrated to the flat outwash valleys flowing off the Yellowstone Volcano in southern Montana in the early 1900.s They settled inear Belfry on the Clark's Fork (Missouri) River (daughters Della May and Anna L. and son Charles A.), along the Stillwater River a couple of valleys to the west (son Samuel) and even further one valley to the Big Timber Creek basin (son George). Daughter Amy appeared in Helena in 1910 before moving on to San Francisco, ever the spinster. Their oldest, Nellie and Harry, stayed in Missouri.

Migration Notes:

Charles and Lydia's first two children, Nellie and Henry were born in Payson, the second, Henry, in Feb 1876. The third child and succeeding children were born in La Plata, beginning in March 1877, so Charles and his extant family must have moved from Payson to La Plata in 1876 or early 1877

Charles appears in the 1900 census in Macon County, Missouri and in the 1910 census in School District 34 which is in Belfry, Montana, so at some time between he migrated to Montana. A short biography of Charles by Thomas Sinnock probably written, I guess, from about 1900 to 1910 refers to Charles as still in Missouri. His grandson, Burthel Romaine Daugherty, son of Della May Sinnock, was born in Montana in Feb 1903. If Charles and Lydia, Della May's parents, accomanied Della May and James Daugherty from La Plata to Montana, they did so before Burthel was born. That is the case assumed here by assigning a date of 1903 to the family's move. Alternatively, Burthel's parents, Della May and James Roscoe Daugherty, may have migrated earlier, the parents, Charles and Lydia, following later, but before 1910 when Charles and Lydia appear in the Montana census.

Eventually Charles Wesley's whole family and several in-laws moved from La Plata to Montana. The first to do so was a son Charles Augustus Sinnock, followed by the rest of the family in separate migrations to Belfry, Stillwater County, and Sweetgrass County.

Residence Notes:

Though Charles spent some time back in Illinois, he lived most of the period from 1876 to his removal to Montana in 1908 on farms near La Plata. Both dates are from the biography under the general notes. Wilson Township in Adair County of the 1880 census is just across the county line from La Plata, Macon County, from the 1900 census and is considered part of that town

Based on census information, I assume Charles lived on a farm near Belfry after his arrival in Montana until his death, the 1920 census of Carbon County indicates he lived in Township 8S, Range 22E, which I assume is near Belfry and where his farm was.

Lydia K. Wharton^{2, 63, 306, 442, 709, 725-727, 729, 731, 733-736} lived in Elk Creek Township, Cloud, Kansas, USA in 1875 at (Farm⁷³⁵). She lived in Wilson Township, Adair, Missouri, USA in 1880 at (Farm⁷²⁵). She was employed as a Servant, Housekeeper in 1880⁷²⁵. She lived in La Plata Township, Macon, Missouri, USA in 1900 at (Farm⁷³¹). She lived in Teller County, Colorado, USA in 1900 at (Precinct 25, visiting her daughter, Nellie, and son-in-law, Franklin Flack⁷³⁶). Migration: Bef. 1903 (Inter State, Missouri to Montana (La Plata to Belfry)²³) She lived in Belfry, Carbon, Montana, USA between 1910-1920 at (Vail Avenue (1920)^{726-727, 733}). She was buried in Belfry, Carbon, Montana, USA (Belfry Cemetery^{306, 734}). Image: (tombstone photograph, cemetery map, descendant tree)

Notes for Lydia K. Wharton:

Apparently in 1875 Lydia had two brothers, Nathan R., 15, and John F., 13, both born in Indiana, all three of whom lived with David and Ann Garwood in Elk Township, Cloud Co., Kansas. Lydia also apparently had 6 siblings living in Tredyffrin Township with her parents in 1850, before she was born. The siblings listed in the 1850 Tredyffrin census were Anna C., 10, Emma, 8, Amy, 8, Elanor, 2, Henry, 2, and Sarah 1m, all born in Pennsylvania, and Jesse Wharton, 74, assumed to be Benjamin's father, also born in Pennsylvania.

Residence Notes:

Wilson Township in Adair County of the 1880 census is just across the county line from La Plata, Macon County, from the 1900 census and is here considered part of that town

Lydia appears in two 1900 census's, first in La Plata, Missouri on June 7, then in Teller County, Colorado on June 19, visiting her daughter, Nellie Sinnock Flack and family. The 12 days between census dates is more than adequate to allow her to take a short wagon ride about 40 miles to Quincy, there catch the train to Denver and Colorado Springs, then another short wagon ride 15 or so miles west to Teller County

Notes for James William Sinnock:

James William, known as JW, came to Quincy from Payson when in his teens. He was working with the Upham & Gordon Shoe Company, but in 1885 with Charles Nichols, brother of his wife he founded Sinnock and Nichols Wholesale Furnishings in Quincy, which he then nurtured through his whole working life. He was engaged in the Wholesale Boot and Shoe business, but later on Wholesale Notions and Furnishings goods also in manufacturing garments, overalls, etc. He married Fannie May Nichols of Quincy, Illinois and they lived their whole married lives in Quincy.

Thomas Sinnock, abt 1910

In 1890 James William and Fannie May moved to 1415 Hampshire Street in Quincy, Illinois, to a house which they had built and for which they paid $1500. James William (Big Daddy -- J. W.) was engaged in the wholesale boot and shoe business and later in wholesale buttons and furnishings, and also in the manufacturing of garments and overalls.

Mary Hill Sinnock, abt 1975

From Charles Frederick Wells, email of April 1, 1998, taken from the book: Historical Sketches of Quincy Illinois, p 170-172: (paraphrased) "One of the worst fires in Quincy history was the "wholesale row" fire Feb 21, 1894. 3 large 3-story buildings housing the Sommer-Lynd Drug Co., the Reliable Incubator Co. and the Nichols & Sinnock Co. were burning and as they tried to put it out, the water would freeze before it could reach the flames. This happened on the west side of 3rd St. between Hampshire & Vermont."

taken from his grandson Robert C. Wells

"JW used to get Sunday "headaches" that would keep him from going to church. He remembers one time when JW took a piece of his toast, dunked it into his coffee and reached over, handing it to young Robert - BOY did he get yelled at by his wife for giving coffee to such a young person. JW was called "Big Daddy" and Fannie was called "Monie" by grandkids.

from Bill Sinnock in letter to Mary Hill Sinnock

NICHOLS & SINNOCK The fact that Nichols & Sinnock conduct an extensive manufacturing department in connection with their wholesale notion business is an advantage of no small importance to the patrons of this large and widely known house. All lines of goods which they handle are bought direct from the manufacturers, and they are therefore enabled to sell them at the lowest possible prices. The Gem City overalls, pants, shirts and duck lined coats and other goods in this line are the products of their extensive factory. In material and workmanship, they are everywhere regarded as standard. Each garment is rigidly inspected before it is sent out and is therefore fully guaranteed. The Gem City brand has come to be regarded as a guarantee of excellence. Dealers who handle these goods have no hesitancy in recommending them to their customers, knowing that they will give the most satisfactory service. They are sold very largely throughout the west and the demand for them is increasing constantly. Many special lines are handled by Nichols & Sinnock in their notion department, notably knit goods, hosiery, furnishing goods, buck gloves, etc. Their stock of notions is as large and as fully assorted as will be found in any of the larger cities. It comprises everything pertaining to the wholesale notions business. During their long business experience in the jobbing trade in Quincy, the members of this firm have become widely known and they are recognized as enterprising, representative merchants."

Notes for Frances Mayo Pomeroy Nichols:

Apparently Fannie appears twice in the 1940 census, first in Quincy, Illinois on April 3 (probably, the date is left blank on the census form but the previous page is dated April 3) and April 4 more than 1000 miles away in El Portal, Florida. Seems impossible to me, unless perhaps she took a then rare airplane trip.

Daughter, Ellen, was born during an earthquake. The room was shaking and objects on the mantle were rattling. Monie (Fannie May Sinnock) wanted to know why the doctor was trembling.

Mary Hill Sinnock, abt 1975

Frances is the individual that links the Sinnock family to the Pomeroy family through her mother, Frances Mayo Pomeroy, great great ever so great granddaughter of Henry de La Pomerai, son-in-law of Henry I, King of England

One of Monie's favorite poems: Confession by Frank Dempster Sherman (from C.F. Wells, 1998

When I was young I made a vow
To keep youth in my heart as long
As there were birds upon the To gladden me with song.

To learn what lesson life might give
To do my duty as I saw
To love my friends and laugh and live
Not holding death in awe.

So all my lyrics sing of joy
And shall until my lips are mute
In old age happy as the boy
To whom God gave the lute.

Notes for Charles Travis Hewes:

From the Hewes and Hayes Family Tree at Ancestry.com, taken from "Quincy and Adams County History and Representative Men" The Lewis Publishing Company, Chicago and New York 1919.

"Charles T. Hewes. Active in his profession as a doctor of dental surgery for over thirty-five years, Doctor Hewes has had honors and distinctions corresponding to the length of his professional service. He has been prominent as an official of the Adams-Hancock County Dental Society, is well known to the members of the state organization as a regular attendant at its meetings and frequently on the program for the reading of technical papers, and has attended many conventions of the national association, including that held at Chicago in 1918.

Doctor Hewes graduated from the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery at Philadelphia with the class of 1880. Even in the field of general medicine the advance and progress has not been so great since that time as in dental surgery, and with that advance Doctor Hewes has kept pace by constant study and contact with the leading men of his vocation. On graduating he returned to his old home at Payson in Adams County, where he practiced until 1887. Since then for thirty years he had had his offices in Quincy, and for the past fifteen years he has had offices in the Sterns Building.

Doctor Hewes, who was born at Payson in Adams County June 18, 1857, represents two very well known families of pioneer times, the Hewes and Avises. Doctor Hewes is of Welsh ancestry. His parents were George and Sarah A. (Avise) Hewes, both natives of New Jersey, the latter born about twenty miles from Philadelphia. In 1836 George Hewes and wife came West, making the trip by the Ohio and Mississippi rivers to Quincy. One of the incidents he often told of his first experiences at Quincy was being offered a corner lot at Fifth and Maine Streets for a hundred dollars. After a year he took his family to Hancock county, and had his home near the Mormon settlement. Occasionally a letter arrived from his people back in New Jersey and it cost the price of a bushel of wheat, twenty-five cents, to get such a letter from the postoffice. George Hewes subsequently returned to Quincy, and in the early '40s went to Payson, where his services as a blacksmith were in great demand. He was first employed there to fix up the windmill that ground the grain for the community. The residents desiring the local services of a blacksmith agreed to move his goods from Quincy to Payson as an inducement for his location. For many years he followed his trade, but finally retired to a farm near Payson and died there in the spring of 1877. He was born in January, 1812, and his wife was born in September of the same year and lived ten years longer, passing away in 1887.

Both the Hewes and the Avise families in New Jersey were Episcopalians of the low church branch. When Jess Avise came to Quincy in the early '30s, he was one of the most active leaders in establishing a low Episcopal Church, and he and his daughter, Mrs. George Hewes, were charter members of that church, now known as St. John's. Some of the early services of this church were held in Mr. Avise's house. Jesse Avise was the first vestryman.

Doctor Hewes was one of a large family of brothers and sisters. His brother Rev. M. A. Hewes, who was born in Quincy, entered the ministry of the Methodist Church and had a long and active career. He died in 1914, leaving a family. The second of the family was Mrs. Rebecca Kay, who lives with her family at Los Angeles. Samuel E. Hewes was a soldier in the Civil War from 1861 to 1864, afterwards was a merchant and farmer at Payson, and finally died at Quincy, where his widow and daughter still live. Sarah E. is the wife of William McK. Gooding, a retired Methodist minister at Champaign, Illinois. George, Jr., is a farmer in Western Kansas and is married and has a family.

Doctor Hewes married at Payson Mary E. Sinnock, who was born there and grew up in that community. Doctor and Mrs. Hewes have five children. Clarence Avise is a graduate of the Quincy Hight School, of Illinois University in the civil engineering course, and is now connected with the engineering department of the Missouri Pacific Railway, with headquarters at Kansas City. He married May Goodwin, of Sedalia, Missouri, and their children are Charles and Helen. Floyd S., the second son, is a graduate of the Quincy High School and the State University, taking the civil engineering course at the same time with his brother and is now a civil engineer with the Santa Fe Railway stationed at Amarillo, Texas. He married Rena Middaugh, and they have a daughter, Martha Louise. Charles K., third son, graduated from the Quincy High School in 1908, from Illinois University in 1912, and specializing in chemistry, was given his master's degree in 1914. He is now chief superintendent of the General Petroleum Company at Los Angeles, California. He married Marjorie Kilburn, of Rockford, Illinois, a graduate of Rockford College and Illinois State University. Louis E. Hewes is a graduate of high school and of Lombard College at Galesburg with the class of 1918. The youngest of the family, Mildred, is a graduate of high school and normal school and for three years has been a teacher in the Quincy public schools. All the family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Vermont Street. Doctor Hewes is affiliated with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of which he is a past grand, and with the Modern Woodmen of America. Politically he is a republican."

Residence Notes:

The timing of changes between residences in Quincy and Brookfield is uncertain. George is in the 1880 and 1900 census from Brookfield, but in 1890 is listed as living in the Quincy Directory for 1887 to 1890. Perhaps he moved back and forth between the towns more than once or perhaps he was on a sales or other purpose trip to Brookfield in 1880 and/or 1900.

Generation 11 (con't)

Hattie J. Callaway^{2, 100, 219, 442, 709, 739-740, 765-771, 1200} lived in Tallula, Menard, Illinois, USA in 1880 at (Gates Street^{100, 769}). She was buried in Quincy, Adams, Illinois, USA (Woodland Cemetery, Block 18, Lot 49, granite marker⁷⁶⁸). Image: (family home photograph, tombstone photograph, cemetery map, descendant tree¹²⁰⁰)

Notes for Hattie J. Callaway:

In 1880 Hattie lived with her family of mother and father, five sisters, Lue E., 19, Julia K., 13, Mollie B., 11, Lillie L., 6, and Frank H., 2m (listed as a daughter), and one brother, Charles W., 9, all born in Illinois.

Janet Kimble Sinnock provided an ancestry of Hattie that included Hattie's grandfather, Samuel Barnard Callaway, great grandfather, William Dudley Callaway, and gg grandfather, Edmund Callaway and then extended the line to Flanders Callaway who married Jemima Boone, Daniel of Kentucky fame's daughter. I was able to find on the Callaway Family Association website the same line from Hattie through her father, not her grandfather, Samuel Barnard, to William Dudley and Edmund as in Janet's ancestry, but there the sources differ. The Callaway Family Association site indicates that Edmund, the ancestor of Hattie, is Flander's brother, not his son, so Hattie is not a direct descendant of Flanders and Jemima Boone, so not a direct descendant of Daniel Boone.

In the Royals, Viking, Romans, and Gods database William is the 4th great grandson of Edward III, King of England and his wife, Phillipa de Hainault. In the Sinnocks and Kin database he is the 4th great grandfather of Rebecca Bryan, wife of Daniel Boone, whose daughter, Jemima, married Flanders Callaway, whose brother Edmund is the great grandfather of Hattie J. Callaway, wife of George E. Sinnock, son of George Sinnock my 2nd great grandfather.

Birth Notes:

The Ralph Eugene Leirheimer Family Tree on Ancestry.com gives Hattie's birth as in 1864 in Tullula, Menard Co., Illinois; the 1940 census also indicates an Illinois birth.

First name of "Melvina" is given in Thomas Sinnock's family history; "Melcella" in the 1910 census, when she lived as the Mother-in-law of T. H. Engle, then married to Myrtle Sinnock, the daughter of her previous husband, James Price Sinnock, by Mabel Ballinger; and Melcena or perhaps Milcina in the 1860 census living with her parents. The 1910 listing as T. H. Engle's mother-in-law, might better be "step-mother-in-law". I chose here to go with "Melcena" a compromise version of the earliest and later versions, consistent with Ancestry.com's spelling transcription of the 1860 census.

Notes for William Pike Sinnock:

It appears that two brothers, William P. and Robert Letton Sinnock inherited the Sinnock wanderlust and both migrated to the Blythe, California area, perhaps even going together, or one going first and the other joining later. Robert and his wife, Margaret Kell Sinnock, both made the move to California. Other Sinnocks in the 1920's, including Thomas L. from Ohio, also, it appears, pursued the California dream and migrated to the golden state in pursuit of jobs, wealth, adventure, fame, all of the above, or none of the above, whatever has drawn people to California since the 1840's gold rush. Have you been there? It is quite magical, you know.

Notes for John Ray Sinnock:

John Ray Sinnock has achieved perhaps the greatest notoriety of any Sinnock. As Chief Engraver of the Philadelphia Mint, he designed the Roosevelt Dime, Franklin Half Dollar, and sculpted model used for the Purple Heart military medal, among others. His obituaries and numerous internet sites mentions several other medals designed by John as well as sculpted metallic portraits from life of several presidents and other famous people. John has been associated with several "controversies, none of his making and both based on false beliefs. The obituary in an unknown paper indicates some "wags" spread a rumor that the initials "JS" for John Sinnock at the base Roosevelt's neck on the dime actually stood for "Joseph Stalin.", thereby revealing a communist conspiracy deep within the government. This rumor persisted for a long time. Another "controversy" surrounds the design of the Roosevelt Dime as follows:

from The E-Sylum: Volume 9, Number 6, February 5, 2006, Article 16

SELMA BURKE DID NOT CREATE ROOSEVELT DIME

"Last week's featured E-Sylum website recycled the Selma Burke controversy that she - not John R. Sinnock-designed the Roosevelt Dime portrait. It is time to put this false claim to rest once and for all. I have examined enlarged photographs of both FDR portraits. Both are round, with similar view of the president, both face the same way and both are in modulated bas-relief. That is the extent of the similarity. If you examine minor points of the placement of features, the characteristics of the ear and hair plus the eyebrows you will learn, as I have, that Sinnock's design is 100 percent original, that he did the dime model entirely without any influence of Selma Burke's bas-relief model. I must admit I did not do an even more conclusive test - an overlay of photographic negatives both to the same scale. That would improve the odds of proving Sinnock's original creation I'm sure.

Burke was a talented sculptor, educator and her portrait of the 32nd president is exquisite. But it is NOT the portrait which was placed on the Roosevelt dime. Burke was a New Year's baby, born either December 31st or January 1st, she was unsure of the year (1900 or 1907, sic!). Her study of sculpture had brought her commissions executed prior to World War II. She had lectured widely on African art. Following the war, when the Roosevelt dime first appeared in 1946, Burke began making claims the work was hers. Black publications ran this as gospel. Art publications were more skeptical. But numismatic publications continued to flame the controversy. Breen mentions Burke in his section on the Roosevelt Dime in his Complete Encyclopedia (p 329-30). Numismatic author, and KP editor in Iola, Bob Van Ryzin ran a factual account in Numismatic News, November 30, 1993, two years before Burke's death in 1995. The worst account, perhaps, was the book "Notable Black American Women" by Jesse Carney Smith (published in 1992 by the reference book house, Gale Research) which gave Burke the entire credit and did not even mention Sinnock. Until we read the final word in the numismatic masterwork on Sinnock's coin and medal creations, by N. Neil Harris (former editor of The Numismatist), we should stop being politically correct and nice-nice and hang up this false claim. I couldn't resist, however, taking a peek at Neil's manuscript to read that Gilroy Roberts assisted Sinnock in the modeling of this coin design. The controversy, thus, is not two white men versus one black woman, it's facts versus false claim."

She was employed as a Office Worker, Bookkeeper, Wholesale Millinary between 1930-1940⁷⁵². Marriage Notes: (Hester A.)

In the 1930 census, Lois is listed as a roomer with Hester A. Clark, in 1940 Louis is listed as Hester's "partner". I suspect Lois and Hester were very early lesbian rights advocates, enough so to admit a "partnership" in 1940 which was hidden in the term "roomer" in 1930.

He married Charlotte Rebecca Chandler, daughter of George Chandler and Mary Anne (Chandler) ?, on 17 Dec 1893 in Bermondsey, Southwark, London, England (St. Mary Magdalen^{70, 85, 869}). He married Millicent Ellen Louise Lamborn, daughter of Henry Lamborn and Louisa George, on 24 Nov 1901 in London City, London, England (St. Stephen's, Coleman Street^{70, 72, 85}). She was born or baptized about 1878 in Clevedon, Somerset, England^{68, 70, 277, 869, 1299-1300}. She died about Sep 1934 in Rochford, Essex, England⁶⁸.

She died on 02 Jul 1964 in Surrey North Eastern District, Surrey, England^{68, 117, 479}. She married Walter John Harding, son of George Harding and Ann Keeping, on 25 Jul 1898 in Camberwell District, Southwark, London, England^{70, 85, 479}. - ix. LOUISA SINNOCK⁸⁶⁵ was born or baptized about 1880 in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England⁸⁶⁵.

Louisa Sinnock⁸⁶⁵ lived in Peckham, Southwark, London, England in 1901 at (14 Bournemouth Road⁸⁶⁵). She was employed as a Ironer in 1901⁸⁶⁵.
- x. CHARLOTTE ELLEN SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Mar 1881 in Camberwell District, Southwark, London, England¹¹⁹. She died about Mar 1881 in Camberwell District, Southwark, London, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Charlotte Ellen Sinnock:

I assume Charlotte was a daughter of Alfred and Emma because of birth location and time, though 6 years after Emma's previous child.

- xi. KATE ELEANOR ADA SINNOCK^{68, 865} was born or baptized on 11 Sep 1881 in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England^{68, 865}. She died about Mar 1972 in Stepney, Tower Hamlets, London, England⁶⁸.

Kate Eleanor Ada Sinnock^{68, 865} lived in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England in 1901 at (14 Bournemouth Road⁸⁶⁵).

She was employed as a Ironer, Sheets in 1901⁸⁶⁵.

Frederick Sinnock^{85, 154, 865} lived in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England in 1901 at (14 Bournemouth Road⁸⁶⁵).
Travel: 24 Mar 1911 (Port Aux Basques, Newfoundland, Canada to Quebec, Montreal, Canada aboard ship "Vancouver"¹⁵⁴)

Notes for Catherine Pile:

I assume Katherine Sinnock who died in 1925 in Bromley is the same as Catherine Pile who married Frederick Sinnock in Bromley in 1914.

Elizabeth Goody^{70, 85, 865} lived in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England in 1898 at (8 Peckham Road⁷⁰). She lived in Camberwell, Southwark, London, England in 1901 at (14 Bournemouth Road⁸⁶⁵).

Notes for Elizabeth Goody:

I assume Elizabeth Sinnock who lived as a widow with children in Camberwell in 1901 and Elizabeth Goody who lived with Peckham in 1911 with Henry Goody, 40, a son probably by a previous marriage, is the same person as Elizabeth Goody who married Alfred William Sinnock in Camberwell in 1898 because of the rarity of the last name, the Camberwell location, identical birth years, and the fact that Alfred died in 1899 so she would and did appear in the census as a widow.

428. WILLIAM THOMAS¹¹ SINNOCK (William¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{68, 70, 85, 117, 119, 140, 315, 476, 866-869} was born or baptized about Sep 1851 in Chatham, Kent, England^{68, 119, 140, 315, 476, 866-869}. He lived in Mile End Old Town, Tower Hamlets, London, England in 1871 at (5 Burdette Road³¹⁵). He was employed as a Laborer, Shop Assistant in 1871³¹⁵. He was employed as a Laborer, Shopman in 1873⁷⁰. He lived in Tower Hamlets, London, England in 1881 at (12 Dee Street⁸⁶⁷). He was employed as a Laborer, Stevedore in 1881⁸⁶⁷. He lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1916 at (15 Edgar Road, Cliftonville Boarding House¹¹⁷). He was buried in Lambeth, London, England (Norwood Cemetery, Norwood Road¹⁴⁰).

Notes for William Thomas Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives William's birth location as the Medway District which encompasses Chatham where the census data indicate he was born.

Hannah Williams^{68, 70, 85, 140, 866-868} lived in Tower Hamlets, London, England in 1881 at (12 Dee Street⁸⁶⁷). She was employed as a Keeping House (Housewife) in 1881⁸⁶⁷. She lived in Willesden, Brent, London, England in 1891 at (Kilborn Lane Boarding School⁸⁶⁸). She lived in Lambeth, London, England in 1901 at (Boarding School caretaker's house⁸⁶⁶).

Notes for Hannah Williams:

The 1891 census gives her birth place as Charlton, Kent

William Thomas Sinnock and Hannah Williams had the following child:

- i. LUCY¹² SINNOCK^{866, 868} was born or baptized in 1886 in Greenwich, London, England (Greenwich District^{866, 868}).

Lucy Sinnock^{866, 868} lived in Willesden, Brent, London, England in 1891 at (Kilborn Lane Boarding School⁸⁶⁸). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1891⁸⁶⁸. She lived in Lambeth, London, England in 1901 at (Boarding School caretaker's house⁸⁶⁶).

Margaret Mary Watson^{85, 117, 869} lived in Brixton, Lambeth, London, England in 1911 at (63 Wiltshire Road⁸⁶⁹). She lived in Margate, Kent, England in 1916 at (15 Edgar Road, Cliftonville Boarding House¹¹⁷).

Notes for Margaret Mary Watson:

Death Notes:

Margaret Mary Sinnock is a partial recipient of Cordelia Martha Mary Sinnock estate, identified as a spinster, because her husband William died earlier. Her middle name "Mary" is obtained from Cordelia Martha Mary Sinnock's (her sister-in-law) entry in the England and Wales National Probate Calendar. However, the reference may be to her presumed daughter, Margaret Mary Sinnock, born in 1905, so Margaret may have no known middle name.

William Thomas Sinnock and Margaret Mary Watson had the following children:

- ii. MARGARET MARY SINNOCK^{68, 119, 869} was born or baptized on 12 Aug 1905 in Streatham, Lambeth, London, England (Wandsworth District^{68, 119, 869}). She died in Nov 1990 in Thanet District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Margaret Mary Sinnock^{68, 119, 869} lived in Brixton, Lambeth, London, England in 1911 at (63 Wiltshire Road⁸⁶⁹).

Notes for Margaret Mary Sinnock:

I assume Margaret Mary Sinnock born in Wandsworth in 1905 is the daughter of William Thomas Sinnock and Margaret Mary Watson married in Lambeth in 1905 because of the rarity of the last name, the same first and middle name as her assumed mother (odd I know), geographic proximity (Wandsworth is adjacent to Lambeth), and compatible age, just a year after her assumed parent's marriage

- iii. WINIFRED LUCY SINNOCK^{68, 119, 869} was born or baptized on 03 Sep 1910 in Lambeth, London, England^{68, 119, 869}. She died in Jan 1992 in Thanet District, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Winifred Lucy Sinnock^{68, 119, 869} lived in Brixton, Lambeth, London, England in 1911 at (63 Wiltshire Road⁸⁶⁹).

429. SYDNEY JAMES¹¹ SINNOCK (Alfred¹⁰, James⁹, John⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 7, 18, 20, 31, 68, 85, 119, 290, 351, 482-483, 622} was born or baptized on 05 Nov 1878 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{7, 20, 68, 119, 290, 351, 482-483, 622}. He died on 26 Nov 1956 in Worthing District, West Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 68}). He married Amy Elizabeth Osborn, daughter of David William Osborn and Angelina (Osborn) ?, on 04 Feb 1901 in Lewes, East Sussex, England (St. Anne's Parish^{85, 483, 622}). She was born or baptized about Sep 1877 in Pershore, Worcestershire, England (Upton on Severn District^{68, 119, 482-483, 871}). She died on 30 Jan 1947 in Worthing District, West Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 68}).

Sydney James Sinnock^{5, 7, 18, 20, 31, 68, 85, 119, 290, 351, 482-483, 622} was baptized on 05 Jan 1879 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{5, 20}. He lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1881 at (13 Regent Hill²⁹⁰). He lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (136 High Street³⁵¹). He was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1891³⁵¹. He lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (Western Cottages⁴⁸²). He was employed as a Civil Servant, Postman, Telegraphist and Sorting Clerk between 1901-1915^{482-483, 622}. He served in the military between 1902-1908 (Royal Army, Sussex Volunteers⁶²²). He lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England between 1911-1915 at (54 Leicester Road^{483, 622}). He served in the military on 10 Dec 1915 (World War I, Royal Army, Engineers Signal Section reenlistment⁶²²). Image: (signature⁶²²) He was described as 5 ft 8⁶²² in. He was buried in Lewes, East Sussex, England (St. Anne's, Tombstone H03⁷).

Notes for Sydney James Sinnock:

Sydney is listed here as the father of five assumed children, shown here as siblings. All five were born in the Lewes District (which includes many villages known to have been lived in by Sinnocks at the time) in the early 1900's according to the Civil Registration Index of Births, though no parentage information is known for any of these six people. However, Sydney married Amy Osborne in Lewes just as these people were beginning to be born in Lewes. Because of their overlapping birth registration dates, it is likely that at least two, or at most three, separate Sinnock families had children in the Lewes District at this time. So at least several, perhaps, but not likely, all of the five individuals listed as children of this individual were indeed siblings.

Amy Elizabeth Osborn^{7, 68, 85, 119, 482-483, 622, 871} lived in Worcester, Worcestershire, England in 1891 at (Lowesmoor, St. Martin⁸⁷¹). She lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (Western Cottages⁴⁸²). She lived in Hyde, Cheshire, England in 1911 at (57 Edwards Road¹³⁰⁴). She was employed as a Laborer, Leather Machinist in 1911¹³⁰⁴. She lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England between 1911-1915 at (54 Leicester Road^{483, 622}). She was buried in Lewes, East Sussex, England (St. Anne's, Tombstone H03⁷).

	(east)	Edith Mary Sinnock, January 11, 1903, 19 mo. "By Cross to Crown Jesus Called"

In 1891 Amy lived with her parents and three sisters, Ethel, 9, Lillian, 8, and Mary, 5, all born in Worcestershire. In 1911 she lived with them again, as a 33 year old with the married name "Lane", having been married 2 years at the time. Amy may have divorced Sydney after having 7 of his children, and perhaps re-married in about 1909, just two years after Sydney and her last child, Marjorie was born in 1907; however Amy was buried with Sydney as if she had been a life-long wife.

She may have been counted twice in the 1911 census, once in Lewes, Sussex and again in Hyde, Cheshire, much too far away for a day's train ride.

Sydney James Sinnock and Amy Elizabeth Osborn had the following children:

- i. LAURA ELIZABETH¹² SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Jun 1901 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England¹¹⁹. She died about Jun 1901 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Laura Elizabeth Sinnock:

Generation 11 (con't)

Apparently Laura and Beatrice were twins who both died at birth or shortly after.

- ii. BEATRICE SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Jun 1901 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England^{68, 119}. She died about Jun 1901 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England⁶⁸.
- iii. EDITH MARY SINNOCK^{7, 68, 119} was born or baptized about Sep 1901 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England^{7, 68, 119}. She died on 11 Jan 1903 in Lewes, East Sussex, England (Burial date is used as the death date^{7, 68}).

Edith Mary Sinnock^{7, 68, 119} was buried in Lewes, East Sussex, England (St. Anne's, Tombstone H037).

He died in Jan 1990 in Plymouth, Devon, England⁶⁸. He married Marjorie Jessie Frost on 27 Jun 1931 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{85, 1303}. - v. MARJORIE SINNOCK^{85, 119, 483} was born or baptized on 17 Sep 1907 in Lewes, East Sussex, England (St. Anne's^{119, 483, 622}). She died before 1998⁵². She married Stanley W. J. Green about Mar 1943 in Barton District, Lancashire, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1905²³. He died before 1995⁵².

Marjorie Sinnock^{85, 119, 483} lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1911 at (54 Leicester Road⁴⁸³).

- 430. HERBERT CHARLES¹¹ SINNOCK (Alfred¹⁰, James⁹, John⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{18, 68, 85, 119, 482-483, 622} was born or baptized on 07 Dec 1892 in Lewes, East Sussex, England (St. Anne's Parish^{68, 119, 482-483, 622}). He died in Feb 1987 in Brighton, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Violet Lillian Castle about Sep 1923 in Lewes District, East Sussex, England⁸⁵. She was born or baptized on 22 Jul 1893⁶⁸. She died about Mar 1975 in Bristol, Gloucestershire, England⁶⁸.

Herbert Charles Sinnock^{18, 68, 85, 119, 482-483, 622} lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (4 Neville Road, St. Anne's⁴⁸²). He lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England between 1911-1915 at (48 Leicester Road^{483, 622}). He was employed as a Clerk between 1911-1915^{483, 622}. He served in the military on 04 Jan 1911 (World War I, Royal Army, Enlistment, Field Artillery⁶²²). Image: (signature⁶²²) He was described as 5 ft 8⁶²² in.

Notes for Herbert Charles Sinnock:

I assume Herbert and Violet had several children in southern Sussex in the 1920's and 1930's: Arthur Charles, b. 1924, Belinda J., b. 1929, Trevor A. R., m. 1953, Annie A., m. 1962, and Frank Herbert, b. 1936 because of rartiy of the last name, family first and middle names (Frank Herbert and Arthur Charles), proximity of births or marriages in the Hailsham - Lewes - Brighton area of southern Sussex, compatible ages, and no other known Sinnock families in the area at the time. Arthur Charles' birth index entry indicates his mother's maiden name was Castle, the same as Herbert C.'s bride in the marriage index. None of their other assumed children can yet be tied directly to Herbert and Violet.

Notes for Violet Lillian Castle:

Name Notes:

"Castle" is the maiden name of Arthur G. (C.) Sinnock's birth index entry

Herbert Charles Sinnock and Violet Lillian Castle had the following children:

He served in the military in 1911 (Royal Army, Sailmaker, A O Corps⁸⁸²).

Notes for Harry Sinnock:

I suspect Harry Sinnock who married Selina Smith in 1906 is the same person as Harry living in Newington in 1901 as a young lad out for adventure in the big city. However, in 1901 Harry reported a birth place of Brighton whereas John and Selina's son was, it seems, born in Wingham, Kent. Perhaps Harry reported the wrong place on purpose or misunderstood the question. Perhaps they are two different people.

Selina Edith Smith^{68, 119, 512, 882-883} lived in Deal, Kent, England in 1891 at (Locomotive Public House⁸⁸³). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1891⁸⁸³. In 1901, just Selina and Mary Ann lived with her parents, then in Wingham.

Notes for Kathleen L. Sinnock:

Kathleen's entries in the England and Wales Birth Index and the Civil Registration Index indicate her mother's maiden name was "Smith" and she was born in Dover. She may be the daughter of Ann Louisa Smith and her husband, William Sinnock. The births of all except one other of William and Ann's children were in the southeast area of London, contra-indicating that Kathleen is their daughter, except there is a connection to the Dover area in the birth of Ann

Name given in the 1991 census is "Ann", "Amy" in the Civil Registration Index of Births and the 1901 census. "Amy" in the 1901 census is given as born in 1884; Perhaps, Amy gave to the census takers an age of 19 rather than her true 17, perhaps to further a tale told her employer to secure her employment as a housemaid.

Notes for E. L. Sinnock:

The 1920 Hettinger County census lists a family of E. L. (first initials only) "Sinnock, Simmons, Sinmons, or Simond", alternative spellings on Ancestry.com. I believe the name is Sinnock. If so, I assume E. L., born about 1871 in Indiana, is a son of William and Anna of Massillon, Ohio, because the 1920 New England census indicates both E. L.'s parents were born in Ohio, and William and Anna are the only Sinnock couple of the right age in Ohio at that general time, though they were not married until 1877. So perhaps E. L. is illegitimate or from an earlier liaison of William, perhaps contributing to the reasons William left Ohio for Indiana to be with the mother when E. L. was born.

Notes for Thomas Lubolt Sinnock:

In the 1920's, it appears, Thomas, among other Sinnock men including William Pike from New Mexico, pursued the California dream and migrated to the golden state in pursuit of wealth, adventure, fame, all of the above, or none of the above. I believe Thomas, 24, born in Ohio, was counted in both the San Francisco and Massillon, Ohio 1910 census. To accomplish this feat, Thomas left Ohio after April 15, 1910 and arrived in California on April 21, 1910, a possible train trip at the time. Meanwhile, in Ohio, the census was taken on April 19, when John W. and Jane, Thomas parents, reported Thomas was there on April 15, the date when people were "reported" to be at that location, not where they were on the actual date of the census. Then in California, he was there on April 21, staying at the Miles Hotel having just arrived. In both census entries Thomas is identified as a telephone technician, further cementing the fact these entries are for the same person. All hotel residents were processed in what appears to be a line, the census form is the same spacing and legibility for all residents and if they speak English or come from England the fact was stamped, not written on the census form, the only example of this "stamping" I have seen. Residents of the hotel were from all over the USA and many were foreign, so I believe the census takers processed residents in a systematic way, but because of language barriers did not ask if they were somewhere else a week ago. So, Thomas was counted again, processed quickly with all other hotel lodgers.

Name Notes:

Thomas and his family's last name are read as "Surnock" by Ancestry.com, but their accessible image of the original could be interpreted as either Sinnock, Sinmook or Surnock. I suspect the name "Surnock" is correct. The family is left in the database as "Sinnocks" though I doubt any relations to other Sinnock will show up. However, the death of Kathryn E. Sinnock, born 8 Dec 1913 from the Social Security Death Index, died on 18 Jun 2009 seems an almost certain match for Thomas' daughter, Kathryn E. born about 1914 in Indiana, seeming to link the family name to "Sinnock". Again, however, that death date has also been associated with Katherine Elizabeth Thale who married James Thomas Sinnock and was born 8 Dec 1903. The 1903 - 1913 discrepancy assumed to be a one digit error on either end, In

In 1871 Elizabeth lived with her parents four brothers, James, 14, William, 11, Henry, 4, and John, 1, one sister, Matilda, 6, all born in Canterbury and a grandmother, Elizabeth Streeting, 52, born in Ireland. In 1881, she was living a servant in town at another house but her family continued living together in Canterbury, adding Thomas, 9, Fred R., 7, Mary Ann, 5, and Ellen, 2, as her siblings.

Henry John Sinnock^{68, 109, 119} was baptized on 14 Dec 1884 in Canterbury, Kent, England¹⁰⁹.

Notes for Henry John Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

I assume Henry was born in Canterbury, where all his siblings were born, though the Civil Registration Index of Births list the nearby, perhaps coincident, Blean District as his birth place.

672. iii. FREDERICK JOHN SINNOCK^{68, 109, 119, 365, 914, 1315} was born or baptized about Dec 1886 in Chillham, Kent, England (Canterbury District^{68, 119, 365, 914, 1315}). Todd, on 25 Dec 1909 in Canterbury, Kent, England (St. Alphage^{85, 915}). He was born or baptized in 1884 in Canterbury, Kent, England^{68, 109, 365, 915}. - vi. ADA MARGARET SINNOCK^{68, 119, 914} was born or baptized in 1894 in Canterbury, Kent, England^{68, 119, 914}. She died about Nov 1902 in Canterbury, Kent, England⁶⁸.

- viii. ALICE WINIFRED SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Jun 1898 in Canterbury, Kent, England^{68, 119}. She died about Dec 1898 in Canterbury, Kent, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Alice Winifred Sinnock:

I assume Alice is a daughter of Alfred and Elizabeth because she was born in Canterbury where all other of their children were born, and she was born in 1898, during a gap in the other children's birth dates, particularly Harold, b. 1896, and then Emily, b. 1900. Having died as an infant, she does not appear in the 1901 census of Canterbury.

- ix. EMILY MARGARET SINNOCK^{68, 119, 914, 917} was born or baptized about Mar 1900 in Canterbury, Kent, England^{119, 914, 917}. She died about Sep 1918 in Barton District, Lancashire, England⁶⁸.

Emily Margaret Sinnock^{68, 119, 914, 917} lived in Canterbury, Kent, England in 1901 at (1 New Church Cottages, St. Mary's Northgate⁹¹⁴). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1911⁹¹⁷. She lived in Canterbury, Kent, England in 1911 at (1 Cobden Place⁹¹⁷).

- xi. IVY MAY SINNOCK^{68, 119, 917} was born or baptized on 20 Sep 1904 in Canterbury, Kent, England^{68, 119, 917}. She died about Sep 1980 in Oswestry, Shropshire, England⁶⁸.

Generation 11 (con't)

Ivy May Sinnock^{68, 119, 917} lived in Canterbury, Kent, England in 1911 at (1 Cobden Place⁹¹⁷). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1911⁹¹⁷.

Notes for Ivy May Sinnock:

I assume Ivy of the Civil Registration Index of Births is the daughter of Alfred and Elizabeth because she was born in Canterbury where all their other children were born and because she was born in 1904 just two years after the oldest child besides Ivy. However, Ivy, and perhaps Lillian, may be the earliest born to another Sinnock family in Canterbury at that time, namely Alfred Henry Sinnock and Jean (?) rather than last born to Alfred John and Elizabeth 459. HENRY¹¹ SINNOCK (John¹⁰, John⁹, Henry⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{70, 72, 85, 109, 112, 119, 220, 481, 535-536, 539, 541, 918-922} was born or baptized on 29 Oct 1861 in Margate, Kent, England (3 Anderson Building, High Street, Margate Bay^{70, 109, 119, 220, 481, 535-536, 541, 922}). She was born or baptized on 10 Jul 1864 in Spitalfields, Tower Hamlets, London, England (23 Hope Street^{70, 109, 481, 923-924}). She died on 07 Sep 1901 in Bethnal Green, Tower Hamlets, London, England (22 Satchwell Street Infirmary^{68, 109}).

His cause of death was heart disease, arterio sclerosis and syncope¹⁰⁹. Image: (birth certificate, death certificate⁵³⁹)

Notes for Henry Sinnock:

From Lesley Miller's GEDCOM:

"I bought his death certificate and still am no closer to knowing whether or not it is my Henry (this Henry is not her ancestor). This is the only death registration between 1901 and 1919 for Henry Sinnock. The age is incorrect but that doesn't mean a lot when notification isn't made by a family member [even they get it wrong].

Death Jun 1912, Sinnock Henry, 58, Medway 2a 726, Home address on Death Certificate is 38 Wyle's Street, Gillingham (Farm Labourer), Cause of death: (i) Arterio Sclerosis (ii) Syricope"

The age on the apparent death certificate is correct for a different Henry than Lesley's ancestor who was born in 1861, namely this Henry Sinnock born about 1854 to unknown parents according to the Civil Registration Index of Deaths that also shows his death in the June quarter of 1912.

Henry was a Drayman in 1891 and 1901 Census, but listed as a Policeman (deceased) on daughter's marriage certificate in 1919. My mother was told by her mother, that her father had gone to Australia [New South Wales] as a Policeman but had to come back to England. I cannot find a death entry for him in the English records. There are only three Sinnock deaths that I can see in the Australian records and none are my Henry. Frustrating. I looked for passengers going to and from Australia but of course, none of this helps either as I can't find a Death registration in Oz for him.

Generation 11 (con't)

- i. ARTHUR HORACE¹² SINNOCK¹¹⁹ was born or baptized about Jun 1886 in Paddington, Westminster, London, England¹¹⁹.

Notes for Arthur Horace Sinnock:

I assume Arthur born in 1886 parents unknown according to the Civil Registration Index of births is the son of Edward and Fanny because of his birth in the same location as their other son, William, in 1893, though Arthur was born when Fanny would have been but 13, six years before her marriage with Edward. Another family of William and Caroline Sinnock also had a child, Bertram Charles, in Paddington at the same time, 1886; however the 1911 Highbury census indicated Caroline, then a widow, had only one child, who died before 1911. I suspect, Edward and Fanny had Arthur as youngsters, went about their training while grandparents (Sinnock or Powell) raised Arthur until they finally married in 1892, while Fanny was again pregnant and unmarried, William, born two months later, also in Paddington. Conjecture, conjecture, such great conjecture from such little fact.

678. ii. EDWARD WILLIAM SINNOCK^{85, 119, 306, 634, 643, 653, 782, 841, 902, 933, 935, 1325-1329} was born or baptized on 29 Jan 1893 in Paddington, Westminster, London, England^{119, 306, 643, 653, 782, 841, 902, 933, 935, 1326-1327}. Notes for James John Sinnock:

I assume James John, of whom no record is known to me before the 1911 census, is a son of William and Mary East because of shared childrens' names, Kathleen, Doris May, and Edward, and locations, Hertfordshire, especially Watford, with the family of Edward George, his assumed brother, and son of William and Mary from other sources. Thus it appears William and Mary may have moved to Hertfordshire in about 1870, after Marian was born, the last of many children born in Islington, London, and James John was born in St. Albans.

Generation 11 (con't)

Notes for Douglas Edward Sinnock:

I assume Douglas Edward Sinnock is the same as Douglas Frederick Sinnock who was buried in Israel in 1943 because of comptible age and matching first name, violating my rule of three independent criteria for presumed assignments

- iv. KATHLEEN MONA SINNOCK⁵⁴⁴ was born or baptized about 1904 in St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England⁵⁴⁴. She died before 1994 (Assumed to have died before age 90¹⁷⁴).

486. JAMES¹¹ SINNOCK (John¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 107, 119, 566} was born or baptized about Sep 1851 in Banstead, Surrey, England (Epsom District^{119, 566}). Notes for William James Sinnock:

In 1891 and 1901 William lived with Harriet Sinnock, his grandmother and her daughter, Ruth, Ruth, listed in the same household, may be Williams's mother, though, in 1911 William James lived with his "aunt" Ruth Sinnock. Either Ruth or a sibling of Ruth had a child, William James. I suspect, as recorded here, Ruth, a spinster, adopted and lived with the son of her brother James who died sometime before 1891. Harriet's other son, William could be William James' father, but he lived until 1930, so it is unlikely his son would live with his grandmother and aunt rather than with his father and mother, while William and his wife, Louisa, were alive.

487. WILLIAM¹¹ SINNOCK (John¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{68, 85, 119, 334, 566, 972-973} was born or baptized about Sep 1855 in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England^{68, 119, 334, 566, 972-973}. He died about Dec 1930 in Croydon, London, England⁶⁸. He married Louisa Weaver, daughter of Henry Weaver and Mary Ann (Weaver) ?, about Sep 1877 in Lambeth, London, England^{85, 973}. She was born or baptized about 1859 in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England^{334, 972-974}. She died about Mar 1912 in Kingston District, Kingston upon Thames, London, England⁶⁸.

Notes for William Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

The 1891 census gives his birth place as Mitchum, Surrey, and the Civil Registration Index of Births gives it as the Croydon District

Louisa Weaver^{68, 85, 334, 972-974} lived in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England in 1861 at (Amelia Cottage⁹⁷⁴). She lived in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England in 1881 at (Haydons Road, 2 Oakman Cottages³³⁴). She was employed as a Dressmaker in 1881³³⁴. In 1861 Louisa, 2, lived with her parents, two sisters, Maria, 11, and Emma, 9, and three brothers, Henry, 12, Frank, 6, and Walter 4, all born in Merton except Walter born in Wimbledon.

William Sinnock and Louisa Weaver had the following children:

692. i. ELEANOR¹² SINNOCK^{85, 119, 334, 972} was born or baptized about Mar 1878 in Wimbledon, Merton, London, England^{119, 334, 972}. She married Frederick Over, son of William Henry Over and Sarah Lamden, about Jun 1906 in Kingston upon Thames, London, England⁸⁵. Generation 11 (con't)

- ii. HORACE JOHN SINNOCK^{68, 119} was born or baptized about Mar 1885 in Kingston upon Thames, London, England^{68, 119}. He died about Jun 1885 in Kingston upon Thames, London, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Horace John Sinnock:

I assume Horace is a son of William and Lousia because of the rarity of the last name, compatible ages, geographic proximity in London, and the infant death of Horace so he would not appear in the censuses.

488. EMMA¹¹ SINNOCK (Thomas¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 85, 279, 342, 569} was born or baptized about Mar 1860 in Twineham, West Sussex, England^{5, 119, 279, 342, 569}. She married Frederick John Spillett about Jun 1887 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{18, 85}. He was born or baptized about 1863 in Chatham, Kent, England³⁴². He died about Jun 1911 in Cuckfield District, West Sussex, England⁶⁸.

Emma Sinnock^{5, 18, 85, 279, 342, 569} lived in Lewes, East Sussex, England in 1861 at (152 North Street, St. Thomas in the Cliffe²⁷⁹). She lived in Keymer, West Sussex, England in 1871 at (London Road⁵⁶⁹). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1871⁵⁶⁹. She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (18 Camden Terrace, St. Nicholas³⁴²).

Notes for Emma Sinnock:

I assume Emma married in 1887, Brighton, from Howard Sinnock's letter is the same person as Emma of Twineham in the census's because rarity of the name, compatible age, and proximity of Brighton.

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Emma's birth location as the Cuckfield District, which encompassed Twineham in 1860

Frederick John Spillett^{5, 68, 85, 342} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (18 Camden Terrace, St. Nicholas³⁴²). He was employed as a Servant, Hotel in 1891³⁴².

Frederick John Spillett and Emma Sinnock had the following child:

- i. ANNIE ETHEL¹² SPILLETT^{119, 342, 350} was born or baptized about Dec 1888 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{119, 342, 350}.

Annie Ethel Spillett^{119, 342, 350} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (18 Camden Terrace, St. Nicholas³⁴²). She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (5 Camden Terrace, boarder with widow Frogley, just up the street from the family home 10 years ago.³⁵⁰).

489. ROSA¹¹ SINNOCK (Thomas¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 85, 119, 342, 569} was born or baptized about Sep 1865 in Alfriston, East Sussex, England^{5, 18, 119, 342, 569}. She married Samuel Jeffrey Massey about Jun 1895 in Brighton, East Sussex, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1865²³.

Rosa Sinnock^{5, 18, 85, 119, 342, 569} lived in Keymer, West Sussex, England in 1871 at (London Road⁵⁶⁹). She was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1871⁵⁶⁹. She was employed as a Servant, Parlourmaid in 1891³⁴². She lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (18 Camden Terrace, St. Nicholas³⁴²).

Notes for Rosa Sinnock:

Rosa Sinnock married either Samuel Jeffrey Massey or William Jeffrey in 1895 according to the Civil Registration Index of Marriages. I assume Rosa's husband was Samuel because: four years earlier Rosa Sennick, 25, lived with an infant, Jeffry M. Sennick, 2 m, in Brighton with her sister Emma (Sinnock) and husband Frederick Spillett; Jeffrey Massey Sinnock born in 8 Dec 1890 and died in 1972 according to the Civil Registration Index of Deaths; Jeffrey Massey Sinnock was born in the first quarter 1891 according to the Civil Registration Index of Births. Accordingly, it seems Samuel Massey and Rosa, unmarried, had Jeffrey in 1891 who was given his mother's last name because she was unmarried, but she, or perhaps, they, added the father's name as a middle name. Four years later they apparently decided to make it legit, but Jeffrey Massey kept his mother's last name.

Name Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives her birth location as Eastbourne District, of which Alfriston is a part. Last name is spelled "Sinnick" in the 1891 Brighton census

Occupation Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Amelia's birth location as Eastry District of which Wingham is a part

Samuel Jeffrey Massey and Rosa Sinnock had the following child:

- i. JEFFREY MASSEY¹² SINNOCK^{68, 119, 342} was born or baptized on 08 Dec 1890 in Hammersmith and Fulham, London, England (Fulham District, Waltham Grove^{68, 119, 342}). He died about Mar 1972 in Hounslow, London, England⁶⁸.

Jeffrey Massey Sinnock^{68, 119, 342} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (18 Camden Terrace, St. Nicholas³⁴²).

Notes for Jeffrey Massey Sinnock:

Apparently Jeffrey Massey Sinnock was born to Samuel Jeffery

Birth Notes:

The 1891 Brighton census indicates a birth place of Matham Green, London

490. FRANK¹¹ SINNOCK (Thomas¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, William⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{5, 18, 68, 85, 119, 569, 622, 975-976} was born or baptized about Sep 1867 in Keymer, West Sussex, England (Cuckfield District^{18, 68, 119, 569, 622, 975-976}). He died about Jun 1942 in Worthing District, West Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Mary Ann Mitchell, daughter of John Mitchell and Jane (Mitchell) ?, about Sep 1892 in Cuckfield District, West Sussex, England^{5, 85, 976}. She was born or baptized in 1863 in Three Bridges, West Sussex,

Generation 11 (con't)

England^{659, 975-976}.

Frank Sinnock^{5, 18, 68, 85, 119, 569, 622, 975-976} lived in Keymer, West Sussex, England in 1871 at (London Road⁵⁶⁹). He lived in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England in 1901 at (3 Fairfield Cottages⁹⁷⁵). He was employed as a Bricklayer in 1901⁹⁷⁵. He was employed as a Gardener in 1911⁹⁷⁶. He lived in Lindfield, West Sussex, England between 1911-1915 at (Plummersden Laundry^{622, 976}). He served in the military on 19 Apr 1915 (World War I, Royal Army, Enlistment, Sussex Regiment⁶²²).

Notes for Frank Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

The 1901 and 1911 census and the IGI give Frank's birth location as Burgess Hill, West Sussex, adjacent to Keymer, given in the 1871 census, while the Civil Registration Index of Births gives the location as the Cuckfield District, which encompasses both Burgess Hill and Keymer.

Mary Ann Mitchell^{5, 85, 659, 975-976, 1348} lived in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England in 1891 at (15 Livingstone Road⁶⁵⁹). She was employed as a Laundress between 1891-1911^{659, 976}. She lived in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England in 1901 at (3 Fairfield Cottages⁹⁷⁵). She lived in Lindfield, West Sussex, England in 1911 at (Plummersden Laundry⁹⁷⁶).

Notes for Mary Ann Mitchell:

I assume John Mitchell and Jane of the 1881 Burgess Hill census are Mary Ann's parents because of the same last name, common Burgess Hill location, common birth locations (Three Bridges is adjacent to Copthorne), and compatible ages, but Mary Ann is not, and seemingly should be, listed with John and Jane's family in the 1881 Burgess Hill, Keymer census. However, Mary Lipscombe is listed as a daughter of John and Jane Mitchell in the 1891 Clayton census. If that is her family, she had in 1881 three sisters, Emily, 19, Harriett, 9, and Jane, 7, and four brothers, John, 11, Robert 5, William, 4, and Alfred, 2, all born in Copthorne, Sussex and living with their parents John and Jane, both born in Horsham.

Frank Sinnock and Mary Ann Mitchell had the following children:

- i. ROSE ANNIE¹² SINNOCK^{85, 119, 975} was born or baptized about Mar 1893 in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England^{119, 975}. She married Percy Bryant about Sep 1919 in Cuckfield District, West Sussex, England⁸⁵. He was born or baptized about 1890²³.

Rose Annie Sinnock^{85, 119, 975} lived in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England in 1901 at (3 Fairfield Cottages⁹⁷⁵).

Notes for Rose Annie Sinnock:

Birth Notes:

In the 1911 Wivelsfield census Rose reported her age as 20, perhaps she thought to keep her job

- ii. LILLIAN EMILY M. SINNOCK^{119, 975-976, 1348} was born or baptized on 05 Aug 1900 in Burgess Hill, West Sussex, England (Cuckfield District^{119, 975-976, 1348}). She died in Feb 1995 in West Sussex, England¹³⁴⁸. She married Alfred G. Heather in 1925¹³⁴⁸. He was born or baptized about 1900⁶.

He died about Dec 1959 in Brighton, East Sussex, England⁶⁸. He married Ruth Smith, daughter of William Smith and Sarah (Smith) ?, about Mar 1890 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{5, 85}. She was born or baptized about 1870 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{68, 290, 342, 350, 352}. She died about Jun 1954 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{68, 977}.

Notes for Ernest Flowers Sinnock:

I assume Ernest Flowers Sinnock was a brother of Alfred Flowers Sinnock because of rarity of the last name, the same middlename, the same birth place, and compatible birth times. Ernest is the progenitor of a clan of Sinnocs who lived in the Louisville area of Kentucky in the late 1800's to the current day (2015).

Migration Notes:

Ernest appears in the 1871 census in Hurstpierpoint, near where he was born in Brighton,

He lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1899 at (10 Lucerne Road¹⁰⁷).

Notes for John Julian Harvey Sinnock:

J.J. participated in raids. Unknown Sinnock from E. Harvey's letter assumed to be John J. Harvey Sinnock from Civil Registration Index of Births because of family name "Harvey", location in Brighton, and rarity of the name.

Name Notes:

Second middle name is spelled "Harney" in the IGI and U. K. City and County Directories, but I suspect "Harvey" is correct because of the family name.

Death Notes:

Apparently John was living with two of his nieces, Annie and Maggie, daughters of his brother, John, at the time of his death, perhaps they provided his terminal care.

Hannah Margaret Baker^{21, 68, 85, 107, 290, 342, 350, 976} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1881 at (48 Spring Gardens²⁹⁰). She lived in Lindfield, West Sussex, England in 1911 at (5 Pelham Place Cottages⁹⁷⁶).

Notes for Annie Isabella Sinnock:

I assume Annie E. Sinnock of the 1891 Yarkhill census is the same as Annie Isabella, born in Brighton due to the rarity of the first and last name and the spinster hood of Annie and her occupational compatibility, despite Annie E. reporting her birth place in Freiston, Herefordshire, perhaps to secure her position.

Notes for William Harvey Sinnock:

William Harvey, born in 1886 according to the Civil Registration Index of Births is assumed to be William Harvey of E. A. Harvey Sinnock's letter because of the location in Brighton and the family name of "Harvey".

Mabel E. Blaydes^{68, 85, 350} lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1901 at (56 Hendon Street, Kempdown, St. Matthew³⁵⁰).

In 1901 Mabel lived with her parents and a brother, John C., 16, born in Brighton.

Notes for John Frederick Sinnock:

John Frederick of the Civil Registration Index of Births is assumed to be Frederick Sinnock of E. A. Harvey's letter. I also assume the three entries in the Civil Registration Index of Marriages for John F. Sinnock with, respectively, Florence Hawkins, 1917 (age 25), Dorothy Stiles, 1930 (age 38), and Doris E. W. Brewer, 1950 (age 58) are all for the same person because of the rarity of the last name, the common location in the Brighton area (Westhampnett is just about 15 miles down the coast), the common middle initial, age compatibility, and no other John F. Sinnocks known from the southern Sussex area at the time.

496. GEORGE¹¹ TERRY (Emily¹⁰ Sinnock, George⁹ Sinnock, George⁸ Sinnock, John⁷ Sinnock, Samuel⁶ Sinnock, Elias⁵ Sinnock, Elias⁴ Sinnock, Christofer³ Sinnock, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{498, 577, 878} was born or baptized about 1859 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{498, 577, 878}. Notes for Edward Foord:

From Mark Milton, from, in turn, John Kay, Ringmer Historical Society

"Edward was the eldest child still at home with his mother Jane in 1891, when he was 20 and one of four in the household described as 'farmer's son'. Soon afterwards Edward got married (but not at Ringmer) and moved away. Horace Edward Foord, eldest son of Edward and Ellen Elizabeth, was baptised at Ringmer 6 Aug 1893, when Edward was described as a labourer and of Chamberlaines Farm. This was a tiny cottage (now extended to a super country residence) much nearer to Ringmer Green, at the other end of the Broyle. It was usually used for a bailiff and then belonged to the Delves Estate. By the 1901 census Edward and Ellen Elizabeth were back at Upper Lodge, but James was now the main farmer, and Jane retired. Edward's household included his wife (who was also 29, and a native of Chiddingly), Horace (7, born Ringmer), Gilbert (2, born Hellingly) and baby James W., just 3 months and born in Ringmer. Living with them was Edward's bachelor brother Walter. Both men were described as farmers on their own account, but, unlike their elder brother James, not employing anyone else. Not long after this the brothers Edward and Walter Foord took another Glyndebourne Estate tenancy, Broyle Place Farm. Broyle Place was once a grand 17th century mansion, but the corner that survived by this date is still a very impressive house. There was another farmer (Mark Ranger) in place here until at least 1903, but Edward and Walter are there by 1907 and remain a feature in local directories until 1924. Then we have just Edward or Edwin Foord there until after 1951. I am [not sure if this is all the same man, or whether the farm was passed down the family. By 1956 it had passed, in very poor condition reputedly, into the hands of a wealthy Mrs Dawson who lovingly restored it."

From Ann Foord: "Great Granddad Foord was still living at Broyle Place in early 1957. Alan was born in February of that year and I can remember we took him out to show him to his Great Granddad with us and his Grandparents and he actually held Alan for a few minutes. When he died I can remember Grandma saying she was glad he had seen Alan".

Family lore has it that Edward had 17 siblings. He used to visit relatives at a big white house in Langley when he visited Horace and family in Eastbourne (most probably White House Farm)

Occupation Notes:

Walter's twin brother, Albert, was killed when a doodle-bug fell on a house in Laughton during World War II. Date of birth provided by Margaret Foord (Daughter-in-law)

From Margaret Foord

Walter made his way in life buying and selling cattle and horses. He supplied horses to the area of the Elephant and Castle in London when horse were used on the streets there. We think that is where he met Jessie when she was working in a hotel in London. We do not know how many brothers or sisters she had or where she was born, but we do know that she was born out of wedlock and her family lived in Fulham. I have found an address of a Mrs.E. Baldwin of 47 Delaford Street, Fulham S.W.1. I wonder if she was a sister in law.

According to Walter's side of the family he fell out with Edward (Edward owed him money). Accordiing to Edward's side of the family it was the other way around.

Notes for James Sinnock:

James of the Civil Registration Index of Births is assumed to be James Sinnock of Dorothy Sinnock's letter because of age and proximity

Birth Notes:

I assume Beckenham is James' birth place based on listing of Bromley as the birth location in the Civil Registration Index of Births and the fact that all James' 7 other siblings were born in Beckenham according to other sources.

Social Security Death index gives Bernice's death on Aug. 30, 1989 and her birth on Jan. 8, 1910; her daughter Kathryn's letter indicates a birth on Jan 10, 1910; she is listed as 10 month's old in the 1910 census taken on April 28, 1910, and in the 1920 census as an 11 year old January 6, 1920, so she seems to have been born about June 1909 , if she were 10 months old as reported in April 1910, compatible with reporting 11 years old in January, 1920. Perhaps the January dates are for her baptism when she was about 6 months old.

Illinois, census, Della Sinnock, 3, born in Missouri, both parents born in Illinois, appears on June 29 as the neice of and living with Jacob R. Notes for Charles Augustus Sinnock:

Occupation Notes:

Charles appears in the 1900 census of Gallatin County, Montana so he must have moved directly or indirectly from La Plata to Montana by 1900. I assume he lived at the family farm near La Plata until he moved west. Since Charles would only be 19 in 1900, I doubt he left La Plata for Montana when he was much younger, so his move probably occurred near 1900. Charles was the first from Charles Wesley's family to move to Montana. The rest of the family followed later in separate migrations to Belfry, Stillwater County, and Sweetgrass County.

Lenis Margaret Smith^{63, 100, 219, 306, 723, 727, 733, 1092, 1101, 1103-1106, 1408} lived in Darrouzett, Lipscomb, Texas, USA in 1900 at (Precinct 2¹¹⁰⁶).

Image: (tombstone photograph, cemetery map) She was affiliated with the Methodist⁷²³ religion.

Notes for Lenis Margaret Smith:

In 1910, Lenis, 17, lived with her parents, two brothers, Chester, 15, and Charles, 8, and two sisters, Lorena, 12, and Ida, 8, all born in Texas. Charles and Ida were probably twins.

Birth Notes:

Lenis's obituary gives her birth place as Lipton, Texas, a town I cannot locate and suspect is a transcription error for Lipscomb County.

Residence Notes:

School District 34 of the census is in and near Belfry, so Belfry is considered the place of residence.

Notes for Ernest Samuel Sinnock:

Samuel and his family appear in the Carbon County (1910, noting Stillwater County was formed in 1913 out of Carbon County) and Stillwater County (1920 - 1940). The 1930 and 1940 census refer to Stockade. I found an obscure reference on the Internet that suggests School District 57 is in the Stockade, Stillwater area of Montana. Stockade Post Office is located on the drainage divide between Big Timber Creek (Sweetgrass County) and the Stillwater River (Stillwater County). George, Samuel's brother and his wife, Abbie's family all live on the other side of the divide in Sweetgrass County, though they all apparently used the Stockade Post Office for many years. Both Sam and George were farmers, so I suspect their places were down on the bottomlands along the Stillwater River (Samuel) and Big Timber Creek (George), because the land between is not good for farming, great for grazing, but not farming. So I suspect the brothers settled in adjacent tributary valleys to the Missouri River in about 1910, and met once or twice a week at the post office. The good bottomlands along the Missouri were already taken, so the tributary valleys were being settled as the Sinnock's arrived in the area in the early 1900's.

Columbus is the town of School District 6, the 1910 census. Other years' censuses indicate Stockade, a post office on the county line between Stillwater and Sweetgrass Counties.

Notes for George Thomas Sinnock:

Though most of George's father, Charles Wesley's family settled along the Clark's Fork near Belfry, George and Abbie, his wife, settled further west, near Columbus, up the Big Timber Creek drainage at a place called Stockade. This appears as a post office only right at the divide between the Big Timber Creek drainage (Sweetwater County) and the Stillwater drainage (Stillwater County), Abbie's family settled in the same area and they met there, apparantly. George's brother apparently settled just across the county line in Stillwater County where George and Anna lived with him in 1910. Then George went over the hill, perhaps to Abbie house while Anna went back to Belfry where her parent's settled.

Notes for Pomeroy Sinnock:

In 1908 Pomeroy was the star football quarterback for the University of Illinois. Much smaller Pomeroy was known as one of "the twins" with his team mate, the huge Forest Van Hook. Pomeroy is said to have thrown the first forward pass in the Big Ten conference.

Generation 12 (con't)

The 1910 Honolulu census indicates that "Harry" Sinnock and both his parents were born in Illinois, he in 1887. James William or Kay Sinnock, sons of George Sinnock and Sarah Ann Kay are candidates for Harry's father, both having families in Illinois in 1887. It is likely "Harry" is my grandfather, Pomeroy Sinnock, Sr., James William's son, born in September 1886, who graduated from the University of Illinois in 1909 as a civil engineer, the occupation listed for Harry in 1910. So I suspect Pomeroy took a job fresh from college that sent him on temporary assignment to Hawaii on a civil project, where he stayed as a lodger, was counted in the census incorrectly as "Harry" then returned to Illinois just in time to marry his bride, Frances Obear in July 1910. Both Harry's parents were born in Illinois according to the 1910 Honolulu census. James William or Kay Sinnock, sons of George Sinnock and Sarah Ann Kay are candidates for Harry's father, both having families in Illinois in 1887 when Harry was born (if he correctly reported and the census taker correctly recorded his age of 23 in 1910 and his name as Sinnock). However, Thomas Sinnock, in about 1910, provided a fairly complete inventory of all Sinnocks born in the 1800's and descended from George and Sarah Ann and Harry is not among them.

Pomeroy was married to Frances Obear from St. Louis and their first and only child, Pomeroy Jr. was born in St. Louis, so I assume Pomeroy moved there from Quincy in 1910 to join his wife in her home town. 1910, his marriage year, was one year after Pomeroy graduated from the University of Illinois, so it is possible he met his first wife at the University or shortly after he graduated. Frances would visit Pomeroy in Quincy from her home town in St. Louis before they were married. When she visited, she always stayed with her best friend Maria Stahl. Shortly their marriage in June 1910, Pomeroy Jr. was born in April, 1911, then things must have quickly soured between them. They were divorced about 9 months later. According to my father, the marriage apparently ended because "my mother got fed up with my grandmother "Monie" trying to run her life - and no help from my father (per Aunt Elise)" from Pomeroy Sinnock Jr.'s letter to Pomeroy Sinnock III, 1 Jul 1988. Pomeroy Jr. then lived with Frances, his mother, including when she died in his arms when he was but a lad of 9. A more-than-decent twelve years later after his divorce and four years after Frances died in 1920, Pomeroy married, Marcie, his ex-wife's best friend, at least once upon a time. Pomeroy Jr. was passed between his mother's relatives including "Aunt Elise" Obear, Frances' sister, until finally upon appeal from Pomeroy Sr., his sister, Julia Sinnock Oberdorfer, agreed to give Pomeroy Jr. a stable home. Julia, known to me and my family as "Aunt Jule" was thus, in a large way, my "grandmother" on my father's side, traditional Thanksgiving dinners and warm laps included.

Frances Maurice Obear^{1139-1140, 1144-1146, 1151-1153} lived in St. Louis, St Louis, Missouri, USA in 1900 at (7 Shaw Place¹¹⁵¹). She lived in St. Louis, St Louis, Missouri, USA in 1910 at (6242 Waterman Avenue^{1145, 1152}). She was buried in St. Louis, St Louis, Missouri, USA (Bellevue Cemetery¹¹⁵³). Her cause of death was influenza?¹¹³⁹. Image: (family photograph, tombstone photograph, ancestor diagram³⁰⁶)

Notes for Frances Maurice Obear:

Residence Notes:

Thomas Slaughter Obear, Frances' father, apparently moved around a bit. His first two children were born in St. Louis from 1884 to 1887, and the next two, including Frances, in Los Angeles in 1888 and 1889. Then his two daughters, Frances and Elise, were married within 5 months of each other in St. Louis at 6242 Waterman Avenue, then 5 months later Pomeroy Sinnock Jr., Frances' son, was born at the same address in St. Louis. I suspect the Obear family had a home at that address and some member of the Obear family lived there even when Thomas Slaughter was away in California. Frances and Pomeroy Sr. probably lived at this address at least part of the time between their marriage in 1910 and their divorce in about 1918

SINNOCK IS MARRIED

Quincy Boy Took a Bride in St. Louis Last Night - Miss Frances Obear Was the Girl
A Yellow and White Wedding - Couple Went East on Honeymoon

St. Louis, June 23 - A large and fashionable wedding was that of Miss Frances Maurice Obear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Obear of No. 6242 Waterman avenue, and Pomeroy Sinnock of Quincy, Ill., which took place last evening at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Messiah, the Rev. John W. Day officiating.

The church was decorated with quantities of green vines, ferns, and palms, combined with yellow daisies. The same flowers were used in great profusion at the home of the bride's parents, where the reception was held.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her away. She was beautifully gowned in white satin, cut on princess lines, the bodice and a portion of the skirt almost entirely covered with beautiful old rose and duchess point lace, which has long been in the family of the bride. The tulle veil was edged with duchess point lace and held in place with a chaplet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Miss Elise Obear, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Misses Julia Sinnock, sister of the bridegroom of Quincy, Bernice Nulsen of St. Louis, Flavia Hadley of Edwardsville, Ill., and Lottie Dodd of Louisville, Ky., were the bridesmaids. They were all gowned in delicate yellow messaline, embroidered and daintily trimmed with lace, and carried showers of yellow daisies.

The bridegroom's attendants were Chester Wilcox of Quincy, who served him as best man, Joseph Messick of East St. Louis, Horace Brown of Quincy, Ebon Jones of Bloomington, Ill., and Maurice Obear, a brother of the bride, who were the ushers.

Among the out-of-town guests for the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sinnock of Quincy, parent of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Will Sinnock of Quincy, brother and sister-in-law, and Miss Ellen Sinnock, a younger sister, who has just returned from an eastern finishing school

"Pom" Sinnock is a popular Quincy boy and is now in business here with his father. He is a graduate of Illinois University and won quite a little fame as a football player while a student at the university. He is a fine young man, bright and ambitious, and socially is a great favorite in Quincy. All of his friends wish him much happiness and will be glad to welcome him and his bride on their arrival here.

The bride first became known to Quincy people through her visits to Miss Marie Stahl, and is a charming a lovely girl, quite a social belle, and is much admired by all who know her. She and Mr. Sinnock were generously remembered with wedding gifts by their friends and relatives.

Pomeroy Sinnock and Frances Maurice Obear had the following child:

781. i. POMEROY¹³ SINNOCK JR.^{746, 902, 906, 1139-1140, 1143-1145, 1149, 1157, 1162, 1442-1449} was born or baptized on 06 Apr 1911 in St. Louis, St Louis, Missouri, USA^{902, 1139, 1145, 1157, 1442, 1444-1445, 1447}. Notes for Marie T. Stahl:

Marce was best friends with Frances Obear, Pomeroy's first wife, who would often stay with Marce in Quincy when Frances came from St. Louis to visit Pomeroy before their marriage. Later Marce married Pomeroy sometime after he divorced Frances. Hmmm. I bet some fur flew there. Anyway, they certainly left the homestead soon after their marriage and traveled far away to the west coast, where Pomeroy had done some engineering work. Pomeroy and Marce then became progenitors of a large clan of Sinnocks centered in Stockton, CA, through their son George, my half uncle.

Pomeroy Sinnock and Marie T. Stahl had the following child:

Notes for Julia E. Sinnock:

After his mother, Frances Obear died, Julia raised Pomeroy Sinnock, Jr., her nephew, in New Castle, Indiana from 1924 till Pomeroy graduated high school there in 1828 and college at the University of Illinois, still under Julia's and Dixon Oberdorfer's support in 1932. She was wont to enumerate sins against the body, the "temple of god", as drinking, smoking, and gambling, and of course sex. Julia and Dixon had a summer home on Lake Michigan at Point Betsey near Frankfort, Michigan. Not in her will but through her wishes, Julia, "Aunt Jule" left for me when she died a fabulous collection of over 200 33 RPM vinyl analog recordings for stereo turntables of every variety of European "Classical" music, Bach, Handel, Hayden, Telleman, Scarlotti, Vivaldi, Verdi, Wagner, Purcell, Pachelbell, Beethoven, Tyhchovsky, Mendelson, Berlioz, Mozart, Sibelius, Stavinski, Maler, Williams, of course, and many others.

Notes for Raymond Barnard Sinnock:

Apparently Ray (Roy) impossibly shows up in both the Chicago and Quincy areas during the 1920 census. In Quincy, "Ray B" Sinnock is listed as a 23 year old son of George E. and Hattie, all three born in Illinois; and in Chicago, "Roy" Sinnock, 23 years old, born in Illinois, both parents born in Illinois, is listed as lodger with Clella Black (Sinnock last name over written with Black) who has a daughter "Buehla", 25 years old, born in Nebraska. George E. and Hattie's son, Ray, married Beulah Mae Black whose mother was "Ella" in April 1920, three months after the census. She was from Nebraska. This is all too coincidental to doubt that Roy and Ray are the same person, but how could he be in both Chicago and Quincy at the same time. Upon digging deeper, I found the Chicago census was collected on January 9 and the Quincy census on January 10, so it is possible that Ray (his real name) was in Chicago on the morning of the 9th, counted in the census, then caught the train to afternoon train to Quincy, arriving in time to catch a good nights sleep and be counted the next day, the 10th, in the Quincy census. So apparently the lodger fell for the innkeeper's daughter and later in April returned to Chicago to fetch his bride.

Beulah Mae Black^{306, 706, 709, 713, 738-739, 767, 902, 905-906, 1070, 1158, 1194, 1196-1198, 1431} lived in Quincy, Adams, Illinois, USA in 1900 at (110 North 10th Street⁷³⁸). Notes for Beulah Mae Black:

Beulah raised her three children and cared for her mother after her husband died in 1931. Beulah and her husband Ray (spelled "Roy" in the 1920 census) are not listed as husband and wife in that census but as "daughter" of "Clella" (Buehla) and a "Lodger" (Roy, aka "Ray"), where "Clella" is assumed to be Beulah's mother "Ella" Black. So apparently the Lodger fell for the innkeepers daughter and they were then married. In 1992 Beulah was reported to be living at 3201 Conifer Drive in Springfield, the same address where Betty Lou Daniel, Donald Jack Sinnock's wife reported living in 2011, though Donald Jack and Ray Barnard are related only through Samuel Sinnock and Mary Lindfield who immigrated to America in the 1850's. So it seems the house has remained in the family though through very distant cousins.

Raymond Barnard Sinnock and Beulah Mae Black had the following children:

Notes for Frederick William Sinnock:

Frederick, born in Camberwell, London is assumed to be "Frederick Sinnock" from the telephone conversation with Russell Sinnock, because of his age, name, birth and residence in the London area. He has many siblings based on the Civil Registration Index, including Thomas Henry, who may be the "Harry" reported by Russell as Frederick's brother. There also is a Frederick Burfield Sinnock, born in Wingham, Kent, 1865, who may, by age, be Russell's ancestor, but apparently had no brother named Harry nor any known association with London, where Russell reports his ancestors hail from.

Charlotte Rebecca Chandler^{68, 70, 72, 85, 119, 869, 942, 1297-1298} was baptized on 14 Oct 1866 in Chelsea, Kensington and Chelsea, London, England (St. Luke⁷²). Emmeline Charlotte Sinnock^{18, 119, 942, 1297} lived in Tottenham, Haringey, London, England in 1901 at (1 Church Road⁹⁴²). She was also known as "Emma"⁹⁴².

Notes for Emmeline Charlotte Sinnock:

"Emmeline" assumed to be "Emma Charlotte" of Civil Registration Index because of name similarity, age, and birth place, of brother and Emma, 1901 census gives birth location as Walworth, London

840. ii. WILLIAM GEORGE SINNOCK^{18, 68, 70, 85, 119, 306, 622, 633, 869, 942, 1297, 1517} was born or baptized about Dec 1895 in Walworth, Southwark, London, England (St. Saviour District^{68, 70, 119, 869, 942}). He died on 19 Feb 1944 in Westminster, London, England^{68, 306, 1297}. Notes for Frederick John Sinnock:

Generation 12 (con't)

Frederick is assumed to be the Frederick Sinnock of Russ Sinnock's conversion because of age and proximity of birth to London

- vi. WALTER D. SINNOCK⁶⁸ was born or baptized about 1919 in England⁶⁸. He died about Sep 1932 in Rochford, Essex, England⁶⁸.

Notes for Walter D. Sinnock:

I assume Walter is a son of Frederick, because of the death of Frederick in the same town at nearly the same time (1927) as the death of Walter (1932), weak link though it is. Perhaps Walter is a distant relative of Frederick that invited him to visit when he died..

653. THOMAS HENRY¹² SINNOCK (Alfred William¹¹, William¹⁰, William⁹, John⁸, James⁷, Thomas⁶ Sennock, Thomas⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{18, 68, 70, 72, 85, 119, 477, 864, 869, 1297} was born or baptized about Mar 1873 in Peckham, Southwark, London, England (Camberwell District^{68, 70, 119, 477, 864, 869}). He lived in Peckham, Southwark, London, England between 1881-1891 at (10 Clayton Terrace^{477, 864}). He lived in London City, London, England in 1901 at (2 Tichbone Road⁷⁰). He was employed as a Laborer, Cab Driver (Motored, 1911) between 1901-1911^{70, 869}. He lived in London City, London, England in 1902 at (Coleman Street⁷²). He lived in Brixton, Lambeth, London, England in 1911 at (21 Kildoran Road⁸⁶⁹). He was also known as "Harry"¹²⁹⁷. Image: (signature⁷⁰)

Notes for Thomas Henry Sinnock:

Thomas Henry may be Harry, born in Eastry, 1882, then Frederick Burfield Sinnock would be his brother; he may have many siblings, see Civil Registration Index. I assume he is the Harry of Russell William's family, with "Henry" as his more formal name.

Millicent Ellen Louise Lamborn^{68, 70, 72, 85, 277, 869, 1297, 1299-1300} was employed as a Student (Scholar), age 3 in 1881¹³⁰⁰. Notes for Millicent Ellen Louise Lamborn:

In 1881 Millicent, 3, lived in Clevedon with her parents, a brother, Henry G., 6, and a sister, Mabel S., 1, both born in Clevedon. In 1891 she, 13, also lived with one more sister, Janet F. M., 9, born in Clevedon, and two brothers, Ambrose E. T., 4, and Cecil A. H., 9 months, both born in Bristol

Notes for Gladys Millicent Sinnock:

I assume "Gladys Sinnock" of Russell Sinnock's conversion is the same person as Gladys Millicent Sinnock of the Civil Registration Index of Births because of name, age, and proximity.

- ii. DESMOND SINNOCK¹²⁹⁷ was born or baptized about 1915 in London, England¹. He died in 1929 in England¹²⁹⁷.

Notes for Desmond Sinnock:

not found in the Civil Registration Index

Notes for Albert Arthur Boniface:

Apparently two separate Albert Arthur Bonifaces were born in Hailsham in about 1878. In 1911, one Albert lived in Hailsham with wife Clara, the other in London with wife Ada. Perhaps they are the same individual, registered twice in the Registration Index of Births, once in the second quarter 1878 and then in the last quarter, same year. Ages reported in census records do not match the Index dates; before April 2, 1879 because Albert was reported as 2 in the 1881 census and after March 31, 1879 because Albert was reported as 21 in the 1901 census. Taken as true, the census indicates a birth date between the two dates, recognizing that ages are often incorrect in census tallies, yielding a birth on about April 1, 1879, impossible for someone reported in the Birth Index in 1878. However, for the flimsiest of reasons, i.e. because the calculated date of April 1 falls in the second quarter, I assume that entry in the birth index most closely matches the birth of Albert, the son of Samuel. I also assume the Albert living in Hailsham in 1911 is the son of Samuel, but darned if I know which is which.

Generation 12 (con't)

I assume Annie Sinnock born in 1907 in the Wheatley Hill, Durham is the same person as Ann Sinnock who married Robert Potts in Elham, Kent in 1937 based on the rarity of the last name, the similarity of the first name, and no other known Ann or Annie Sinnocks of about marrying age in England at the time, weak but plausible.

Notes for Lillian Mary Sinnock:

Lillian Mary of the Civil Registration Index of Births is assumed to be the daughter of Alfred and Elizabeth because of her birth in Canterbury where all their other children were born, and because she was born in 1902, just after other children of Alfred and Elizabeth. However, Lillian and her sister Ivy, may be the earliest born to another Sinnock family in Canterbury at that time, namely Alfred Henry Sinnock and Jean (?), rather than the last born to Alfred John and Elizabeth.

Robert Henry Thierens^{68, 85, 119, 1317-1318} was baptized on 31 Dec 1899 in Liverpool, Lancashire, England¹³¹⁸. He lived in Fazakerley, Lancashire, England in 1901 at (39 Chapel Avenue, St. John¹³¹⁷).

Notes for Lillian Maud Sinnock:

Two "Lilian Maud Sinnock"s are listed in the Civil Registration Index of Births, one born Jun 1893 in the Bethnal Green District and one born March 1894 in the Bromley District. Because of the rarity of the name and closeness of birth times it is tempting to consider them the same person, as well they may be, but because of the difference in birth years and separation of locations (across London), both Lillian Maud's are entered in the database. Lesley Miller in her database shows Lilian Maud as her grandmother and Henry Sinnock and Mary Ann Hall as Lilian's parents.

Name Notes:

Name is given as "Maude Lillian Turner" on the death certificate

Walter Thomas Turner^{68, 109, 119, 354, 539, 1319, 1321, 1323} was baptized on 26 Apr 1896 in Crockenhill, Kent, England (St. Mary's¹⁰⁹). Notes for Edward William Sinnock:

Because Edward shows up in the 1930 census for California as "Edward W.", lodger, born in England, and appears in the 1901 Watford, Hertfordshire census, assuming they are the same person, he must have migrated between 1901 and 1930 to California where he later appears on several records. However, his shipboard travels to the west coast of America in the early 1920's as a young man in his 20's, suggests Edward may have permanently moved by then. He may appear as R. E. Sinnock arriving in New South Wales, Australia, twice in 1921, perhaps R. E. the initials for Robert Edward, given his son is named Robert.

Generation 12 (con't)

Name Notes:

Debbie was not sure of her grandfather, Robert's father's name; she thinks it was "Theodore" and that he was born in England

Residence Notes:

The Auburn Street address from Edward's WWII draft registration and the White pages listing in 2011 for his wife, Ruth, at 308 South Auburn Street suggest this address is a long standing family home. The census listings all give Grass Valley, which is nearly indistinguishable from Colfax.

Joan Annie Sinnock^{119, 1533} lived in Banstead, Surrey, England in 1934 at (Mental Hospital Cottage 5¹⁵³³). She also went by the name of Joan Over⁸⁵.

Notes for Joan Annie Sinnock:

I suspect Thomas married a patient at the mental hospital in Banstead where he worked, and Joan may have been a patient, or perhaps another worker, living at the mental hospital at the time of their marriage. The Banstead hospital was one of the notorious Asylums of England in the early 19th century. Further, I suspect Joan is the daughter of Eleanor Sinnock and Frederick Over, who may have disowned his "crazy" daughter, resulting in her last name being "Sinnock" in the marriage indexes.

Generation 12 (con't)

Mar 1933 in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA⁹⁸⁴.

Ernest George Sinnock^{5, 18, 119, 243, 983-984, 986, 1349-1354} was baptized on 04 Sep 1870 in Hurstpierpoint, West Sussex, England^{5, 18}. He lived in Hurstpierpoint, West Sussex, England in 1871 at (Andrew Cottage⁹⁸³). Migration: 12 Nov 1871 (England to United States, Massachusetts, (Boston from Brighton as an infant with his parents)²³) He lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1890 at (535 East Jefferson Street²⁴³). He was employed as a Clerk in 1890²⁴³. He lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1910 at (712 East Market Street⁹⁸⁶). He was employed as a Watchmaker between 1910-1930^{986, 1351-1352}. He lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA between 1920-1924 at (632 West Market Street^{1349, 1351}). He lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1930 at (803 42nd Street¹³⁵²). Image: (signature, death certificate^{18, 1349})

Notes for Ernest George Sinnock:

During a telephone conversation with Paul Gildie Sinnock Jr, Paul indicated his grandfather was born in St. Moritz, Switzerland. Having encountered no other Sinnocks from Switzerland, I found this surprising. When I found the Kentucky Death Records that unambiguously tied Florence M. Sinnock of Paul Gildie Sinnock's family records to Ernest George Sinnock (Ernest in the Kentucky death records) and Anne (Anna in the death records) Sinnock, born, respectively, in about 1870 and 1848 in England, I confirmed my suspicions that Paul's grandfather was from England. This ties the Kentucky branch of the Sinnocks to a Sinnock family from Sussex County, England, though this line of Sinnocks is descended from George, born about 1770 in Hellingly and has not been tied to the Eastbourne Sinnock line. It appears that Ernest George migrated from the Brighton area, specifically from Hurstpierpoint, East Sussex, to Switzerland, perhaps to learn the watchmaking trade, or perhaps to play in the resort town of St. Moritz. Then he migrated from Switzerland to Louisville, Kentucky. Later, or at the same time, his mother, Anna, and father, Ernest Flowers Sinnock, joined Ernest George in Jefferson County, Kentucky, where they all three appeared in the 1890 Louisville Directory. Paul Francis Sinnock, Ernest George and Anna's son, was born in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1908, indicating Ernest George and Anna, his wife, must have arrived in Kentucky before that birth in 1908.

Birth Notes:

The Civil Registration Index of Births gives Ernest's birth location as the Cuckfield District which encompassed Hurstpierpoint in 1870.

Migration Notes:

I assume Ernest George lived at home in the Brighton area until he was eighteen or so in 1888, when he went to Switzerland to learn a trade

Residence Notes:

Based on Louisville census records, I assume Ernest lived his whole life there after he arrived from England and Switzerland sometime around 1890.

Louise C. Moritz^{984, 986, 1349-1353, 1355} lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1900 at (1957 Portland Avenue¹³⁵⁵). She lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1910 at (712 East Market Street⁹⁸⁶). She lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1920 at (632 West Market Street¹³⁵¹). She lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1930 at (803 42nd Street¹³⁵²). She was also known as "Lula"⁹⁸⁶.

Notes for Louise C. Moritz:

During a telephone conversation with Paul Gildie Sinnock Jr, Paul indicated his grandfather was born in St. "Moritz", Switzerland. Interestingly several sources give Louise C. "Moritz" as the wife of Ernest George who is the one said to be from St. Moritz, Switzerland, a famous ski resort. It seems Ernest George did not visit St. Moritz, or perhaps a rare coincidence occurred and both Louise is named "Moritz" and her husband spent time in St. Moritz. Louise is listed in the 1920 US census and as "Lula". Both her parents were born in Germany

Residence Notes:

Based on Lula's birth location in Louisville and her appearance there in the 1910 census, I assume she lived her whole life there at least until her marriage.

Ernest George Sinnock and Louise C. Moritz had the following children:

859. i. VIRGINIA A.¹³ SINNOCK^{986, 1350-1353} was born or baptized on 21 Nov 1906 in Jefferson County, Kentucky, USA^{986, 1351-1353}. She died before 1997⁵². She married JOSEPH WILLIAM GROM. Notes for Florence M. Sinnock:

Residence Notes:

Based on birth and death locations and locations of parents and siblings, I assume Florence lived her whole life in Louisville.

696. EMILY A.¹² SINNOCK (Ernest Flowers¹¹, George¹⁰, George⁹, George⁸, John⁷, Samuel⁶, Elias⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹

Generation 12 (con't)

He lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA between 1910-1927 at (637 East Walnut Street^{984, 986}). He was employed as a Salesman in 1927⁹⁸⁴. He was buried in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA (Calvary Cemetery⁹⁸⁴). His cause of death was heart attack, ruptured aneurism of the aorta⁹⁸⁴.

Notes for William J. Connors:

Apparently William had a two brothers, Edmund, 11, and William, 6, and two sisters, Mary, 12, and Bridget, 8, all born in Massachusetts and living with their parents, William, 42, and Mary, 39, both born in Ireland, in Gardner, Massachusetts in June 1900, though William, 17 and a half at the time, was somewhere else, or perhaps not the son of this William and Mary of Ireland. There is another William Connors, 1, in 1900, son of William, 41, and Mary, 39, from Asonia, Connecticut. William Connor seems to be a common name of recent Irish immigrants so perhaps, William's parentage is not as shown.

Emily A. Sinnock and William J. Connors had the following child:

- i. EDITH ANN¹³ CONNORS^{902, 984, 986, 1356} was born or baptized on 12 May 1908 in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA^{902, 984, 986}. She died on 17 Jun 1970 in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA^{902, 984, 1356}. She married CLAUDE NICHOLAS PAINE. He was born or baptized on 12 Jan 1910 in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA (Kentucky Street^{984, 1351-1353, 1356}). He died on 26 Feb 1984 in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA^{984, 1356}.

Claude Nicholas Paine^{984, 1351-1353, 1356} lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1920 at (1511 Maple Street¹³⁵¹). He lived in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA in 1930 at (106 North 44th Street¹³⁵²). He was employed as a Foreman, Furnace Plant in 1930¹³⁵². He was buried in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, USA (Calvary Cemetery¹³⁵⁶).

In 1920 and 1930 Claude, 9, lived in Louisville with his parents and two brothers, Morris, 8 (1920), and Charles 14m, both born in Kentucky.

697. ERNEST¹² SINNOCK (John Julian Harvey¹¹, George¹⁰, George⁹, George⁸, John⁷, Samuel⁶, Elias⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)³⁴² was born or baptized about 1882 in Brighton, East Sussex, England³⁴².

Ernest Sinnock³⁴² lived in Brighton, East Sussex, England in 1891 at (166 Upper Lewes Road³⁴²). He was employed as a Student (Scholar) in 1891³⁴².

Ernest Sinnock had the following child:

- i. MABEL LOUISE ERNEST¹³ SINNOCK¹⁵³⁷ was born or baptized about 1906 in Greenwich, London, England (East Greenwich¹⁵³⁷). She died before 1996 (Assumed to have died before age 90¹⁷⁴).

Mabel Louise Ernest Sinnock¹⁵³⁷ lived in Greenwich, London, England in 1911 at (Boarder, East Greenwich¹⁵³⁷).

Notes for Mabel Louise Ernest Sinnock:

In the 1911 Greenwich census Mabel appears as a 5 year-old boarder with Edward Prior and family, no parents or relatives are mentioned. I assume she is a daughter of Ernest Sinnock only because of her second middle name, "Ernest", and a compatible age. Ernest only appears as a 9 year old in the 1891 Brighton census. No other records of Mabel or Ernest are known. Perhaps Ernest had a daughter, perhaps illegitimate, that he boarded while away or for secrecy. Pure conjecture from a trifling of fact.

698. HALBERT¹² SINNOCK (John Julian Harvey¹¹, George¹⁰, George⁹, George⁸, John⁷, Samuel⁶, Elias⁵, Elias⁴, Christofer³, John² Senoke, ?¹ Senoke)^{68, 107, 119, 622, 633, 987} was born or baptized about Dec 1889 in Brighton, East Sussex, England^{68, 119, 633}. Image: (signature⁶³³)

Notes for Halbert Sinnock:

According to his son, Tony, Halbert said his family came from "good Sussex yeoman stock", which I think pretty well describes most of us Sinnocks.

Generation 12 (con't)

Halbert Sinnock and Dorothy P. Berry had the following child:

Generation 12 (con't)

(Churchyard⁵⁷²). He served in the military in 1916 (World War I, Royal Army, West Surrey Regiment, 7th Battalion, Private). His cause of death was killed in action, World War I.

Notes for Arthur Bournier:

"Although Arthur lived for a time in Ringmer he was born in Lower Dicker and his parents Benjamin and Ruth had their home in Hellingly. Furthermore it was to Upper Horsebridge, Hellingly that Arthur's wife Florence Kathleen moved after his death. Indeed he is honoured on a Hellingly War Memorial as well as on our own. Arthur originally enlisted at Lewes into the Royal Sussex Regiment as a Private with number 10689. He was transferred to the 7th Battalion of the Queen's (Royal West Surrey Regiment) and given the new number G/24552. It was not, however, until after 1915 that Private Bournier joined his unit as part of the 18th (Eastern) Division in France. This limited his medal entitlement to the British War & Victory Medals. A fairly quiet few months passed before the commencement of the Battles of the Somme. On the opening day, 1st July 1916, the area attacked by Arthur Bournier's Division near Montauban was one of the few to be successfully breached and held. The 7th Queen's 159 fatal casualties, with many more wounded, were considered 'light' when compared to other units. No real let up occurred and the 18th Division fought several more desperate battles in July before being relieved during August. The time was spent in intensive training for a major offensive during September against the fortified village of Thiepval. The attack against there on 1st July by the 36th (Ulster) Division had been a costly failure and many brave Irish lads died in the attempt. Now it was the turn of the 18th Division with Arthur Bournier in the 7th Queen's. After two days of desperate hand to hand fighting the remains of Thiepval were taken. The next objective was a German strong point on the ridge overlooking Thiepval, 1,000 yards to the north, and known as Schwaben Redoubt. It was a complex interlocking trench system well fortified for all round defence. The 7th Queen's formed up for the attack under the watchful eye of a German observation balloon, which rendered all attempts at surprise null and void. Although supported by the exhausted Division there was only one other battalion in the first wave. They moved forward at 1pm on 28th September 1916 and took intermediate defence lines with few casualties. Inch by inch the ground up to the Redoubt was won and then a furious struggle took place for possession of the individual posts at the Schwaben Redoubt. Many machine gun nests were bombed into silence by expert grenade throwing and sniping of exposed enemy heads. Little by little the bastion was wrestled from the Germans during the course of that and the following day. The capture of Schwaben Redoubt cost the 7th Queen's some 395 casualties, many fatal, including Private Arthur Bournier. He is buried in Connaught Cemetery, at the foot of the rise, the capture of which cost him his life at the age of 28."

Notes for Pomeroy Sinnock Jr.:

1928 - Honor Student, University of Illinois, top 10 percent of class, in Courier Times, New Castle, Indiana, 1928; born at 6242 Waterman Avenue, St. Louis, Mo. He was raised by Julia Sinnock Oberdorfer, his paternal aunt, from age 9 when his mother died, divorced. Though Julie ("Aunt Jule" to me) never adopted Pom, I show her and Henry Dixon Oberdorfer ("Uncle Dick" to me) as his adoptive parents, for they raised him from age nine and were my "Thanksgiving" dinner family thereafter. After an exemplary high school experience (see the paragraph below quoted from his high school yearbook), he attended the University of Illinois, where he eventually earned a Law degree in 1935. During his law school days he met Mary Margaret Hill, and they fell in love and were married just a month after Pom graduated from law school. He and his wife, Mary, raised a family of three children at the "farm" at RR 5, five miles north of New Castle, Indiana. The house at the farm, which they completely remodeled, was over 130 years old when they bought it and the surrounding 80 acres in 1949. After the Korean War, he wildcatted oil wells in the Gas City oil field in Indiana. Then he joined New Castle Products, the company started by Henry Dixon Oberdorfer, his uncle-in-law, Julia's husband. As president of the international branch of the company, Pom traveled to more than 100 countries on six continents. In 1976, at 65 years old when most men retire, he started a new company, Rolladen. The company introduced rolling slatted shutters to America, bringing the needed technology (read machine) from Germany. Pom like to work in his workshop. It was there he built a "flying saucer detector" that he kept at the "farm house" hoping one would fly over and trip the alarm. Pom was a closet scientist, experimenting with magnetism and electricity in the basement of the house, attempting to reproduce the energy source of flying saucers. He also did much furniture woodworking in his basement workshop.

from the "Rosennial", 1928 the New Castle School Yearbook

"Pomeroy Sinnock, perpetually busy, sunny side up, business manager Rosennial (Yearbook), basketball '27 and '28, President Dramatic Club, '27 tennis '28 prom committee. "Pom has been a plugger at all times. When he was forced to abandon basketball in '26, '27 he began the new season with one desire. He realized that desire and make the team. In the middle of the season this year again he had to stop on account of illness but soon as he could he was back on the floor working for a position on the squad. The Rushville and Richmond scores were largely due to the efforts of this player. This year 'Pom' graduates."

Pomeroy Sinnock Jr. died in Barrington, Illinois on Saturday, April 30, 1994, after a short and relatively painless battle with lung cancer. For many years "Pom" was a leading businessman in New Castle, Henry County, Indiana. He was born in St. Louis on April 6, 1911, to Pomeroy Sinnock and Francis Maurice Obear Sinnock. His parents were divorced when Pom was young, and he stayed with his mother, who died an untimely death of pneumonia while in California in 1920 when Pomeroy, Jr. was only nine. After moving among willing members of his mother's family, he was taken in for good by Julia E. Sinnock Oberdorfer of New Castle, Indiana, in 1923, at age 12. Julia's husband was Henry Dixon, a businessman. During this time Pomeroy remembered taking summer trips with the Oberdorfers to Pilgrim, Michigan, on Crystal Lake, to join the Burroughs family. Pomeroy then attended New Castle High School on 14th Street, playing basketball and swimming for the Trojans. After high school graduation in 1928, Pomeroy, following his father's footsteps, attended the University of Illinois, in Champagne, Illinois, where he lettered in the backstroke event for the university swimming team. He obtained a bachelor's degree in Commerce and Law in 1932, then attended law school at the same university. He obtained his law degree in 1935. While at the University of Illinois, he met Mary Margaret Hill of West Dundee, Illinois, who he married immediately after graduation from law school on July 13, 1935, at her parents home in West Dundee. After graduation, he took a job with as a lawyer on LaSalle Street in the Chicago loop. He mentioned that at that time he was a "prima donna," and when a competitor recruited him to join their firm, he didn't realize he was only being recruited to break up a good team at his current firm. He joined the new firm, but soon became disillusioned with the law as a career. When World War II broke out, he heard the news of the Pearl Harbor attack while his head was on his wife's lap during a respite from weekend activities at their new house in Lakewood Estates, East Dundee, Illinois. He then said to Mary, his wife, "Our lives will never again be the same!" The discussion of how to avoid military service then occupied he and his profession colleagues until he sensed the inevitable and enlisted in the Navy as an alternative to being drafted in the Army. While in the service he was a naval flight school instructor, teaching instructors how to fly and how to teach others to fly. Later he was a pilot ferrying naval supplies and personal along the east coast of South America. After the war, he worked briefly for several manufacturing companies in the Chicago area before returning to New Castle in 1949 to work for his uncle, Dixon Oberdorfer, in the growing company founded by Mr. Oberdorfer, New Castle Products Incorporated. After serving as a military attorney at the Navy's Great Lakes Naval Station near Milwaukee during the Korean War, Pomeroy founded and managed an oil drilling consortium of local Henry County investors to explore for oil near the small town of Salem in Delaware County. Though some oil was found, the venture failed, and Pom returned to work for New Castle Products as a national service representative. Later he became president of a wholly owned subsidiary, New Castle Products, International, later Modernfold International. In this capacity, Pomeroy traveled extensively to more than 40 countries on six continents, until 1978 when he founded Rolladen America Inc. in New Castle. After sheparding Rolladen through its formative years, Pomeroy sold the new company to Pease and Company of Cincinnati, Ohio in 1984. Shortly thereafter he retired from his long and successful career as a lawyer, businessman, and entrepreneur. For 35 of their 44 years in Henry County, Pom and Mary resided on 80 acres just off Shively Park Road, one mile south of Mt. Summit, Indiana. The house on that property is one the oldest in Henry County, having been in existence for some time when the deed was first recorded in 1832. Pom and Mary refurbished the original brick house and carefully tended the land for cattle pasture and hay. In 1985, Pom and Mary moved to a house on Cherry Street in New Castle. In the spring of 1992 they moved for the last time, going to the Benchmark Estates retirement home in Hoffman Estates, Illinois, to be near their daughter Jean. Though not actively religious, Pomeroy was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of New Castle, and was a "died in the wool" Republican. His wife, Mary Sinnock, died last year on July 24, after a long career as an English teacher and counselor at New Castle High School. The Sinnocks were long and valued citizens of Henry County and their social grace and presence will be missed. Pomeroy and Mary are survived by three children, Jean Sinnock Guy of Cary, Illinois, Pomeroy III (Charlotte) of Doraville, Georgia, and Scott (Susan) of Las Vegas, Nevada, five grandchildren, and three great grandchildren.

Military Service Notes:

During World War II Pom was a pilot trainer at Glenview Naval Air Station, Illinois, and later piloted cargo planes to South America, later stationed in Watsonville CA. In the Korean War he served as an attorney in Navy Trials at Great Lakes Naval Station

Occupation Notes:

As an entrepreneur Pom drilled oil wells in the Gas City field of East Central Indiana (lost it all), retired early and started Rolladen rolling shutter company based on the German model, changed the name to Amrol (American Rolladen) then sold it to Pease Company (lost is all, again, well not quite, but most of it), and always wondered about the origin of the universe, building a "flying saucer" detector just in case some aliens from outer space stopped by.

"Sinnock is the best teacher to take in the field of social work at University of Memphis. She is honest and real. If you made the grade, she will give you the grade. But only if you made it. She does not give grades because she like you or because you are smiling in her face. I know teachers that are like that in the social work field."

His cause of death was hypothermia, lost in Sierra Nevada in snow storm¹¹⁷⁹.

Notes for Robert George Sinnock:

Robert and Carol married in 1942, probably in the Minneapolis area, a war-time marriage of a young couple, perhaps as Robert is off the war, but after the war they had two sons in Minneapolis, John Robert and Robert Carl who both died within a month of respiratory problems, perhaps on the same day as the Minnesota Birth and Death records indicate. Perhaps, as suggested by their daughter, Melanie, these tragically disappointing deaths encouraged Robert and Carol to move west where the climate is reputed to be more benign for breathing. In any case, throughout the early 1950 they migrated to California via a circuitous route, including stays in Idaho and several places in eastern Washington state, having children at each place. They finally settled in 1955 at the "family home" in Mountain View, California, in the Bay area. From there Robert and Carol's children spread out to Menlo Park, surrounding counties, and as far south as San Diego. He and Carol lived for 34 years in the family home in Mountain View. He had interests in the outdoors; hiking, backpacking to backcountry. As a result, he died on solo cross county ski adventure in the Sierra Nevada mountains in early March near Tahoe, California, when apparently, he got lost in a snowstorm at the time of the greatest depth of the snowpack. His body was found after the thaw two months later, sitting down, leaning against his backpack. Robert and Carol's last three children were born in Redwood City, California, just 10 miles or so up the road from Mountain View, where the family home was.

Migration Notes:

The last child of Robert that was born in Minnesota was born in 1948, and the first child born in the Mountain View area was born in 1955, so some time between these dates Robert and his family moved, circuitously through Idaho, and Spokane, Washington, from Minneapolis, Minnesota to eventually settle in Mountain View, California.

Migration: Bet. 1948-1955 (Inter State, Minnesota to California (Minneapolis to Mountain View)) She lived in Mountain View, Santa Clara, California, USA between 1955-1992 at (1647 Spring Street¹⁴⁶⁹). Image: (individual photographs, spousal photograph, (2), family photographs (2), family home photograph)

Notes for Carol Althea Anderson:

Very devoted to her family, helped raise several grandchildren; raised 7 children at family home in Mountain View, California; interests: family, reading, outdoors, the coast and oceans (any beach); active until last few weeks when bedridden with lung cancer

I assume Katherine Louise Sinnock resident of Indianapolis in 1993 according to the U. S. Notes for Wilbur Wilson Warlick:

I assume Wilbur Wilson Warlick, born 11 Oct 1921 and husband of Betty June Sinnock, is the same person as Wilbur W. Warlick, age 8, who appears in the 1930 census in Lincolnton, North Carolina because of the same unusual name, compatible birth years, and the Ancestry.com link between them, based also, I assume, on name and close birth date, negating this as the third criteria. He is listed in the 1930 census with his parents and two brothers, Steven W., 9, and Harold R., 4, and a sister, Margaret, 5, all born in North Carolina. They paid $25 a month in rent.

Wilbur Wilson Warlick and Betty June Sinnock had the following children:

Notes for Roberta Kell Sinnock:

Born in the old adobe house of her grandfather Kell, she was named by her grandmother. Roberta sent much information about the Sinnock-Letton Families to Scott Sinnock in December 1995. Roberta has the family bible of James William Sinnock and Mary Rebecca Baker, her great grandparents and a gold headed cane from Reuben Letton. Family legend has it that the cane will go to the oldest surviving descendant of Reuben Letton. It will pass to Duncan Sinnock next. Provided many illustrations for a book by Elsie Kreisler, "Maria Montoya, Master Potter", ISBN 1565540980. Traveled to visit John Ray Sinnock in Philadelphia in 1939 with her mother, Margaret Kell Sinnock. Tempe, Arizona 1970's and 1980's, Seven Oaks Studio, Corrales, NM

The following essay was written by Lynn Kaegi McKeever, whose Mom, Roberta Sinnock, died in 1998 at the age of 73.

"My Mother's pulmonologist is the one who referred her to Tucson Medical Center Hospice. His timing was excellent, and I am sure he used his extensive experience well in my Mother's case. He had just performed her second thoracentesis, or lung tap, and knew she could not live much longer. She died four months later.

Hospice care is appropriate for the patient with a limited life-span (less than six months to live according to their physician). While curative treatment ends when hospice care is chosen, relief of pain and symptom management continues, provided by experts in the relief of suffering. Emotional support is offered as well, not only to the dying individual, but to the family as well. Just sharing time with the professionals who knew about dying and did not shy away from our emotions and concerns was useful to my mother and to me.

It would be hard to overstate the value of the TMC Hospice to our family. A nursing supervisor visited us at my Mother's home within a day or two of the referral, bringing with her lots of paperwork and taking plenty of time to explain hospice services. It seemed to me that the hospice staff always had time to answer questions, hold hands and dry tears, in sharp contrast to other, more harried, medical personnel we encountered. It helped that we were referred early, we really got to know our nurse and social worker, and my mom had time to develop a relationship of trust with them and with the volunteer assigned to her.

Most people don't realize that if they are lucky enough to get a chance at a new drug or treatment for their disease they are able to leave hospice care and return to traditional medicine. I think more people would use hospice if they understood their options. Some do shy away from the finality of accepting hospice care, but should know that hospice staff will help them reach a state of acceptance and peace. Under hospice care the focus shifts from the medical prolongation of life to the individual, her comfort, dignity and concerns.

Our hospice provided a full range of services, from weekly nurse visits to social worker check-ins to home health care and finally in-patient hospice care for the last two weeks of my mother's life. While certainly optimal, all those services are just not available everywhere. The best way I know of to choose a hospice is to simply call, talk to the nurses, discover if a rapport exists. It is most important for the patient to do this, if possible, even though hospice services are really for the entire family. If you have a physician you are happy with, ask him or her which hospice he is affiliated with.

At first it was hard for me to talk with our nurse and social worker because I was trying so very hard to be brave and I knew I was facing serious responsibilities. I had already been through months of dealing with medical personnel who were often difficult and unresponsive. Gradually I learned to relax a bit, and by the time my mom went into the in-patient unit I felt completely supported and cared for. I had learned that Nurse Sally could get my mom to take medication much more successfully than I could, that volunteer Shirley could take her for x-rays when I couldn't be there, and that at hospice there were people who could give my mom love and caring.

At the in-patient unit, which was exclusively for hospice patients, the nurses were so very helpful in helping me to understand the dying process and they were willing to share their experience with me. I will always be grateful to the nurse who said to me, as I was getting ready to go home for a few days, "Don't worry about your mom. She hasn't started reaching yet, she will be with us for a few more days". Sure enough, the day after my return she was reaching out frequently, and speaking to her own mother. I knew she was doing what most other patients do, and that she was among staff who understood. The volunteers were wonderful too, providing the extra care and companionship my mother needed when I couldn't be there.

During this time we tried to prepare our 11 and 8 year old children for Grandma's death. Because she focused on her own quality of life, and gave us a marvelous example of facing death with courage and the ability to enjoy each day and each person she met, we did not go into "Grandma is dying" with our children until her death was imminent. Our older child did figure out what was going on on his own, and we tried to answer his questions honestly. We did tell them both, a few months before Hospice came into the picture, that "Grandma has a disease that the doctors can't fix". After my frequent absences to care for her, I was careful not to say that she was better, but only feeling better.

Our younger child was sad that she didn't get to go to the hospice unit to say goodbye, but the distances involved, and my mother's wish not to upset the children made that impossible. Although I wish that had been different, there was a reality I had to face through this entire experience: you can't care for a dying elderly parent and young children at the same time. You can take turns, you can leave each in the care of loving individuals to see to the other, but you simply can't fulfil a child's needs from a hospital room in a far-away city and you can't be the one to take Mother to the doctor 250 miles away on the day of the school play. We have to be satisfied with our best effort.

Several factors helped me in my juggling act. My husband had lost both his parents rather suddenly, and so was very supportive of me and did all he could during my absences. My children were used to our daily routine, and so gained security by doing all the familiar things at the accustomed times even when I wasn't there. Thanks to modern technology, I was able to receive calls from my children on my cell phone, even from the hospital or doctor's office, or while on the road (I drove over 12,000 miles in the six months before my mother's death commuting between our two cities). I sent emails when I wasn't available until midnight, and my children read them upon waking in the morning. The children's teachers gave extra hugs and understanding. And my wonderful friends were always available to provide a ride or an afternoon of supervision when needed.

I prayed for the ability to do things the way my mother wanted, to be sensitive to her needs. I knew it would only be selfish to pray for her life to be prolonged, so I asked for strength instead. My mother was writing a book when she died and was not able to finish. However, as she drew closer to death she seemed to have only one foot in this world and didn't care as much about what had been left undone. She did see her editors a few days before she died and was able to give them instructions on how to finish the last chapter. I was able to send the manuscript off for copyright before she died, and she relaxed considerably after that errand was completed.

Often I was called upon in those last days to be my mother's "legs" and I actually spent a lot of time running errands that were important to her. I guess that says something about the complexity of modern life, but I tried to take the attitude that if she wanted something done I would try to do it and do it her way! I tried to be sure she had a chance to speak to the loved ones (including me) she wanted, and to gently kept the others away. I also made sure she had antibiotics and other medications when she needed them and pain relief she could tolerate. I learned to try to get what she needed on the weekdays, because the weekend on-call nurse really didn't know my mom and her idiosyncrasies.

Her death was very peaceful, judging from her expression and body posture. I wasn't in the room when she died. I had gone to run errands and take a dinner break. The in-patient unit called me and I was allowed to spend plenty of time with my mother's body in her hospice room. Nothing was hurried. Since that time I have donated artwork my mother did to TMC Hospice which has been used in their fund raising activities. She would be so happy to know that she has helped the organization which gave her so much."

Notes for Donald Jack Sinnock:

Rushville Times, about January 19, 1956

A fire early Friday evening resulted in critical burns to Pulaski VanOrder, 82, in whose quarters the fire started, and also caused heavy damage to the two-story frame structure.

Generation 13 (con't)

Quick action by Don Sinnock, who discovered the fire as he was leaving from work shortly before 5:30, averted an even greater loss. He noticed smoke pouring out of the windows at the rear of the building where VanOrder lived. He had seen VanOrder walking back to his quarters just a few minutes before. Sinnock stopped his car at once, instructed his wife to call the fire department, and entered the front of the house. Smoke was too thick for breathing and Sinnock could hear groans at the rear. He went across the alley for help from Vassar Vancil, who was working in that building, and the two men entered the VanOrder rooms through a window which they tore loose. Despite the heavy smoke and heat, they located the injured man from his groans and literally dragged him out through the window. It was obvious that VanOrder was badly burned and he was given emergency treatment on the scene by Dr. Russell Dohner and then rushed to the Culbertson Memorial hospital where he lived until early Saturday morning. The Rushville fire department answered the call promptly and had the towering flames as shown in the picture under control in a matter of minutes. There was little wind that evening and the bulk of the damage was confined to the rear of the building. VanOrder was removed from the south side of the building where the fire is shown to be most intense. The picture was taken at the height of the fire. Damage to the rear of the building was almost complete. An explosion from an undetermined source occurred during the early stages of the fire and blew out the window lights in the from of the downstairs rooms.

Generation 13 (con't)

From Lesley Miller, William's Daughter:

Born @ 2 Beckford Place, Newington; Died Brisbane Queensland Australia : Ashes Scattered in 1990; Occupation: Plumber; Cause of death: Left Ventricular Failure / Ischaemic Heart Disease / Hypertension / COAD - Chronic Obstructive Airway disease. In his early life he smoked 100 cigarettes a day!!!! His cause of death says it all!

Was in the Army during WW2 from 1938 and officially discharged September 1946. He served in Africa and Europe and was a tank driver. Favourite place he saw during this time was Austria, oh, and some of the French girls!!!!!! Yes, he was married, but a long way from home.

Body sent to the School of anatomy upon his death, where it remained for two years. Ashes returned to family in 1990, upon which they were scattered.

Family moved to Australia in 1956. Parents thought it would be a good, healthy place to bring up the family. Sailed on the S.S. Strathaird and came via the Suez Canal. That was interesting as we made the slow voyage along the Suez, a lot of us sitting on the ships railings with our legs dangling over the sides as we watched women washing their clothes in the canal. They were very friendly and stopped to wave to us. Stopped at Fremantle, Western Australia but had to stay a night because the weather was too rough to continue. Landed in Melbourne, Australia 17 June 1956. We were known as 10-pound Poms (or 10-pound tourists, or 10-pound Brits), the British citizens who immigrated to Australia in the fifties and sixties under an assisted passage scheme, which cost 10-pounds for adults. Those under 18 were free. The family at the time (William Richard, Vera Lillian, Yvonne Carol, Vivienne Kay, Keith Dudley, Sandra Cheryl, and Lesley Marilyn) were all lodged at the Exhibition Building in Melbourne for the first two nights after our arrival and then we were transferred to the Brooklyn Hostel. There the family stayed for two years until housing became available. Ghastly place. Accommodation consisted of a half of a Nissan Hut (lengthways). These Nissan huts were constructed of corrugated iron with bare timber flooring, no lining on the walls or ceilings and were unbearable in the extremes of hot and cold weather. The community dining hall was located adjacent to a Slaughter House! Needless to say many a meal 'returned' on the way back out of the dining room; for those with stomachs strong enough to have made their way in of course in the first place. Summers were particularly aromatic! Glenn Richard was born while we were still living in Brooklyn and he didn't really eat properly until we left the place. Washing of bed linen was done every Friday. The bottom sheet was removed and the top sheet moved to the bottom. A clean sheet was provided for the top. Delightful! What a welcome to Australia!!!! When we did finally have a house in 1958 there was no sewerage. My Mum was absolutely appalled and wondered what on earth sort of place she had come to. The toilet was a disgusting shed up the back yard and the 'night men' used to change the container once a week. All sorts of ghastly crawling things lived in the shed too. We didn't get sewerage until 1960. Horrid.
LMM.

I assume Martin of the Civil Registration Index of Births and White pages is the son of E. A. Harvey Sinnock, from his letter because of rarity of the name, geographic proximity to Brighton and compatible age.

Martin made quite a name for himself in the field of Congolese music, with numerous internet sites mentioning his musical skills and knowledge. The following is a quote from an internet posting on Africambianc.org under the discussion group entitled "Martin Sinnock aka MS" by alicia.

I know everyone has been missing Martin Sinnock aka MS as much as I have wondering what happened to him. Happily he sent me an email this morning. MS has retired from forums since Congolese Music has taken a downward trend. What MS has been doing though is something I am sure we would all enjoy. Martin is in the process of a large move. In his own words he wrote.....Quote: "I sold my flat and bought a large 3 bedroom house. It is located in a small harbour town . It is perched on a cliff face, under an old military fort and overlooks the harbour entrance and out across the bay and out to sea. The view is spectacular, the house is immaculately fitted out and the location is peaceful. This has been the best life-change I could have made. This all coincided with the "death" of Congolese music. I reached the point where I could find very little of interest in any of the new releases. Having felt that I had said more than enough over the last 25 years about the older releases I decided to withdraw from the forums. There are plenty of others that are capable of keeping the discussions going. However I increasingly found that the subjects had all been discussed before. I also put my radio show on hold whilst making the house move.

Two Martin L. R. Sinnocks are found in Civil Registration one born 1953 the other in 1961, both Brighton, both to mother with maiden name of "Norton"; they may be the same individual or brothers with a different middle name. I suspect only the one born in 1953 may exist. Martin's Facebook profile indicates he graduated Grammer School in 1971. Assuming an 18 year old age at graduation, viola, 1953.

- ii. MARTIN L. R. SINNOCK¹¹⁹ was born or baptized about Mar 1961 in Brighton District, East Sussex, England¹¹⁹.

Two Martin L. R. Sinnocks are found in Civil Registration one born 1953 the other in 1961, both born in Brighton, both to a mother with maiden name of "Norton"; they may be the same individual or brothers with different middle names. I suspect only one Martin exists because I can find no other reference to a second Martin, though numerous references are available for Martin born in 1953, the Congolese music man. However, I have kept the entry for this Martin, because the Civil Registration Index rarely has drastic duplicate errors.

Its me, compiler of this database and other family information for Sinnocks, Obears, Hills, Barbers, Carters, and Beers. I have worked on this database from 1994 to at least 2014; Top student and athlete since first grade, Gold Key and Spur awards at Cheley Camp, HS Valedictorian and Indiana All Star Basketball Team; Kappa Sigma fraternity, world traveler, student, long-haired spy on the hippies (nothing there), scientist, family man, entrepreneur, bankrupted, imprisoned, insane (bi-polar), computerphile, retired, long-haired again, reclusive philosopher, and free the whole time, even in prison.

Occupation Notes:

Hired away from Sandia by TRW Inc. the Management and Operating contractor of US Dept. of Energy's Yucca Mountain Project. DOE spent, at the end, $400 million per year on this failed (as of 2012) project. Perhaps I was "lured" away from Sandia to help "break apart" a potential competitor, though offering me opportunity as well. I spent 17 years on that failed effort and learned that rationality does not much influence social-political decisions regarding people's fears; fears for their jobs, and their and their family's health and safety. We kill thousands each year with coal wastes yet won't use nuclear because its wastes might kill hundreds, not now, but a million years from now. Crazy.

My entire 17 year career as a scientist-manager was working on the Yucca Mountain nuclear waste repository site in southern Nevada, a project that despite my gallant efforts failed in a political deal after playing upon cultural fears of radiation and the associated lack of "certainty" in assuring safety by scientific models of earth's behaviour for millions of years, costing billions of dollars of ever increasing rate-payer support just to study it "some more to perhaps achieve that elusive yet undefined level of 'needed' certainty". Somebody, somewhere, sometime in the next million or so years might get cancer from radiation resulting from human use of nuclear energy, and THAT is not acceptable! With that kind of expectation, it is no wonder the project failed.

Residence Notes:

Notes for Susan Lynn Carter:

My wonderful wife of 27 years. 1980 Outstanding Young Woman of America and so much, much more. I love you Susie.

Name Notes:

Confirmation name "Mary"

Marriage Notes: (Susan Lynn)

We were married in the home of Susie's parents' immediately following a blizzard with eight inches or so of dry, blowing and drifting snow. It seemed to me that my parents, sister, and I were about the only ones on the road during the 60 mile hazardous drive to the wedding in Speedway from my parents' home in New Castle that clear, crisp, windy, still drifting morning. Susie maintained that we arrived late and she thought we weren't coming; I don't remember being late, only being there after such a hectic drive. Nearly all invited guest, about 20 or so, also showed up having fought the snow-bound traffic in Indianapolis. Some came from as far as Michigan, though they beat the blizzard's arrival.

Notes for Sue Ellen Brooks:

A tryst with Sue in the summer of 1966 while attending Davidson College summer school to re-establishing my qualifications to re-enter Davidson on a basketball scholarship, after quitting the team and school the year before, led to Sue's pregnancy. She filed a paternity suit against me in 1967. The cad that I am, I just played basketball for Lefty, the coach, while some slick lawyer alumnus, put his hand on my shoulder and said "Don't you worry about a thing, son, you just play ball and we'll take care of everything" I did, but soon quit basketball and Davidson for the second time. I got a letter from Sue about three years later with a picture of my son Robert. I was advised by my father, a lawyer, at the time, "ignore it", so I did. In 1996, I received a phone call from someone claiming to be Robert. I sent a long letter to the address he gave, a PO Box in Dalridge, Tennessee, and have heard nothing of him since (2012)

Notes for Lynn Kaegi:

The following essay was written by Lynn McKeever, whose Mom, Roberta Sinnock, died in 1998 at the age of 73.

My Mother's pulmonologist is the one who referred her to Tucson Medical Center Hospice. His timing was excellent, and I am sure he used his extensive experience well in my Mother's case. He had just performed her second thoracentesis, or lung tap, and knew she could not live much longer. She died four months later.

Hospice care is appropriate for the patient with a limited life-span (less than six months to live according to their physician). While curative treatment ends when hospice care is chosen, relief of pain and symptom management continues, provided by experts in the relief of suffering. Emotional support is offered as well, not only to the dying individual, but to the family as well. Just sharing time with the professionals who knew about dying and did not shy away from our emotions and concerns was useful to my mother and to me.

It would be hard to overstate the value of the TMC Hospice to our family. A nursing supervisor visited us at my Mother's home within a day or two of the referral, bringing with her lots of paperwork and taking plenty of time to explain hospice services. It seemed to me that the hospice staff always had time to answer questions, hold hands and dry tears, in sharp contrast to other, more harried, medical personnel we encountered. It helped that we were referred early, we really got to know our nurse and social worker, and my mom had time to develop a relationship of trust with them and with the volunteer assigned to her.

Most people don't realize that if they are lucky enough to get a chance at a new drug or treatment for their disease they are able to leave hospice care and return to traditional medicine. I think more people would use hospice if they understood their options. Some do shy away from the finality of accepting hospice care, but should know that hospice staff will help them reach a state of acceptance and peace. Under hospice care the focus shifts from the medical prolongation of life to the individual, her comfort, dignity and concerns.

Our hospice provided a full range of services, from weekly nurse visits to social worker check-ins to home health care and finally in-patient hospice care for the last two weeks of my mother's life. While certainly optimal, all those services are just not available everywhere. The best way I know of to choose a hospice is to simply call, talk to the nurses, discover if a rapport exists. It is most important for the patient to do this, if possible, even though hospice services are really for the entire family. If you have a physician you are happy with, ask him or her which hospice he is affiliated with.

At first it was hard for me to talk with our nurse and social worker because I was trying so very hard to be brave and I knew I was facing serious responsibilities. I had already been through months of dealing with medical personnel who were often difficult and unresponsive. Gradually I learned to relax a bit, and by the time my mom went into the in-patient unit I felt completely supported and cared for. I had learned that Nurse Sally could get my mom to take medication much more successfully than I could, that volunteer Shirley could take her for x-rays when I couldn't be there, and that at hospice there were people who could give my mom love and caring.

At the in-patient unit, which was exclusively for hospice patients, the nurses were so very helpful in helping me to understand the dying process and they were willing to share their experience with me. I will always be grateful to the nurse who said to me, as I was getting ready to go home for a few days, "Don't worry about your mom. She hasn't started reaching yet, she will be with us for a few more days". Sure enough, the day after my return she was reaching out frequently, and speaking to her own mother. I knew she was doing what most other patients do, and that she was among staff who understood. The volunteers were wonderful too, providing the extra care and companionship my mother needed when I couldn't be there.

During this time we tried to prepare our 11 and 8 year old children for Grandma's death. Because she focused on her own quality of life, and gave us a marvelous example of facing death with courage and the ability to enjoy each day and each person she met, we did not go into "Grandma is dying" with our children until her death was imminent. Our older child did figure out what was going on on his own, and we tried to answer his questions honestly. We did tell them both, a few months before Hospice came into the picture, that "Grandma has a disease that the doctors can't fix". After my frequent absences to care for her, I was careful not to say that she was better, but only feeling better.

Our younger child was sad that she didn't get to go to the hospice unit to say goodbye, but the distances involved, and my mother's wish not to upset the children made that impossible. Although I wish that had been different, there was a reality I had to face through this entire experience: you can't care for a dying elderly parent and young children at the same time. You can take turns, you can leave each in the care of loving individuals to see to the other, but you simply can't fulfil a child's needs from a hospital room in a far-away city and you can't be the one to take Mother to the doctor 250 miles away on the day of the school play. We have to be satisfied with our best effort.

Several factors helped me in my juggling act. My husband had lost both his parents rather suddenly, and so was very supportive of me and did all he could during my absences. My children were used to our daily routine, and so gained security by doing all the familiar things at the accustomed times even when I wasn't there. Thanks to modern technology, I was able to receive calls from my children on my cell phone, even from the hospital or doctor's office, or while on the road (I drove over 12,000 miles in the six months before my mother's death commuting between our two cities). I sent emails when I wasn't available until midnight, and my children read them upon waking in the morning. The children's teachers gave extra hugs and understanding. And my wonderful friends were always available to provide a ride or an afternoon of supervision when needed.

I prayed for the ability to do things the way my mother wanted, to be sensitive to her needs. I knew it would only be selfish to pray for her life to be prolonged, so I asked for strength instead. My mother was writing a book when she died and was not able to finish. However, as she drew closer to death she seemed to have only one foot in this world and didn't care as much about what had been left undone. She did see her editors a few days before she died and was able to give them instructions on how to finish the last chapter. I was able to send the manuscript off for copyright before she died, and she relaxed considerably after that errand was completed.

Often I was called upon in those last days to be my mother's "legs" and I actually spent a lot of time running errands that were important to her. I guess that says something about the complexity of modern life, but I tried to take the attitude that if she wanted something done I would try to do it and do it her way! I tried to be sure she had a chance to speak to the loved ones (including me) she wanted, and to gently kept the others away. I also made sure she had antibiotics and other medications when she needed them and pain relief she could tolerate. I learned to try to get what she needed on the weekdays, because the weekend on-call nurse really didn't know my mom and her idiosyncrasies.

Her death was very peaceful, judging from her expression and body posture. I wasn't in the room when she died. I had gone to run errands and take a dinner break. The in-patient unit called me and I was allowed to spend plenty of time with my mother's body in her hospice room. Nothing was hurried. Since that time I have donated artwork my mother did to TMC Hospice which has been used in their fund raising activities. She would be so happy to know that she has helped the organization which gave her so much.

I assume children born in the Lewisham area in the 1990's are all Keith William's and Linda Goodreds because of the rarity of the last name, a few repeated first and middle names, the Lewisham common location, and no other known Sinnocks having children in the area at the time. Notes for Mark Nicholas Milton:

Mark sent me a GEDCOM database of nearly 20,000 individuals many, perhaps most of which were his ancestors and their descendants, the Sinnocks being a no small part of that family connection, accounting for nearly 1800 individuals, though many of those Sinnocks have not been connected to Mark's, and thus my family (descendants of the ancestors of Elias Sinnock and Margery Frankwell). I manually merged the records of Marks' and my databases for all 1800 Sinnocks and their spouses. I based many items, new and revised, on Mark's data, which accessed some census and Sussex county records among others that I have not seen. In most cases the records were complimentary. If the record from Mark's database was something I had no data for, such as a person, a date, or an event, and the record was compatible with my existing records, I copied it directly. If there was overlap, I went back to original sources where possible and modified my records as appropriate. In all, I added or, occasionally amended, nearly 500 records from Mark's database, thank you. Though Mark's database identified further sources for many of the items I used, I cited Mark's database itself as my record source, commonly copying an extract of the original source from Mark's database. I only include Mark's direct line to Sinnocks here, through Harriet, daughter of John Sinnock and Mary Roads, who married Edward Bodle. Some other Sinnocks he and I encountered during searches of our Sinnock side are also included in both our databases.

Other Files and Documents

Files documenting various aspects of the Sinnock family are available on DVD at the Quincy library as the first page of the Sinnock Family Source Documents compilation or downloadable from www.sinnock.org. Files listed below indicate the original format in which they were created. These formats are editable (2015) using the appropriate programs on Microsoft Windows 8.1 operating system of a personal computer: Family Tree Maker for *.ftm; Microsoft Word 2013 for *.docx; Microsoft Excel 2013 for *.xlsx; and Adobe Illustrator CS5 for *.ai. Some files may ask for a password to allow editing. The password for all files is “Sinnock”, cap first letter. The naming convention of beginning file names with our family name is intended for file search and organization purposes, keeping all our family files together.

All *.docx, *.xlsx, and *.ai files are available as .pdf files which are more easily viewed using Adobe Reader, freely available from many sites on the internet in 2015. Database files from Family Tree Maker (.ftm) are available as GEDCOM (*.ged) files compatible with most genealogical computer programs.

Adobe Illustrator files (*.ai) listed here are often summary files containing multiple “pages” or drawings corresponding to individual Ancestor Diagrams, Descendant Trees, Cemetery Maps, Coats-of-Arms, and Migration Maps. Single pages or selected features were often extracted as separate *.pdf files, often for use as figures in one or more *.docx files listed here. All such extracted files are also available as *.pdf files at the Quincy library or www.sinnock.org.
